Costly Clothes

Is not the greatest pleasure. Rather pay a reasonable price for something you know to be good, than pay a high price for something you think—but don't know—may possibly be better.

It does not necessarily follow when our customary January Reduction Sale takes place, that good dressers want the commonest grade of Clothes that lack fit, finish and style. What we think is wanted to induce buyers in dull months is THE BEST we can make for THE LEAST MONEY—in fact CHEAPER THAN AT ANY OTHER TIME. Therefore, that's why we are now charging only—

KILLED HER HUSBAND

The Maybrick Case Repeated at Yokohama.

MRS. CAREW SENTENCED TO DEATH

A Bank Clerk Figured in the Case—Talk of an Imperial Conference When the Colonial Premiers are in London—Countess Cowley Gets Her Divorce—Cable News.

London, Feb. 1.—A despatch from Yokohama says that the trial of Mrs. Carew, charged with causing the death of her husband, Walter Raymond Hallowell Carew, secretary of the Yokohama United Club, by administering arsenic, has ended in her conviction, and she was sentenced to death today. The sentence is subject to revision by the British Minister. The trial began on Jan. 5.

The case, which was known as the "Yokohama Maybrick case," excited much interest owing to the extraordinary details brought out at the trial. Mrs. Carew was born in Cornwall, while her husband was a native of Somersetshire. The couple were married in 1889, and lived quietly in a village in Cornwall. In 1890 Mr. Carew and his wife went to Japan, where the former husband engaged as manager of the Yokohama Club. There they were received in the best society, and Mrs. Carew received no small reputation as an amateur actress. About the middle of October last Mrs. Carew summoned the family physician to attend her husband, who was very ill. The physician prescribed what he thought were the proper remedies, but Mr. Carew became worse, and was eventually taken to the Marine Hospital, where he died in agony a short time after his admission.

The funeral, which had been arranged, was delayed by the hospital authorities, who were not satisfied as to the cause of death, and a post mortem examination was made. An analysis of the viscera was also made and this revealed the presence of arsenic. The Carews had in their employ a nursery governess named May Jacob, whose statements first aroused suspicion in the case. She said that she had frequently been sent by Mrs. Carew to a chemist's for arsenic and sugar of lead.

She made a sworn statement as follows:

The chemist did not ask me for a doctor's certificate before giving the poisons to me. The order was written on a piece of paper by Mrs. Carew. The Japanese who sold the medicine asked why we bought so much deadly poison. I replied that I did not know; I did not know that any had been bought before. He told me that some had been bought the day before and the day before that also, and would I inform my mistress to be careful how she used it. I did not report the conversation to Mrs. Carew, but I told Mr. Perch, her brother. I do not think he understood my drift at all. I think he only considered it as impertinence on the part of the man, and he remarked on the insolence of the clerk in questioning me at all. Only the children were present at this conversation in the dining room. I did not mention anything to Mrs. Carew.

My suspicions were aroused by the conversation of the chemist. I had been told that deceased was sick and was in great pain. When I was sent to buy arsenic I wondered a great deal all the way home. I do not think anyone helped Mrs. Carew in nursing her husband. Servants may have fetched and carried for her, but I think she had all the nursing herself. I was out of the house so much with the children that I knew very little about the matter. Mr. Perch was always in and out. When at home he used to go into the room of the deceased to inquire how he was.

Mr. Perch, the brother, testified that he had often seen his sister giving medicine to her husband. Other testimony showed that the deceased had been in the habit of taking arsenic in considerable quantities to relieve pain resulting from a chronic ailment. It was further shown that during his illness three ounces of Fowler's solution of arsenic had been consumed in the Carew household within three days. Mrs. Carew threw an air of mystery about the case by suggesting that a "veiled woman" might have had something to do with the poisoning. She told a story about a woman said to be named Annie Luke, with whom Mr. Carew had had a liaison, and who was supposed to be the veiled woman. This woman, she said in substance, had followed Mr. Carew to Japan, and letters signed "Annie Luke" and addressed to him and others were read. In one letter to a Mr. Lowder the writer said: "I do not know you, but I gather you will be acting for the wife of him who was all to me. I am going to follow him. I do not see why I should let a silly, innocent woman suffer. By the time you get this I shall be on my way to join him, my twin soul. Let his mother look after the boy."

Another feature of the case was the very friendly relations that appeared to have existed between Mrs. Carew and Mr. Dickens, a member of the Hong Kong Bank's branch at Yokohama. Letters from him showed that he was advising Mrs. Carew to apply for a divorce, when he would marry her.

The coroner's jury returned an open verdict, but the feeling on the matter was that the case could not be disposed of in this way without further enquiry, and the warrant for the arrest of the widow was issued. She was placed on trial before the British Consular Court. During the proceedings in this court one of the letters put in as evidence was found to have disappeared, and, after a prolonged search, it was found concealed in the crape trimming of one of Mrs. Carew's sleeves. Thereupon her counsel threw up the case, which was subsequently conducted by other counsel.

It was shown that quarrels between Mr. and Mrs. Carew about money and other matters were of frequent occurrence, and Mr. Dickens, who is a clerk in the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, said that was an excuse for her to procure a divorce. The latter testified, however, that he had learned subsequently that Mrs. Carew had deceived him regarding her alleged illtreatment by her husband.

While the trial was in progress much excitement was caused by the arrest of the governess, May Jacobs, on the charge of murder, it being alleged that she was the author of the "Annie Luke" letters. Sympathy was with her, however, and a fund was started to meet the expenses of her defence if she was placed on trial. The evidence against Mrs. Carew, however, upset the theory that Miss Jacobs was a murderess, and, as the former has been declared guilty, the latter will now be given her liberty.

LEFT IT MEANINGLESS.

London Press Comments on the Action of the U. S. Senate Committee.

London, Feb. 1.—The Globe, commenting on the modifications of the arbitration treaty, says: "The Foreign Committee of the United States Senate has left the treaty meaningless, and it would be discreditable to the commonsense of the Senate if that body should approve the treaty as it has been altered."

The Westminster Gazette says: "The jingo majority seek to destroy the treaty."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The committee is doing its best to make hay with the treaty. It has not dared to brave public opinion in withholding its approval absolutely, but it has left the treaty without value."

STILL ANOTHER CABLE.

Negotiations in Progress for a Wire to the British West Indies

London, Feb. 1.—In the House of Commons to-day Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, stated that negotiations for the construction of a British West Indies cable are in progress, and that a French cable laid by a Franco-American company would compete with the British cable.

Mr. Chamberlain also said that the question of an Imperial conference to continue the work of the Ottawa conference, to take place when the Colonial Premiers came to London, to be present at the Queen's jubilee next June, was under consideration.

Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour introduced the Educational bill mentioned in the Queen's speech at the opening of the session as "A measure for the promotion of primary education by securing the maintenance of voluntary schools." The bill, he said, was limited to a simple measure relating to voluntary schools. The scheme formulated in 1896, he said, had collapsed because it was too comprehensive. Reform in education must be dealt with piecemeal, and it was now proposed that the State grant to voluntary schools five shillings per child, which, in the aggregate, would amount to £616,500 annually.

The fight in Forfarshire has been a remarkable one, and the excitement has been intense since Captain Sinclair's arrival from Canada. A snowstorm prevailed all day long and Saturday, and the drifts were deep, but the enthusiasm of the voters was not influenced by the weather. Many of them tramped many miles through the snow, and voters came all the way from Cumberland and London, and even from Ireland. Bands of plowmen and bleachers marched in procession to the polling booths. Lord Haddo actively canvassed in the interest of Captain Sinclair. The Westminster Gazette, commenting on the victory of Captain Sinclair, says that very few candidates could have overcome the difficulties faced by him when he returned from Canada to contest the seat, adding: "The Liberals feared the result of the peculiar circumstances of Mr. White's retirement."

A Motor For High Speed.

At least one large firm manufacturing dynamos and motors is, says the American Engineer, at work upon a motor that will run at a speed of 10,000 revolutions per minute. This motor, if it can be successfully constructed, will be used by the United States Government on men-of-war to start the propelling machinery of Howell torpedoes just before they are fired from their tubes. This torpedo is propelled by the energy stored in a small flywheel inside of it, made to revolve at a speed of 10,000 revolutions, and at present a steam turbine is the only motor of simple form that is available to rotate the fly-wheel at that speed.

PREMIER AT ORILLIA

No Building Large Enough to Hold the Crowds.

ELOQUENT AND PATRIOTIC WORDS

The Government Will Seek Better Trade Relations With the United States, But Will Not Go Back on Old England Rally at Penetang at Night.

Orillia, Ont., Feb. 1.—(Special.)—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier spoke to-day in the opera house to an audience of 1300 people. Hundreds of people were unable to gain admission and an overflow meeting was held in Shaftesbury Hall, where the Premier spoke again for a few minutes. When Mr. Laurier arrived at 12.20 p.m. on the Northern he was met by an immense crowd of people, who gave him an ovation. The town band played, and Mayor Sanderson was present in his official capacity to welcome the distinguished campaigner. A mounted guard of honor preceded the Premier's sleigh up town, and then followed a long procession of vehicles.

There was not room for another soul in the opera house when the Premier rose to speak. Most of the rooms in the schools had taken a half-holiday. Visitors were present from Huntsville and points north of it, and from all over the district. The opera house was decorated with mottoes and bunting and the Reform choir, under Dr. Moore, did valiant service in the cause. Besides the Premier, Mr. H. H. Cook, the Liberal candidate; Hon. William Mulock and Dr. Coulter of Aurora spoke. Mr. William Harvey was chairman.

The Premier definitely stated his platform, "Better trade relations with the United States," and announced his readiness to stand or fall by it. His Canadianisms and British connection references seemed to be the most taking part of his remarks.

Mr. Laurier was greeted with prolonged cheering on rising to speak. He said that he was to have spoken in Orillia two years ago, but was prevented through the sudden calling together of Parliament by the then Premier. However, it was only a deferred pleasure and a greater one now, inasmuch as then he would have been talking against the Government, while now he was talking for it. As regards Mr. Cook, the Liberal candidate, he would not say that he was his ideal of a candidate, for Mr. Cook had said a few days ago that if he found the Liberals doing wrong at Ottawa he would vote against them and turn them out. [Laughter.]

Of Mr. Bennett, the Conservative candidate, he said that his associations with him on the floor of the House had always been of the friendliest and he had only one fault to find with him and that was that he voted the wrong way. Mr. Bennett, however, had talked not of politics, but was trying to get votes through sympathy. He had tears for the Patrons and tears for himself, as he had been deprived of his seat by the trifling act of an agent paying a voter a small sum. If such were the case, Mr. Bennett had been hung for a lamb instead of a sheep, but he believed that if the trial had been concluded they would have found a very big black sheep.

It was not a question of the personality of the two candidates, however, but a question as to whether East Simcoe was going to support the present administration or go back to the old regime. Speaking of Government affairs, he denied the charge that Mr. Bennett had made that the Government were buying more private cars for the use of their members. They had been in power for seven months, and in that time they had installed a system of cold storage wherewith to keep perishable goods, and this would be of vast benefit to the farmers. They had now as Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Sydney Fisher, a practical farmer, not a kid-glove farmer, but a man who earned his bread by the toil of his hands.

Through Mr. Fisher's efforts the Government had just had the embargo against Canadian cattle removed by the United States, and he wished to state here that the policy of the Government would be that of more intimate trade relations with the United States. Whenever this was spoken of there was always a cry of "treason" from the Conservatives, but nevertheless that was the Government's policy. They were not going to approach their neighbors to the South in a cringing manner, asking for favors, or as annexationists, but as Canadians and as British subjects looking for friendly trade relations between the two countries.

His instructions to any commission which he may send will be to approach the American Government in that spirit, but if they expect or hope for us to go back on Old England, then we will have to close all negotiations. Referring to the tariff reform, he said that the Government wanted more information and hence the commission. He did not believe that a protective tariff was a benefit to the people at large, although industries are built up. Still, the revision of the tariff would be on lines that would not disturb a single existing industry in this country.

As regards the school question, he had heard that Mr. Foster was not satisfied with the terms of the settlement. He did not expect to satisfy everybody, Mr. Foster least of all. There were only two ways in which the question could have been settled: coercion or conciliation. The Conservative Government had tried the former for six years without success, while they had settled it in less than six months. Mr. Foster had one cry for Ontario, that he was through with the school question, but he had another for Quebec, where the French Conservative papers are still crying for Remedial Legislation. The speaker said that he could have had a ma-

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson on the Death of Their Little Mary, who Died January 13th, 1897.

"She is not dead but sleepeth."

On the 13th day of January,
While friends around did weep,
She calmly passed away,
In Jesus fell asleep.

Happy child so soon ascended,
With thy shining raiment on,
With only eleven short summers ended—
With a crown so quickly won.

Gone so soon, aye gone and left you,
Left her little sister dear;
Gone to wear a crown of glory,
In that land that knows no tear.

Oh parents dear, don't weep for her,
Your darling that was dearest,
Think of Mary as a saint above,
And to the throne the nearest.

You miss her footstep on the floor,
Amidst the household din;
You miss that merry laugh of hers,
With its happy joyous ring.

Restrain thy tears, dear mother,
And learn this lesson still;
That God who gives can take away,
Blest be His holy will.

With beckoning hand she seems to say.
"Dear father, mother, come!
Little Mary is happy here
With Jesus ever more."

In the family plot at Apsley
Her dust doth gently lies,
But her spirit is with Jesus
In the angel-crowded skies,

—A FRIEND.

"God Save the Queen."

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. If there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood the only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists digestion by stimulating the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition; purifies and enriches the blood and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, health flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state.

THEY CONDEMN THE TREATY.

Solons of New York State, in Their Wisdom, Decide That it is Unnecessary and Embarrassing.

Albany Feb. 1.—In the Assembly today the following resolution was offered and laid on the table under the rules:

"Resolved, If the Senate concur, that we request the Senators representing New York in the Congress of the United States to oppose and place on record their condemnation of the proposed treaty of arbitration between the National Government and that of Great Britain.

"Be it further resolved, if the Senate concur, that we regard this treaty as unnecessary, and calculated to embarrass our Government in its enforcement of the Monroe doctrine and in its relations with other powers."

FROM $5 TO $500.

Carl Bauer is Said to Have Raised a Cheque, Got the Cash and Skipped Out.

Toronto, Feb. 2.

Carl Bauer has left Toronto. He went without leaving his future address or telling his destination. His departure is due to the fact that he is wanted on a charge of raising a $5 cheque to $500. And that he was successful was due to the carelessness of bank officials. The game that Bauer is alleged to have worked is very simple. Its simplicity, coupled with the carelessness of the bank clerks, enabled him to get away with the money.

Bauer, for the past four months, has been an agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. He kept a small personal account with the Bank of Hamilton. On Monday, Jan. 25, he announced his intention of closing his account there, and drew out the few dollars he had on deposit. He made out several small cheques, one of which was for $5. After having it marked good by the ledger-keeper, it is claimed he wrote in the word "hundred," scratched out the period after the figures five, and added two ciphers, which made it read $500.00. This cheque with others he took to the Imperial Bank at Yonge and Queen-streets, deposited it as $500, and opened an account. The following day he drew out all the money there was to his credit. When the cheque, in due course, was charged up to the Bank of Hamilton by the Imperial, it was returned marked "no funds," and then the case grew interesting. The Bank of Hamilton people had marked the cheque good, and the Imperial paid $500 for it. Neither institution is willing to admit or be responsible for the loss.

Mr. Palmer, the manager of the Metropolitan, was also tongue-tied, not that he or his company was interested in any way, but he had been asked to say nothing about the case. Bauer's accounts with the Insurance Company are perfectly straight.

Bauer is well known in the city. He was for a number of years confidential clerk for Hawley and Memberry at the old St. James' Hotel. When Mr. Hawley built the Grand Union Hotel Bauer was installed as clerk and bookkeeper, and remained there until the advent of the present proprietor. At the time the house was in financial difficulties Bauer was made receiver by the assignee. He is a married man, and lived at 57 Widmer-street. Mrs. Bauer is still in the city.

The manager of the Bank of Hamilton swore out a warrant for Bauer's arrest after he had left the city.

WOLFF WAS CRAZY.

He Shot Another Man's Wife and Put a Bullet Into His Own Head.

San Francisco, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Marie Sprinzinik, the wife of Frans Sprinzinik, was shot and killed Saturday night. There was no clue to the assassin, but suspicion was directed towards Franz Wolff, on whose account Mrs. Sprinzinik separated from her husband. Yesterday Wolff's body, with a bullet through the brain, was found in a room which he had rented a few hours before. Wolff's acquaintances stated that he frequently threatened to kill Mrs. Sprinzinik and then commit suicide. As the bullet which caused the woman's death exactly fits Wolff's pistol, the supposition is that he made good his threats.

Trees Killed Five Men.

Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 1.—While two sawyers were resting from felling a large tree, which had been cut almost through, at Jackson, Saturday afternoon, the tree came suddenly down on a cabin and crushed it flat. The three men in the cabin, Thomas Loby, Evan Davis and William Bruce, were killed outright, and Dave Marshall and Frank Slate were fatally injured. Two other men were injured, but not fatally.

Another Ashore on the Elbe.

London, Feb. 1.—The German steamer Persia, Captain Spliedt, from New York Jan. 16, reported arrived at Hamburgh Jan. 29, is ashore in the River Elbe.

GRAVEL IN THE BLADDER.

Used Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Jan. 25 (Special).—Mr. John Medill, known locally as well as far and near as a physical giant, and glorying in his strength, came to be a great sufferer and tells of his cure as follows:—

"I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me and I think it will cure others why not say so?

"It is true I had been suffering for some time with Bladder trouble, and, learning of a cure made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

"In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the highest terms of praise, for I know of many persons who have been cured by them."

The Acme Heating Drum

Is the best appliance to economize fuel. We are selling them rapidly. They pay for themselves in a short time. Read what our Citizens say:

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 70x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north; and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices. In drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. We wish to thank our customers for their patronage through the late season.

PREMIER AT ORILLIA.

forty or 50 in Quebec instead of 49 had be pandered to the passions of his fellow-countrymen.

In reference to the alien labor law he thought it unworthy of any civilized nation, and he hoped to see the United States do away with it this year, but instead he found that they were making it even stricter, so that now it was almost impossible for a Canadian to obtain work there. He would make overtures to the United States to have that law repealed, and if they refused, then, and only then, would he be in favor of putting it word for word in our own statutes.

At 5 p.m. a special train from Penetanguishene left town with the Premier aboard. He delivered an address there in French.

Penetanguishene, Ont., Feb. 1.—This has been a red-letter day for the old town of Penetanguishene. People from the towns and villages and country around for 20 miles have been coming in with the intention of seeing and hearing Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, the Premier, he being the first Premier who has ever visited the place. He arrived in company with William Mulock, Postmaster-General, and Mr. H. H. Cook about 8 p.m., and they proceeded to Mine Host C. Beck's for tea, after which they came to the halls, two of which had been arranged for, and they were filled to overflowing. The Premier was well received and made his first speech in the fire hall to a French audience, and he appealed to them for harmony and votes for Mr. Cook. He then went to Mr. McCrossen's hall and addressed the other meeting very briefly, as he had been speaking at Orillia, Coldwater, Waubaushene, Victoria Harbor and Midland. He appealed for harmony here also.

Mr. Mulock eulogized the present Government and got a good hearing. He spoke of the great benefit to be derived from the work Mr. Fisher, the Minister of Agriculture, had done in getting the quarantine regulations with the United States removed and the cold storage, which enabled so much of the Canadian farm produce to reach Great Britain. Mr. Cook spoke very briefly and asked the people to vote for him and good government.

LADY ABERDEEN'S SCHEME

For Marking the Queen's Jubilee—Victorian Order of Home Helpers.

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—(Special.)—Lady Aberdeen invited a number of press representatives to Rideau Hall this afternoon and had a very pleasant chat with them about the suggestion thrown out by Her Excellency to the National Council of Women for the formation of the Victorian Order of Home Helpers, as the most fitting manner in which the women of Canada could mark Her Majesty's diamond jubilee. Her Excellency is very much in earnest about the matter and is greatly pleased at the favorable reception her proposal has met with from the press and the public. She has received an immense number of letters of approval of the scheme and some material assistance, one lady enclosing a cheque for $100, and many others offering smaller sums. A gratifying feature is the interest taken in the matter by the medical profession, many of whom have volunteered their advice and assistance. In the course of her conversation this afternoon, Her Excellency said that her scheme was still largely in embryo, but that she hoped to get it formulated and started on a practical basis at a public meeting, to be held in the Normal School, Ottawa, on the 10th inst. Her idea is that an appeal should be made to the public spirit of the country, and a fund created which would place the order on a sound financial basis at once, and enable it to offer a fair remuneration to suitable nurses, who would be appointed to sparsely settled districts, especially in the Northwest. It is not proposed to appoint nurses in the cities, and it is expected that the district applying to the Central Committee would pay one-half of the salary of the "home helper," which would mean about $100 to $125 a year to the district. The necessary training of the home helper could be best obtained through the assistance of the hospitals, and Lady Aberdeen said that she felt assured of the hearty co-operation of the Montreal and Toronto Maternity Hospitals, and she had had no doubt that other similar institutions would assist.

Asked what her idea was with respect to the size of the fund to be raised, she laughingly said that the fund could not be too large. One of the pressmen suggested that an endowment fund of one million dollars would only mean about one dollar for every family in Canada, and Lady Aberdeen said she would like the subscription to the fund to be as general as possible, and that she hoped to receive a large number of small subscriptions of one dollar or more to show that the women of Canada entered heartily into the matter. It is hoped that the order will take practical shape immediately and the first instalment of home helpers started on their errands of mercy in a few months.

Hon. Mr. Laurier has heartily approved of the scheme, and will attend the meeting on the 10th, at which His Excellency will also be present.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA

Will the Business of Parliament be Pushed Through

TO LET MR. LAURIER GO TO LONDON?

Probability That the Session Will be Over Before June — Heavy Measures Which May Stand Over Mystery as to the Cause of the Wreck on the Intercolonial.

Ottawa, Feb. 1.

The invitation to the Premier to take part in the Queen's diamond jubilee in London next June is thought to be likely to cause a change in the Government's plans for the coming session. It will be remembered that in 1893, when Sir John Thompson had to go to Paris as one of the Behring Sea arbitrators, the Liberal Opposition met the Government in a generous manner and, by facilitating the progress of public business, enabled the then Premier to leave Canada for Europe at the time appointed. If Mr. Laurier is to be present at the jubilee proceedings in London he will require to leave Canada early in June, and doubtless he would like to see the business of the session closed before he leaves. Under these circumstances, if the Government desires to close the business of Parliament by the time specified, it will be necessary for them to modify their sessional program. Already it is hinted that the tariff bill will be practicaly the only measure on the Liberal program which will be put through this year. Other measures, of course, will be introduced, but not of first-class importance. The Government will likely seek to amend the Civil Service Act and Superannuation Act, but as for any of the great measures of reform as laid down in the Ottawa program of 1893, it is held by many good Liberals that the Government need not be in any hurry about them. For instance, the question of the repeal of the Franchise Act may be relegated to one side for two or three years, and the same remark will apply to other questions which the Liberals have been advocating. A policy of "give and take" between the two parties should materially shorten the session.

His Excellency has received replies to his India Famine Fund circular to the Lieutenant-Governors, asking their assistance, from Sir Casimir Gzowski, Administrator of Ontario; Lieutenant-Governor Patterson of Manitoba; Lieutenant-Governor Howlan of Prince Edward Island, and Lieutenant-Governor Mackintosh of the Northwest Territories, all of whom promise active co-operation, and state that they are calling public meetings, appointing committees and trying to carry out the wishes of His Excellency. The three first-mentioned officers also intimate that their respective Governments will probably contribute.

The Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals has been informed of the conclusion of the inquiry into the recent wreck on the Intercolonial Railway. The track was all right and there were no broken car wheels around. The only thing in which there seems to be anything like a reason for the derailment was the way in which an express car was loaded by the Canadian Pacific Railway employes with heavy freight, meaning the consignment of copper coin from England.

The site suggested for the new Dominion rifle range in Hull has been completed. The property is regarded as one of the very best suited to the requirements and meets with favor in official circles. There is a clear stretch for firing of 2300 yards, sloping gently towards the butts. Behind where the line of targets would be ranged there is an elevation rising almost abruptly of 175 feet, leaving plenty of scope for burying in mother earth all the shots that might go over the targets. Firing could be conducted with perfect safety from the 200 yards range, while at the same time others were using the 500 and 600 yards, and others further back. Behind the butts are no dwellings within reach of stray bullets, and the land is not being utilised, so that the danger of accident is reduced to a minimum. The range is, moreover, quite as accessible as either of the two other sites mentioned.

An extra of The Canada Gazette was issued to-night, bringing into effect from to-day the cattle quarantine regulations recently agreed upon by Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and the United States authorities at Washington two or three weeks ago.

The Department of Trade and Commerce has just received from the International Customs Bureau at Brussels the modifications of the tariffs of different countries, which have gone into force recently, among them being Peru, Malta, Russia, Spain, China, Fiji, and Bermuda.

Mr. Christian Marke of the Dairy Commissioner's staff left for the Northwest to-day, having been appointed to supervise the erection of cold storage buildings in connection with new creameries, which are to be established under the special Government grant of last session.

The Tariff Committee of Canada goes to Winnipeg on Saturday next. Hon. Clifford Sifton finds it impossible to accompany them at the present time on account of pressure of work here.

The Dominion Rifle Association will hold its annual meeting here March 11, and the Dominion Artillery Association next day.

Messrs. John F. Stairs, ex-M.P., Graham Fraser and Harvey Graham of the new Glasgow Iron and Steel Works, were in town to-day on departmental business.

Mr. Tripp, Commercial Agent for Canada at Trinidad, in forwarding his monthly report to the Department of Trade and Commerce, refers at some length to the centennial celebration of the island, which is to be held commencing the 5th of this month. Trade matters in the island are pretty quiet just now.

Mr. Sifton is being deluged with schemes for populating the great Northwest.

Mr. Tarte will attend the annual dinner of the Canadian Press Association in Toronto on Thursday next.

Mr. McInnes of London, Ont., has been appointed to a position in the Immigration Department at Ottawa. His appointment will to-day.

Baby's Bib.

In the newest baby fashions the indispensable bib is glorified and the thick quilted and embroidered affair of long ago is quite done away with. The newest are of finest lawn or even silk, edged with Valenciennes lace, falling in double points or circular pieces over a soft square of white flannel, which is quite hidden from view.

Tying a Bow.

A FAMOUS MAN!

What His Researches Have Done for the World.

DR. CHASE.

All successful and distinguished men have imitators, and Dr. Chase, the well-known author of Chase's Recipe Book, proved no exception to the rule. Dr. Chase's discoveries have many pretended rivals, but no equals.

Long scientific researches produced Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Chase's Ointment, the first a certain cure for all kidney, liver, stomach, bladder and rheumatic troubles; the latter an absolute specific for chronic and offensive skin diseases. Among his other discoveries were Chase's Catarrh Cure and Chase's Linseed and Turpentine for colds and bronchitis.

During 1895 the Canadian manufacturers, Edmanson, Bates & Co., 45 Lombard street, Toronto, gave away free 500,000 samples of Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and 100,000 samples of Chase's Ointment. The return they brought proved how much they were appreciated. The same free distribution of samples will be continued during 1896. Those at a distance should enclose a 5-cent stamp and also receive a sheet of the latest music in return.

Mind Reading.

To do do this trick will appear at first to the outsider hard to perform; so it is until you know how, then it is comparatively simple. First tie a large silk handkerchief, folded twice, over some person's eyes. Pass your hands over his face once or twice, and gently smooth his forehead. Then quietly ask him where he can get the best groceries at reasonable prices, and if he is possessed of ordinary common sense he will answer without hesitation: From R. BROWN & Co., 394 George street, Importers of Groceries, Wines and Liquors.

THE FRONTENACS TIE THE PETERBOROUGHS

IN A HOTLY-CONTESTED MATCH AT THE RINK.

The Visitors were a Speedy Aggregation and Almost too Much for the Peterborough Intermediates—Fast, Clean Play and a Battle Royal on the Charlotte Street Ice.

About six hundred hockey enthusiastics at the rink last night drank their fill of the game, and were almost intoxicated with delight by the clean fast work of both the visiting and local teams. Such a game was probably never witnessed on Peterborough ice before. The combination of both teams was well nigh perfect, and almost every minute saw a cyclone rush from one end of the rink to the other, which would raise a cheer, to be followed by another when the defence men made a brilliant check. The Frontenacs were apparently slightly stronger on the forward line, but this can be accounted for through the fact that the rush line of the Peterboroughs have never had the opportunity of practising in the positions in which they played last night. That this was the case became apparent, not in the rush up the rink, but just at when a shot on goal was about to be made and the slightest hesitancy was fatal. At this juncture the Peterborough forwards faltered, and though the puck was kept on their opponents' goal for fully two-thirds of the time, yet the game resulted in a draw, each team scoring six points. That the local boys were well up in the game individually was shown by the way in which their combination worked the puck down the rink, but lack of team practice was apparent, as stated at the time when it was most needed The visitors, too, had the science of blocking the goal down to a fine point, and generally managed to get about three of their forwards between the sticks before the shot was made. The Peterborough forward line on the contrary were slow about returning with their checks.

Twice during the evening was the vast audience disappointed. At the start off Peterborough scored the first two games, and the crowd thought the Frontenacs were "easy," and again, although the score was a tie at half time, the well known staying powers of the Peterboroughs was depended upon to easily win the game, but it was soon ascertained that there were others who could stay just as well.

The visiting team was by far

which Kingston has ever sent up to Peterborough, representing as it did the amalgamation of the Limestones and Athletics, strengthened by some new blood of the bluest colour.

Lamb in goal gave the finest exhibition between the sticks ever seen on the local ice, and Reyner and Harty on the forward line put up a beautifully clean and scientific game.

For Peterborough Wasson did some phenomenal work in goal, being as quick as a flash in his blocking and on several occasions receiving a well earned cheer when with not a defence man in front of him he was able to defend his flags with the visiting forwards right on top of him. We were not sufficiently practiced in a game which was as close as that of last night, as on more than one occasion the rush line of the Frontenacs were able to make their shots through clear space right on the flags. Hollingshead played the position of point for all there was in it, and his relieving was characterised by a dash and sureness which won him golden opinions from those who had not seen him play before. Adams played his usual brilliant game at cover point, and in the second half his checking was the feature of the game, being so close and sharp that it kept the audience on the roar almost all the time.

The Peterborough forward line was an entirely new combination, being composed of Montgomery, Crossley, Belleghem and Lefevre. All played well, but being new to their positions, were not able to do themselves justice. A week's practice would make a wonderful difference in the work of Peterborough's intermediate team, and although the Kingston boys are doubtless faster skaters, yet the local team would in that length of time have evolved so perfect a combination as would enable them to play a winning game. The return match in Kingston on Friday next, when the Peterboroughs will be reinforced by King, Phelan and Davidson, will be a game worth seeing.

The two teams lined up last night as follows:

Peterborough.		Frontenacs.
E Wasson	goal	Geo Lamb
A Hollingshead	point	J Rigney
S Adams	cover point	J McDowall
Montgomery, Belleghem, Crossley, Lefevre	forwards	H Reyner, W Harty, J Cunningham, M Murray
P Rubidge	umpires	W Dunlap

F W Ashe, Norwood, Referee.

The puck was faced off at 8.15 and a lively scrimmage took place on centre ice, during which a couple of offsides were made.

A RUSH WAS MADE

on Peterborough's goal, but Adams brilliantly relieved and lifted the puck to the other end of the rink where some fast play took place before Crossley scored off Belleghem's pass in three minutes.

In the second game Lefevre and Crossley took the puck down the ice with a fine rush, and Belleghem scored in one half minute off Crossley's pass.

The crowd almost went wild with delight at this point, as it looked as though everything would go Peterborough's way.

The feature of the third game was Hollingshead's work at point, where he interrupted several rushes of the Frontenacs, and ably relieved the goal. They got past him once, however, and an effort was made to shove the puck and Wasson both through the goal, but Ernie had played lacrosse too often to be used in any such manner, and used his body with such good effect as to rapidly clear his flags. After eight minutes' sharp play Reyner scored the first game for the Frontenacs. Score, 2—1 in favour of Peterborough.

In the fourth game the puck was rushed up and down the ice by the forward lines for three minutes, at the end of which time Reyner tied the score.

THE PETERBOROUGH BOYS

now got down to work in earnest and a hot bombardment of the visitors flags took place, resulting in Lefevre scoring in 3 minutes.

Cunningham, however, evened the score in eight minutes. No more goals were scored before half time was called, when the score stood "three all."

There was a lightning rush into Kingston territory when the puck was again faced off, and Belleghem scored in half a minute.

"The boys are getting down to their work at last," murmured the crowd, and no one would have been surprised to see half a dozen goals scored within the next few minutes, but the fates willed otherwise, the Frontenacs evening the score through Reyner scoring in three minutes, Wasson being left with not a defense man in front of him to intercept the rush.

The game now stood four all, and Adams seemed to suddenly become imbued with the idea that the responsibility of winning the game rested on his shoulders, and the way he broke up the Frontenacs rushes and spilled their forward line around the rink

WAS A MARVEL.

The forwards also woke up and the hottest scrimmage of the evening took place in front of the Frontenacs goal, but without result, and in nine minutes the flags were relieved and with a combined rush down the ice the visitors got through the Peterborough defence and scored. Score 5—4 in favour of Frontenac.

Through the Peterborough forward line not coming back to assist the defense the goal was unprotected after Hollingshead had been lured into a corner, but Wasson made a couple of the greatest stops on record fighting for his goal, he was finally out-manoeuvred, however, and by again tallying the Frontenacs made the score 5—3 in their favour.

The fastest play of the night was now witnessed. The Frontenacs with two goals to their credit played a defense game endeavouring to block their goal, but the Peterborough men meant business now and the shots raised like hail on the visitors' goal. It took five minutes of the hottest kind of work before Belleghem scored. The Kingstons were yet one ahead, however, and there only remained a few minutes to play. In a minute and a half Crossley evened up the score, and the building rang with cheers. The whistle blew a minute later, and the match was over, being declared a tie. As the number of goals scored is taken into account in these home and home matches, Peterborough to get into the intermediate finals must win from the Frontenacs on their own ice.

One pleasant feature of the game was that every good play of the visiting team was cheered as lustily as the work of the Peterboroughs. No cleaner or more scientific game was ever seen on the local ice, but Peterborough should never again attempt to play a team which has had no practice together, with the members in the position in which they are to play.

Rigney, Reyner and Cunningham of the visiting team, are also members of the Queen's seven, so the latter cannot be a great deal stronger than the Frontenacs.

VAGRANT STONE BREAKING.

Mr. Davis, chairman, presented the report of the Joint Committee as follows:

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough:

Gentlemen,—Your Joint Committee beg leave to report that members of this committee waited on the County Council to endeavour to make an arrangement whereby prisoners committed as vagrants and for similar offences could be made to break stone. The County Council referred the matter to a committee, and by the two committees it was agreed that the town should furnish stone to the gaol, and that such prisoners committed at hard labour should be employed to break them, the broken stone to be used on the streets of the town. The town is to furnish or pay for extra guards, if they should be required, to watch the prisoners while engaged at this work. We recommend that this arrangement be approved of, and that the Street and Bridge Committee be authorised to advertise for and purchase 200 cords of stone to be delivered at the gaol, and that they be paid for on the certificate of the Street Inspector.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Chairman.

GENTLEMEN,—Your Street and Bridge Committee beg leave to report and recommend that the town accept the offer of Mr. Daniel Bellgham of the use of a lot at the corner of London and Aylmer streets for the purpose of piling stone thereon, the town to pay the taxes on the lot for the use of it, and that the Treasurer be authorized to issue a cheque to the Tax Collector for the taxes for this year on receiving a certificate from the chairman of this committee that the lot has been so used.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. B. MCWILLIAMS,
Chairman.

Report adopted.

Mr. Best presented the report of the

SEWERAGE COMMITTEE.

PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 1st, 1897.

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Sewerage Committee beg leave to report and recommend that Samuel Belcher be placed in charge of the construction of sewers this year as engineer on the usual commission.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. BEST,
Chairman.

Mr. Best in moving the adoption of the report, said that Mr. Samuel Belcher had been practically in charge of the sewerage construction, though there had been a little conflict of opinion in the past between him and the nominal engineer, through his absence in another capacity in different parts of the country. Mr. Best added that the several contractors had spoken very highly of Mr. Samuel Belcher in respect of his connection with sewerage construction.

Mr. McWilliams submitted that the matter of sewerage construction had not been maturely enough considered. He believed Mr. Belcher was a capable man, but he thought that when the committee had not decided to recommend Mr. John Belcher they should have invited applicants for the position. He gave figures to show that money had been very liberally spent for engineering services, and it was worth while to consider whether the work could not be as effectually and yet more cheaply done. Therefore applications for the services of an engineer should be asked. In regard to the general expense of our streets, Mr. McWilliams pointed out that money had been very lavishly expended. During the past ten years there had been spent upon the streets a total of $116,784 84. He submitted that if this money had been properly expended our streets would not have been in the disgraceful condition in which they now are. He pointed out that when he entered the council twenty years ago the annual expenditure on streets was $11,000 and he had it reduced to $4,000 per year and the streets were fairly looked after at that figure. But the expenditure had gradually advanced till last year the large sum of $14 867 was expended. Referring to the application of Messrs. Ranney and Innes, McWilliams said that Mr. Ranney's record was a good one on the works upon which he had been engaged in connection with the survey of the Trent Valley Canal and railway surveys. It might be claimed that he was advanced in years, but he was yet capable of active and efficient service as an engineer. If Mr. Ranney was an elderly man, his partner, Mr. Innes, was a young man high up in his profession. Besides there were other capable engineers in the town, such as Mr. Hay, who had spent his life in the town, Mr. Fitzgerald and others, who might wish to apply for the position if it were made open. He had figured up the cost of the superintendence of the next year's sewerage construction as proposed. It would amount to $2,000, and if only half the contemplated work was done, it would amount to $1,000. In addition to the cost of superintending other street work. He held that we should employ an engineer by the year, and also a first class street inspector, with experience, and he moved that the report be sent back to the committee, with instructions to ask for applications for the position of engineer.

Mr. Meldrum approved of the resolution and had great pleasure in seconding it. There were other engineers capable of doing the work required by the town. He thought the amendment of Mr. McWilliams' should go further and ask for applications and Mr. McWilliam's amendment was changed to include this suggestion.

Mr. Best challenged the correctness of Mr. McWilliam's figures. He thought they were overdrawn.

Mr. McWilliams corrected Mr. Best's misunderstanding on this point and pointed out that Messrs. Ranney & Innes would do the work more cheaply than it been done.

Mr. Neill saw no harm in trying to secure the best man for the position.

Mr. Best referred to a letter that had been printed in the evening papers in which it was asserted that no record had been kept of surveys, and that Mr. Belcher had not supplied proper records. In justice to Mr. Belcher, Mr. Best hoped the reporters would make known the fact that proper working plans, ect., were on file in the clerk's office. He further explained in answer to the letter in reference to the absence of "bench marks" that every manhole was a bench table and that by reference to the working plans any person could locate the junctions within six inches. He wished to correct the impression conveyed by the letter that there were no proper plans.

Mr. Meldrum—Are the records of the sewer levels in the town clerk's office?

Mr. Best—Everything in connection with the town sewers is in the town vault.

Mr. Meldrum said he seconded Mr. McWilliams' amendment for one reason, because Mr. Belcher was absent from town and filling the position in his absence would be to a certain extent taking an unfair advantage.

Mr. Best remarked that the reason for urgency was that the estimates for the work could be made and the special assessment placed.

Mr. McWilliams said we could get all the applications for the position of engineer in in a week and have the matter duly considered.

Mr. Davis said he was opposed to both resolutions—to Mr. McWilliams' because Mr. Belcher was absent. He spoke of his services as an engineer for twenty-five years and pointed out that advertising for a successor would be casting a stigma upon Mr. Belcher. It would not be fair play to take advantage of his absence. On similar grounds he was opposed to Mr. Best's motion, and though Mr. Best's motion should have a good deal of consideration—he had had a great deal to do with sewerage construction. He (Mr. Davis) proposed as an alternative the joint appointment of Mr. John Belcher and Mr. Samuel Belcher. No injustice would be done by this and he moved, seconded by Mr. Denne, an amendment to this effect.

Mr. Best said that this was appointing both town engineers.

Mr. McWilliams was willing that the matter should be postponed for a week and he thought it could be amicably settled when the matter was considered by a committee of the whole council. The amendment to the amendment of Mr. Davis was lost by a vote of 4 to 6, and the amendment of Mr. McWilliams carried.

A communication was read from the secretary of the Charity Board, stating that a resolution had been passed recommending the purchase of a supply of green wood for charity purposes next year.

COURT HOUSE PARK.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., appeared as one of a deputation, asking for an appropriation of $500 by the council for the care of the Court House Park. The Horticultural Society, he said, would, if the council desired it, look after the Central Park next year as well as they had done in the past. The services of the same caretaker could be utilized for both Central and Court House Park, which it was desirable should receive some attention. He had looked up the matter of the ownership of Central Park, and found that it belonged to the town, only for Park purposes. In view of the need of repairs in Court House Park it was necessary for the grant to be increased. He pointed out that the Society had given a good deal of time and attention, and with very satisfactory results, and he hoped the Council would give a liberal grant.

MRS. CHATTEN'S CLAIM.

Mr. A. E. Dixon made explanations of the manner in which Mrs. Chatten sustained serious injuries from an unfinished portion of walk on Aylmer street—a dangerous spot which was not indicated by a lantern or railed off by any barrier. In the darkness Mrs. Chatten had fallen and was much injured. She had lost the use of her right arm—a serious loss as the support of a family depended upon her work. Mrs. Chatten did not desire litigation but thought some compensation should be given her. Her expenses in connection with the accident had been about $100.

MR. SAWER'S LETTER.

Mr. McWilliams referring to Mr. Sawer's letter, said that there was no doubt that charity had been distributed in a very lax manner, help being given to parties who had no claim and who refused to work when work was offered them. The matter should be investigated to prevent imposition.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION.

Mr. McWilliams brought up the matter of street railway extension. It was in the interests of both the town and the company that the extension contemplated in the franchise should be made on McDonel street so as not to interfere with sewerage operations. From this source the company had been put to considerable inconvenience. He said that he had had a talk with Mr. Hall, one of the trustees of the Nicholls estate, and they were willing if the right of way were provided to construct a fine avenue from McDonel street to Jackson Park and on his motion, seconded by Mr. Cobb, Messrs. Best, Neill, Cobb, Meldrum and the mover were appointed a committee to confer with Messrs. Hall and McGill, the directors of the Street Railway and the property owners on the west side of the creek between McDonel street and the Park, and arrange an extension of the street railway line along McDonel street to the creek.

PLACE AUX DAMES.

Mr. McWilliams brought up the matter of a separate polling booth for lady voters at municipal elections, and Mr. Dawson pointed out the necessity of having two polling sub-divisions in Nos. One and Three Wards.

THE POLICE FORCE.

The mayor said that he had suspended a member of the police force for two weeks on account of being intoxicated on duty. This brought on an animated discussion in regard to the general efficiency of the force and the necessity of improvement. The matter was ended by Mr. Best and Mr. LePlante moving that the whole council be a committee to investigate police matters and to more strictly define the duties of the force.

The council adjourned.

The Greeks were physically perfect and beautiful because they were healthy. The man who suffers from ill-health cannot be physically robust and manly. The woman who is sickly cannot be beautiful and womanly. Most all forms of ill-health have their inception in disorders of the digestion. When the digestion is bad the blood becomes impure, and is imperfectly supplied with the food-elements that build up new and healthy tissues, and tear down, and carry away those that are inert and half-dead. The nerves are not rebuilt from day to day with new, vigorous, active fibers. Every organ, tissue, muscle and nerve in the body is half famished for healthy nutriment. Almost any disease in the category of human ills may be the result of this condition. Most frequently it is the most deadly of disorders—consumption. Sometimes it is some other wasting disease. Again, it may be scrofula or some skin disease.

There is a sure preventive and remedy for these conditions and maladies. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. It restores the lost or failing appetite and invigorates the liver. It fills the arteries with the pure, rich, red blood of health. It builds new, firm flesh, healthy, active nerve fibers, and strong elastic muscles. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, and wasting diseases. It cures nervous prostration. Druggists sell it.

The man who is too lazy or neglectful to take an occasional dose of medicine to ward off the evil effects of constipation deserves to die. And he will surely get his deserts, for constipation is the first cause of much sickness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They never gripe. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All good druggists sell them. No other pills are as good.

GENERAL CABLE NEWS.

"Countess Rossi" Has Been Acquitted on a Plea of Insanity.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The self-styled Countess Rossi, who was arrested here last month on the charge of having plundered the villa of Count Rothe at Neuilly-sur-Seine, was to-day acquitted on her plea of insanity. The "Countess" was born in Detroit, Mich., of French parents, and asserts that she was married to an Italian count, who is now dead. She has long been known in Paris and elsewhere as an adventuress. Her paramour, a man named Gaillard, who posed as her uncle and secretary, was arrested at the same time as the "Countess," the police claiming to have evidence that both of them were implicated in the robbery.

Death of an Earl.

London, Jan. 31.—The death is announced of George Hay, eleventh Earl of Kinncull. He was born July 15, 1827, and succeeded his father in 1866. He was formerly a captain in the First Life Guards Regiment. The title and estates now pass to his eldest son, Lord Hay.

London, Jan. 31.—Sir George Otto Treveylan, M.P. for the Ridgetown division of Glasgow, has resigned his seat in the House of Commons owing to ill-health. Sir George was a prominent figure in politics for many years, and his retirement will be severely felt by the Liberal party.

TROUBLE AT BANGKOK.

The Situation Becoming Serious for Foreigners at the Siamese Capital.

New York, Jan. 31.—The Herald's special cable from Bangkok, Siam, says: The situation has become critical in the matter of the assault upon Mr. Kellet, the American Vice-Consul-General. Minister Barrett firmly requests that a mixed commission be appointed to investigate the facts. The Siamese Government refuses, holding that the investigation should be made by a Siamese court. Foreigners are unanimous in support of the American Minister. The outcome of the case depends on action from Washington. The German Minister also has been attacked in the streets. An American engineer named Bennett and an English attache, who went to his rescue, have been savagely beaten by the police.

Unlike most proprietary medicines, the formula of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla and other preparations are cheerfully sent to any physician who applies for them, Hence the special favor accorded these well-known standard remedies by the World's Fair commissioners.

SEVEN PERSONS BURNED.

Terribly Disastrous Fires at Hoboken, N.J.—Thirty Families Homeless.

Hoboken, N.J., Jan. 31.—This city was visited by two disastrous fires between 11.30 o'clock Saturday night and 3 o'clock this morning. Seven persons were burned to death and thirty families were made homeless. The Saturday night fire started in the 3-storey frame building at 410 Newark-street. Here six persons lost their lives. They were Mrs. Nellie Schroeder, 40 years old, and her five children, Henry, aged 11, Maggie 7, Kate 9, John 5 years and Willie 3 months old. The father of the family, Charles Schroeder, was in a nearby saloon playing cards while his wife and children were dying.

The second fire started at 3 o'clock this morning in a 5-storey double-deck tenement at 157 14th-street. In this fire three tenements, Nos. 155, 157 and 159 were entirely wrecked, and No. 153 was damaged badly. One child was burned to death on the fourth floor of No. 157. She was Mabel Mangles, 3 years old.

The fire at 410 Newark-street started in a defective flue in Schaeffer's wheelwright shop on the ground floor of a 3-storey frame building. Schaeffer occupied the second floor as living apartments. The front room on the third floor was occupied by Charles Schroeder and his family, while James Blanchfield and family occupied the rooms in the rear. The Blanchfields discovered the fire, and barely made their escape by the way of the roofs of the adjacent buildings. It was impossible to discover the fate of the Schroeder family, until the fire subsided, when the bodies of the mother and children were found.

Mrs. James Davenport Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Davenport is well-known in Tweed, and this is how she spoke to our representative concerning Doan's Kidney Pills. Said Mrs. Davenport:—

"I have suffered for some years from dizziness puffing under the eyes, pains in the side and back, sleeplessness, poor appetite, and in fact, was in a bad state generally.

"I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at P. K. Newton's drugstore, and experienced immediate relief from their use.

"I am now very much better indeed; appetite improved, pain almost disappeared and I feel stronger and healthier in every particular.

"I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

LOOK OUT BELOW!

As by the dock the great ship lies,
And "load her up!" the master cries,
The Roustabouts aboard her swarm,
All bare of throut, and breast, and arm;
Her deck is piled above the rails
With boxes, barrels, bags and bales;
They lift the hatch, disclosing deep
The boweled darkness still and deep.
Then back and forth the workers go,
The deck resounds with bump and blow
With "bear a hand!" and "yo-heave-o!"
As thro' the hatch the cargo pours
A bull-mouthed sailor constant roars—
"Look out Below!"

If some one higher climbs than you,
No matter how you dare and do,
And rises almost out of sight,
Now don't you stand beneath him quite,
Don't feel so little, mean and small,
Because, you know, the cuss may fall;
And if you give him of your best,
Your purse, for instance, to invest,
'Twill fill your rabbit soul with woe
To see your precious savings go
When he above you, envied so,
Is by a wrenched and rotten rung
Adown the spreading ladder flung
Look out Below!

When you in Baal's temple sit,
His sacrificial altars lit,
When all his walls with laughter ring,
And brazen vestals dance and sing;
Where good men tried and true are slaves
To fox-faced hypocrites and knaves;
When men forget their faith to win
From basswood gods a grunt or grin;
When to and fro and to and fro,
With slippered feet and motions slow,
The thirsty ghosts of selfhood go
Beware, for Samson's at the wall,
And when the staggering pillars fall,
Look out Below!

When you have mortgaged your possessions
To give your boys the best professions,
From morn till night you toil and slave
To make a lawyer out of Dave;
You go with rags upon your back
To make a doctor out of Jack;
You pinch and starve and gouge and cheat
To make a preacher out of Pete;
And when you're out of house and home,
No roof 'twixt you and heaven's dome,
You think you'd better die, and so
Unwept, unhonored, down you go,
You need no monument, you know,
But when above on Judgment's morn,
You hear the blast of Gabriel's horn
Look—out—Below!

GETTING MORE SERIOUS.

The Strike at Springhill Mines Apparently Further From Settlement Than Ever—Men Blame Employers.

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 31.—The striking miners at Springhill colliery have called out the men belonging to their lodge, who were fighting the fire in the east slope, and none will be left to keep it confined to its limits, except the few ready men whom the company can command.

When the strike began less than two weeks ago, the Provincial Workman's Association lodge was willing to allow its members, working at the fire, to continue there, but since the failure last week to effect a settlement, the strikers have resolved to force matters, if possible, by the present move. The representatives of the company state that this action will no doubt result in the spread of the fire, as the withdrawal of the men belonging to the P.W.A. leaves them short-handed.

The strikers throw the responsibility for the strike on the employers, who failed to recognize their organization. This they resent, and have withdrawn negotiations until their society is recognized. The men say they are willing to leave the question to Premier Murray and his colleagues, and claim to be anxious for a settlement.

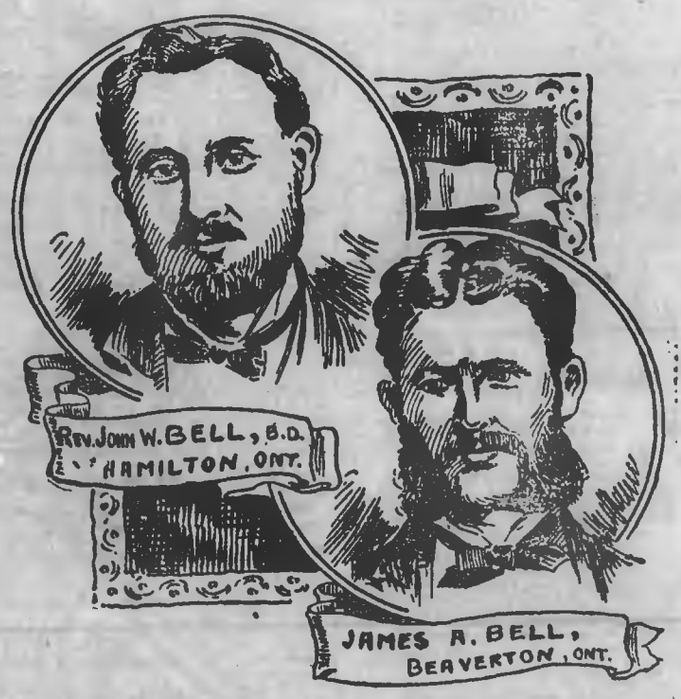
BUILT UP THE SYSTEM IN A WONDERFUL MANNER.



James A. Bell, of Beaverton, Ont., brother of the Rev. John Wesley Bell, B.D., prostrated by nervous headaches
A victim of the trouble for several years.
South American Nervine effected a complete cure.

In their own particular field few men are beter known than the Rev. John Wesley Bell, B.D., and his brother Mr. James A. Bell. The former will be recognised by his thousands of friends all over the country as the popular and able missionary superintendent of the Royal Templars of Temperance. Among the 20,000 members of this order in Ontario his counsel is sought on all sorts of occasions. On the public platform he is one of the strong men of the day, battling against the evils of intemperance. Equally well known is Mr. Bell in other provinces of the Dominion, having been for years a member of the Manitoba Methodist Conference and part of this time was stationed in Winnipeg. His brother, Mr. James A. Bell, is a highly respected resident of Beaverton, where his influence, though perhaps more circumscribed than that of his eminent brother, is none the less effective and productive of good. Of recent years, however, the working ability of Mr. James A. Bell has been sadly marred by severe attacks of nervous headache, accompanied by indigestion. Who can do fit work when this trouble takes hold of them and especially when it becomes chronic, as was, seemingly, the case with Mr. Bell? The trouble reached such intensity that last June he was completely prostrated. In this condition a friend recommended South American Nervine. Ready to try anything and everything, though he thought he had covered the list of proprietary medicines, he secured a bottle of this great discovery. A second bottle of the medicine was taken and the work was done. Employing his own language: "Two bottles of South American Nervine immediately relieved my headaches and have built up my system in a wonderful manner." Let us not deprecate the good our clergymen and social reformers are doing in the world, but how ill-fitted they would be for their work were it not the relief that South American Nervine brings to them when physical ills overtake them, and when the system, as a result of hard, earnest and continuous work, breaks down. Nervine treats the system as the wise reformer treats the evils he is battling against. It strikes at the root of the trouble. All disease comes from disorganization of the nerve centers. This is a scientific fact. Nervine at once works on these nerve centers; gives to them health and vigor; and then there courses through the system strong, healthy, life-maintaining blood, and nervous troubles of every variety are things of the past.

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

WOMEN WHO BORE US

THE TRAVELLING ORACLE AND WHAT SHE TALKS ABOUT.

The Woman With a Rich Friend—"You've Got to Be Pretty Gilt-Edged to Go With My Friends," She Remarks With Satisfaction.

My! but it's cold to-day. When I said good-bye to Rosina Shufeldt yesterday afternoon and got aboard the parlor car, I told her I guess I'd find New York a sight warmer than Syracuse. I didn't, though, and I just wisht I was back in their elegant mansion again, where every convenience in the way of electric lights and hot and cold water in every room, and finger-bowls on the table every day, whether there's company to ta or not.

You don't know the Shufeldts, do you? Well, they're not people who make many acquaintances when they come to New York, and those that they do visit are right up in G, I can tell you. Well, you've got to be pretty gilt-edged to go with the Shufeldts, and yet with all their high-toned ways they're not a bit stuck up, and if you ever do meet them you'll find them as affable to you as if you were one of the Astorbilts. Why, just to give you an idea of their style, how many trunks do you think Rosina took with her when she went to spend a month in Troy last spring? Well, she had just three, besides a handbag.

Of course, it sounds like a lot to you, and it would to me, except I'm used to their ways. But brought up as she's been she couldn't get along with a tray less. Her brother Willie's one of the principal editors in New York. Maybe you know him?

Well, come to think, you wouldn't be apt to know him, because he's got the same exclusive ideas that all his family have, and of course he only associates with the head ones. He never runs to fires nor reports murders, nor anything like that, but if there's a wedding or a reception going among the Four Hundred then you'll see him in his dress suit, with his pencil and paper, busy as a bee, getting the names of the guests and their clothes.

When I was to the Vanderbilt wedding last fall—

What! You didn't know I came down to New York a purpose for that wedding? I haven't missed one of them high-toned affairs for years. I can show you a prayer book I've got as a souvenir of the Bradley-Martin wedding, when I was the last woman to be put out of the church. Well, I had promised to take Mrs. Catnip—that's the lady I board with in East Ninth street when I come to town—to the Vanderbilt wedding with me, and early as we set out there was such a fearful crowd that I was afraid we would not get within a block of the church, and Mrs. Catnip was so scared from having the waist of her dress split up the back that she wanted to let go the railing and go home, but then she isn't used to fashionable weddings. Just then along came Willie Shufeldt in his silk hat and stylish overcoat, and he introduced us to the police sergeant and told him we were particular friends of his, so he got us a place right opposite the church, where we could see the heels of the bride and bridesmaids as they got out of the carriage. There was such a crowd we couldn't get away in time to get up to the Vanderbilts' house to see the people go in to the reception.

Speaking of receptions, you'd ought to seen the party the Shufeldts gave when they moved into their new house. It would have made a nice article for you to have put into your paper. I guess every florist in Syracuse got an order that time, to say nothing of the India-rubber plants they borrowed from the neighbors; and I never tasted better champagne nor saw more of it, not even in Ohio, where it's made. Rosina, she wore a lavender silk that she had made in New York, and twelve-button gloves; and her ma, she had a black velvet made with a train and real lace in the neck. I'll tell you who was there that night if you'll draw up close so's nobody'll hear. I don't suppose you know Dr. Forceps; but, of course, you've heard of him if you've ever kept track of society matters. He came all the way from New York, and put up at the hotel just to attend that party, and there wasn't one of Rosina's gentlemen friends in Syracuse that could hold a candle to him for style. I knew what he was up to the minute I laid eyes on him, and I tell you it'll be a fine match for Rosina, for he's got as good a practice as anybody in New York. You must have seen his sign on Sixth-avenue—two jaws working up and down by electricity inside a glass showcase.

Yes, it will be a good match for both of them. There's wealth and style on both sides, and Rosina's pa can afford to do the handsome thing by her. They call him the Merchant Prince of Syracuse. You must have seen his advertisements.

Where? Why all along both sides of the track from Albany to Buffalo. Then you ought to see his store. It is the largest clothing emporium in the world—Shufeldt's Square-Deal Bazar it's called, and they sell everything, from an ulster to a collar button.—James L. Ford, in American Woman's Home Journal.

A FARMER IN TROUBLE.

A Grenville County Man Speaks his Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Feb. 1 (Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realising great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

THE TEST OF MANNERS.

They Come of Refined Home Life and Must Be Worn Every Day.

It would seem that the surest road to excellent manners is by way of generous enlightenment which softens character and uplifts the point of view from which we regard our fellow citizens of the world. Politeness is regard for the other person's feelings. If you are solicitous about giving pleasure to those you meet there is little danger of any glaring breach of manners, albeit some conventional rule may be infringed.

An unselfish purpose rarely offends. Almost always the truly vulgar person is offensively selfish. He wants his own way; she demands notice; the obvious thing in this person's conduct is assumption of personal importance, as if expecting admiration and exceptional treatment from everybody. Politeness is a mark of self-control and a proof of self-sufficiency for any occasion; but from it is quite absent any anxiety about one's self or the impression one is making upon others.

If I were compelled to express with a single word what it is that the character must have in order to a perfect rendition of politeness, I should say adjustability. A rigid habit, not matter how morally correct in outline, is death to that which gives to a man or woman in the presence of welcome and the expression of being at home with company. Politeness so illuminates conventionality, that we see only the radiance and forget the machinery.

Every close observer has been able to detect the difference between manners assumed for an occasion of exigency and the perfectly natural acts of a well-bred person. A man may lift his hat with a movement indicative of generations whose culture and grace form the innermost essence of his character; another may attempt the same, and show by it that only yesterday he took his first crude lesson in conventional politeness. It is the same with women. Good manners come of refined home life; they must be worn every day or they will not be worn with ease and unconscious grace. And this unconscious grace is not mere gracefulness; it lies deeper. A gracious soul must shine out.—Chautauquan.

You can't be well if your blood is impure, but you may have pure blood and good health by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

PETERBOROUGH POULTRY AND PET STOCK ASSOCIATION.

A Successful Public Meeting.

The first regular public meeting of the above association was held in the County Council Chamber last evening. Mr. J. Fred Davidson, president, occupied the chair. The audience was not large, but from the very great attention given to the speakers, and the number of questions asked it was evident that they were much interested in the meeting.

The president in opening the meeting made a few remarks on the aims and objects of the Association, and then introduced Mr. R. Cockburn, who read a paper too long to more than mention in this issue, on the feeding and general management of of poultry.

Mr. J. E. Myer, of Kossuth, gave a very practical address to poultry fanciers, pointing out some of the difficulties that would beset beginners. He urged them to breed on some direct line, and not try too many varieties. Keep pure bred stock; do not inbreed to any great extent, if at all; introduce new blood. He did not (although a manufacturer of incubators and brooders) advise any one to invest in them until they had acquired considerable experience in raising stock with the hens. He described different kinds of hen houses, but he always urged the importance of using poultry in the same way as any other kinds of stock, if we expected a good return for the outlay.

The whole address of Mr. Meyer was brimful of practical talk, rather from a fancier's than a farmer's standpoint.

At the close a vote of thanks was tendered to Messrs. Meyer and Cockburn for the able and lucid manner in which they brought all the best possible points to bear on the different lines of the poultry business.

Rink Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

The game to-morrow evening between the second team of the Frontenacs II and Peterboroughs III on the Charlotte street rink promises to be as interesting as that of last evening. The public will have an opportunity of seeing what the younger members of the club can do.

A scratch team from the Riverside Park rink went town to Keene last night for a friendly match, and was defeated by seven goals to five. The Ashburnham boys attribute their defeat to the absence of two of their best men, and the smallness of their opponents' rink, which seemed like a band box in comparison with the magnificent ice at Riverside Park. The return match will be played next week on the Ashburnham rink, when the Riverside team hope to reverse the score. The visitors were given an oyster supper at the conclusion of the game.

The Peterboroughs should put in a couple of practices on the big Ashburnham rink before going to Kingston. This is something which the Executive cannot afford to neglect.

Ashburnham will play the Peterborough lacrosse team at 8 o'clock on the Riverside Park to-night. It will be a good game.

CONCERT AT CENTREVILLE.

James Fax and Others Present a Good Programme.

Last Wednesday evening the Agricultural Society of South Monaghan held their annual meeting in Centreville Hall. The programme was as usual a grand success, Mr. James Fax of Toronto being the chief attraction. During the evening piano, violin and mandolin instrumentals were delivered by Miss Chambers, Mrs. Lightfoot and Messrs. Gillespie, Wilgar and Gilchrist. Too much thanks cannot be rendered Mr. Crosby, of Peterborough, who contributed so much to the evening's entertainment by kindly supplying the committee with one of his valuable Evans pianos.

The collector's roll was ordered to be returned by March 1st.

The whole council was appointed a committee to confer with the town council for the purpose of making an agreement with them for fire protection.

COMMUNICATIONS

PETERBOROUGH POULTRY AND PET STOCK ASSOCIATION.

A Successful Public Meeting.

The first regular public meeting of the above association was held in the County Council Chamber last evening. Mr. J. Fred Davidson, president, occupied the chair. The audience was not large, but from the very great attention given to the speakers, and the number of questions asked it was evident that they were much interested in the meeting.

The president in opening the meeting made a few remarks on the aims and objects of the Association, and then introduced Mr. R. Cockburn, who read a paper too long to more than mention in this issue, on the feeding and general management of of poultry.

Mr. J. E. Myer, of Kossuth, gave a very practical address to poultry fanciers, pointing out some of the difficulties that would beset beginners. He urged them to breed on some direct line, and not try too many varieties. Keep pure bred stock; do not inbreed to any great extent, if at all; introduce new blood. He did not (although a manufacturer of incubators and brooders) advise any one to invest in them until they had acquired considerable experience in raising stock with the hens. He described different kinds of hen houses, but he always urged the importance of using poultry in the same way as any other kinds of stock, if we expected a good return for the outlay.

The whole address of Mr. Meyer was brimful of practical talk, rather from a fancier's than a farmer's standpoint.

At the close a vote of thanks was tendered to Messrs. Meyer and Cockburn for the able and lucid manner in which they brought all the best possible points to bear on the different lines of the poultry business.

RECEIPT NO. 1790 IS THE ONE ENTITLED TO OUR BICYCLE.

Rink Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

The game to-morrow evening between the second team of the Frontenacs II and Peterboroughs III on the Charlotte street rink promises to be as interesting as that of last evening. The public will have an opportunity of seeing what the younger members of the club can do.

A scratch team from the Riverside Park rink went town to Keene last night for a friendly match, and was defeated by seven goals to five. The Ashburnham boys attribute their defeat to the absence of two of their best men, and the smallness of their opponents' rink, which seemed like a band box in comparison with the magnificent ice at Riverside Park. The return match will be played next week on the Ashburnham rink, when the Riverside team hope to reverse the score. The visitors were given an oyster supper at the conclusion of the game.

The Peterboroughs should put in a couple of practices on the big Ashburnham rink before going to Kingston. This is something which the Executive cannot afford to neglect.

Ashburnham will play the Peterborough lacrosse team at 8 o'clock on the Riverside Park to-night. It will be a good game.

CONCERT AT CENTREVILLE.

James Fax and Others Present a Good Programme.

Last Wednesday evening the Agricultural Society of South Monaghan held their annual meeting in Centreville Hall. The programme was as usual a grand success, Mr. James Fax of Toronto being the chief attraction. During the evening piano, violin and mandolin instrumentals were delivered by Miss Chambers, Mrs. Lightfoot and Messrs. Gillespie, Wilgar and Gilchrist. Too much thanks cannot be rendered Mr. Crosby, of Peterborough, who contributed so much to the evening's entertainment by kindly supplying the committee with one of his valuable Evans pianos.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is known by its works. The experience of half a century proves that no other preparation of the kind stops coughing and allays irritation of the throat and bronchial tubes so promptly and effectually as this.

An Aftermath Of Bargains.

We have laid out for bargain overs special lots of DRESS GOODS, APRON MUSLINS, FLANNELETTE, FLANNEL, and the rest of our WINTER MILLINERY, which we can afford to sell at a loss at the end of the season, so as to make room for new goods. You catch the idea.

It does not necessarily follow when our customary January Reduction Sale takes place, that good dressers want the commonest grade of Clothes that lack fit, finish and style. BEGG'S BIG SCHEME

Is a Railway From B. C. to the Yukon Country.

HE'S AT THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT

And Seeks to Interest the Ministers in His Project—Changes Proposed in the Toronto Postoffice—What the Experimental Farmers are Doing—News from Ottawa.

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Mr. Alexander Begg, an old Orillia newspaper man, was in town to-day and had an interview with Mr. Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, with regard to a projected railway from Stickeen to Teslin Lake, B.C. For some years Mr. Begg has been a resident of the Pacific Province, and, it will be remembered, was successful six or seven years ago in securing the assent of the Imperial authorities to the expatriation of a number of Scotch crofters to Vancouver Island. For some reason or other the scheme fell through, but Mr. Begg has not lost interest in British Columbia matters. He is now working at a scheme for giving ready access to the Yukon country. The Stickeen River in the northern part of British Columbia is navigable from the sea for about 150 miles inland. Mr. Begg's idea is to build a railway from the point at which navigation ceases almost north to Teslin Lake, a distance of a little over 100 miles, where the head waters of the Yukon are reached, and navigation for Fort Cudahy and other points on the Yukon is available.

Important changes in the Postoffice Department are on the tapis. It is understood that the Postmaster-General has offered the position of Deputy Postmaster-General to the Chief Inspector, Mr. Sweetnam. This gentleman so far has declined, but it is believed that he will eventually accept. Other changes hinted at are that the Barrie division and the Stratford division in the Province of Ontario will be closed and Mr. Dan Spry, Inspector of the Barrie Division, will be made chief inspector in the place of Mr. Sweetnam. The management of the railway clerks is to be put in a separate department, with Mr. Armstrong, late of the Toronto postoffice, at its head. When these changes are made others of a less important character will also be announced. A number of suspensions for drinking and neglect of duty have taken place, and, though strong pressure has been brought to bear on the Postmaster-General, it is understood he is determined to make these suspensions permanent.

The proposal to superannuate Mr. John Morrow, Chief Inspector of Inland Revenue, has been dropped.

The holders of the rival provincial charters for a line of railway from Burrard Inlet to Rossland district have come to terms, and will now jointly approach the Dominion Government with the object of securing a Federal subsidy.

The staff of the Experimental Farm have been very busy during the past few weeks. Dr. Fletcher, entomologist, and Mr. Craig, horticulturist, returned to-day from Nova Scotia, where they addressed several meetings. Mr. Gilbert, poultry manager, addressed seven farmers' institute meetings in Eastern Ontario last week, while Mr. Shutt, farm chemist, also delivered several public addresses.

The Free Press denies the report that Mr. E. E. Sheppard of Toronto is to be appointed Commissioner to proceed to South Africa for the purpose of investigating the feasibility of extending trade relations between Canada and the Cape Colonies. It says it is not the intention of the Government to send a commission to South Africa, although it is quite possible that a representative from the Canadian Government may be delegated during the coming summer to study the possibilities of opening up new markets in directions other that South Africa.

The Minister of Marine was advised to-day that two American fishing vessels were driven into Shelburne, N.S., and another, the Abbe F. Morris, into Liverpool, N.S., without their anchors. Although under the treaty these vessels were not allowed to purchase new anchors in port, Mr. Davies waived this point, and permitted them to do so, the concession not to be regarded as a precedent.

Hon. L. H. Davies has made certain changes in the payment of the fishery bounty. Boat fishermen will in future receive $3.50 each, instead of $3, and the vessel fishermen will in future receive $5 each, instead of a certain amount divided among the crew, according to the tonnage of the boat. There is $160,000 to be distributed annually in bounty.

To repatriate 65 Canadians who went to Brazil last September has cost Canada $400. This, after all, is a pretty small sum, and a cheap expenditure as an object lesson to people not to believe too readily the lying promises of foreign steamship companies.

QUARREL OVER MONEY.

Buffalo Christians Kick at Paying for the Salvation of Souls.

Buffalo, Feb. 2.—An immense and intensely interesting church row has broken out, the participants being some 40 odd city church communities and the question at issue being more or less financial in its nature. In April of last year Rev. B. Fay Mills the celebrated evangelist, came to Buffalo and conducted a series of meetings in the Central Presbyterian and other churches. At the time the meetings were felt to have done a great deal for the spiritual welfare of the various denominations in the city. Early yesterday morning the report of the Finance Committee, which had charge of the financial arrangements of these meetings, was sent to some 40 pastors whose churches were interested in the meetings, mainly of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Disciples' persuasion. In the language of the street the report was a "Hot tamale." In speaking of the failure of the pastors to meet the assessments, the report said: The pastor of one church, after making an ante-mortem, doctrinal, microscopic examination of Mr. Mills, thought he discovered about the time his church would be called upon for the insignificant sum of $25, that he was a shade out of the way on the question of the Atonement, which released him from any financial obligation. The pastors of other churches evincing a complete and determined misconception of the purpose of the meetings, publicly denounced Mr. Mills' methods. A large down-town church was prominently represented throughout the meetings and had the assurance to advertise their continuance at its own church, yet from it the munificent sum of $5.51 only was received. The ministers concerned held an indignation meeting privately yesterday afternoon and spoke pretty plainly. The matter leaked out to-day and a member of the Finance Committee said: "The committee issued the report only after feeling perfectly certain concerning the truth of every statement therein made and only after mature deliberation."

Mr. Mills received a shamefully small sum for his services here. He has uttered no word of complaint, but has acted like the fine Christian gentleman that he is. The result of his series of meetings here is a disgrace to the Christian people of Buffalo.

Murdered His Family.

Wayne, Neb., Jan. 28.—While in a fit of madness O. E. Nash brained his wife and three children with an ax and then hacked the bodies to pieces last night.

HE HAS HIS DIVORCE

Prince de Chimay Will Have Custody of His Children.

PRINCESS TO SEE THEM MONTHLY

The Decree Was Granted Without Evidence Being Gone Into—Prosecution Could Produce Abundant Evidence—75,000 Francs a Year Granted for the Children.

Brussels, Feb. 2.—The action for divorce brought by the Prince of Chimay against his wife, formerly Clara Ward of Detroit, Mich., who eloped from Paris last fall with Janos Rigo, a Hungarian gypsy fiddler, which was adjourned on Jan. 19 for a fortnight, came up in the court at Charleroi today for the pronouncement of judgment. The court, after half an hour's deliberation, announced that a decree of absolute divorce was granted to the Prince of Chimay upon the grounds alleged in his complaint against his wife—abandonment and adultery.

Maitre Delacroix, who appeared as counsel for the Prince, said in his application to the court that his client was entitled to a divorce on the admissions that the Princess had herself made. He declared that the Prince was willing that the Princess should see her children once a month for one hour, but asked the court to condemn her to pay the sum of 75,000 francs yearly for their support.

In setting forth the grounds of the Prince's request for a divorce, M. Delacroix said that he was prepared to produce evidence, showing that on 22 occasions the Princess had committed herself, and if desired he could prove facts relating to four times as many occasions. He then proceeded to read letters written by the Princess to her husband, in which she offered to retreat to a Carmelite Convent for five years and then return purified to the conjugal hearth. To this the husband replied from Paris that he intended to retire to Chimay and wished to see her no more. Next day the Princess, in company with her gypsy lover, supped at the Cafe des Ambassadeurs with a lady and gentleman, and there created a scene, accusing the lady of trying to win her lover from her. For the sake of his children, said the attorney, the Prince hoped the jury would not demand proof of the charges by witnesses. The notoriety of the scandal and the attitude of the Princess since the commencement of the trial were sufficient proof of the principal fact alleged, namely the elopement of the Princess with Tsigano Rigo.

Mr. Allain, addressing the court for the defence, said he did not deny the principal charge, but maintained that all the accessary charges made in the course of the inquiry were either false or grossly exaggerated. In particular, he sought to clear the Princess of the reproach of being a bad mother. If, said the counsel, is was necessary to look for the cause of the Princess Chimay's bizarre amour, in which her honor had suffered shipwreck, it was to be found in the weakness of her husband, whom she had loved and loved still, and who in his excessive kindness had not the wisdom to exercise control over her. He asked the jury in pronouncing their verdict not to allow the Princess to suffer from the monstrous charge of having abandoned her children without regret.

Mr. Bernaert, on behalf of the public prosecutor, observed that the Princess was content to plead extenuating circumstances. He reminded them that the respondent, in order to escape the solicitations of her husband, had induced a physician to recommend a separate life and then the Princess had the audacity to accuse her husband of having deserted her. All Europe, he concluded, would laugh if the court were to demand proof by witnesses of notorious facts.

The court appointed the Prince de Chimay guardian of the children. The Princess will be allowed to see them once a month, but only in the presence of a third party. She agreed to pay the costs of the action and 75,000 francs annually as alimony to the Prince.

HUGH JOHN AS LEADER.

Manitoba Conservatives Want Him as Chief of the Local Opposition.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—A movement is on foot among the Conservatives of Manitoba to induce Hugh John Macdonald to become Conservative leader in the Manitoba Legislature and it is understood he has been waited upon by prominent provincial leaders in this connection. Winnipeg Conservatives are unwilling that Hugh John should accept, because they want his as representative in the Dominion House. However, it is pointed out to them that very little is gained by carrying the Winnipeg seat with a Liberal Government in power at Ottawa, while Hugh John would be a source of great strength to the Conservative Opposition against Mr. Greenway. What the provincial Conservatives have lacked is a strong leader, and with Hugh John they would go into the next provincial election with confidence. It is said that Mr. Macdonald has asked time to consider the matter. R. P. Roblin, the present leader of the provincial Conservatives, is one of the most eager to secure Hugh John for the position.

The provincial Conservative convention assembles here to-morrow, with delegates present from all sections. This subject will likely be discussed. It is also the intention to elect two members representing Manitoba for the Dominion Conservative organization, and also to choose a permanent organiser for the west.

Fred Brown, of Portage La Prairie was charged with distributing bogus ballots among the deputy returning officers of Macdonald (Boyd's constituency), and was freely alleged to be chief of the conspiracy at ballot box stuffing. To-day the magistrates discharged Mr. Brown, there being no evidence against him.

A CONTRAST.

Hon. Mr. Mulock, Postmaster-General, in an address at Pasetanguishene on Monday said that the arrangement made by Farmer Fisher, the Minister of Agriculture in the Liberal Government, in regard to removing the quarantine regulations from Canadian cattle entering the United States, had added $5 per head to the value of the cattle in the Province of Ontario. Mr. Fisher has only had his hands on the plough some six or seven months, yet he has done more to practically promote the interests of the Canadian farmer than the late Government had done in seventeen years. In regard to the live stock trade, what the late Government had done was, by a system of palpable neglect and obstinate adherence to a wrong position, to procure the scheduling of of Canadian cattle in Great Britain. The result of the Liberal policy is to promote the live stock trade. The policy of the late Conservative Government resulted in greatly destroying the profit of our live stock trade with the Mother Country. The difference is great, but it is easily accounted for. Mr. Laurier in selecting a farmer as Minister of Agriculture put the square man in the square hole, but the late government with a brewer, a lawyer and a doctor successively as Minister of Agriculture, put the round man in the square hole. Practical common sense is as much a factor of success in government as in farming.

HON. WILFRID LAURIER, speaking at Orillia said: "I appeal to all Canadians in this hall. I appeal to the Conservatives as well as to the Liberals, do you believe we can ever build up a united British nation in this country unless we put an end to the racial and religious agitations that have existed in our midst, and entertain for each other that spirit of mutual forbearance and religious toleration without which no people can ever hope to be great or prosperous.

THE Globe is never a hemisphere—never does things by halves. It comes out daily as one of the best all-round newspapers on the continent—with one of the best Saturday editions. It has just issued a neat little booklet with the exactly appropriate title "A Modern Newspaper." The little book, which is in design and printing, the acme of artistic and effective simplicity, neatness and and elegance, gives a plain unvarnished tale of the diurnal genesis of the Globe, which is a power in the land. It stands for national progress and national enlightenment.

QUARANTINE REGULATIONS.

An extra of The Canada Gazette was published on Monday containing the new quarantine regulations between Canada and the United States. The regulations as to the importation of animals from the United States dispense with the quarantine altogether on cattle and substitute inspection and a certificate that they have been subjected to the tuberculine test and found free from tuberculosis. Any found with tuberculosis are to be returned to the United States or slaughtered without compensation. Swine may be admitted for breeding purposes, subject to a quarantine of fifteen days and for slaughter in bond without it. Sheep for breeding and feeding purposes, and horses are exempt from detention. Regulations for exportation and other purposes are also contained in the order.

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. If there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood the only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists digestion by stimulating the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition; purifies and enriches the blood and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, health flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state.

HARVEY.

From our own Correspondent.

Now that we have got some snow, everything is brisk and people are getting their hauling done as fast as possible for fear of another thaw. As the snow is very light in some places, it would take but very little soft weather to spoil the roads again.

John O'Donnell has a gang of men at work hauling his logs to the river.

Mr. J. S. Cairnduff, we are glad to say, is once more able to be out, which, we have no doubt, is a great relief to him after his long confinement to the house. His eyes are a little weak yet, but rapidly improving.

It is reported that there is some hopes of the final recovery of Nelson St. Thomas' daughter, Carrie, who was given up by the doctors some two weeks ago. She is still in a precarious condition.

The True Blues of Buckhorn held their annual tea Thursday night, which proved a successful affair. After tea an excellent and varied programme was presented. Mr. Richard Pierson, of Bobcaygeon, occupied the chair. The proceeds go towards the lodge funds.

Mr. Fred McGahay, peddler for Philip Morgan, had a cold experience Thursday night. He started from Lakehurst to cross the Lake to Bobcaygeon, and while on the lake darkness set in and he lost his bearings. He wandered about the lake all night, and reached Thos. Gordon's, in North Harvey, in time for breakfast, none the worse—only very cold and hungry. It was lucky for him he did not drive into the open water at the mouth of Bobcaygeon river.

Those interested in the Sunday School Convention to be held at Nogie's Creek on Feb. 11th, are going to bush a road across the lake to McCamus' Lodge, so that those attending from South Harvey may cross safely.

IT SEPARATES THE BENEFICIAL FROM THE WORTHLESS.

A Vancouver Lady, After Using Various Medicines for a Period of Eight Years, Pronounces Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the Best Medicine She Knows.

Among the most popular residents of Vancouver is Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hawson, and the following statement from Mrs. Hawson will no doubt be of advantage to other ladies. She says:

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct., 1896.

Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.:

Gentlemen,—I have derived so much benefit from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as the following brief statement of facts will show, that the failure on my part to make public the facts of my case would be a neglect of duty I owe to others of my sex who are suffering from the same complaints as for years made life a burden to me. From fifteen years of age I suffered from anæmia with all the attending evils. The family physician and two other doctors consulted in turn failing to afford me any relief. At the age of twenty-two I came from England to Oregon, and acting under the advice of friends, consulted a specialist of high repute in Portland of that state, after having tried two other practitioners in Eastern Oregon without any beneficial result. I followed the treatment of the Portland physician for some months with no change in my condition being noticeable, except that I was rapidly losing flesh and sinking day by day into a state of lassitude. I was reduced to eighty-nine pounds in weight, and was assured that unless some change for the better were obtained I could not live six months. At this crisis, when life had become a burden to me and I had hardly strength enough to move around, a friend told me of the benefit she had derived from Dr. William's Pink Pills, and as a forlorn hope, having at one time or other tried remedy after remedy (so called), I consented to give them a trial. Even with the first box a change for the better was noticeable, and this was sufficient to induce me to persevere. I bought six boxes more, and when they were finished I was doing my own housework and had gained over ten pounds in weight. With the establishment of the normal functions I grew more cheerful, active and invigorated. That the cure was of no ephemeral nature is evidenced by the fact that now after a year has passed since then, and I have taken but two boxes of pills since that time, I weigh 110 pounds, and can attend to my necessary household duties. I can say nothing less than that I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life, and I recommend them to everyone suffering from similar complaints to mine as the best medicine I know, and after the best of nostrums I tried during a period of eight years, my knowledge of such is not limited.

Gratefully yours,
HELEANOR H. HAWSON.

GRAVEL IN THE BLADDER.

Used Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills,—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Jan. 25 (Special).—Mr. John Medill, known locally as well as far and near as a physical giant, and glorying in his strength, came to be a great sufferer and tells of his cure as follows:—

"I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me and I think it will cure others why not say so?

"It is true I had been suffering for some time with Bladder trouble, and, learning of a cure made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

"In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the highest terms of praise, for I know of many persons who have been cured by them."

Faith of The London Times is Sorely Tried

OVER THAT ARBITRATION TREATY

London Chronicle Says the Senate Committee's Action is Great Wickedness —Countess Cowley's Divorce is Formally Granted — Other News From the Old World.

London, Feb. 2.—Commenting editorially upon the Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty and the prospects of its adoption by the United States Senate, The Times this morning says: It would not be civil for us to associate ourselves with the vigorous language employed by the New York papers with reference to the treaty as amended in the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate of the United States, but few Englishmen will care to dissent from the substance of their remarks. Our faith in the Senate has been sorely tried of late years, and should they succeed in replacing this treaty by an empty sham it would be all the more to be regretted, because it would retard the general adoption throughout the world of the principle of arbitration. Perhaps Lord Salisbury will be willing to ratify a mere abortive agreement, but we fear for the result, despite the belief of the people of both countries in the policy of arbitration and the general desire for a treaty of this character. In the face of the silence of President-elect McKinley we must prepare ourselves for disappointment, and for either a sham treaty or none.

Commenting upon the cabled statement of its Washington correspondent, to the effect that there is no hope that the Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty will be ratified by the United States Senate, The Daily Chronicle to-day characterizes the action of the Senators as "great wickedness." It adds: "We are sure that all good men in America, as well as elsewhere, who are not blinded by irrational hatred, will stand staunchly by Cleveland and the treaty."

The Westminster Gazette, touching upon the delay in the passage of the treaty through the United States Senate, remarks: "The jingoes and all-verites of both parties will not have even a symbolic act of peace with Great Britain. If there is any doubt of its passing, we frankly hope the treaty will be withdrawn. Great and striking as would have been its ratification as a contribution to the cause of peace, its proposed rejection would certainly be a correspondingly serious setback."

The St. James' Gazette, commenting upon the possibility of Cleveland dropping the treaty, says: "Should, however, President Cleveland or his successor ask us to accept an amended treaty it would be just as well to do so, and thus show how much we wish to keep on friendly terms with the United States. In the meantime what a lesson the whole story gives as to the value of the great principle of arbitration between two states more closely related in language and blood than any others in the world! They are without a real cause for quarrel, yet they cannot even arbitrate without elaborate provisions which exclude everything of the least genuine importance."

The Globe states: Here in England we are loth to rid ourselves of old-time delusions, and that is undoubtedly why we still cling to the idea that the people of the United States are our American cousins. This tradition, of course, was fostered by the fact that they speak English more or less, and that those seen most here, Lincoln, Phelps and Bayard, are to all intents and purposes Englishmen. Considering how tender we always are with the United States and how anxious we are to spare their feelings in every way we periodically wonder why they in return are so discourteous and malevolent to us. The fact of course is that the people of the United States are a very mixed race, and no more related to us as a whole nation than to Germany.

In the Commons to-day Mr. G.N. Curzon, Under Foreign Secretary, announced that the Government was ready to lay the Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty before the House.

A CONSERVATIVE ELECTED.

Mr. Schlesinger Sinclair Chosen for the Romford Division of Essex.

London, Feb. 2.—The parliamentary election to fill the seat in the House of Commons, made vacant by the retirement of Alfred Money-Wigram, Conservative, member for the Romford Division of Essex, who resigned on account of ill-health, took place yesterday and resulted in the choice of Schlesinger Sinclair, Conservative, by a vote of 8156 to 8031 cast for Mr. Raphael, the Liberal candidate. At the last general election Money-Wigram defeated the Liberal candidate by 1822 votes, while in yesterday's polling the Conservative majority was only 125.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COUNTY ORANGE LODGE.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams Retires From the County Mastership—An Address to Him.

The annual meeting of the County Orange Lodge was held last night in Unity Hall, when there was a large attendance of delegates from the different portions of the county.

Most satisfactory reports were presented by the County and District Masters, showing a large and steady increase in membership.

The retiring County Master, Mr. J. B. McWilliams, in declining re-nomination for another year, made a short address, which was listened to with great interest by the assembled brethren, after which the following complimentary address was read by Mr. Sidney B. Weir, County Secretary :

Mr. J. B. McWilliams, County Master, L. O. L., Peterborough.

Dear Sir and Brother,—Permit us to extend our hearty congratulations to you on your elevation to the civic board of our town by the most flattering vote that has been bestowed on any of its representatives. This we take as a well deserved recognition of your administrative ability. And, while we regret the increased demands thus entailed on your already well-occupied time, has decided you not to seek re-election to the post of honour in our order in this county, we take some consolation in knowing that as citizens we will have the benefit of your wise counsel in a much wider and, as far as the public is concerned, more important sphere.

The members of the Demonstration Committee who have been so closely associated with you during the past year feel that your disinterested loyalty to our Order deserves more than a passing notice. We feel sure that the success of our demonstration, and that too in the face of bitter and uncalled for opposition from men from whom we should have expected better, was due to our harmonious and unfted efforts guided by your wise counsel, indomitable will and great energy.

We believe we voice the sentiments of the Orangemen here, when we say we feel very grateful to you for your disinterested and gratuitous services. We recognise there few who, having obtained all the honours the county could bestow, would voluntarily undertake snob work, and having finished it successfully, generously step aside and allow others to enjoy future honours. Your past actions in this respect give us reason to believe that if occasion demanded it again you would give us your best efforts as freely as you have in the past, and our only regret is that, for some reason or other, your fine administrative ability has not yet been recognized as it should have been in the higher courts of our Order. That this state of affairs may not long exist is the earnest wish of your brethren here.

J. H. MCEWAN,	WILLIAM WILSON,

Dr Burgess, Lakefield,.....Treasurer

If You Can't Write, Don't Read This.

A few reasons why Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens are the best : It is always ready, and writes continuously without shaking. It writes as freely as a dip pen, and feeds the ink more regularly. We will allow you to take it home, and if not satisfactory, bring it back.—A. H. STRATTON & Co.

Mind Reading.

To do do this trick will appear at first to the onlooker hard to perform ; so it is until you know how, then it is comparatively simple. First tie a large silk handkerchief, folded twice, over some person's eyes. Pass your hands over his face once or twice, and gently smooth his forehead. Then quietly ask him where he can get the best groceries at reasonable prices, and if he is possessed of ordinary common sense he will answer without hesitation : From E. THE QUEEN VS. T. BRADY.

A CHARGE OF "INTENT TO DEFRAUD" INVESTIGATED.

Several Witnesses Examined — The Details of Sale of Stock—The Case not Concluded at Going to Press.

The case of the Queen vs. Brady came up for a hearing at the police court this morning, the specific charge against the prisoner being "That Thos. Brady, on Thursday, 28th of January, 1897, with intent to defraud his creditors, Meldrum & McAllister, did make sale of his property to wit : A stock of groceries and other merchandise to one David Kerneghan, contrary to the statute in behalf."

R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, appeared for the Crown ; Mr. E. B. Stone for Mr. McAllister and Mr. W. H. Moore for ex-Councillor Brady.

C. B. McAllister, of the firm of Meldrum & McAllister, millers, was the first witness. He stated that his firm had had dealings with Mr. Brady and at present the latter owed them $1,361. Nothing had been paid on account since December 8th, 1896, when $103.70 was paid on account. The last purchase was made on January 8th, 1897. Over $800 of the account was due since June. Repeated demands had been made for money since the last payment, but with no effect. Brady led him to believe that he was only creditor. He agreed during the last week to pay the firm $300, which would be collected in accounts, and also to discount a note for $500 and pay the proceeds on account. He had also stated one O'Donnel, of Bobcaygeon, owed him several hundred dollars which he would collect.

Cross-examined by Mr. W. H. Moore, solicitor for the prisoner, the witness stated that he did not know the exact date upon which he began to suspect Brady. He had seen him several times since January 1st. He saw him a day or two before the arrest. He then insisted on something being done to settle up the account. He did not ask Brady to let the other creditors go and straighten up this account. He had not urged Brady to go to the Ontario Bank and raise the money, saying the bank could stand the loss better than he could. The witness stated that he did not know the prisoner owed an account to the Consolidated Milling Company until after his arrest. He declined to say from whom he had procured such information as led him to swear out an information for Brady's arrest. He had called at the store and learned of the sale of the goods. He had sold Mr. Kerneghan, the new proprietor, some flour. He ascertained about the sale on a Thursday and caused the arrest on Friday.

To the County Crown Attorney the witness stated that he had heard that the prisoner had removed goods from his store and also his wagons. Twenty-three chests of tea, he had heard, were shipped to Toronto. He understood they were worth $17 a chest. Brady had told him this tea was to be exchanged for a better quality.

Mr. Moore—And it was exchanged.

Mr. Wood—I'd like to make you a little side bet of a "five" that it wasn't.

The witness stated further that the sale of the goods was a cash transaction. He declined to tell Mr. Moore who had told him about the wagons being removed. He had heard that the landlord had been concerned in the removal.

J. W. Brisbin was the next witness. He had dealt with the prisoner at times. Whenever he got a carload of hay in he let the prisoner have whatever he wanted of it at the cost price. The last transaction involved $43. He had asked for the money once and been given a note which would be due on the seventh of this month.

Cross-examined, the witness stated that it was understood that hay was "a cash article." He had taken Mr. Brady's note on former occasions, but not for hay. Hay was usually shipped on the order of the bank.

W. D. Parker, acting manager of the Ontario Bank, was the next witness called. He stated that Mr. Brady had an account with the bank, and at present owed $190 in his own name. It was on his own note. The prisoner told him that O'Donnell owed him about $160, and that he would turn over this claim to apply on the $190. He had given him a draft on O'Donnell ; nothing had been done with this yet. The prisoner had told him that McAllister wished him to get accommodation for $500 at the bank, but he did not intend to apply for it. Mr. Parker's dealing with the prisoner had always been most satisfactory.

Mr. John Hall, Lakefield, merchant and miller—Had had dealings with Mr. Brady ; he now owed $200, including an outstanding note of $190 not yet due. It was given in January at one month. This included three or four months back. The $100 balance was contracted since January. To Mr. Moore—Had been dealing with Mr. Brady since he began business—at one time $400 or $500 per month, amounting altogether to perhaps $10,000. Neither accounts are yet due. Always found him a square and honourable dealer.

Mr. Badcock, of the firm of Edwards & Badcock, merchant millers, Lakefield,—Had some dealings with Brady on account for about three months, though he had other dealings for two or three years. He now owes $146.08 standing since Nov. 9th. Have received no money since November 9th. Have had no trouble to collect till lately. Drew on Brady for amount, but there were no funds to meet it. Always found Brady straight. To Mr. Wood—The draft was due before Wednesday last.

Mr. D. H. Kerneghan,—Purchased the stock of Brady on Wednesday last between twelve and one o'clock. The purchase had been talked over for a year. Three weeks ago the negotiations that led to the purchase began. Three weeks ago the first price put upon the stock was $875, without the horse and wagon, and at the sale got horse, sleigh and waggon at $75. Stock was not regularly taken. Paid him $800 in cash on Thursday last before 1 o'clock he thought. Had not finished taking stock since the purchase. John Reid was taking the stock. Brady agreed to settle up the rent and taxes and said when he got his money he said he could pay his little accounts. Rent and taxes were $100. These were kept from the purchase money. To Mr. Moore—Witness first saw Brady about purchasing his business in November—no price was mentioned. Went to shop to see him several times afterwards. He was somewhat hard to make a bargain with. As far as witness knows he paid for all he got. On Wednesday Brady objected to binding himself not to go into business for ten years. On Thursday Brady said he had to go to Bobcaygeon, and witness asked him to wait till he saw Mr. Donnistoun. Saw a team going to Mr. Brady's house and asked driver to tell him not to go to Bobcaygeon till he (witness) saw him. Later saw Brady at Mr. Donnistoun's office where the transactions were completed between 12 and 1 o'clock. Didn't buy the book debts. The sale and purchase was bona fide. Brady never asked him to conceal the sale. Witness had talked over the idea of buying with his friends about 3 weeks before the sale was made. Told Brady he would not give a cent more than $800. To Mr. Moore—Asked Brady if there was anything against the stock and he said there was not. I understood from Brady that he did not owe much—that he owed wholesale houses next to nothing, and that he was going on the road for a wholesale house. He took no stock before buying. It was left to Mr. Brady's clerk, Tully, to do the fair thing between him and Brady.

John Reid, sworn, stated that he was a traveller for periodicals, and had assisted Mr. Kerneghan in taking stock. He had kept a country store for eleven years. It was twenty years since he had given up business. He produced his list. The prices had not yet been inserted. This was required to be done from the invoices. There was some new stock in the inventory.

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through that imparts nerve strength, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read this letter: "Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and down stairs without clasping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." MRS. J. E. SMITH, Beloit, Iowa.

THE PROPERTY COMMITTEE

through its chairman, Mr. Peter Hamilton, reported as follows:

We entered this year with the new addition to the South Ward school, which has been a very valuable addition to the school accommodation. Notwithstanding the addition made to the South Ward early in the year, the overcrowded state of the scholars forced upon us necessity of increased accommodation for Public School pupils, having in view the possibility of, in the near future, the town erecting a collegiate Institute, and thus placing for public school purposes the building now used by the Institute. To provide accommodation for all the children attending the public schools we found it necessary to procure rooms outside, and for that purpose a few years' lease of what is known as the Massie's property was secured from the present owner. The cost of furnishing the South Ward school having exceeded the amount raised by the debentures for that purpose in 1896, we had to draw on the amount which is usually appropriated for repairs. This amount was still further drawn upon for an extraordinary expenditure in connection with the fittings and desks and other school requirements in connection with the George street school, causing it to have an overdrawn account of $[illegible]. We fully expect that for the season of 1897 we will be free from any extraordinary expenditure, and will not require to ask for larger amount than last year, although we are carefully aware that it is only a question of time when we will have to take into consideration the unsatisfactory state of the Park street school in the western section of the town. We feel that we can congratulate the Board that the last addition to the South Ward School has made its interior a model school, equal to the best modern schools in the country for accommodation, heating and ventilation. Its exterior also has been vastly improved by the brush painting which was done during the summer, and the fencing of the ground, making altogether a very satisfactory home of learning for our children from the youngest Kindergarten scholar to the highest form in our public schools.

As instructed by you we have made arrangements to secure the necessary fuel for the schools on as favourable terms as last winter, with the exception of a small quantity of dry wood to supply the south Central school and the Central School.

Adopted.

THE INSPECTOR'S REPORT

was submitted as appended:

GENTLEMEN,—It would be injudicious for me at this time to attempt to place before you a report sufficiently accurate or reliable as to be worthy of your consideration.

During the past month it has been my endeavour to make myself as familiar as possible with your schools, their management, their organization and the methods of your teachers. With this end in view, I have already visited 25 of the divisions, and have in all cases been extended the greatest courtesy. Much valuable assistance has been tendered me by the teachers and the different members of your Board. Before the end of the present month I expect to be in a position to undertake a thorough inspection, the report of which in due time be laid before you.

By perusing the appended summaries you will observe that the attendance for the past month has been fairly satisfactory, the average being almost 90 per cent. of the total enrollment. The pupils of the South Central senior Fourth class and the Central senior second class are to be particularly commended for their regularity.

In this connection, however, it is necessary to direct your attention to an evil which seems to be widespread throughout the schools. During the month there has been reported a total of 213 "lates." This is over 15 per cent. of the number of pupils enrolled. From only one division, South Central Part I, have no "lates" been reported, while some teachers have as many as fifteen and sixteen, with several instances in which the act has been reported. It is to be hoped that the parents and teachers will do their utmost to effect a remedy. punctuality and regularity being the chief characteristic essential to a pupil's success.

In the George street school the black board accommodation is hardly sufficient for the needs of the classes—owing to the projections in the wall it is impossible to utilise to advantage the amount now provided. I would therefore recommend that the matter receive your consideration.

HOCKEY MATCH TO-NIGHT.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young Celebrate Their Fortieth Wedding Anniversary.]

On Friday evening, Jan. 29th, the residence of Mr. Geo. Young, sr., North Monaghan, was the scene of a very pleasant event, it being the fortieth anniversary of their wedding day. It was what we might call a family gathering, all the family being present, together with the brothers and sisters of Mr. and Mrs. Young. About seven o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous supper was partaken of, after which an enjoyable evening was spent. During the evening the members of the family presented their father and mother with a beautiful dinner and tea set combined, and later the brothers and sisters presented Mr. and Mrs. Young with two elegant easy chairs, together with the following address:

Mr. and Mrs. Young:

It becomes my pleasant duty on behalf of your relatives assembled here to-night, to remind you that we are not forgetful of the fact that you have turned your fortieth year of wedded life. For years it has been our privilege to know your household in genial friendship. In the varied walks of neighbourly and social intercourse you have contributed abundantly toward making life pleasant in the circle in which you have moved. When sorrow visited our homes your words of consolation and sympathy made the sorrow lighter.

Recollecting the pleasant years made agreeable through your acquaintance, your relatives herewith present to you these two easy chairs, and desire your acceptance of the same.

May they prove of usefulness to you in prolonging your lives to such a time when at your golden wedding we shall, by looking at these gifts, be reminded of the delightful occasion which we celebrate to-night.

Signed on behalf of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were completely taken by surprise, and Mr. Young made a very neat reply and thanked the brothers and sisters on behalf of Mrs. Young and himself.

Mrs. S. James, Seaforth, suffered for years with what is called old peoples rash. She was treated by many physicians without any result. Mr. Fear the local druggist, recommended Dr. Chase's Ointment which relieved the irritation at once and speedily effected a permanent cure of the skin eruption. Mrs. James also says Dr. Chase's Ointment cured her of Itching Piles which she had been troubled with for years.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Rink Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

This is the team that will play the Frontenacs II at the rink to-night:—Goal, Dickson; point, Hollingshead; cover point, Thorne; forwards, Lionel King, R. Davidson, C. Graham, Harry King.

The match at the rink to-night promises to be another fine exhibition of hockey. The second team of the Frontenacs come up from Kingston to try conclusions with the Peterborough III team. The game will without doubt be as exciting as that of last Monday evening, and a big crowd should patronize the young players who are coming so rapidly to the front. Lionel King will play on the rush line in his old position and the boys hope to run up a big score on their opponents.

The Globe publishes the appended significant sarcastic reference from Ayr, whose fine hockey team has been decoyed away to other towns: "TO LET—As the Ayr Club has been thrown out of the running for this season owing to drains on the team by other towns, we advertise the rest of our players for hire to the highest bidders. Send in your applications at once, as we have only four left, all guaranteed."

The Junior Lacrosse Hockey team crossed sticks with "All Ashburnham" last night on the park rink, resulting in a victory for the Ashburnham team by a score of 3 to 2. The personnel of the team was as follows:

Junior Lacrosse Team.		All Ashburnham.
W Galley	goal	H Morgan
J Brown	point	R Glover
F Lynch	cover point	A McRae
Bruce Hickey	forwards	J McCabe
A Thompson		L McWilliams
W Borland		Les McWilliams
Fred Logan		Joe Picard

W. J. Scott acted as referee. During the game great excitement prevailed. The match was very evenly contested, but there was a great big surprise for the Ashburnham boys in the first half, as the lacrosse boys scored two to nothing. In the second half, however, Ashburnham pulled themselves together, and in the end won out.

The spectators congregated in large numbers to witness the game, there being fully five hundred on the huge rink. The return match is looked for at an early date.

Manager Young anticipates putting a search light at both ends of the rink, which affords ample light for the hockeyists.

Next game, Buffers vs. Duffers to-morrow night on the Park rink from 8 to 9. The game of the season.

The appended account of Monday's hockey match is published in the Kingston Whig:—"Peterboroites witnessed a swift hockey match last evening when the intermediate team of that place and Frontenacs came together. Admirers of the last named team are quite pleased at the manner in which the Peterborough team was held down on their own ice. The boroughites were accorded a lead of three points, as it was supposed they were that much better on their own ground. The result of the meeting leaves no doubt as to the superior strength of the local team above its opponent, and on a larger rink, such as the members have been accustomed to, the Frontenacs will easily defeat Peterborough hockeyists. In the first five minutes Peterborough scored two points; Frontenacs followed with the same number. Before half-time each team scored one point, evening up the score. In the last half Peterborough led with one point, and Frontenacs scored three in succession. It began to look as though the Kingston boys had the match by a lead of two, but within the last two minutes Peterborough scored two goals, and when time was called the score stood six up. Although the match was keen and fast it was free of roughness and a good feeling existed throughout. It was found necessary to change the goal referees; they were not giving satisfaction. Mr. F. W. Ash, Norwood, refereed, and his decisions were in every way satisfactory. The Frontenacs speak highly of their treatment in Peterborough, both on the part of the team and spectators. The second match in the round will be played off here Friday night. Four of the senior team assisted the Peterboroughs in their meeting with Frontenacs last night.

The Omemee hockey club accompanied by a number of number of backers drove down to Millbrook on Friday evening and were defeated by the local men by a score of 3 to 0. Millbrook played two juniors—Wood and Whyte, in place of Tommy Nattrass and Walter Coombe. For the home team Fred Leach, Bruce Whyte and Harry Duncan played strong games. The Citizens band was in attendance and put additional life into the proceedings. The teams lined up as follows:

Millbrook		Omemee.
F Leach	goal	A Parsons
B Whyte	point	L Lamb
W Tucker	cover point	H Kerr
J Nattrass	forwards	B Laidlay
S Pickup		W McPherson
H Wood		Bradley

NOT AN APPLICANT.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Your issue of yesterday published the report of a rather animated discussion in the council chamber the previous evening on the matter of appointing a town engineer.

Councillor McWilliams, in the course of an able disquisition on municipal management, included me in his list of probable aspirants for the office.

I am not even an applicant. As to the views of the other gentlemen named I have nothing to say, but for myself will say that under no circumstances would I accept the position of town engineer of Peterborough.

Moreover, I would accept no position from which another engineer had been removed without just cause. Such an acceptance of office would, I consider, be wholly unprofessional.

Mr. Belcher has rendered long and important service to the town. He has proved himself to be a competent and faithful officer of the several councils under which he has served, one who has borne often upon his own shoulders the sins and shortcomings of omission and commission that other shoulders should have borne.

He is getting a poor requital. I shall be sorry for the credit of the town, for the sense of fair play of the new council and, above all, for the honour of the engineering profession, should a proposition so harsh, so uncalled for, and so small, be adopted.

There is no economy in this kind of petty "spoil."

There are, doubtless, in Ontario many positions that would, if put up at auction, be knocked down at lower figures and corresponding savings made.

Councillor McWilliams deference to myself was perhaps intended as complimentary, but as I cannot see it quite in that way, I, with your permission, take this way of saying so, along with the rest that I have said.

Asking you kindly for a little space in your paper, I am, dear sir,

Yours truly,
J. W. FITZGERALD,

Feb. 3rd, 1897.

ADVERTISE IN "THE EXAMINER."

The woman who kills her babe by neglect of the health and vigor of her own womanly organism during the period preceding motherhood, is innocently and without realizing it, as much responsible for her child's death, as the mad woman who slays her babe after its birth. Thousands of babes are still-born every year because women innocently and ignorantly neglect, during the expectant period, to take proper care of the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of maternity.

There is just one known medicine that prepares a woman for capable motherhood. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly and only on the organs concerned in motherhood making them strong and healthy. It imparts to them vigor and elasticity. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, soothes pain and gives rest to the tortured nerves. It does away with the discomforts of the expectant period, and makes the coming of baby easy and almost painless. It insures the health of baby. Over 90,000 have testified to its virtues. All good druggists sell it.

"In the fall of 1893," writes Mrs. N. A. Thomas, of 400 Pulaski St., Little Rock, Ark., "while on a visit to Texarkana, Ark., I was taken with a severe pain in my head and was hardly able to get home. I was prostrated for four weeks, not being able to sit up. During that time the doctors failed to give me any relief whatever. At length I was induced to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. One bottle cured me entirely. I felt relieved after the first three doses, and have never felt the pain since. I send this testimonial that others may be benefited by it. Yours with a thousands thanks."

It is as much a woman's duty to look after the health of the family as to care for the cleanliness of the home. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser enables her to do this. It contains 1,008 pages and 300 illustrations, and is written in language that any one may understand. Over a million women own copies. A new edition is just out and for a limited time copies will be given FREE to those who write for them. If you want a paper-covered copy, send thirty-one one-cent stamps, to cover the cost of customs and mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. For cloth binding, send 50 stamps.

THE COUNTESS WINS.

The Earl of Cowley's Admissions Give His Wife a Divorce.

London, Feb. 1.—The trial of the action for divorce brought by Countess Cowley against her husband, Earl Cowley, was resumed in the divorce division of the High Court of Justice to-day. Evidence was given which proved by the admissions of the Earl himself that he had visited Brighton with a woman who passed as his wife, and the court will pronounce judgment in favor of the Countess to-morrow. The Earl was originally proceeded against as having maintained adulterous relations with a Mrs. Charrington, who, when called to the witness stand, denied that such relations had ever existed. Counsel for Countess Cowley then asked leave to withdraw the name of Mrs. Charrington from the complaint, and substitute a new co-respondent, which was granted. It was then understood that Earl Cowley would admit his relations with this woman, making no further defence of his wife's action.

FEARFUL IN THE EXTREME.

Europeans Have Died From the Plague—Havoc Among Convicts.

New York, Feb. 1.—The Journal has the following from London: A cablegram from Bombay says: Two more Europeans have died in the hospital here of the plague. The position of things is still fearful in the extreme. Yesterday two convicts died of plague in the House of Correction and a number of other convicts were attacked by the malady. The significance of this arises out of the fact that the House of Correction was planned and laid out upon the most improved sanitary principles, and yet the plague made its way within its walls.

The medical deputation from Egypt, which has been here some little time, visited the jail, where a number of convicts were inoculated with specially prepared prophylactic vaccine by Prof. Hagfkine. Members of the police force are suffering severely. The position of Karachi is most critical, and a perfect panic prevails in several other towns.

Bangkok, Feb. 1.—A Siamese mob made an attack upon Herr Kempermann, the German Minister to Siam, yesterday, and for a time the police were powerless to check the disorder. An American engineer named Bennett placed himself at the head of the police and rallied them to another effort to disperse the mob, which was successful, and the German Minister was rescued.

London, Feb. 1.—Advices received at Lloyds show that the British steamer Gardenia, Captain Rutherford, from Stettin Jan. 27 for New York, has apparently been lost in the ice of Greifswala, Prussia, near the mouth of the River Ryck. The Gardenia was a vessel of 1295 tons net burden.

CRIME IN CHICAGO.

Two Railway Men Shot to Death by Unknown Parties—A Jealous Man Kills His Adored.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—J. H. Mitchell and W. S. Werth, clerks in the freight department of the Wabash Railroad, were probably fatally shot by unknown assailants at the corner of 12th-street and Michigan-avenue at 3 o'clock this morning. The police believe the motive for the shooting was revenge. Robbery was not attempted. The men who did the shooting escaped.

Ollie Sullivan, 16 years old, was shot and fatally wounded by Frank Laurer at their home this morning. Laurer, who was a devoted admirer of Miss Sullivan, objected to the attentions of other young men, and the shooting was the result of a jealous quarrel. Later Laurer committed suicide by shooting. His body was found lying in the street.

WANT REDUCED FREIGHTS!

Mr. Blair Tackled by Delegates of the Halifax Board of Trade.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 1.—Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways, spent today in Halifax receiving a delegation representing railway and trade interests. Among the men who visited him were representatives of the Halifax Board of Trade who urged the adoption of reduced freight rates on the Intercolonial in the interests of this port, so as to induce the landing here of more ocean freight destined for Upper Canada, instead of having a great deal of it carried to Portland, Me., and Boston. Mr. Blair left tonight for Londonderry.

VON HORN WAS DESPERATE.

Shot His Wife and Her Employer and Then Killed Himself.

New York, Feb. 1.—Theodore Von Horn, a cabinet maker, shot his wife Emily and her employer, Samuel Scholhafer, at the latter's residence, No. 1742 Third-avenue, this afternoon and then killed himself. Mrs. Von Horn and Scholhafer were taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, where it was said that they would recover. The woman was shot in the neck and left breast, and Scholhafer was shot in the left arm. Von Horn shot himself in the temple. Scholhafer is a widower, 39 years old, and is a retired grocer. Mrs. Von Horn is employed by him as housekeeper. She had been separated from her husband. Von Horn appeared at Scholhafer's house this afternoon and tried to get his wife to return home with him, but she replied that he drank too much and could not support her. A quarrel ensued, in which Scholhafer took part, and the shooting followed.

SHE BIDED HER TIME.

He Told Her All About a Wonderful Creek and Got a Pointer In Return.

Perhaps the most popular man connected with the Yellowstone Park Transportation company is Captain E. C. Culver of Gardiner. In addition to the duties of justice of the peace he makes a daily trip on the park train and personally interviews every man, boy, woman and child who travels on it. He is a walking encyclopedia of park information. He knows the height of every peak, the altitude of every important location, and can give you Professor Hayden's theory of the park's geological formation. Besides all this he is a prince of good fellows and has a fund of humor which sometimes carries him away when touching up descriptions and legends of the park.

Some time ago the captain had an experience which was too good to keep, and he gave it away to a friend in town. He was going from the springs to Cinnabar, and there were three very bright young ladies on the coach. One of them asked if it were customary to have so many mosquitoes in so high an altitude. The captain assured her that it was not unusual; that they were increasing year by year; that no mosquitoes were ever known in the park until, about eight years ago, a New Jersey schoolma'am had carelessly inclosed some in her trunk and let them out at Mammoth Hot Springs, when, like rabbits in Australia, they became an increasing pest.

All agreed that it was remarkable, but one girl seemed to carry a smile of incredulity. As the conversation continued, Mr. Culver was asked what he considered the most remarkable thing in the park. He said that if beauty and grandeur were to be left out of the count, he thought the most "remarkable thing" was Alum creek, a little stream putting into the river between the falls and the lake. Originally, he said, the distance between the hotels at the lake and the falls was 26 miles, but when they commenced to sprinkle the road between the two places with water taken from Alum creek some years ago they soon found the distance between the hotels shortened by about eight miles. As the hotels were then only about 18 miles apart and the road still shrinking, the superintendent ordered them to use no more water from Alum creek. And then the captain told another little legend about the creek that was quite well authenticated.

Last year, he said, a party went through the park on a camping tour, and a young lady with them came into the park wearing No. 8 shoes. After camping on Alum creek two days and bathing her feet she went home wearing a pair of No. 2 gaiters.

At this point the girl with the incredulous smile said to him:

"Don't you think it would be a good plan to bathe your head in that creek a time or two?"—Livingston Post.

Unlike most proprietary medicines, the formula of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla and other preparations are cheerfully sent to any physician who applies for them. Hence the special favor accorded these well-known standard remedies by the World's Fair commissioners.

ONE DAY AT A TIME.

One day at a time! That's all it can be;
No faster than that is the hardest fate;
And days have their limits, however we Begin them too early and stretch them too late.

One day at a time! Every heart that aches,
Knows only too well how long it can seem;
But it's never to-day when the spirit breaks;
It's the darkened future, without a gleam.

One day at a time! But a single day,
Whatever it's load, whatever its length,
And there's a precious Scripture to say
That according to each shall be our strength.

—Helen Hunt.

"The box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore gave me wonderful relief from the start. The improvement in my general health is not the least of the benefits which I have derived from the use of this remarkable kidney remeny.

"I can recommend them very highly to anyone troubled with any form of kidney disease."

The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

MAHOGANY.

For Every Tree Cut Two Others Are Planted to Keep Up the Supply.

It will undoubtedly be news to many that the vast mahogany forests of Nicaragua are controlled in Boston. The cutting and shipping of the immense exports from that country are a great enterprise in themselves, to say nothing of bringing it here and manufacturing it into lumber.

Employed in Nicaragua and the United States of Colombia by Mr. Emory are from 1,000 to 1,500 native workmen and lumbermen. These are under American bosses. The trees from which mahogany furniture is made vary in age and size. When cut, they range in age from 25 to 50 years, and some of them are even 75 years old. They average 36 inches or more in diameter and run as large as 40 inches, and even more. For every mahogany tree that is cut two others are planted, and thus the forests are practically inexhaustible.

From the time that the tree is felled to the hour that it is dumped off the steamer at the Chelsea docks is an eventful life for the mahogany log. The tree is cut into the proper lengths, and then comes the tedious journey to the coast, where it is taken on board the vessels bound for this port. The greater part of the cutting is done during the dry season, which in the United States of Colombia begins about the 1st of December. The natives of this country seem to make better loggers and are better adapted to lumbering than the Nicaraguans. In Nicaragua the season is more irregular and for lumbering is less to be depended upon. After the tree is cut it is hauled to the nearest waterway and rafted to the coast. The logs are hauled by teams of oxen from one to six miles in Nicaragua, but often the distance is very much greater, the journey sometimes taking two days. The roads consist of paths through the forest that often are nothing more than swamps and morasses, through which the oxen and horses flounder along. Only animals trained to this kind of work would ever make any progress, and American beasts would wallow about perfectly helpless.—Boston Transcript.

A Grenville County Man Speaks his Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Feb. 1 (Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realising great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

MY LADY'S FOOT BOX.

This Latest Toilet Accessory Is Now Considered Indispensable.

The latest addition to the smart woman's belongings is her foot box. This, like the perfect manicure case, is a new world contrivance, and is one of the gifts brides of this season usually receive from their mothers. To all appearances the foot box is much like a large English despatch box, only made of leather, and a most elegant affair, where the bride's mother is rich and indulgent. Its stout trunk-shaped frame on the outside is mounted in polished yellow pigskin, bearing a silver initial disk on the lid, silver hinges, locks and reinforcements about the corners.

Within the lining is done in a fine quality of brown French kid, and a woman not initiated in the revived art of caring for her feet would be puzzled at first to know just what to do with the amazing array of dainty articles disclosed to view. Looking to the fine well being of the foot is a custom revived from the time of sandaled Greeks and Romans.

They rightly required that these extremities should be not only correct in shape and without corns or big joints, but plump, white, with rosy soles, gleaming nails, and altogether as inviting members to touch and show as are the best-kept hands. Since the rational round-toed shoes and flat heels have come into fashion again the foot is to get its ancient due of attention, and she who owns a foot box puts its contents to use once or twice every day.

Inside the lid she finds slipped under straps an ivory horn, a couple of big hooks and a little one, to button fragile evening slippers with, and then the interior body of the box is divided up into a series of trays. Everything her feet or shoes could need are contained here. First, a complete set of ebony-backed brushes for removing dust, putting on lacquer and blacking polish, and some of them in the form of flannel or chamois covered finishers.

Into appropriate nooks fit a series of glass boxes, to hold the various pomades for treating French kid, calfskin and fine Russia leather slippers, and these are accompanied by a row of silver topped crystal bottles, full of liquid dressing, varnishes and special fluids for taking stains out of satin shoes and fine skins of which house ties are made. Down in one corner is coiled a small rope, loosely woven, of every type, color and material of laces, a box of assorted buttons, spools of silk and waxed shoe threads, and a cobbler's needle, thimble and scissors, but the lower tray contains the articles of particular interest.

First a case lifts out and unrolls, to display a gleaming array of silver-handled steel instruments, cunningly contrived for every sort of amateur surgical treatment a well-cared-for foot might need. Delicate, long-handled scissors, files, nippers, knives, beveling sand paper and what not. Out with the case comes a small easel mirror, meant, when one treats one's own ten toes, to rest on the floor and reveal points difficult to see otherwise without great gymnastic efforts.

Beside the instruments are cases of foot soaps, salves, soothing plasters, a box and down puff holding talcum powder, and not least, though last, an array of suports and bandages for the healing of an injured foot or the helping of one disfigured by many years' use of ill-fitting shoes.

Now the way to derive genuine benefit from a foot box is to use it every day, and the result will be not only additional beauty of person but physical comfort. Every morning the feet ought to be slipped in a basin of warm suds, dried with a crash towel and then, after the soles have a bit of cold cream or historine rubbed into them and the nails manicured, lightly use a puff full of violet talcum powder. At night very nearly the same process ought to be repeated, and then, if the feet have been really driven out of shape by too small, short or pointed shoes, take a hint from the contents of the bottom tray of the foot box and put them in crrective bandages for the hours in bed.

Women who from long use of slippers and Oxford ties have developed abnormal ankles use the elastic silk suport for reduction. A brace is provided to soothe insteps, strained from high heels, while a doeskin sandal is strapped on to bring pinched-up toes apart and throw the crooked joint of the great toe back into place. This is wear, for a soft leather strap is passe the most difficult bandage of all to ed between the first and second toes, while the nicest is a pair of lamb's wool socks, meant to be used at night by women who suffer from moist feet. All these treasures are discovered in the perfected new foot box, that promises to do as much for the beautifying of the present generation's pedal extremities as ever the manicure case does for their hands and the fitted dressing bag for the general toilet.—Chicago Record.

A Boon For Painters.

An association has opened some rooms in Lower Phillimore place, Kensington, for the exhibition of costumes, which can be hired by artists who wish to paint any historical characters. The dresses seem to be made with great care, some of them being exact copies of dresses from old portraits. There is one pale yellow silk gown, a reproduction of the one worn by Anne of Cleves in her portrait by Holbein; another is the copy of a gown worn by Henrietta Maria. There are also many costumes not copied from pictures, but which are good specimens of the dress worn at different periods, with their hats, collars, hose and other garments all complete; indeed, we think an artist turned loose among so much brocade and embroidery, Greek drapery, Japanese satins, Georgian coats, mediæval garments, etc., would be pretty sure to find something with which he could appropriately clothe his figures; and, as the charge for hiring is very moderate, the association may be very useful to young painters who cannot afford to go to much expense for costumes.—English Builder.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. We wish to thank our customers for their patronage through the late season.

PETERBOROUGH'S GREAT FINE FUR EVENT!

Last week our sales were extraordinary—away above our fondest anticipations. People took advantage of our Sale offers and secured Fine Fur Goods at actual first cost of production. "We waste no time in useless blows, but strike the nail and in it goes." The way to sell goods quickly is to make prices irresistible.

These two columns of prices with short description, are proof of sincerity. We could more easily fill this space with boasting words, interspered with few prices—"like scanty plums in poor house puddings,"—but long stories are waste of time. Life is short—words weary—PRICES INTEREST—

Sleighing is about at its maximum and the effects are seen in the sudden increase of business. Our merchants are getting a move on.

Our constable hustled one of the road knights to town Saturday night. Wonder if the latter preferred the sleigh-drive to darning his socks in the woods?

Please keep your cats and dogs in tight,

Our Farmers' Institute meeting was in every way successful. The afternoon meeting was utilized to every extent by both speakers and listeners. Our farmers got some real practical helps on corn-growing, poultry-raising, etc. At the evening meeting, as well as the afternoon, Messrs. Caston and Meyers showed themselves men of wit and practical experience. If our farmers do not know how to grow small fruits, corn, roots and raise poultry it will not be the fault of our delegates. The hall in the evening was filled to overflowing, everybody enjoying both the programme and lectures.

The sociable held in the town hall last Wednesday evening was a decided success. It was under the auspices of the Presbyterian church here, it being the occasion of a presentation made to the late organist. The following is the programme:

Duet, violin and organ ..... Mr Steele and Miss Leitch
Recitation ..... Master W Wright
Address ..... Rev Mr Andrews
Wand exercise ..... Misses M Cardwell, E Wright, L Cardwell and B Sharp
Solo ..... Miss Jennie Eason
Address ..... T Blezard, M P P
Duet, violin and organ ..... Mr Steele and Miss Leitch

Closing remarks ..... Rev Mr Andrews
God Save the Queen.

The presentation being announced, Mr. and Mrs. T. Fraser were called to the front, when the latter was made the recipient of a purse containing some $40. The address read in connection was as follows:

DEAR MRS. FRASER,—We take the present opportunity of showing you our approval of your services as organist in the Presbyterian church here. All your life you have been intimately associated with us in church work, and by your amiable and cheerful disposition you have become a general favourite with us all. We are sorry to have you leave us, but you leave behind us many fond recollections and memories, and we all trust that the home you have just entered will be without clouds and full of sunshine and joy. So please accept this purse as an earnest token of the kindly feelings the Westwood Presbyterians entertain for you, resting assured that the best wishes and hearty good will of each and every one of us are with you at all times.

Signed on behalf of Westwood Presbyterian congregation,

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

Paragraphs of Local Interest to Endeavourers Supplied by the County Union:

WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR PRAYER CHAIN.

(Subject of Prayer for February.)

FOR ARMENIA.

Pray that Armenia may be spared further prosecution, and that a way to prosperity may be opened to the thousands left destitute by the Turk.

A LITTLE LESSON IN THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER.

The winter of suffering is upon benighted Armenia. The effects of past persecutions have left multitudes in hunger and nakedness. Worse than these is the dread of a renewal of Turkish massacres. The sword is not stayed; only suspended. The soul-piercing spectacle should cause a prayer to leap from the heart of every Christian to the God who alone can save. For a month we of the Prayer Chain are to unite our petitions in a plea for Armenia, that she may not have to shed further blood. What a prayer is this! That murder may be averted; that defenceless women and children may be kept from the hand of the brute; that children no longer may be orphaned by the Turkish sword; that tender babes may not have to find a shelter amid winter's snows; that children of our common Lord may not be driven to and fro in suffering like hunted beasts;—such is our prayer for this month! May our supplications so move heaven and onrown hearts that the persecutions may be stopped, and that from our store we may send speedy relief to the suffering Armenians. Thus will our deeds echo our prayers, and God be praised.

County Executive will meet in the Y. M. C. A. parlours on Saturday, 6th inst., at eleven o'clock. The preliminary arrangements will be made for the annual convention and other important business will be brought before the committee for discussion.

NORWOOD Y.P.S.C.E.

The most successful meeting held this year by the Norwood Presbyterian Junior Society was the meeting of Jan. 28th. A girl twelve years old led the meeting. The programme opened with a hymn, followed by the Lord's Prayer, repeated in concert. Then a Scripture reading on the topic, "Loyalty to Christ," the leader and members taking the alternate verses. A hymn was then sung, followed by roll call. In answer to their names each member gave a Bible verse, beginning with the first letter of their surname. Only two members failed to respond with a verse. The topic was next discussed, and after a hymn "committee exercise" was held. The committees were called in turn. For example: When the Sunshine Committee was called for, one of its members responded with a Bible verse, bearing on the work of the committee. Then the convenor standing told how this committee showed its loyalty to Christ, and a verse of the hymn, "Scatter Sunshine" was sung. Seven committees answered in this way. The hymns in connection with each were entirely appropriate. The meeting closed with the pledge repeated in concert, and the Mizpah benediction.

SOUTH MONAGHAN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The South Monaghan Agricultural Society held a concert in their hall on Wednesday, January 27th. The programme was very amusing and entertaining, Mr. Jas. Fax, of Toronto being the chief feature. In singing his comic songs he excelled even himself in his amusing manner of rendering them. He was accompanied on the piano by Miss Chambers, of Millbrook, who played in her most finished manner.

The programme was principally of a musical character and was as follows:

The proceeds amounted to $40. The president, Mr. Wm. Rutherford, being prevented by sickness from occupying the chair, it was filled in a very creditable manner by Mr. Geo. L. Fair, secretary. Dr. McKee, of Bailliieboro, was to assist in the programme, but was unfortunately hurt in the afternoon by being thrown out of his cutter, but is now able to be around again. The committee who had the programme in charge may feel satisfied with their success. Another concert will probably be given in the near future.

A VERY MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

Did Charles Bradbury, a Barnado Boy, Lose His Life While Burning a Stable for Revenge?

Toronto, Feb. 3.

Yesterday afternoon Coroners Armstrong of York Township and Atkins of Toronto opened an inquest on the charred remains of a lad, Charles Bradbury. The inquiry was held in the house of Mr. Edward Hunter, lot 12, third concession of East York. Only the evidence of one witness was taken, and an adjournment was made until 2 o'clock to-day.

The remains of the lad Bradbury are now in a barrel, on the doorstep of a house on this farm. He was a Barnardo boy, and 18 months ago he was turned over to Stewart and John Blain, who were lessees of 100 acres from Edward Hunter. The Blain men lived in a small house with the boy, and looked after themselves. There were no women employed in the house.

On Monday evening the outhouses, stables and barn rented by the brothers were burned. It is claimed that the dead boy set fire to the premises in a fit of revenge for an imagined injury.

The story is that about 6 o'clock John Blain had some words with the boy, who was in a sulky fit. The young fellow threw himself on the ground and refused to get up. Blain gave him a slight kick and Stewart Blain carried the boy into the house. They had supper and the two Blains drove away to a neighbor's a mile away.

At 7.30 o'clock A. E. Hunter, a son of the owner of the farm, saw that the cow stable rented by the Blains was on fire. He gave the alarm, but was too late to save from burning the seven head of cattle stabled there.

The fire spread rapidly, and the neighbors came quickly, and with willing hands rescued the horses from the adjoining stable.

The fact that the coroner has commenced an investigation appears to be sufficient grounds for all kinds of rumors. The body of the boy was found on Tuesday morning in a box-stall in the stable which was burned. How he got there is the mystery. If the theory of the neighbors is correct, the boy, after being chastised, set fire to the premises out of revenge and then out of fright buried himself in the straw in the stall and remained there to be burned. Others think that is not the case, and that a thorough investigation should be held.

The loss amounts to about $3000. The buildings were insured for $1100 in the Royal. The Blains had no insurance on their property, and they refused to estimate their loss.

Bread Riots in Spain.

The authorities have resigned, owing to their inability to suppress the disturbances and martial law has been proclaimed.

Heart Disease Kills.

Relief in 30 Minutes.

The most pronounced symptoms of heart disease are palpitation, or fluttering of the heart, shortness of breath, weak or irregular pulse, smothering spells, swelling of feet or ankles, nightmare, spells of hunger or exhaustion. The brain may be congested, causing headaches, dizziness or vertigo. In short, whenever the heart flutters, or tires out easily, aches or palpitates, it is diseased and treatment is imperative. Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure has saved thousands of lives. It absolutely never fails to give perfect relief in 30 minutes, and to cure radically. Sold by H. S. McDonald.

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 20x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north: and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 14, '97. HATTON & WOOD.

WE ARE GLAD

To be able to announce that we have finished Stock-taking, and have something left after a satisfactory year's business. To be sure Profits have been small during the year just closed, but we have kept the expense account small likewise.

Ladies who shop here have shown their appreciation of our goods and our plain way of doing business. We have reason to be thankful for their confidence and patronage, and solicit a continuance of their favours for another year.

An Aftermath Of Bargains.

We have laid out for bargain overs special lots of DRESS GOODS, APRON MUSLINS, FLANNELETTE, FLANNEL, and the rest of our WINTER MILLINERY, which we can afford to sell at a loss at the end of the season, so as to make room for new goods. As a matter of fact you run no risk in buying here, because our goods have no chance to grow old. The store the ladies like must have a large daily outflow of goods to keep the stock new and fresh. You catch the idea.

OFF TO WASHINGTON

Sir Richard Cartwright and Hon. Mr. Davies Depart

THEY WILL SEE CHAIRMAN DINGLEY

In an Effort to Arrange Trade and Other Matters Satisfactorily—The Government, the C.P.R. and the Crow's Nest Railway—General News Notes From the Capital.

Ottawa, Feb. 3.—(Special.)—Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Davies left for Washington this afternoon. Before their departure they saw His Excellency, who accredited them to Sir Julian Pauncefote. The principal object of their visit is to see Congressman Dingley, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, and who is recognized as a personage of great influence at Washington these days. It is freely admitted in Government circles that the two Ministers would not have gone to Washington just now had it not been for the untimely visit and the injudicious utterances of Mr. John Charlton. The Government on this account has been compelled to take action somewhat prematurely. While occasion will be had to sound the Republican leaders on the question of trade, the chief object of the Ministers on this visit will be to ascertain what prospects there are for securing exemption of Canadians from the operation of the Alien Labor law. The general impression here is that the Ministers will not get very much comfort at Washington. The utterances of United States newspapers as regards Canada are not very encouraging just now.

It is reported in political circles that negotiations are in progress between the Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway. It is said Mr. Blair realizes that a line through the Crow's Nest could not be built by the Government as cheaply as by an independent corporation, but there stands in his way the feeling in Alberta, as well as in British Columbia, in favor of the construction and operation of the line under Government auspices. Mr. Blair is anxious to placate the prevailing feeling in the Territories and British Columbia before committing the Government to aid the Canadian Pacific in this matter. He wants a definite understanding in the matter of freight rates, not only over the proposed new line, but over all the lines of the company. The contention of the company in the past has been that its rates are not unreasonable, and, while it is not stated precisely, what Mr. Blair's wishes are, on excellent authority it is learned that he will not consent to the acquisition of the charter for the Crow's Nest line by the C. P. R., and Government assistance towards its construction, until a definite arrangement regarding local and through rates has been secured with the company.

A Montreal gentleman who was in town to-day, informed your correspondent that the British Columbia Southern charter, which was acquired from the Legislature of British Columbia, has not been disposed of to Senator George A. Cox and other eastern capitalists, but that Mr. Cox and gentlemen in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto have secured a substantial interest in a coal company, which controls thousands of acres of coal lands, adjacent to the proposed line through the Crow's Nest Pass.

Rev. John McDougall of Morley, N. W. T., and a Cree Indian chief named Little Bear arrived to-night from the Northwest. Mr. McDougall will act as interpreter for Little Bear, who has come to negotiate with the Government in respect to certain rights of the red men. After the rebellion ten years ago Little Bear and hundreds of his tribe fled across the line and settled in Montana. A year ago they returned from that country, where they were making a good living, and again settled in the Northwest, the Government having granted them amnesty. The terms of the agreement are not quite plain, and Little Bear is here to press the claims of his tribe. They want a reserve, and the privileges enjoyed by other Indians. Little Bear is a remarkably intelligent-looking Indian, and, according to Mr. McDougall, who knows him well, is a man of sterling qualities.

Free distribution of sample packages of certain varieties of grain and other agricultural products which have best succeeded on the Experimental Farms will be made again this season. The seeds are put up in 3-pound packages and sent through the mails to persons making application therefor. Owing to the large number of applications already received it has been decided that no more than one package of any variety of seeds will be sent to each person applying. The lists will be closed on March 1 next, and the distribution of samples (except samples of potatoes) will then immediately be made.

Mr. Hugh A. Allan of Montreal saw Sir Richard Cartwright to-day on steamship business in connection with the fitting out of cold storage facilities. It is understood that the Dominion and Allan lines are desirous of meeting the wishes of the Minister of Agriculture, but the cost being necessarily heavy, they ask that a bonus be given them to the amount of one half the original outlay. Taking three of the main lines into the consideration, this would mean something like $150,000, for which the companies would give a regular cold storage, and fully meet the wishes of the Government.

Dr. McPhail of Bishop's College, who a few weeks ago went to the Old Country to continue his investigations in regard to a remedy to prevent the blackening of lobsters, has returned and reported to the Government. His scheme is completed, and as explained to such eminent handlers of canned goods in the Old Country as Cross and Blackwell and E. Lazenby, met with their entire endorsation and approbation. He has also letters of warm commendation from half a dozen other large dealers in London, and is now prepared to put his ideas into operation.

The Executive of the Dominion Legislative Board of Railway Employes is in session in this city preparing bills in the interests of railway employes, to be introduced at the next session of Parliament. The board is also looking into the matter of the discharge of railway employes on the Intercolonial Railway, in the interests of the different branches of railway organizations. The members of the board will interview Premier Laurier, Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. Mr. Blair to-morrow, and ask for an investigation into these dismissals. They claim to have affidavits to show that men who were discharged did not take any part in the late election or in politics at any time. They believe that in justice to the men a full investigation should be held.

His Excellency the Governor-General to-day received the following message from the Earl of Elgin, Viceroy of India: "Prompt sympathy shown by Canada most warmly appreciated here. Famine Fund Committee consider money more useful than grain or other supplies."

It is said that unless the Canadian Atlantic mail service is improved there is a possibility of the Canadian Pacific losing the transportation of mails for China and Japan.

Mr. Hayter Reed, Deputy Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs, has been absent from the department this week, suffering from cold.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has been considering with Prof. Prince the advisability of further changes in the lobster regulations, which, however, will not go into effect before next year.

Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, is in Montreal on Quebec Canal business.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on the Government to introduce insolvency legislation the coming session. In view of the discussion which such a bill would evoke, it is hardly possible there will be such a measure.

The Government cruiser Quadra, which has been looking after illegal fishing by the Americans along the coast of British Columbia, north of Vancouver Island, has completed its voyage of investigation, and will probably lay up for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. J. W. Smith, teller of the Bank of British North America here, has been instructed to go to Rossland, B.C., to take charge of the branch bank there. Mr. Smith came here some time ago from Hamilton.

Speaker Edgar has decided, it is said, to uniform the messengers of the House in a similar manner to that in vogue in the Ontario chamber.

OTTAWA LAWYERS MAD.

The Rumor That Mr. Frank Anglin is to Be Made County Judge There Makes Them Indignant.

Ottawa, Feb. 3.—(Special.)—The well-authenticated rumor that wires are being worked for the appointment of Mr. Frank Anglin of Toronto to the county judgeship likely to be made vacant shortly by the retirement of Judge Ross of this city has set the local bar all agog. An impromptu meeting of the Ottawa bar was held this afternoon and an indignant protest prepared. The favored local candidate for the position is City Solicitor MacTavish.

YOUNG HERO REWARDED.

An Ottawa Boy Who is to Have a Medal for Bravery.

Hamilton, Feb. 3.—(Special.)—The governors of the Royal Canadian Humane Society, ever prompt to recognise sterling merit, have awarded their handsome medal for bravery to a young hero of Ottawa, Mr. D. L. Fortier, a brother of Mr. L. Fortier of the Department of the Interior. Last year a child 5 years of age, mistaking the sawdust in the Ottawa River for solid ground, fell in, and was pulled out from the swift current by young Fortier, who had to bring the child from beneath the sawdust and swim a long way to safety. The latest recipient of this honor is but 15 years old, and, having entered the merchant marine, is now in New York City preparing for a trip to Hong Kong, China. President Adam Brown to-day sent on the medal to New York, where it will be presented by the Humane Society.

Footpads Rampant at Erie.

Erie, Pa., Feb. 3.—The footpads who have infested this city for some time past made a bold foray last night, and business men, clerks and railroad men were among the victims. L. L. Montgomery, a railroad man, after being stripped of his money and valuables, was deliberately shot in the face, and is in a critical condition.

MONTREAL SINNERS

Seem to Flourish in Spite of the Law's Restraints.

MAJOR BOND AND HIS COLLEAGUES

Have Done Something, However, Towards Checking Evils—Mr. Cantlie Denies That the Cobourg Woolen Mills Co. is in Financial Trouble—Items From Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 3.—(Special.)—The Citizens' League, of which Major Bond is the moving spirit, gives a report annually, which is always looked forward to with interest, and the one to be presented on Monday to the general meeting will be no exception.

Speaking of the illegal sale of liquor, the report says: The infraction of the laws governing the sale of liquor is becoming more dangerous and unprofitable. A large number of "shebeens" have been suppressed, and the revenue authorities, as represented by Chief Legault, have evinced much activity during the past year. The sale of liquor during prohibited hours in hotels to others than bona fide guests remains a weak spot in the administration, but the most glaring difficulty is in connection with disorderly houses. In these places nearly every clause of the License Act is violated. Liquor is sold without license, during prohibited hours, to intoxicated persons and to minors. Enquiry shows that the revenue authorities are fully aware of these facts, but have apparently been satisfied with the imposition of a fine once or twice a year, virtually regarded by those fined as a license. This is a state of affairs calling for a vigorous and determined protest from the citizens of Montreal. It bears more particularly on license holders, who are made subject to the full effect of the law. Strong representation has been made by the League to the Hon. Provincial Treasurer, and we have received an assurance from him that action will be taken. There is ample remedy in the present Act, which entails imprisonment for a third conviction. One or two examples would produce an immediate beneficial effect. Disorderly houses flourish, the report continues, with comparatively little restraint, although the League has been able to check some of the most disgraceful places.

The League in conclusion regrets the death of Archbishop Fabre, one of its stauncest friends.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Kingston and Montreal Forwarding Company, limited, held in their offices, Board of Trade Building, this morning, the following directors were elected: Frank Ross, Quebec; George Hall, Ogdensburg, N.Y.; J. B. Carruthers, Kingston, Ont.; Wm. Stewart and John Torrance, jr., Montreal.

At the directors' meeting, immediately following, the officers elected were: Frank Ross, president; George Hall, vice-president; William Stewart, managing director; J. B. Carruthers, John Torrance, jr. Mr. James Stewart was re-appointed agent at Kingston and Mr. W. C. Simpson secretary-treasurer, at Montreal.

The family of Ald. Prefontaine, M. P., received a cable from Paris announcing that the chairman of the Road Committee had undergone an operation for an injury he sustained some time ago. The operation was successful and Ald. Prefontaine, after ten days' residence in hospital, expects to be able to continue his tour through Europe before taking up the railway and bridge business which was the primary cause of his trip across the Atlantic.

Mr. James Cantile, who is one of the directors of the Cobourg Woolen Mills Company, denies, as stated in a Toronto despatch, that the company is financially embarrassed. He states that the mills have only suspended operations until such time as business improves. Mr. Cantile pointed out that the despatch stated the liabilities were $70,000, the mill plant being given a value of $10,000. As a matter of fact, the mill property was valued at $103,000 and the affairs of the company showed a surplus of $95,000 over and over all liabilities. All claims would be met and in no sense could it be said that financial embarrassment had overtaken the company.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

A Serious Wreck on the Northwestern Railroad in South Dakota.

Arlington, S.D., Feb. 3.—A wreck occurred on the Northwestern Railway here at 9.20 last evening, in which four persons were killed and a large number injured. The killed were: Conductor R. Addington, Brakeman F. L. Hosac, John Loftus of Kismet, Samuel Harris of Arlington. The train, which was wrecked, was unable to take the side track, the switch being clogged with ice. The engine from the approaching train struck the passenger car, completely wrecking it.

WHISKEY MEN AT WAR.

Distillers in the West Will Fight Each Other to the Death.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—A special from Peoria says: Prediction is made by some distillers here that the present war will be the hottest ever known. One of them said: "It is a war of extermination, the survival of the fittest."

The several interests have slashed prices until the goods are only six cents over the Government tax. This is less than the cost of production.

The war is a result of the failure to renew the distillers' agreement, in effect a year ago, regulating capacity and prices.

Given Up for Lost.

Providence, R.I., Feb. 3.—The schooner Cora Hanson has been given up for lost by her managing owner, Captain A. W. Stahl of Waldoboro, Me. She was a medium-sized three-master, and nothing has been heard from her since she left Brunswick, Ga., several months ago, on a trip north. She had a crew of 10.

Cripple

The iron grasp of scrofula has no mercy upon its victims. This demon of the blood is often not satisfied with causing dreadful sores, but racks the body with the pains of rheumatism until Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

How the Laurier's Government Care for the Farmer has Opened a new Market.

CANADA'S CATTLE AT BUFFALO.

East Buffalo, Feb. 1.—(Special.)—The removal of the quarantine regulations on cattle was marked to-day by the receipt of about 25 cars from Canada, which included some 15 cars of butchers' stock and 10 cars of stockers and feeders. The first venture in about eight years of Canadian cattle on this market caught a bad day. Although the total were 10 cars less than on Monday of last week the general market was inclined to be stagnant. The attendance of outside buyers was decidedld light, while local butchers and wholesale slaughterers were limited purchasers. The decline in the market, being reported full with ample supplies on hand, both eastern and western advices reported markets devoid of strength. Export steers of choice quality were steady and did not participate in the general decline of 10c to 25c. One car of Canada butcher steers, weighing 1,183 lbs, sold at $4.25, a few lots of light weight at $3.90 to $4 and some not so good at $3.65 to $3.85. A couple of cars of Canadian heifers brought $3.75, mixed butchers, $3.45 to $3.65 and butchers' cows $2.60 to $3.75. There were ten cars of Canadas in the stocker and feeder supply and about an equal number of natives. In this department values were fully 25c off from last Monday's values. A number of best feeders, which showed some flesh, sold to butchers, but trade was unsatisfactory. A load of feeders from Koehler Bros., of Cayuga, Ont., averaging 896 lbs, sold at $3.75, the top price of the day, the bulk of Canadas selling at $3.25 to $3.50. A few Canada stockers, of which there were were only a moderate supply, sold at $3.25; some coarse stockers at $2.50 to $3.70. On the whole and at the close the conditions in this department were the reverse of satisfactory but there was a good clearance of stock and not many cattle remained unsold at the close. It was just in between time for the feeder trade, and it is quite likely that a couple of weeks later will see a very much better market. The receipts from Canadian points were well diversified throughout western Ontario, and while shippers have not realised as well as expected they are not altogether dissatisfied with the trade of to-day.

MONTREAL.

Montreal, Feb. 1.—There were about 650 head of butchers' cattle, 25 calves and 250 sheep and lambs offered at the East End Abattoir to-day. The butchers were present in large numbers and trade was fair, with a slight reduction in the prices of pretty good cattle, as the proportion of this kind of stock was larger than usual. The best beeves sold at from 3½ to 3¾c per lb., with pretty good stock at from 3¼c to 3½c do. A carload of large fat cows, averaging about 1,200 pounds each, were sold at $38 each. Common and inferior beasts sold at from 1½c to 2½c per lb. The calves were sold at from $2 to $5 each. Sheep sold in lots at about 3c per lb.; lambs sold at from 4c to 4½c per lb. Fat hogs of small size sold at from 4½c to 4¾c per lb., and heavy hogs at from 3¾c to 3¾c do.

GRAVEL IN THE BLADDER.

Used Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Jan. 25 (Special).—Mr. John Medill, known locally as well as far and near as a physical giant, and glorying in his strength, came to be a great sufferer and tells of his cure as follows:—

"I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me and I think it will cure others why not say so?

"It is true I had been suffering for some time with Bladder trouble, and, learning of a cure made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

"In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the highest terms of praise, for I know of many persons who have been cured by them."

LONDON NEWSPAPERS

On the Jingoism of United States Politicians.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE'S ACTION

Appears to Have Been Designed to Amend the Arbitration Treaty Out of Existence - A Liberal Victory—Prince of Wales Dines With Mr. Bayard—Cable News.

London, Feb. 3.— Commenting editorially upon the amendments proposed by the Foreign Affairs Committee of the United States Senate, The Daily News says: The amendments to the Anglo-American Treaty, reported to the United States Senate, were made with a view to amending the treaty out of existence. It would be curious if the Venesuelan arbitration proceedings were adopted and the Anglo-American Treaty rejected. In that case the American seal for arbitration would appear decidedly altruistic. The Americans would leave it as something good for others, but not as good for themselves.

The Daily Chronicle, in an editorial, claims the amendments to the arbitration treaty are even worse than expected. It adds: The amendments would make the treaty a mere husk. If the United States Senate succeeds in thus wrecking the Anglo-American Treaty the relations of all nations will be worse than if the word arbitration had never been mentioned. England can, however, do nothing further. There is only one thing additional that we should like to see in this particular, and that is a manifesto in favor of the treaty signed by every minister of religion in both countries. If some of our American contemporaries would undertake to secure the signatures of the American clergy The Chronicle would answer for the signatures of the British clergy. Then the United States Senate would be able to see the position it really occupies.

The Standard, in an editorial, says: "The treatment of the Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty by the United States Senate is a significant evidence of the dangerous vitality of jingoism among the leading American politicians."

The Journal Des Debats and Temps both comment upon the "destructive effect of the amendments."

The Times, in an editorial this morning, expresses its fullest approval of the Venesuelan arbitrators selected on both sides of the Atlantic. "It would have been impossible to select arbitrators more acceptable to the people of Great Britain," says The Times in conclusion, "than the members of the United States Supreme Court, whose fame stands very high here as Americans."

The Standard, in an editorial, approves of the Venesuelan arbitrators, and says: "The exclusion of Hon. Frederick Coudert may be accepted as an evidence of good faith on the part of the United States. We apprehend there is no longer any reason for a delay in the resumption of direct diplomatic relations with Venesuela."

MR. BAYARD DINED THE PRINCE

A Distinguished Company Around the U.S. Ambassador's Table.

London, Feb. 3.—Hon. T. F. Bayard, United States Ambassador, gave a dinner in honor of the Prince of Wales this evening at his residence, 23 Eaton Square. Besides the guest of the occasion the list of those present included Cardinal Vaughan, Lord Salisbury, the Marquis of Lansdowne, Lord Halsbury, Lord High Chancellor of England: the Earl of Leven and Melville, Earl Stanhope, the Earl of Camperdown, the Earl of Northbrook, Earl Carrington, Lord Esher, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Hon. Thomas B. Ferguson, United States Minister to Sweden; Lord Playfair, Lord Russell of Killowen, Lord Chief Justice of England; Sir William Colville, Sir William Russell, Sir Charles Halle, Sir Robert Clements Markham, Sir Evelyn Wood, General Clarke, J. R. Carter Seyfus, Embassy and Lieutenant-Commander W. S. Cowles, Naval Attache to the American Embassy. The occurrence of the official dinner of the Speaker of the House of Commons this evening prevented the Ministers who are members of the House of Commons from attending Mr. Bayard's banquet.

Lords Halsbury and Playfair were the first of the distinguished company to arrive, and the Prince of Wales was the last. His Royal Highness, attended by General Clarke, arrived in a two-horse brougham at 8.30 p.m. After paying his respects to his host the Prince congratulated Lord Salisbury upon the recurrence of his birthday, the Premier being 67 years old to-day.

Mr. Bayard sat at the head of the table, with the Prince of Wales, who was in a most genial mood, upon his right, and Lord Salisbury upon his left. The only decorations of the dining room and tables were made up of azaleas and lilies of the valley. The dessert was served at 10 o'clock, when the conversation of the guests became spirited. Mrs. Bayard did not make her appearance during the evening.

In the course of the evening Ambassador Bayard offered a toast to Queen Victoria, and the Prince of Wales proposed the health of President Cleveland, speaking in generous terms of America's chief magistrate. The guests took their departure at 11 o'clock.

WOMAN FRANCHISE IN BRITAIN.

Mr. Begg of Glasgow Got His Bill Past the Second Reading.

London, Feb. 3.—In the House of Commons to-day Ferdinand Begg, member for the St. Rollox division of Glasgow, moved the second reading of the bill to confer the Parliamentary franchise upon women.

Mr. Begg's motion was carried by a vote of 228 to 157, and the bill accordingly passed its second reading. It is not likely, however, that it will be advanced any further this year.

Mr. Thomas G. Bowles, Conservative member for Lynn Regis, moved in the House of Commons to-day that a copy of the Arbitration treaty be laid on the table, meaning in British Parliamentary language that the full text of the document be placed before the House.

The motion was adopted.

BRITAIN'S ARBITRATORS.

Sketches of Baron Herschell and Mr. Richard Henn Collins.

London, Feb. 3.—Baron Herschell, appointed British representative on the Venezuelan Arbitration Commission, was born in 1837. He was called to the bar in 1860, and in 1872 became a Queen's Counsel. In the following year he was appointed Recorder of Carlisle, and in 1874 was returned to Parliament for Durham City, which he represented till 1885 in the Liberal interest. In Mr. Gladstone's Ministry in 1880 he was appointed Solicitor-General, and was knighted in the same year. He was raised to the peerage as Lord Herschell in 1886 and became Lord Chancellor. He took part in the round-table conference on Home Rule at its first meeting held in the House. On the return to power of the Gladstonians in 1892 he was again made Lord Chancellor.

Richard Henn Collins, Baron Herschell's colleague, who is a Justice of the High Court of England, was born in 1842. He was called to the bar in 1867 and was created Queen's Counsel in 1883. He enjoyed a large practice, both as a junior and as Queen's Counsel. In April, 1891, he was elevated to the bench in succession to the late Justice Stephenson, who had then recently retired. He is joint author of "Smith's Leading Cases."

Michaelovitch Restored to Respectability

London, Feb. 3.—A despatch to The Daily Telegraph from St. Petersburg announces that the Czar has cordially received and restored all of the rights of the Grand Duke Michaelovitch, who was banished from Russia and deprived of his uniform by the late Czar for contracting a mesalliance with the Countess Von Torby, a daughter of Prince Nicholas of Nassau, by his morganatic marriage with Pushkin's daughter. He was pardoned a year ago.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

RESENTMENT AT WINDSOR.

Washington Alien Labor Bill Has Caused a Good Deal of Interest.

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 3.—The prospect of the Alien Labor bill being passed at Washington has caused no little resentment in Windsor, and residents of Detroit who work here fear retaliation. Last summer the Detroit workers in Windsor and Walkerville, numbering 300, petitioned against it, and they will do so again. S. F. Evans, general manager of the Canadian Typograph works, where high-grade bicycles are manufactured, will pass a reciprocal measure himself, and compel all his employes to resign or move to Windsor the moment the Corliss bill is passed. Nearly all the high-priced men in the factory are Americans. Four contractors and five bricklayers were found discussing the matter in Contractor White's office. "In the past ten years I have paid out over $50,000 for Detroit labor," said Contractor Smith, "while they will not let one of our men work on public works. Some of the men in this room were discharged over there when it was found they were Canadians."

Contractor Mangan added that for two years 35 Detroit bricklayers had come over to Walkerville day after day to work. "If that galvanized Canadian Corliss thinks that only Windsor will suffer by his law, he is making a mistake. Detroiters will feel it more than we do. The entire East end sewer system, besides the sewers in Victoria-avenue, McDougall-street and Ouellette-avenue, the biggest sewer contracts ever given out in Windsor, were nearly all given to American contractors. Windsor contractors do not object to this if the Americans do the work cheaper, but they think there should be reciprocity.

Dr. Chase's Ointment Will Cure Them at a Cost of But 60 Cents.

Piles, scrofula, eczematic eruptions, scald head, salt rheum and all other annoying and painful skin diseases can be easily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. Chase's Ointment was recommended to me by Mr. Brennan, of the Summerside, P.E.I., Journal. I tried it, and one box completely cured me."

Mr. Statia, the editor of the Streetsville, Ont., Review, gives this unsolicited testimonial under date of Nov. 6, 1895: "Half a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured my daughter of eczema. That was six months ago, and there has since been no reappearance of the disease."

T. Wallace, blacksmith, of Iroquois, Ont., was troubled with blind itching piles for 20 years. "I tried every remedy that came out in vain," he writes, "until I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was a godsend. One box cured me."

Mind Reading.

To do do this trick will appear at first to the outsider hard to perform; so it is until you know how, then it is comparatively simple. First tie a large silk handkerchief, folded twice, over some person's eyes. Pass your hands over his face once or twice, and gently smooth his forehead. Then quietly ask him where he can get the best groceries at reasonable prices, and if he is possessed of ordinary common sense he will answer without hesitation: From R. BROWN & Co., 394 George street, Importers of Groceries, Wines and Liquors.

AN INEXPERIENCED YOUTH

Takes Two Young Girls for a Cutter Drive With Almost Fatal Results.

Last evening a youth hired a horse at a town livery, and in company with two little girls from Ashburnham, proceeded to enjoy a pleasant drive. The lad (who evidently knew nothing about horses) drove up Rogers' raceway, where the ice was covered with skaters. When near Green's pump factory, and in attempting to turn, the cutter turned over and the occupants thrown out.

The horse dashed on up the raceway, jumping the crib work, and diving into the open channel above Rogers' dam, which had been cut to allow anchor ice to pass.

A large number of skaters was soon on the scene. The cutter was unhitched and all hands went to work to save the unfortunate animal. After considerable labour the horse was rescued, but not a minute too soon, as it certainly would have perished from the cold dip.

In the meantime one of the little girls lay unconscious on the ice, as a result of the shock, and it was some minutes before she recovered. She was taken to the nearest house and restoratives applied. She was able to walk home, and appeared none the worse, but, it is hoped, considerably the wiser as a result of the runaway.

The youth was considerably frightened over the affair, and is certainly convinced that he has yet heaps to learn about driving.

The horse, which is an excellent driver, is none the worse to-day. Livery proprietors cannot be too careful in allowing their horses to be driven by mere children in the future.

GREEN—ROUTH NUPTIALS.

Solemnized Last Evening by Rev. J. G. Potter.

Last evening the wedding of Mrs. Sarah Routh, nee Crothers, formerly of Cobourg, took place to Mr. G. Walter Green, one of Peterborough's most enterprising manufacturers, and proprietor of the Green Pump Works.

The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. John Jamieson, No. 85 Aylmer street, and was performed by the Rev. J. G. Potter, pastor of St. Andrew's church.

Only a few of the most intimate friends of the participating parties were in attendance. The bride was assisted by Miss Annie Crothers, her sister, and the groom was supported by Mr. Harry Westbrook.

The wedding dejeuner was served immediately after the ceremony and an informal reception was held. A large number of most beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside on Elizabeth street, Ashburnham.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

THE RESULT OF THE HEARING IN THE BRADY CASE.

Conclusion of the Report of the Evidence—The Accused Committed—Bail Accepted.

Mr. C. J. Tully, sworn, stated that he had been a clerk with Mr. Brady for a year and a half. He was now with Mr. Kerneghan. He quoted the price of the vinegar in stock as 22 or 25 cents a gallon. There were 13 barrels. Seven of them contained 42 gallons and six 26 gallons. He also gave the prices of a number of other articles in stock. He had nothing to do with regard to fixing the price of the stock when it was sold to Mr. Kerneghan. A quantity of seed, etc., was taken from the storehouse to Brownscombe's stable, when the storehouse was needed for hay.

Mr. Wood asked if about $200 worth of clover seed had been taken from the store to Mr. Brady's house after the season closed.

Witness thought there had been five bushels of clover seed left over. It was worth about $5 a bushel. It might still be in the storehouse for all he knew.

Cross-examined, the witness stated to Mr. Moore that there was considerable old stock in the store. Tea, vinegar and soaps were the staple articles. Some of the vinegar had suffered from frost. He knew of one barrel which had half leaked away. Kerneghan was most anxious to buy. He seemed bound to get the stock. There were others who wanted it. If buying such a stock himself witness would not have given $800 for it. There was no secrecy observed about the sale whatever. He knew Mr. Brady had intended to go to Bobcaygeon. He had seen the money for the sale paid over. After receiving it he got into a sleigh and stated he was going to Bobcaygeon, and would be back the following night. Mr. McAlister came into the store several times asking where Brady was. He told Mr. McAllister that Mr. Brady was in Bobcaygeon and was

ON THE WAY HOME

Friday. He had no reason for believing that there was anything dishonest in the deal.

Re-examined by Mr. Wood, witness stated that Mr. Trickey was one who had wished to buy the stock. Mr. Brady had gone to Bobcaygeon and Enniemore on a collecting tour. The books were in the possession of the witness. He was sent to get them.

R. B. Rice, accountant in the employ of H. P. Eckhart, wholesale grocers, Toronto, and assignee of the estate of Thos. Brady, sworn, stated that Mr. Brady had assigned to him on Saturday. He had made all preparations to close up the estate. He was not prepared to make a statement as to the estate or creditors until the creditors had held a meeting. His firm was a creditor to the extent of about $500. A number of chests of tea had been returned to the house by Brady.

An eight hundred dollar stock would make a big display in a grocery store. He was willing to walk through the store and give his opinion as to the value.

The magistrate at this juncture remarked that something of this kind was necessary for unless it was proven that the stock had been sold below value and thus a fraud committed, the charge would fall to the ground.

Mr. Clarke, of the Consolidated Milling Company, sworn, stated that the claim of his company against the prisoner was $213. This was in the form of an overdue note and an account which had been running for a couple of months.

Mr. R. C. Matthewws, secretary-treasurer of the Geo. Matthews Co. (Ltd.), sworn, stated his company was a creditor to Mr. Brady to the amount of $98.97. Part of this was an overdue note. He had tried to see Mr. Brady about it but failed.

John O'Donnell, lumberman, of Bobcaygeon, sworn, stated that he had at times had dealings with Mr. Brady. At present he owed Mr. Brady $156.00. He had seen prisoner in Bobcaygeon on Thursday. On this occasion he gave Mr. Brady a note at two months for the amount.

The Chief of Police, sworn, stated that he was with Constable Adams when the arrest was made on the Bridgenorth road. He searched the prisoner at the police station, although he objected. He removed his pocketbook and a roll of bills containing $300. There was also $2.25 in silver. The pocketbook was produced and opened up by Mr. Wood. In it was a note for $23.00, at one month, signed by Patrick Y. Crowley and made payable to Alice Brady; cheque, payable to Thos. Brady, from John Deacon for $3.39; note, Peter T. Flood to Alice Brady, $13.00; note, P. C. Sullivan to Alice Brady, $28.00; note, Patrick and James Murphy to Thos. Brady, $35.00; note, J. P. O'Donnell to Alice Brady, $156.00.

After being liberated on bail the prisoner had complained of having all his money taken from him. He had not enough left to buy a ton of coal. He thought this was a joke.

When brought to the station Brady had been left alone in the office while the horses were put away.

Mr. O'Donnell on being recalled, stated that when he asked why the note was made payable to Alice Brady, the prisoner had told him that he thought he might get into trouble and he therefore wished to have it made payable to his wife. He stated to Mr. O'Donnel that when he got all his accounts in he would be able to pay all creditors. McAllister was shoving him and he wanted to save something for the rest of his creditors.

Mr. Tully, recalled, produced Mr. Brady's books which he stated showed that there were $2,000 on the books. Half of them should be good.

IN OUTSTANDING ACCOUNTS

Mr. Kerneghan had purchased the wagons, sleighs, etc. The witness had taken one note from a customer payable to Mrs. A. Brady. One of the horses owned by Mrs. Brady had been sold to himself for $165. Brady owed him this amount on a note. He also owed him $50 in wages. He had shipped a quantity of alsike clover seed away. There was not as much as 25 bushels. It was worth about $3.75 a bushel. It was shipped to Steele, Briggs & Co., Toronto. They were not creditors.

Cross-examined — The witness stated that the alsike was shipped away on account of there being mustard seed in it, making it worthless. They dare not sell it. He always understood that Mr. Brady owed his wife $1,000, having borrowed it on different occasions to assist in running the business.

Charles DeLille, sworn, stated that he was an employee of Mr. Brady. He had taken eight bags of the clover seed to the station, but did not know for what reason. He had also taken some tea to the station to be sent to Toronto. The Gladstone had been put in Mr. Lee's team, also a cutter.

Cross-examined by Mr. Moore, the witness stated that he did not know the Gladstone and cutter had been ordered for rent by Mrs. Lee, who was his landlady.

Michael Carton, sworn, stated, that the prisoner owed him $348 for goods. The amount had been

OWING FOR SIX MONTHS.

He had at time owed him some thousands of dollars. They had been dealing together for about a year and a half. He had received a cheque for $145 on January 10th. On looking over the stock in the shop to-day he thought it would invoice at $1,400. There was $200 worth of soap.

Cross-examined by Mr. Moore, the witness said that the stock if put on the market now should bring about 60 or 65c. on the dollar as a bankrupt stock.

The Magistrate—This would bring it about $840; it looked as though a fair bargain had been made.

Mr. Rice recalled, stated that after looking over the stock he estimated its value at $950, at current invoice prices. Placed on the market en bloc as a bankrupt stock if 50 cents on the dollar was realized, it would be a good figure.

E. B. Stone, sworn, stated that Brady had called at his office

WEEK BEFORE LAST

He owed him a small account, and Brady came after the money. Prisoner told him "that everything was up with him. He was in the hole." He was going to turn his accounts into notes. "A man was a fool to fall with nothing in his pocket." He said, "Suppose I sell my stock and business up there for what I can get, and get the money, what can they do about it?" I told him, said witness, "to consult his solicitor about it. I thought he would be arrested. I got the criminal code and showed him the clause under which he is now arrested. On Saturday last Brady talked the matter over with him and stated that when he was last in he might have said something in a joke which had been taken seriously. He had heard I had made some statements which I had not. I advised him to make an assignment.

Cross-examined by Mr. Moore, the witness stated that Mr. Brady came to him to deny that he had ever told him he "was going to sell out his business and let Meldrum & McAllister go to hell." Witness stated that he had never said this. Mr. Brady had said nothing of the kind.

In summing the case up the Magistrate stated that it had been proven that the prisoner was insolvent. He owed $5,000, and had nothing but his books and stocks. The sale of the clover seed was an ordinary business transaction, showing no fraud. Turning over the horse to Tully, though legally questionable, was morally right, but showed that Brady knew he was in extreme distress. The seizure for rent shows that he was in distress. There was complete and absolute evidence that the prisoner was in distress, and he knew it. The proper thing in this case would have been to assign. His talk with Mr. Stone showed that the prisoner had a full knowledge of what would be the result if he sold his stock before assigning. He knew it would be fraudulent, yet he sold out and collected his accounts in the shape of notes payable to his wife, thus putting the money even beyond his own reach. To say that he sold for his creditors was to impute to him motives which were inconsistent with his conduct. He did all that a man could possibly do to keep the proceeds from his creditors.

The Magistrate then formally committed the prisoner for trial at the next Assizes. He was released on bail.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on with increasing suffering until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs directly feminine. Over thirty years ago the need for a reliable remedy for so called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

PETERBOROUGH III SCORES A VICTORY.

THE FRONTENAC SECOND TEAM EASILY DEFEATED.

A Fast Game of Hockey in the Local Rink Last Night Results in the Peterborough Juniors Entering the Finals.

Peterborough has witnessed some fine hockey this year, and the game of last night can be classed as the best and most exciting of the lot. The second team of the Frontenacs came up, and having the pick of several other junior teams in Kingston, they were even stronger than the first team, and appeared to play a cleaner game. Peterborough was reinforced by Lionel King, and his fast work on the forward line inspired the other forwards to greater exertions probably than would otherwise have been made. They checked closely and followed back so well that the visitors were only able to score five goals, whilst the local men tallied eleven.

The two teams lined up as follows:

Peterborough III.		Frontenac II.
Dixon	goal	Savage
Thorne	point	Hamilton
Hollingshead	cover point	Waddell
L King	forwards	Tandy
H King		Wilson
Davidson		Coxworthy
Graham		Thompson
W Sailsbury	umpires	Mitchell

W. F. Referee, Cede, of Norwood.

THE GAME.

The puck was faced off at 8.21 and a lively scrimmage took place in centre ice when the whistle blew to start the game. The first feature was one of Lionel King's characteristic rushes. He was checked by the defense of the visitors, but a moment later he and his brother Harry evolved a neat combination which carried the puck up on the Frontenac flags and enabled Davidson to score the first game off a quick pass. Time—2 minutes.

It wasn't long before Lionel got another chance to rush when he carried the puck the length of the rink and scored unassisted. Time 2 minutes.

The Frontenacs now began to get their combination into better working order, and if it had not been for the magnificent work of Dixon in goal they would assured have scored. In four minutes, however, the goal was relieved and King carried the puck down the rink and tallied again, making the score 3 0.

The next game was the closest of the evening the visitors making great efforts to score. Through lack of practice King took a cramp in his legs and had to be rubbed down for five minutes, when play was resumed.

GRAHAM AND DAVIDSON

got in some nice combination work and took the puck into Frontenac territory, when Harry King scored on a pass. Time, 18 minutes. Score 4-0.

Kingston tallied the next game in three minutes, making the score 4-1, in favour of Peterborough. Half time was called shortly afterwards.

Kingston took the puck from the face-off and made the score 4—2 in half a minute.

Graham, in the next game, made a great rush and passed to Lionel King, who scored. Time, 2 minutes. Score, 5—2.

Lionel King scored again in 5½ minutes. Score 6—2.

The next game fell to Kingston in half a minute, and they got another in half a minute. Score, 6—4.

The Peterborough boys seemed to wake up to the fact that they were in danger of being beaten and started in to rush things, Lionel King scoring in 15 seconds. Score, 7—4.

King scored [illegible] in 5½ minutes. Score, 8—4.

The next fell to Kingston in three minutes, being the last game scored by Kingston in the evening. Score, 8—5.

In two minutes Davidson made the score 9—5.

The next game was a warm one and the combination rushes of both teams were something worth witnessing. It was eight minutes before Harry King made the score 10—5.

The last game which was scored was the result of the finest individual rush of the evening. It was made by Harry King, the entire length of the rink and raised the score to 11—5, at which it stood until time was called.

NOTES.

The King brothers play as fine a combination as has been seen on the ice this winter. As he only has had two days skating since Christmas, Lionel was taken with cramps several times during the evening. He is as fast as ever and shoots just as reliably. He will be a tower of strength to the teams in their final matches.

Davidson played a remarkably fast game, and that he did not score oftener is attributable to the fact that he is sufficiently unselfish to pass to a man like King, who has the reputation of being the surest shot in the Province. Graham also did most creditable work, and is getting faster every day.

A big improvement is noticeable in Thorne since the Millbrook match. He used his body to greater advantage and has a number of good tricks at his command which enabled him to break up many a rush. Hollingshead, behind him, played a most dashing as well as a sure game, whilst Dixon is said by such veterans as W. Sailsbury and Sam Ray to have put up the best game in goal that has been witnessed this season. He got a slash on the ankle which compelled his retirement at half time and was replaced by Wasson, whose lightning-like charges and fine stops brought him plenty of applause. It is an ill day for the man who tries to body Ernie out of the goal.

For the visitors Waddell at point was a "corker," whilst on the forward line Coxworthy, Tandy and Wilson played a fast combination.

MR. PETER HAMILTON IS ELECTED CHAIRMAN

OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION FOR THE INCOMING YEAR.

The Standing Committees for the Year are Struck—The Board Remains the Same as Last Year.

The Board of Education held its inaugural meeting last evening with the following members present: Messrs. Edgecumbe, Hartley, Bamford, Hill, Wrighton, Burnham, Hamilton, Ferguson, McBain, Stevenson, Denne and Hayes.

The clerk called the Board to order and stated that Messrs. McBain, Wrighton Burnham and Edgecumbe had been elected Public School trustees, that Messrs. Ferguson and Caldwell had been re-appointed by the council as High school trustees, and and that Mr. L. M. Hayes had been re-appointed High School representative of the Separate School Board, that all had signed the necessary declarations, and asked the Board to elect a chairman for the year.

On the second ballot Mr. Peter Hamilton was elected chairman.

Mr. Hamilton stated that he would rather not have taken the office, but he would not like to refuse the honour conferred upon him, not that he sought for the position, but for the love of the work and in an effort to help the educational system of the town. He hoped that he would be successful in his efforts.

Messrs. McBain, Denne, Hill and Bamford were appointed a committe to strike the Standing Committees, and reported as follows:

Finance—Messrs. Burnham, Ferguson, Stevenson, McBain, Hayes, Caldwell and the chairmen of the Property and Supervision Committee.

Supervision—Messrs. Hill, Wrighton, Edgecumbe, Hartley and McKee.

Property—Messrs. McBain, Danne, Fair, Wrighton and Bamford.

Appointments—The whole Board, with Dr. Burnham as chairman.

The first name mentioned to be chairman of each committee.

Dr. Burnham moved, seconded by Mr. Hill, that the name of Mr. Ferguson be substituted for that of Mr. Burnham as chairman of the Committee on Appointments.—Lost.

Moved by Mr. McBain, seconded by Mr. Danne, that the report be adopted as read.—Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, February 4th, 1896.

At the police court when the Wesley case was called, Mr. Wood, for the Crown, stated that the charge preferred against Mrs. Wesley was withdrawn.

The young man charged with the larceny of robes from vehicles in the Charlotte street church sheds on November 9th, was arraigned and elected to be tried summarily and admitted the charge. He had made restitution to the extent of paying Mr. Wolstenholme the price he paid for the robes and the owners were restored their robes. The magistrate, taking these facts into consideration and wishing to give the young man a chance to retrieve his good name, took the merciful view of the case and discharged him on suspended sentence.

LOVESICK LITHOGRAPHIC STONE

Satisfactory Quality of the Stone—Specimens of the Work it is Capable of Doing.

There is no doubting the wealth of the undeveloped mineral resources of Ontario and evidence is daily forthcoming to afford full proof of the fact.

In the Hunter street show window of Mr. H. S. Macdonald's drug store are to be seen two splendid specimens of lithographic work—one by the architect edition of the Scientific American and one by Armstrong & Co., Riverside Press, Cambridge, Mass. This splendid work, for it is really beautiful, was done on stone supplied by Mr. W. H. Casement, Lakefield, and from stone taken from the deposit of lithographic stone at Lovesick Lake. The letter accompanying the prints referred to spoke very highly of the stone, saying that it was equal to, if not better than, the best German stone. Efforts will be made, it is said, to develop the deposit at an early date.

C. F. KUTZBACH,
Routley's Old Stand. No. 370 George Street.

THE man who awakens from a deep sleep, just in time to ward off the blow of an assassin, who, knife in hand, is preparing to drive it into his heart, has had a narrow escape. There are thousands of grateful men who have aroused themselves from the lethargy of recklessness and neglect, just in time to ward off the deadly assault of that dread enemy of mankind consumption.

The weapon with which these men have successfully combated this grim destroyer has been Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the only known medicine that will prevent and cure consumption. Taken in time, it will always ward off this deadly disease, and even after the devastating germs have attacked the lungs, it will cure 98 per cent. of all cases. It acts directly on the lungs, building up new, healthy tissues and driving out all disease-germs. It corrects all stomach and digestive troubles, invigorates the liver and makes the appetite keen and hearty. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve tonic. There is nothing else "just as good" and the druggist who says so is untrustworthy.

"I was a sufferer for five or six years from indigestion, sore stomach, and constant headaches," writes B. F. Holmes, of Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C. "I tried several of our best physicians and found no permanent relief. By the persuasion of Mr. J. R. Tolleson, a friend of mine, I commenced on the 26th September, 1895, to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets'—which gave me relief in a few days. Since then I have used five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and five vials of 'Pellets.' When I commenced using the medicines I could not sleep, had a restless uneasy feeling all the time, and my skin was yellow and dry. I weighed only 148 pounds. I now weigh 170 pounds, have a good color, and rest well at night. I have a good appetite, can eat anything I wish. For two years, while under treatment by a physician, I ate nothing but Graham bread."

In reference to the above letter, J. R. Tolleson, P. O. Box 173, Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C., writes: "The above Mr. B. F. Holmes, is a good christian gentleman, and one whose word will go a long way with those who know him. I use and sell Dr. Pierce's medicines, and I recommended them to Mr. Holmes."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure that disease-producing disorder, constipation. They never fail. They never gripe. Druggists sell them.

THE PREMIER AT BRANTFORD.

Hon. A. S. Hardy and Other Leading Liberals Were There—Conservative Meeting Also Held.

Brantford, Feb. 3.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister of the Dominion, Hon. A. S. Hardy, Prime Minister of Ontario, and C. Marcil, Gaspe, Que., arrived on the Grand Trunk train at 5.30. They were met at the station by a number of prominent Reformers and escorted to the Kerby House.

At 7.30 a torchlight procession was formed on the market square, and proceeded to the Kerby House, where the distinguished guests were. A short halt was made, and the visitors were then escorted to sleighs awaiting at the Kerby House. When seated the procession proceeded along the principal street to the Drill Hall. Distributed in the line of procession were some five or six bands, also a number of banners with mottoes "Welcome Our Twin Premiers," "Welcome Laurier" and other appropriate Liberal mottoes. As the procession proceeded, all along the line of march there was a display of fireworks and colored lights. Both sides of the streets were crowded.

At the Drill Hall W. G. Raymond, President of the Liberal Association, occupied the chair. In support of the Liberal candidate Mr. C. B. Heyd, addresses are being delivered by the Hon. Mr. Laurier, Hon. A. S. Hardy, Hon. W. Paterson (Controller of Customs), Mr. C. Marcil and other prominent Liberals. The hall was crowded to the doors, many going away on account of not being able to gain admittance.

A Conservative mass meeting is being held in the Opera House to-night in the interests of Mr. R. Henry, the Conservative candidate. Mr. G. W. Elliott occupied the chair. Addresses on behalf of Mr. Henry were delivered by Dr. J. W. Digby, Dr. U. M. Stanley, Mr. H. Cockshutt, Mr. Osborne and other prominent local Conservatives. The Opera House was crowded to the doors, many going away unable to get in.

A Grenville County Man Speaks his Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Feb. 1 (Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realizing great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

Reign of Terror in Turkey.

Marseilles, Feb. 2.—Tewfik Pasha until recently Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs, has arrived here. He states that a reign of terror prevails among the entourage of the Sultan. He is fearful as to the fate of the members of his family, whom he was compelled to leave behind him under the protection of the Foreign Embassies.

Unlike most proprietary medicines, the formula of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla and other preparations are cheerfully sent to any physician who applies for them. Hence the special favor accorded these well-known standard remedies by the World's Fair commissioners.

BREEDERS CONGREGATE.

Men Who Have in Hand the Raising of Thoroughbred Stock.

Toronto, Feb. 3.

The fourteenth annual meeting of the Holstein Friesian Association of Canada was held at the Albion Hotel yesterday, H. Bollert, Cassel, Ont., president, in the chair. The following officers and members were also present, viz.: Vice-presidents, R. S. Stevenson (Ancaster), A. C. Hollman (New Dundee), T. W. Charlton (St. George), and W. G. Ellis (Toronto); Secretary-Treasurer W. G. Clemons, St. George; Directors Alfred Rice, G. A. Gilroy, A. Hoover, jr., W. Shunk, W. A. Clemons (St. George), William Suhring (Sebringville), and J. H. Patten (Paris).

The president reviewed the situation during the past year, and congratulated the members upon the large attendance, which proved the great interest taken by the members in matters pertaining so closely to their welfare. He especially welcomed the old members who were present. Satisfaction was expressed at the fact that the Holsteins had again carried off the honors in the dairy test at the Industrial Exhibition.

The annual reports were received and adopted, a balance in hand of $421 being shown.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, R. S. Stevenson, Ancaster; 1st vice-president, A. C. Hollman; 2nd vice-president, W. G. Ellis; 3rd vice-president, T. W. Charlton; 4th vice-president, A. Rice; directors (two years), W. Shunk, W. Armstrong; sec.-treas., W. A. Clemons St. George; auditors, William Suhring and J. H. Patten.

Delegates—Industrial Fair, Messrs. Ellis and Shunk. Western Fair—W. B. Scatcuerd and J. W. Johnson. Montreal Exhibition—Messrs. Gilroy and Sangster. Ottawa—Messrs. Gilroy and Fletcher. Provincial Fat Stock Show—Messrs. Bollert and Clemons. Winnipeg Fair—Messrs. Glennie and McKenzie.

Messrs. Bollert, Stevenson, Hollman and Shunk were appointed inspectors of imported cattle.

It was resolved that the travelling expenses of delegates to the Fair Boards be paid when they are recognized as directors of the respective associations.

Judges were appointed for the various Exhibitions, as follows: Toronto, H. H. Bosley, S. Burchard and D. J. Blackley; London, Messrs. Bollert, Shunk and Suhring; Montreal, Messrs. Charlton, Shunk and Ellis; Ottawa, Messrs. Hollman, Kennedy, Charlton and Shunk.

It was agreed that the appropriations for the dairy tests be the same as last year, with the exception that the grant made to Montreal be given to Ottawa this year. The special prizes will, however, be conferred to pure-breds of the dairy breeds.

Mr. E. D. Tillson of Tilsonburg was accepted as a member of the association.

The association discussed the question of obtaining an act of incorporation. It was pointed out that there was no desire to make any money out of the proposal, but simply to preserve accurate records for the protection of breeders as well as purchasers. The only method by which the association could obtain recognition and status in the courts of law at present is by availing itself of the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies' Act. There are objections to this course, however, and it was decided to apply to the Dominion Government to pass an act under which associations of breeders of all kind of pure-bred stock may be formed for the purposes named. While a committee was appointed to carry out the resolution and make the necessary application to the Dominion Government, every member of the association will constitute himself a special committee to impress upon his representative in the Commons the claims of the association in this respect.

The Albion was the scene also of the tenth annual meeting of the Dominion Ayrshire Breeders' Association yesterday. Owing to the absence of H. E. Eyre, president of the association, W. W. Ballantyne of Stratford was voted to the chair. Among those present were Joseph E. Yuill, Carleton Place; W. M. Smith, Fairfield Plains; D. W. Green, Toronto; William Baldwin, Mount Charles; William Oliver, Hanlan; D. P. McPherson, South Bruce; J. Bell, Amber; H. Wade, Toronto, and many others.

The auditors reported a balance on hand of $356.

The election of officers resulted as follows: John Crosby, Campbellford, president; William Smith, Fairfield Plains, first vice-president; A. Kains, Byron, second vice-president; William Stewart, Menie, Joseph McCormack Rockton, Joseph Yuill Carleton Place, J. C. Nichols Plattsville, W. W. Ballantyne Stratford, William Baldwin Mount Charles, J. C. Smith Hintonburg, Robert Davies Toronto, directors.

Delegates to exhibitions: Industrial, James McCormack, W. W. Ballantyne; Western Fair, A. Kains and W. W. Ballantyne. St. Mary's: Ottawa, Joseph Yuill and J. C. Smith.

Expert judges, in addition to last year's list: J. M. Bell, St. Mary's; J. G. Clark, Ottawa. The judges at the Industrial Exhibition will be selected from the list as amended.

Notice of motion was given that the annual fee be reduced from $3 to $2, to go into force in 1898.

Secretary Wade was requested to publish the third volume of the Dominion Ayrshire Herd Book.

The Executive Committee of the Dominion Short Horn Breeders' Association held a session at the Albion Hotel last evening. The annual report of the secretary and executive was adopted, from which it is gathered that there is a falling off in the number of registrations for 1896. The thirteenth volume of the herd book has been completed, and contains about 3000 pedigrees, making the total number recorded 53,214. The membership roll shows an increase of 74, and the balance on hand has increased from $4786 to $5184 during the year. A gratifying feature of the report is the addition of 100 members.

The bylaw requiring the registration of all calves dropped after Jan. 1, 1899, within 18 months of birth was amended by increasing the limit to two years.

The open meeting of the association will be held to-day.

WAGES CUT DOWN.

A General Reduction Made by the Illinois Steel Company—Amalgamated Association Men Not Affected.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Twenty-five hundred men employed in the Illinois Steel Company, South Chicago, accepted a sweeping reduction in wages yesterday. Not a man, from the president down, was exempt from the reduction. Five, ten and fifteen per cent. was taken from each man's pay. The cut did not affect the members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers.

The announcement of the cut was not all bad news, however, for with it the company expressed the intention of soon taking back the thousand men it made idle a month ago. These men have been suffering the keenest poverty. In fact, many of them with their families have been supported by the charity workers of South Chicago. By them the message from the company was hailed with joy. The business outlook is not now as good as it was in 1895, and it is said the reduction was made so that the company can compete successfully with eastern firms. The mills of the company at Joliet and Milwaukee also put in force a reduction on a similar basis.

CANADA WILL BE REPAID.

Funds and Supplies for India Will Surely be Returned With Interest.

Montreal, Feb. 2.—A Star special cable from London says: The success of the famine fund in Canada continues to attract marked attention, and is in everybody's mouth. The optimism is ventured freely that this fund, prompt and generous as it is, means thousands of emigrants for Canada. Canada, quick to the rescue, with vast supplies of food which its fund represents, is already regarded as a land of plenty, and the news is ringing throughout the length and breadth of the land. Canada is sure to hear from its timely philanthropy, and the friends of Canada here are rejoiced at what is considered as the most successful popular fund in the history of the colony.

A gentleman high up in Government circles said to-day that every dollar that Canada was giving for India would go back a hundredfold.

There is Jealousy in It.

Paris, Feb. 2.—The Gaulois attributes the holding up in the Senate of the treaty of arbitration arranged between England and America to the secretary's unpopularity with the Senate and to the desire of the Republicans, not to allow President Cleveland the honor of signing such an important document.

The Whole Story

TEN YEARS TROUBLED

With Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia—Suffered Greatly and Found No Relief in the Secres of Medicines Prescribed.

South American Nervine Was Recommended, and Before Half a Bottle Was Taken Relief Came.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.

What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Chesley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

THE CONVICTS OF CANADA.

Facts About the Penitentiaries and Prisons of the Dominion.

Besides the common jails and prisons there are five penitentiaries in the Dominion of Canada. These penitentiaries are under the control of the Federal Government, and are situated at Kingston, Ontario; St. Vincent de Paul, Montreal; Dorchester, New Brunswick; Stony Mountain, Manitoba; and New Westminster, British Columbia. The total number of prisoners confined in these institutions in 1895 was 1,277, of whom 1,249 were males and 28 were females.

By three-year periods since 1881, the following is the average of convicts in the penitentiaries: 1881-83, 1,163 males and 32 females; 1884-6, 1,126 males and 41 females; 18847-9, 1,149 males and 26 females; 1890-2, 1,245 males and 21 females; 1893-5, 1,231 males and 31 females. So that it will be seen that the average number has been on the increase.

Considered in relation to the growth of population, it appears that one person out of every 3,981 in the Dominion was in penitentiary in 1895. Taking the whole average of the period 1881-1895, there was one convict to every 3,976 persons.

In the five penitentiaries last year 332 prisoners were discharged by expiration of sentences; 18 died during imprisonment; 73 were pardoned and only two escaped. The two who escaped belonged to Kingston penitentiary, no convict in any of the other penitentiaries having succeeded in escaping for the year ending 1895.

Last year 479 criminals were committed to the penitentiaries. The crimes which they committed were as follows: Murder and attempt at murder, 7; manslaughter, 5; rape, 35; bigamy, 3; shooting at or wounding with intent, 11; assault, 15; burglary and robbery with violence, 131; horse, cattle and sheep stealing, 28; other offences against property, 192; forgery and offence against property, 18; arson, 19; other felonies and misdemeanors, 15.

An analysis of these figures shows that 16 per cent. of the crime were offences against the person, 73 per cent. against property, 3.7 per cent. were forgery, and 7 per cent. for other felonies and misdemeanors. The average for the three years preceding 1895 show the offences against the person to have been 20.8 per cent., offences against property 69.9 per cent., forgery 3.3 per cent., and other offences 6 per cent. of the whole. Taking these figures as an index in a general way, it appears that offences against the person have decreased, but that other felonies and misdemeanors are on the increase.

Of the convicts, 72.7 had their birthplace in Canada, 7.7 per cent. came from England, 2.7 per cent. from Scotland, 3.1 per cent. from Ireland, 9.4 per cent. from the United States, and 4.4 per cent. from all other countries.

When it is considered that the census of 1891 gave Americans only as 1.7 per cent. of our population, it is clear that in proportion to the number in Canada those born in the United States supply by far the largest quota to the penitentiaries.

Regarding youthful convicts, the table relating to ages shows that in the 1883-5 period 17 1-2 per cent. of the convicts committed to the penitentiaries were under 20 years of age. In the 1886-8 period 15 1-2 per cent.; in the 1889-91 period, 14.6 per cent.; and in the 1892-4 period, only 13 per cent.

With regard to race, of the total number committed in 1895, 453 were white, 13 were colored, 11 were Indians and 2 Chinese.

With regard to conjugal conditions, 173 were married, 306 were single, and 1 was a widow.

Grouped by ages, there were 65 under 20 years, 207 from 20 to 30 years, 91 from 30 to 40 years, 49 from 40 to 50 years, 19 from 50 to 60 years, 5 over 60 years, and 43 not given.

Of the total number of convicts committed to penitentiary during the period from 1879-95 there were 254 Baptists, 3,158 Roman Catholics, 1,06) Church of England, 578 Methodists, 345 Presbyterians, 290 "Protestants," and 1,484 denomination not given.

Of those committed last year 25 were Baptists, 231 were Roman Catholics, 69 were Church of England, 69 were Methodists, 38 Presbyterians, 44 "Protestants" and 3 of other denominations not given.

Looked at from the standpoint of occupation, the total number committed during the past sixteen years are grouped as follows: Agricultural, 342; commercial, 644; industrial, 1965; professional, 104; domestic, 235; laborers, 2699, and there were 1232 of no occupation

Of the total number committed between 1879 and 1895, 1195 could not read; 452 could read but could not write; 3,718 could both read and write, and 1745 were not classified.

With regard to the use of liquor the returns show that during this same period 464 total abstainers, 2902 temperate people, and 1883 intemperates became convicts. There were 1969 who could not be classified.

The amount of money sunk in penitentiaries, together with their revenue and receipts, are shown as follows: Kingston Penitentiary—Value of buildings, stock, etc., $1,157,006; revenue, $22,754; expediture, $224,165; Manitoba Penitentiary—Value of buildings, etc., $355,033; revenue, $1,556; expenditure, $41,056. St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary—Value of buildings, etc., $930,759; revenue, $1119; expenditure, $88,289. British Columbia Penitentiary—Value of buildings, $320,446; revenue, $357; expenditure, $42,972. Dorchester Penitentiary—Value of buildings, etc., $421,656; revenue, $3,092; expenditure, $46,585.

A recapitulation of the above figures shows that over $3,000,000 has been paid to establish our Dominion penitentiaries; that the revenue from all of them is $28,878; and the expenditure $443,017 yearly.

The figures given above relate only to Dominion prisons or penitentiaries. The total number of persons confined in provincial prisons, including lockups, Central Prison, Mercer Reformatory and Ontario Reformatory during 1895, was approximately as follows: Ontario, 1224; Quebec, 462; Nova Scotia, 194; New Brunswick, 50; Manitoba, 449; British Columbia, 271 Prince Edward Island, 24; and the Territories 22.

Taking the total number of convictions of all kinds in Canada, to penitentiaries and provincial prisons, it appears that no less than 37,385 persons were committed during the year 1895. Of the offences committed by these prisoners, 4,652 were against the person; 461 against property with violence; 3803 against property without violence; 390 malicious offences against property; 61 were forgery and offences against the currency, and 28,218 were offences not included in the above classes.

During 1895 there were five sentences of death pronounced in Canada. Of these Ontario had three and British Columbia two.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. We wish to thank our customers for their patronage through the late season.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

THE YEARLY CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE.

Satisfactory Reports Presented—Statements of the Membership and Financial Standing.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's church was held last evening with Mr. Geo. Stewart in the chair.

The retiring trustees this year were Messrs. Hamilton, Tucker, Innes and Mulholland. All were re-elected. After a lively discussion the following allocation of the missionary funds was decided upon: Home missions, $400; Foreign missions, $400; French evangelization, $114. A cordial vote of thanks to the choir was passed on motion of Mr. R. E. Wood.

REPORT OF SESSION.

The report for the past year is the twentieth report presented by the Session under the present pastorate. Great indeed have been the changes which have taken place during these twenty years. Mr. James Reid and Mr. Samuel Stewart are the only two elders who were members of the Session in 1876.

Since July, 1876, there have been 1,330 additions to the membership—532 of these on certificate, 798 on profession of faith.

There have been 84 Communions, and at all of these except two there have been additions to the membership. The baptisms during these years have been 660.

During the past year 76 were added to the membership—30 of these on certificate, 46 on profession of faith. During the same time 9 members were removed by death, 30 by certificate, and 29 names were taken off the roll, because the parties no longer reside here or have ceased to commune with us. This leaves us with a membership of 755, a slight increase over last year. The number of families is about the same, 325.

Early in the year four new elders were added to our staff—Rev. A. Tully, Messrs. P. Gillespie, E. Mahood, Wm. Little, C. L. Trotter. Mr. Trotter removed to Toronto in the spring and Mr. Tully expects to remove to the States shortly, so that it will be necessary to ask the congregation to elect several new elders shortly.

During the year several changes were made in the elders' districts. The districts of which Mr. Hall and Mr. Gilchrist were elders were rearranged and divided between Mr. Hall and Mr. Life. Mr. Gilchrist was transferred to the district of which Mr. W. W. Johnston formerly had charge. Mr. Johnston was transferred to Mr. Simpson's district, and Mr. Simpson to Auburn and the North part of Ashburnham. Mr. Trotter was appointed to the district in the south part of the town, which had been for so long a time without an Elder, but as of the result of his removal this district is again vacant.

In the spring the Presbytery gave permission to the congregation to proceed with the erection of a Sabbath school building on the lot purchased some years ago. An effort was made to raise a sum of money sufficient to warrant the managers entering upon the work, but it was not successful.

During the year we have had to mourn the loss by death of some of our most highly esteemed members. Mr. J. Hall, our oldest elder, was taken from us on March 20th, at the ripe age of ninety. During his long connection with the congregation he had maintained a deep interest in its welfare. He was one of those who assisted most materially in carrying out the scheme for the enlargement of the church.

By the removal of Miss Quinn from our town we have lost one of our most active Christian workers. She took a prominent part in the work of the Endeavour and Junior Endeavour Societies and it will be difficult to fill her place.

For the past ten months, we have been deprived of the active co-operation of Mr. Wm. Walsh, who has been laid aside by illness. We would express our deep sympathy with our brother in his affliction as well as our hope that he may be restored to health again.

E. F. TORRANCE,
Moderator.

THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

reported, showing the receipts to be $100 less than the year previous, and the extraordinary expenditure $600 more. With a view to carrying out the directions of the last annual meeting, relative to the erection of a mission school, an attempt was made during the year to secure subscriptions aggregating $1,000, but as only $475 was subscribed, the office bearers deemed it inexpedient to proceed with the building, and the matter now stands in abeyance. The envelope arrears for 1896 amounted to $307, which amount since Jan. 1st had been reduced to $250. The mortgage debt remains at the sum of $2,500.

REPORT OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Another year's trial of the method of raising our Missionary funds by envelope contribution on the first Sabbath of each month has not proved altogether satisfactory. Under this method a large number of the members and adherents of the church contribute nothing to our missionary funds. Hence while some have been increasing their contributions there has been no increase in the total amount.

At a meeting of the office bearers held a few weeks ago, it was decided to urge upon all the members and adherents of the church to agree to give at the rate of a certain sum per week for Missions. A contribution of five cents per week from every family in the congregation would increase very materially the total amount which we raise.

The amount in the hands of the treasurer is $914.

Your committee would submit the following allocation:

Home Missions, $400.
Foreign Missions, $400.
French Evangelization, $114.

Since the end of the year an additional sum of $31 has been contributed for Augmentation.

It was moved by Sheriff Hall, seconded by Mr. P. Hamilton, "that this congregation at its 21st annual meeting under the pastorate of Rev. E. F. Torrance, D.D., desire to give expression to their gratitude to the Head of the church for the continued prosperity of the congregation under his charge, and for the cordial relations that exist between pastor and people, and to express their appreciation of his labours and pastoral work, and more especially of pulpit ministrations. They have learned to esteem and respect him more highly from year to year, not only for his works sake but as a personal friend and pastor, recognizing in his sermons and addresses an ever increasing earnestness, fullness and ripeness of thought. Their earnest prayer is that many more useful years may be added to him, and that many more seals be given to his ministry."—Carried.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL

report, as submitted by Mr. Gilchrist, superintendent, shows that the average attendance of teachers was 30, out of 33, and of scholars 277, the latter being an increase over last year of 13. The amount collected for mission purposes was $288. 29 from the school joined the church during the year. The average attendance in the primary class was 88, and the amount collected during the year for missions was $42.67.

THE HOME DEPARTMENT, with Mr. Alfred J. Johnson as superintendent, is doing excellent work and reports as follows:—

In the early part of the year we decided to organize a "Home Department for Bible Study" in connection with our Sabbath school. Since then the interest has been gradually increasing, until now we have a membership of 180, with 11 visitors.

The amount collected by this department for mission purposes was $13.07.

The greatest difficulty experienced in connection with this work has been in securing visitors for the different districts, there being still two unprovided for.

The visitors find that members of the Home Department are well pleased with this plan adopted for a systematic study of God's Word.

We very much regret that there are still a large number of families connected with the congregation who are not represented on the membership roll of this home department.

We hope soon to have every district in the town canvassed, and we also hope that all the families in the country will soon join in this work.

A. J. JOHNSON,
Superintendent.

Our Sabbath school is still supporting a pupil at Point aux Trembles, and from time to time receive reports of the progress he is making in his studies and Christian life.

The orchestra has been a great help to us in connection with the singing at the opening and closing exercises.

is the best appliance to economize fuel. We are selling them rapidly. They pay for themselves in a short time. Read what our Citizens say:

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 70x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north; and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 18th, '97. McFARLANE WILSON.

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 14, '97. HATTON & WOOD.

Railroad Men Had an Interview With the Premier.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THEM

Were Talked Over Mr. Laurier Repeated His Promise to Retaliate in Regard to Alien Labor Unless the United States Modified Its Law—Other News Notes.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—(Special.)—The Executive Committee of the Dominion Legislative Board of Railway Employes, which has been in session here for the past two or three days considering matters affecting the interests of railway men throughout the Dominion, had an interview with the Premier to-day. Their principal business with the Premier was in connection with dismissals of Intercolonial Railway employes for political reasons. This had been going on at an alarming rate during the past two or three months, an threats of a "clean sweep" have brought the organization into the field as mediator between the management of the I.C.R. and the terrorized employes. The question was discussed at length, the committee urging that no dismissals be made or recognized for other than active political partisanship. If, of course, any employe had been so foolish as to make himself an active politician the board could not ask for him anything but the reward of partisanship. The board asked, however, that a commission composed of one member appointed by the railway organization and another by the Government, be empowered to investigate all charges upon which dismissals had been made or were threatened.

Mr. Laurier said that these were matters upon which he would require to consult his colleagues, especially the Minister of Railways and Canals, who is at present out of town. But speaking for himself, the Premier assured them that he wanted no innocent man dismissed.

The operation of the United States alien labor law as it affects Canadian railway men was also discussed. The delegation pointed out numerous glaring instances of unfairness to Canadians. For instance, on the run between Toronto and Buffalo the Canadian crew of the train is dispossessed at Niagara Falls, on the border and a Yankee crew takes the train through to Buffalo. On the return, however, the Yankee train hands run clear through from Buffalo to Toronto, and back to Buffalo, for that matter, there being no legal restriction on foreigners running trains through Dominion territory. This anomaly is particularly severe upon Canadian trainmen wherever the divisional point is situated on the United States side of the line. The Premier, in reply to their representations, renewed the assurance he gave the Canadian Railway men's representatives in September last, namely, that unless the Americans mitigated the unfair operation of their alien labor law as against Canadians, he would see to it that an alien labor law, word for word, agreeing with the American legislation, would be passed by the Dominion Parliament. In this way our neighbors, he added, would be made to see the illiberality and the harshness of their own measure.

Until Hon. Mr. Blair returns, of course, nothing can be decided as to the proposition of the board in the matter of an Intercolonial Commission, but in the meantime the Executive are decidedly pleased with the result of their interview with the head of the Government.

The Countess of Aberdeen having thought it right to acquaint Her Majesty's Secretary with the project now being planned by the National Council of Women for the establishment of the Victorian Order of Home Helpers, has received the following telegram from Sir Arthur Bigge, dated Osborne, Isle of Wight, Feb. 3: "In reply to your telegram the Queen has refrained from expressing approval of any particular scheme for commemorating the Diamond Jubilee, though, of course, any project for the relief of the suffering of the sick of Canada will be assured of Her Majesty's sincere sympathy."

Deputy Collector Harty of Arnprior was in the city yesterday, and appeared before the Controller of Inland Revenue to answer to the charge of "active partisanship," in the recent general election. The charge was based upon the declaration of one J. R. Aube of this city, to the effect that Mr. Harty had offered to pay his passage to Arnprior on June 23 to vote for Mr. Ferguson. It is said that when questioned by the Deputy Collector, Aube denied the authorship of the declaration in question, but before the Controller, admitted that he had signed it. Harty will get his marching orders.

Little Bear, the Cree chief, who is here, accompanied by Rev. John MacDougall, is to see Mr. Sifton to-morrow concerning the rights of the Cree Indians, some 300 of whom last year deported across the International boundary back into Canadian territory from Montana. They had taken part in the rebellion of ten years ago, and since then lived in the United States, from whom they have certificates of good conduct. Amnesty was granted to those who desired to come back to Canadian territory, and the tribe has been camped a short distance from Calgary. But they represent to the Indian Department that they do not wish to continue their nomadic life, having acquired flocks and herds and wagons during their stay in Montana. What they want is a regular reserve set apart for them on the ground which they at present occupy near Calgary, and they are prepared to till the farms. Little Bear also wishes to fully satisfy himself as to just what this amnesty to the tribe means on their past and future record.

The Canadian national Indian famine fund has reached about $25,000. Mr. Courtney will have a list of the subscribers ready for publication to-morrow.

The executive of the D. R. A. has been notified that the annual prize meeting of the National Rifle Association at Bisley will commence this year on July 12.

Regarding Surveyor Ogilvie and his party, who were expected home from the Alaskan boundary long ere this, it is now thought that they may have remained in the Yukon country over winter. Enquiry recently sent to Mr. Hamilton of the Cudahy Trading Company, who has accurate knowledge of the conditions in the Yukon country, tends to strengthen this view.

Mr. A. H. Philpotts, formerly of this city, but lately of Bank of British North America, Montreal, has assumed the management of the branch of this bank in Ottawa.

WESTERN DAIRYMEN MEET.

First Meeting of the New Board—Important Business Transacted.

Toronto, Feb. 5.

The Board of Directors of the new Butter and Cheese Association of Western Ontario met on Feb. 1 in the secretary's office, London. There were present President A. F. MacLaren, M.P., Stratford; P. S. Pearce, London; Harold Engle, Attercliffe Station; J. N. Paget, Canboro; John Prain, Hamilton; R. M. Ballantyne, Stratford; John Connolly, Porter Hill; James Carmichael, Arva; and J. A. James, Milestown.

The President in his opening address spoke of the good work done by the association last year and regretted very much that it was not appreciated as it should be by the dairymen. At the annual conventions and local meetings held under the auspices of the association, and by means of the literature sent out, dairymen had been cautioned against the feeding of turnips and such foods to cows supplying milk to the factories, and had been urged to take the best care of the milk, yet he was sorry to state that there had been more bad flavored cheese found in the factories last year than for several years back. He hoped, however, that there would be an improvement the coming season, and expressed the wish, which was concurred in by the other members of the Board that the work to be carried on by the new organization this year would be more effective than ever in improving the quality of the butter and cheese made in Western Ontario.

A local convention will be held at Milverton early in March and other places desirous of one should send in their applications to the secretary at once. Where such conventions are held the Association pays for the speakers and the local dairymen or town is expected to supply the hall free and advertise the meeting. The Association will co-operate with the Provincial Dairy School in holding a makers' meeting at Guelph early in March.

The secretary will make enquiries of the syndicate factories as to whether they are desirous of continuing that line of instruction another year. All parties interested and those in other sections desirous of having syndicates formed should communicate with the secretary at once.

The president, Messrs. John S. Pearce, A. Menger and R. M. Ballantyne will represent the association on the Central Advisory Board, and the same gentlemen, with the addition of Second Vice-President Eagle, will comprise the Executive Committee. The matter of the Eastern and Western Associations employing the same instructor to visit the creameries of the province was left to the representatives to the Central Board to act as they see fit in conjunction with the representatives from the Eastern Association.

CENTRAL SECRETARY WANTED.

A resolution was unanimously adopted, recommending to the Minister of Agriculture that a central secretary of the Dairy Associations be appointed, inasmuch as such a concentration of effort would be in the best interests of the dairy industry of the province.

The Secretary will address meetings at Lynden and Appin this week, and at Thamesford and Mapleton next week. His services can be secured by paying his traveling expenses or by securing enough members' fees to cover them. Parties desiring his attendance at meetings should write early, so as to give time to arrange meetings in order. The membership fees for 1897 are now due and all who have not joined this year should send in the amount (50 cents) at an early date, so as to ensure getting the annual reports.

EAST SIMCOE STICKS TO BENNETT

The Liberals of Hon. Wm. Paterson's Old Constituency Turn Out and Show What They Can Do—Tough Fights in the Other Two Constituencies.

Orillia, Ont., Feb. 4.—The bye-election in East Simcoe, which closed to-night, was one of the hardest fought battles in the history of the historic riding of East Simcoe. Every vote available was polled and Mr. W. H. Bennett was again elected by a substantial majority.

The town of Orillia gave Mr. Bennett a majority of 2, and the outside subdivisions were comparatively close, with the exception of Midland, which made the Conservative safe by rolling up a majority of 120 for him. With all but two polling divisions heard from, Mr. Bennett has a majority of 126.

NORTH ONTARIO.

It Was a Very Close Fight and the Liberal Comes Out on Top.

Beaverton, Feb. 4.—A large number of influential supporters of Mr. Duncan Graham came from Cannington, Brechin and other points through the riding to-night to celebrate the Liberal victory by speeches from the candidate, William Smith, T. O. Currie, vice-president of the Patron organization, and other prominent persons. Bonfires are at present raging and the air is thick with cheers for Graham.

Cannington and Beaverton gave majorities for McLeod, as did also Thorah and Brock and Scott Townships, but Mara and Rama piled up the votes for Graham in such a way as to turn the scale. The early reports gave Mr. McLeod majorities, and even up to midnight his friends believed he had one. At last, however, the remote sections were heard from, and when the totals were counted they stood this way: McLeod, 2052; Graham, 2145. The majorities in places where the full vote could not be got were: McLeod 96, Graham 35, leaving as the net result the election of Mr. Graham by a majority of 32.

SOUTH BRANT.

Mr. Neary Defeated by a Majority of About 400 Votes.

Brantford, Feb. 4.—The South Brant bye-election took place to-day. The weather was all that could be wished for, with sleighing tolerably good. The excitement started at an early hour this morning and continued till the close of the polls. The streets were crowded with sleighs, taking voters to and from the polls, each political party striving to get their voters to their respective polling places first. Both parties worked hard all day.

It is rumored two personators have been arrested in Brantford and a boodler on the reserve.

To-night the excitement on the streets runs very high. A large gathering of Mr. Heyd's friends are holding a meeting in the Drill Hall.

Following is the score as far as can be ascertained at present:

Brantford city: Heyd, 1663; Henry, 1480; majority for Heyd, 183.

Paris: Heyd, 310; Henry, 296; majority for Heyd 12.

Brantford Township: Heyd, 405; Henry, 237; majority for Heyd, 168.

Tuscarora Heyd, 208; Henry, 108; majority for Heyd 100, with No. 26 polling place to hear from.

Onondaga: Heyd, 147; Henry, 211; majority for Henry, 64.

Total majority for Heyd, 399.

TRIED TO KILL HIM.

A Hamilton Blacksmith Pounced Upon in the Dark and Stabbed.

Hamilton, Feb. 4.—(Special.)—Constable Hawkins, night officer at Police Station No. 3, despite his verdancy, at least knows when the cap fits, and recognized the true little picture which The World gave of him when it called him a "village cop." In his little revenge he refused to-night to give any news, although there was an important case on hand, and, after calling the reporter "too fresh," told him to go to Chief Smith hereafter for his news. The World can get pointers without the assistance of the "village cop." It has good friends everywhere, and this morning has a good bit of police news for its readers. Police freshness never has paid and it never will.

The long freedom which Hamilton has enjoyed from dangerous characters was broken in upon to-night, and what looks like intended murder was narrowly averted.

At 8.30 a blacksmith, John MacAlister, of Bay-street south, was walking home past the dark mouth of the T., H. and B. tunnel, dinner pail in hand, when he was startled by the hissed exclamation, close to his ear: "Here's a son of a —— of a detective." As he looked round, the man, evidently a foreigner, jabbed a knife into his left arm in its fleshy part, just above the elbow, and before he could close with his assailant stabbed him again. The assassin, who had acted with blind fury, now exclaimed: "Joe made a mistake this time," at which a companion, standing in the shadow near by, retorted, "You're lucky," and both men decamped.

MacAlister was conveyed to the General Hospital, where he now lies. Dr. Edgar having dressed his wounds.

The police and city detectives are scouring the town for the men, but, as MacAlister was unable to give any sort of description of them, they have the flimsiest clue to work upon.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

SIR HENRI JOLY has subscribed $100 to the relief of the poor of Ottawa and another $100 to the Indian famine fund. It is plain, the Montreal Herald thinks, that Sir Henri sees no reason why charity should end at home. But he is careful that it should begin there.

MR. LAURIER has been assuring the people of Simcoe that the impending tariff revision is to injure no legitimate Canadian industry, and the assurance is greeted by the Conservative press as if it were something new. It is not new. It is considerably older than the general elections. It is, indeed, an integral element of the Liberal policy. Without it the Liberals might have remained in opposition. The Liberals don't want to hurt Canadian trade. They want to do it good.—Herald, Montreal.

ORGANIZED INTO DIVISIONS.

Globe.

The Conservatives who met in Kingston recently thanked Sir Charles Tupper heartily for the good service he performed in "organising the party into divisions." Nobody can deny that the work was well done, although persons who are envious of the Tupperian fame may contend that it was pretty well under way when Sir Charles arrived in this country. At that time the organization of the Cabinet into divisions had been accomplished, with such success that the head of one division had accused the head of the other of incompetence, while the latter had retorted by observing that he had been living for a year in a "nest of traitors." It will be remembered that the society on the Stainslow was organized into divisions with a similar result:

"Now, I hold it is not decent for a scientific gent
To call another gent an ass, at least to all intent;

"Nor should the individual who happen to be meant Reply by heaving rocks at him, to any great extent."

In addition to the great primary division there were sub-divisions, such as that which separated Sir Adolphe Caron from Dr. Montague. Since the meeting in Toronto the work of organizing into divisions has been proceeding with fair success. Mr. Haggart, Mr. Montague and several other leaders of the party have apparently organized their divisions off the field, and the only division which is putting in an appearance is that led by the late Minister of Finance. If all the credit is to be attributed to Sir Charles Tupper he certainly has a genius for the peculiar kind of organization to which our Kingston friends refer.

Hints to Advertisers.

The true secret of success in advertisements is the same as that which distinguishes the editorial columns—sense and pith. The style should be bold, easy and correct, with a vein of lightness and elasticity to make it agreeable. The more replete the advertisement can be made with useful information, the more eagerly will every line be read and the more anxiously will the next announcement be looked for. It is needless to say that the advertisement should be changed regularly and kept fresh and bright with new ideas and additional attractions. The fact should always be kept in view that AN ADVERTISEMENT INTENDED FOR THE EYE OF GENTLEMEN SHOULD BE BOLD, POINTED AND AS BRIEF AS POSSIBLE; FOR LADIES THE STYLE SHOULD BE THE VERY OPPOSITE—SMOOTH, BRIGHT AND PLAUSIBLE.

CANADIAN CREAMERY BUTTER.

Possibilities of a Profitable Market With Great Britain.

At the Western Dairyman's Association Hon. Sidney Fisher, the farmer member of the Dominion Cabinet, made an important address, of which the following is a summary. It shows what practical encouragement the Government is extending to our most important industries:

An interesting and thoroughly practical address was delivered by the Hon. Sidney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, who dealt with the making and marketing of butter. He was proud, he said, of the position which Canada had taken and was taking more and more as a dairy country. Last year they had sent to Great Britain about 150,000,000 pounds of cheese, and 160,000 packages of butter. Had all the milk made into butter been made into cheese instead, it would at least have increased the amount of cheese product shipped to Britain to 175,000,000 pounds. That would have had an injurious effect on the price of cheese in the British market, whereas converted as it was into butter, it scarcely caused a ripple on the market there.

Illustrating the possibility of getting Canadian butter on the Old Country markets in first condition by means of cold storage facilities, he stated that butter made at a Dominion Experimental creamery at Prince Albert, 1700 miles west of Montreal, placed in cold storage the day after it was made, and so transported to Liverpool, had sold at 114 shillings, a price only slightly exceeded throughout the season by the best article of Danish manufacture. He was anxious to establish similar conditions of cold storage within the reach of every Ontario creamery, and in order to stimulate the possession of such a system, the Government proposed to give a bonus of fifty dollars the first year for the establishment of cold storage rooms in connection with creameries, and an additional grant of $25 for each of two years following their establishment that they were continued in use. They had already arranged with the G. T. R. and C. P. R. for cold storage in transit, and hoped to do so with the smaller lines. They had also as good as completed arrangements with the various steamship lines, and had not experienced any difficulty in keeping it within the control of the Government that extortionate rates of transportation should not be exacted. It was a national arrangement, available to all requiring to ship fruit, meat, poultry or other perishable articles.

ROSEBRUGH SHOT HIMSELF.

A Young Farmer Delivered a Load of Grain in Galt, Got His Money and Then Killed Himself.

St. George, Ont., Feb. 4.—Albert Rosebrugh committed suicide to-day while returning from Galt, where he had been delivering a load of grain. Before his return he purchased a revolver, and when about two miles from Galt shot himself in the forehead. The team he was driving came home alone, and on going back to seek him he was found dead on the road, with the money for the grain in his pockets. No one seems to have passed in the interim of an hour before his friends found him. Two chambers of the revolver were empty. Evidently one had been used to test the weapon. He is about 21 years of age, and is a son of Mr. William Rosebrugh, a respected farmer of South Dumfries Township. He had been suffering from ill-health for a few weeks.

Used Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Jan. 25 (Special).—Mr. John Medill, known locally as well as far and near as a physical giant, and glorying in his strength, came to be a great sufferer and tells of his cure as follows:—

"I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me and I think it will cure others why not say so?

"It is true I had been suffering for some time with Bladder trouble, and, learning of a cure made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

"In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the highest terms of praise, for I know of many persons who have been cured by them."

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. J. B. McLEAN THE NEW PRESIDENT

Thirty-Ninth Annual Session of the Canadian Press Association—President Brierley Delivers His Valedictory —A Splendid Banquet at the National Club at Night.

Toronto, Feb. 5.

The thirty-ninth annual session of the Canadian Press Association opened yesterday morning in the Board of Trade Building.

Among others there were present: Messrs. James S. Brierley, Montreal; J. B. McLean, Montreal; John A. Cooper, Toronto; Sydney Stephenson, Chatham; A. G. F. Macdonald, Alexandria; T. Blackett Robinson, Toronto; Patrick Boyle, Catholic Register, Toronto; John A. Phillips, Gazette, Montreal; A. H. U. Colquhoun, The Printer and Publisher; B. B. Cronmey, Canada Law Journal; Rev. J. A. Macdonald, The Westminster; N. W. Ford, The Banner, Chatham; W. E. Smallfield, Mercury, Renfrew; W. H. Keller, Journal, Uxbridge; Frank Carroll, Daily Telegraph, Quebec; James Dickinson, Despatch, North Bay; H. C. Hocken, News, Toronto; William Douglas, News, Toronto; John H. Thompson, Post, Thorold; J. D. Reid, Arrow, Burk's Falls; W. Ireland, North Star, Parry Sound; Robert Holmes, New Era, Clinton; P. D. Ross, Journal, Ottawa; A. H. St. Germain, an honorary member; H. P. Moore, Free Press, Acton; A. F. Pirie, Banner, Dundas; W. F. Maclean, M.P., World, Toronto; John Cameron, Advertiser, London; T. F. McMahon, The Liberal, Richmond Hill; John Weld, Farmers' Advocate, London; Cameron Brown, Sun, Belleville; George Wilson, Guide, Port Hope; John King, Q.C., an honorary member; M. A. James, Statesman, Bowmanville; A. L. Lance, Times, Richmond, P.Q.; C. W. Rutledge, Markdale, Ont.; A. S. Forster, Oakville.

The association, according to the secretary-treasurer's statement, is in a better position to-day than it has been for the past ten years, the deficit having been reduced at the end of 1896 to $65.

The Executive report recommended that the admission fee be reduced from $5 to $3.

President Brierley expressed the hope that in the course of next year the association excursion to British Columbia, which had been postponed on account of the general elections in June last, would become a reality, and the "revelations of the past twelve months of the almost fabulous mineral wealth in British Columbia," be examined personally by the members.

He then devoted his attention to the important question of the imposition of postage on newspapers. He said: It will be remembered that at our last session there was much dissent from the proposition, said to be under consideration by the Government, that postage be reimposed on newspapers. A committee was appointed to watch the interests of the publishers in this matter. Since then a general election has brought a new Government into being, and we have reasons for believing that it is the opinion of the Postmaster-General in that Government that postage in some degree and under some qualifying conditions, must be reimposed on newspapers. He finds that there is a heavy annual loss in his department, and that the use or abuse of the privilege of free transmission is responsible for a large portion of that loss. Naturally, he is looking for a means of remedying this evil, and I am pleased to be able to say that he has kindly consented to be with us to-day or to-morrow and discuss the question. It should be our aim to convince Mr. Mulock that we are practically unanimous as to the course which should be pursued, and that course is one which will attain in some measure the laudable ends he has in view. We are all aware of the abuses which have grown out of the free use of the mails accorded to newspapers on the ground that they are educational in their character, and we should strengthen the hands of the Minister in his efforts to abate these abuses. Several propositions with this as their aim will no doubt be brought before you. One is to reimpose postage at the low rate of 1 cent for every four pounds. The publisher of a weekly sending out 1000 copies of an eight-page paper weekly would pay a tax of about 30 cents a week, while it would mean double that sum, or 60 cents per 1000, to the city publisher sending out a sixteen-page weekly paper. The smaller dailies, with a circulation largely confined to towns in which issued, would not feel the effect in the same proportion as the larger dailies, to the owners of which such a rate would mean nearly $2 a week per 1000 copies. The effect, of course, would be most serious on those publications issued merely for advertising purposes, and those which are issued in the interests of insurance and other societies. These would have to go out of existence or contribute to the revenue of the Postoffice Department. Another proposition is that rules be laid down by the department confining within narrower limits the classes of paper accorded the use of the mails.

Still another suggestion is that a zone be established around each town, and that publications issued in the town be given free transmission within the zone. In this case a paper might circulate free within a radius, say, of twenty miles of the place where it is published, but would pay postage on copies sent beyond that distance.

The following officers were elected by acclamation for the ensuing year:

President—Major J. B. McLean, of the McLean Publishing Company, Montreal.

First Vice-President—Robert Holmes, Clinton New Era.

Second Vice-President—W. L. Dingman, Stratford Herald.

Secretary-Treasurer—John A. Cooper, Canadian Magazine, Toronto.

Assistant Secretary-Treasurer—A. H. U. Colquhoun, Printer and Publisher.

Auditors—Messrs. S. Stephenson, Chatham Planet, and A. S. Forster, Oakville.

The following were nominated for members of the Executive Committee: Messrs. W. Ireland, George Wilson, Stephenson, E. W. Laird, Macdonald, Clark, Phillips, Smallfield, Douglas (Mail), Willison, Maclean (World), Ross, Mortimer, McGillicuddy, Bowell (Sir Mackenzie), Jackson and Climie. The committee, which is composed of five, will be elected to-day.

Mr. John King, Q.C., was heard in reference to the libel law. One important amendment to the law was that which limited the period in which an action might be brought on to three months. Another much-needed amendment was that which provided that when more than one paper is concerned in a suit for damages are consolidated. In other words, the judgment was to be divided up and the payment imposed equally upon all the offending papers. The speaker thought that monthly papers should come under the designation of newspapers. He advised that full and accurate reports of all libel trials be kept.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., advised the association to unite and, as far as possible, have their business in connection with libel cases done in the one office. The experience which aided counsel to defend a man now might be used with equal strength to convict him again. Mr. P. D. Ross spoke in a similar vein.

Besides those mentioned as present at the morning session there were present in the afternoon Prof. Goldwin Smith, Rev. Dr. Dewart, and Messrs. James Innes, ex-M.P., J. Ross Robertson, M.P., J. S. Willison, H. M. Gardiner, Rev. Dr. Briggs, Rev. Dr. Withrow, Mr. William Houston and others.

The discussion on postage on newspapers was prolonged. The following resolution was finally carried by a vote of more than 2 to 1:

"Resolved, that in the opinion of this association the law relating to the carrying of newspapers through the mails should remain as at present, but that any abuses existing whereby the present postal privileges are taken advantage of it by publications obviously not entitled to the privilege of free postage should be looked into and rectified;

"That this meeting recommends to the Postmaster-General the adoption of some definition of a newspaper, such as is observed by the postal authorities of the United States."

Mr. Mulock said that he knew the Government did not wish to antagonize the association, and he himself did not wish to run contrary to its views.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., asked if the situation was so acute that the department could not get along without some remedy.

Mr. Mulock replied that his impression was that the present state of affairs could not be allowed to continue, and that the taxpayers would not stand it when the abuses were made known.

At the conclusion of Mr. Mulock's address the following committee was appointed to interview the Postmaster-General as to a solution of the difficulty: Messrs. Cameron, Innes, Donnelly, Moore, Ross, Brierley, W. F. Maclean, Stephenson and Dr. Withrow.

The annual banquet of the association was held at the National Club in the evening. The chair was occupied by J. S. Brierley, president of the association, who was supported on his right and left by Hon. William Mulock, Lieut.-Col. G. T. Denison, Dr. G. R. Parkin, J. S. Willison, W. F. Maclean, M.P., F. Arnoldi, Q.C., Walter C. Nichol, E. E. Sheppard, Dr. Ryerson, M.L.A., J. B. McLean, 1st vice-president.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

CATARRH

Mrs. Dobell, of London, Ont., Cured for 25 Cents

Doctors Could Help, but Couldn't Cure—Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure Released the Prisoner, and To-day She is as Well as Ever—She Says it is a Great Remedy

"Yes, I am Mrs. Dobell," said a comely, pleasant-faced woman at her home on Horton street to a News reporter to-day, "and I will very gladly tell you what you want to know. About three years ago my husband was very ill, and I had frequently occasion to rise in the night and go for a doctor or to the druggist. In my hurry I often neglected to properly clothe myself, and contracted several heavy colds, which turned at last to chronic catarrh. I tried doctors, who helped me, but did not cure me, and several special catarrh medicines. I was relieved but not cured. I was suffering intolerably when Mr. Shuff recommended me to try CHASE'S CATARRH CURE, and it began at once to help, and in about two months had entirely cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this remarkable medicine, and cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers from catarrh." The blower included is a great help to sufferers.

THREE MONTHS FOR BIGAMY.

Young Lackey Sentenced to Jail by the the Magistrate.

Two cases occupied the attention of Police Magistrate Dumble at the court this morning.

Wm. Keteley, one of the regular residents of Castle Nesbitt, appeared before the magistrate and was given his usual term of six months.

Young Lackey, whose name figured in the Groves bigamy case, as one of the principals, was charged with bigamy. It was proved by the evidence of Mr. and Mrs. Kearns, the people who were living with him, that on several occasions he had stated that he was a married man whose wife was living with her two children by a former husband. Rev. W. R. Young testified as to marrying the prisoner to Margaret Blanco, a spinster giving her age as 27. He identified both of the contracting parties in court.

The magistrate found the prisoner guilty and sentenced him to three months in goal at hard labour.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY REGULAR MEETING.

THE GENESIS OF THE "BOARD" CANOE.

Mr. Geo. Dunsford's Interesting Paper on the Subject—A Chat About Canoes—The Date of the Annual Meeting and the Invitation to the "Archæological Section" Discussed.

The regular meeting of the Peterborough town and county Historical Society, and the first public meeting, was held last night in the County Council Chamber, with a fair attendance of members and the general public. At a preliminary meeting of the Executive Committee, nine new members were elected.

After routine

The chairman announced that the audience saw in the chamber a canoe that signalised the building of the first board canoe. The canoe on exhibition was a sort of naval hybrid, a cross between the clinker built boat and the canoe. It had all the lines of a canoe and all the lightness of that class of craft. It had cedar ribs, fastened to longditudinal strips by copper nails. Though about 21 feet in length it weighs so lightly that a man can easily carry it. The craft was the centre of a great deal of interested inspection by members of the society, as well as several practical canoe builders who were present.

The following is the paper read by Mr. Geo. Dunsford, in reference to the building of which is doubtless the pioneer of the canoe business, that has made Peterborough's name famous throughout the world for the building of the best canoes that float:

"For the first five years of my Canadian life, commencing in May, 1839, I resided at my father's place, called "The Beehive," on the shores of Sturgeon Lake, in the township of Verulam, and having a mechanical turn of mind, I often tried my hand at building punts and other kinds of craft, there being at that time nothing available but boats and birch bark canoes for use on these waters, except that now and again one might see the common pine log canoe and as both these kinds of canoe appeared to me and in fact were much too heavy and too clumsy for one person to manage against the winds of that lake, which was then, one might say, our only highway, so after much consideration I determined to try my hand and build a canoe similar in shape to the birch bark one out of very thin boards and in the year 1845, having the previous year left the "Beehive" to reside in Peterborough, I returned there for my summer holidays and set to work and built a canoe out of thin pine boards which, when finished, weighed only 40 lbs., and appeared so light that I frequently carried it on my shoulders between Chemong Lake and Peterborough.

Now this was

THE FIRST CANOE OF THE KIND

that I had ever seen or heard of, and I found it a most perfect little conveyance and it answered all my expectations, and I used it both in Peterborough and the back lakes waters until the end of the open season of 1849, and when I removed from Lindsay to Peterborough in the month of November of that year (having previously gone to Lindsay to practice law) I left my nice little canoe with Wm. McDonnell, Esq., who promised to take care of it till I required it again. This he did until the summer of 1860 or 1861, I forget which, when it was consumed in that dreadful fire which destroyed the greater part of the town of Lindsay. Whilst I was building this canoe my elder brother, James, who was much interested in my work, thought he could improve upon my ideas and work and make one larger and of still lighter wood, viz., of cedar. Now this was not such an easy matter to accomplish as one would think, as we were obliged to cross the lake and inspect one or two cedar swamps to find a suitable tree which could be cut up into good sound boards, free from knots. After much searching, however, we discovered a nice tall and straight-grained tree, which my brother afterwards cut down and took to Bobcaygeon, a distance of three or four miles, where it was sawn into half-inch boards, brought back to the "Beehive" and carefully piled in his workshop to dry, ready for operations the following summer, 1846.

THE CANOE THAT YOU NOW SEE

before you is the result of his labours, and which, when finished he was not a little proud of, and while he lived took the greatest care of. After his death in 1882, Mrs. Dunsford lent the canoe to M. M. Boyd, of Bobcaygeon, who had it in his possession till last year, when he returned it to her. Knowing the canoe and its history, and having always a great wish to become its owner, I purchased it from her about two months ago.

As to how this kind of canoe came to be called the "Peterborough Canoe," was on account of my brother Hartley making several of them while living in Ashburnham, and about the same time, that is to say, from 1846 to 1850, some of which he disposed of to sporting young gentlemen of Rice Lake and Cobourg, but the demand for these canoes became so great, that my brother, not being able or willing to make a business of manufacturing them, persuaded some of the young mechanics of the village to try their hands at it, which they accordingly did and, as they say and think, improved upon them. If, however, they claim the idea of changing the build of the canoes from the clinker or clapboard make to the smooth bottom, I beg to say that I cannot altogether admit this as a fact, as we used to discuss this mode of make prior to the venture of these later mechanics.

GEO. DUNSFORD."

Peterborough, 1st Feb., 1897.

ABOUT CANOES.

At the conclusion of Mr. Dunsford's paper an interesting informal discussion followed in which it came out that the first board canoe that was built by Mr. Dunsford was between 12 and 15 feet in length with narrow beam and rather "cottlish." The boards were thinned by hand and soaked in water to make them pliable. The idea was borrowed from the birch bark canoe.

It also came out that log canoes or dug-outs were made sometimes very light for racing.

The chairman, to account for the first dug-out, said he had learned that the late James Edwards, who came as school master to Chemong with the late Rev. John Gilmour, under the auspices of the New England Mission, constructed the first dug-out made in this district, about 1832.

Mr. H. C. Strickland said that his father built canoes of this kind as early as 1839 at Lakefield. They were used to take the grist to Young's Point, and he on one occasion went as supercargo at the age of four years. His brother George built the first basswood dug-out in about '49 or '50—some of them were made as light as the built canoe.

Mr. Charles Gladman, who has accompanied three or four Ogivie expeditions, was asked in reference to the kinds of canoes used on the coast and said that the canoes used in the expedition were from 40 to 50 feet in length and that four tons were carried. Mr. Strickland explained that the coast canoes were made out of the immense trees of that region. They were first made straight, and the "rake" given by placing heated stones in the interior, and expanding the sides and thus elevating the bows.

A vote of thanks was moved to Mr. Dunsford for his paper.

THE BRITISH ASSOCIATION.

The matter of the Society taking an interest in Peterborough, inviting the Archæological section of the British Association, which meets in Toronto next summer, to visit the Serpent Mound at Roach's Point, was discussed, and the following appointed as a deputation to wait upon the council to present the matter: Messrs. H. C. Rogers, Geo. Dunsford, Hampden Burnham, Lieut.-Col. Bell and R. M. Dennistoun.

A MOTTO.

Mr. Yokome suggested that the motto of the Society be "The Past Preserve—the Present Prize." This was favourably received and left for the consideration of the next general meeting.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

Considerable discussion took place on the question of the date of the annual meeting, which Mr. Hay suggested should be on the date of some prominent incident in the history of the town or county. Several dates were discussed, as well as the question of a suitable means of inaugurating the museum at the Nicholls Park, but no decision was arrived at, the matter being referred to the Executive Committee to consider.

HOCKEY.

The following players left for Kingston to-day to play the return match with the Frontenacs in the intermediate series:—Wasson, Hollingshead, Adams, Montgomery, King, Davidson and Graham. There is a good deal of dissatisfaction expressed by the enthusiasts over Harry King's name not being found on the team.

BUFFERS 2, DUFFERS 1.

The Buffers and Duffers played their annual match at the Park rink last night. Most of them were Buffers and all of them were Duffers—that is what the people said. There were two referees and a half dozen reporters present. There was a big crowd of spectators in attendance, and they seemed to enjoy the fun. The Buffers had no easy time in defeating the Duffers, the former scoring two goals in the first half, and the Duffers one in the second half. At no time in the last half of the match were the Buffers dangerous, and as the game progressed, it developed into a good natured practice for the Duffers. The return match is eagerly looked for. The following was the personnel of the teams:

Buffers.		Duffers.
James Blaine	goal	R T Hartley
W Gibbs	point	F J Logan
C LeBrun	cover point	T H Glover
H Morgan	forwards	C W Calcutt
H Groucutt		Jas Tobin
B Kindred		Victor Hamilton
W Warmington		Jack McCabe

Martin Connors ....umpires.... E Desautel
Referee—Geo Kempt

NOTES.

The betting on the game was 2 to 1 on the Duffers.

The Buffers took on Whitecroft as one of their team became fagged out.

Umpire Desautel fell asleep behind the goal and through "Reddie" Logan—stated that he had his specks on and scored for the Duffers.

The Duffers made a general kick regarding goal-keeper Blaine (undoubtedly the best in all Canada) moving in his goal sticks and getting Carice LeBrun and "Billy" Gibbs to assist him in performing his duties. The three heavy-weights between the flags made it utterly impossible for the midgets to score.

For the Duffers, Calcutt and Hartley were not bothered at their goal—in fact the puck never crossed the centre line, being nursed in front of the Buffer's goal, but the three goal-keepers were between the flags and prevented them scoring.

"Jockey" Connors makes a capital judge—his decisions in all cases favoured neither side.

Time being called, the teams lined up, and the band played on, the closing exercises were gone through, everybody being highly delighted with the celebrated Duffer and Buffer hockey match.

The Kingston Whig says: In the senior hockey series Peterborough team refused to meet Queen's team at the first-named place on Friday night. An effort was made to arrange the first meeting of these teams for Friday night, but a telegram received yesterday from Peterborough stated that the match could not take place until Monday night. This night is not so suitable for the collegians as Friday night, but nevertheless they will have to make the best of the matter and take those players that can get away, leaving some of the strongest at home.

Under the heading "Pat Men Against Kids," the Kingston Whig says: Frontenac juniors met defeat at the hands of a Peterborough aggregation last night. The pick of Peterborough was pitted against them, Peterboroughites were determined to win at all hazards. Principle was not regarded, and a team having two senior and two intermediate players was put on the ice against a purely junior aggregation. This accounts for the Peterborough's success. The match was a hot one, and the winning team had to work hard for every point gained. At the close of the first half the score stood three to one in favour of the home team. About midway through the second half the home team had a lead of one, the score standing six to five. After this the visitors seemed to go to pieces, as Peterborough players scored five more to the Frontenacs' one point. The Frontenacs were well received and after the match were banquetted, and at train time were escorted to the station by the winning team. Frontenacs are of the opinion that Peterborough cannot win when playing a purely junior aggregation. The Whig further says: Much regret is expressed at the illness of W. Hartz, jr., who will be unable to play with the Frontenacs in the match with the Peterborough aggregation on Friday night.

The boarders of the Grand Central have organized a hockey team, and challenge the boarders of any other hotel in town to a game, on condition that no player of either team is an adept at the game.

The Toronto Globe says,—The situation is becoming interesting in the O. H. A., now that the first round has been completed, and the good clubs have been sifted out, and next week ought to see the completion of the semi-final series. In the senior series, two Toronto and two eastern clubs are left to fight it out for the championship, and there does not seem to be anything in it with Queen's if they are playing up to last season's form. Peterborough, so far, is an unknown quantity, but as their senior team is composed of most of the men who wrestled with the Granites for supremacy in the junior division last season, and were beaten, it does not look as if they would stand much show with the Queen's; but there is many a slip between the puck and the stick, and G. Horkin's cracks may come off. The T. A. C. and Varsity teams hardly appear to be in the same class with the Presbyterians, and that either of them will built up very largely in the race is extremely improbable. In the Intermediate it is anybody's battle, but the Frontenacs and Berlin ought to be the last clubs in. The kindergarteners are seen to be evenly matched, but the Wellingtons and Peterborough III are about the best of the lot. The winners in the different groups in the three series are as follows:

SENIOR SERIES.

No. 1, Varsity; No. 2, T.C.A.; No. 3, Peterborough; No. 4, Queen's.

MR. CHAIRMAN HAMILTON.

The Peterborough Board of Education stands high among such organizations throughout the province, and the high standing of the schools is largely due to the character and public spirit of its members. That such a board should have a chairman of the highest qualifications is eminently proper and all will agree that this condition has been met by the election of Mr. Peter Hamilton to the important position of chairman of the Peterborough Board of Education. Mr. Hamilton is especially well qualified for the position for several reasons. He is a practical man of affairs, having long managed a most successful manufacturing business, and the board will have the benefit of the ripe experience and practical business ability developed, one may say, during a lifetime. He has been a member of the Board of Education for the past eight years, being appointed by the Council in 1889, and has shown a deep interest in the educational progress of the town, and, in the capacity of a private member, as well as in the position of chairman of of the Property Committee his presence on the board has contributed largely to the efficient management that has characterized our public schools. Mr. Hamilton's elevation to the chairmanship has again brought Mr. McBain to the head of the Property Committee, a position in which for several years he had shown unusual capacity and interest. Mr. Hamilton is a man of broad ideas and progressive instincts, and at the same time sufficiently prudent to wisely temper zeal with caution, and it is certain that under his presidency the matarest thought and the best judgment will be exercised. Mr. Hamilton's interest in our schools is to be accounted for to some extent from the fact that during his whole life he has had an interest in the progress of the town. He is a native of Peterborough, and received his education in the town schools. At almost the earliest possible age—that of 22 years—he entered the town council and gave efficient service during that year and also a couple of years subsequently and showed the same careful industry and aptitude in dealing with the interests entrusted to him, as has marked his subsequent career in every relation of citizenship. Mr. Hamilton's practical business training was used to excellent effect in the discharge of his duties as chairman of the Property Committee, in which such knowledge is especially valuable. In all respects Mr. Hamilton's appointment is an excellent one. He possesses the respect and confidence of the board to a flattering degree and also possesses all the qualifications necessary to the efficient discharge of the duties of the office, and he is to be heartily congratulated upon the recognition of these qualifications implied in his elevation to the position he now occupies. As ably as the board has been presided over in the past, Mr. Chairman Hamilton will perform the duties of the office in a manner in every way worthy of its importance and we may look for the same efficient administration of our school affairs that has marked the past.

THE BYE-ELECTIONS.

Two to one is not a bad ratio of success in winning for the Government in the bye-elections two seats held by the Opposition. Yesterday the Liberals scored a handsome victory in South Brant, where Mr. Heyd, the Government candidate, received a majority of 281. In North Ontario, Mr. Graham, the Patron-Liberal, was elected as a supporter of the Government by a majority of 33. That is, two distinct gains to offset a condition of statu quo in East Simcoe, where the result of the election was to return an Oppositionist in the person of Mr. Bennett, who was elected at the general election by 246, a majority that was reduced to 138 yesterday. Mr. Bennett is a strong candidate, extremely popular in the riding, and moreover a young man of really superior ability, altogether a good man to be beaten by. The results of the bye elections have been a steady gain to the numerical strength of the government's support in the House,—Brandon, which returned Mr. Sifton, and Cornwall, which returned a Liberal also; and now we have to add to the gains, South Brant and North Ontario, a gain altogether of eight votes on a division. Every bye-election but one has resulted in a gain with not a single loss and East Simcoe is the only contest in which the Liberals have failed to elect their candidate. The course of no battle is without reverses, and the government has reason to be well satisfied with yesterday's results, coming as they did on the heels of other successes in the bye-elections. The Government has steadily gained in numerical as well as moral strength since the general contest in June.

P. N. CORSETS

Are made with special reference to the needs of Canada, a daughter. Fits you like a glove and you like to wear it. Sold by R. PAIN & Co. 212 George St. 2w16

Woman may crown herself with good health if she will. By so doing she will insure her own attractiveness, make her husband and her home happy, and protect the health of her babies. Health is the most glorious crown that a woman may wear. To wear it she must take proper care of herself, and see to it that the delicate organs that are distinctly feminine are always healthy and strong. Thousands of women fall short of good health in this one respect, and as a result soon become but wrecks of their former selves. A woman cannot long retain her general health who is suffering from weakness and disease of the organs that make wifehood and motherhood possible.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acts directly on these organs. It makes them well and strong. It prepares a woman to be a wife and mother. It does away with the discomforts of the expectant period and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. All good druggists sell it.

"I am glad," writes Mrs. Louisa Arthurs, of Ostwalt, Iredell Co., N. C., "to express my gratitude to you for the benefits I have received from your medicines. After the birth of my second child I was stricken with derangement of the stomach and liver and a full line of female weaknesses. For seven years I suffered untold misery. Then my husband, J. S. Arthurs, sent for a copy of your 'Common Sense Medical Adviser.' The book described my sufferings so plainly that I purchased bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a vial of 'Pleasant Pellets.' Our doctor pronounced my case hopeless, and laid aside your medicines, calling them nostrums, and for six months I lay under his disgusting treatment. At the end of this time I commenced taking your medicine and improved very fast. I was soon able to do my housework. My baby thrived fast, and is to-day the healthiest child I have. Your medicine saved my life. My recovery was astonishing. I recommend your medicines constantly."

CANADA CAN STRIKE BACK

And Can Hit Uncle Sam in a Vital Spot Too in Regard to Employment of Aliens.

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 3.—William McGregor, M.P., returned to-day from Brantford. He talked freely about the many ways the Canadian Parliament would retaliate if the Immigration bill were enforced, and said: "We are too near to be apart. We want only friendly relations, but we can retaliate. There are no towns or cities in Canada or the United States with so few stores in proportion to the population as Windsor, Walkerville and Sandwich. The greater part of the wealth of this district is taken to Detroit. People of Essex County, of Windsor, Walkerville and Sandwich, purchase more in Detroit than in Windsor. They are able to do it because we wink at that sort of thing. We can stop it. Such customs regulations can be enforced as to stop Canadians purchasing goods in Detroit. From Michigan and from Maine more men go to Canada to work during the lumbering season than there are persons who go from all Canada to the United States. Annually 300,000,000 feet of logs are rafted to the United States. They are taken mainly from the Georgian Bay district to the mills in Michigan. In the summer they are made into lumber. The same gangs who work in the mills in summer go into the Canadian woods in winter, and cut the logs. Large numbers go from Maine to New Brunswick. This would also be stopped. Then American fish companies control about all the fishing interest in Lake Erie. Americans get licenses there the same as if they were Canadians. In British Columbia the American miners, for a small sum, can get a license to mine and are given a tract of land to work on. They get these privileges on the same conditions as Canadians do. The Government would deprive them of the privileges in our mines and fisheries."

Windsor longshoremen, who have hitherto made no objections to Detroiters working along the wharves, where many are employed, now say that they will take measures to prevent their future employment. The Bricklayers' Union has induced Ald. Dixon to press a bylaw in the City Council requiring contractors on all public works to hire only Windsor men.

THE DEAD BARNARDO BOY.

It Appears as Though He Lost His Life in an Effort to be Revenged.

Toronto, Feb. 4.

An enormous amount of interest was shown in connection with the inquiry yesterday at York Mills into the death of the Barnardo boy, Charlie Bradbury. At 7.30 o'clock on Monday night a fire broke out on the farm belonging to David Hunter, on lot 12, 3rd concession, east of Yonge-street, four miles due east of York Mills. The farm was rented by Stewart and John Blain, cousins, who, at the time of the fire, were visiting at David Hunter's, 1 1-2 miles away. The only human being on the premises at the time was Chas. Bradbury, a Barnardo boy, who was brought out from England to the Toronto Home, and was hired out to Stewart Blain 18 months ago. On Tuesday at daylight, and when the fire had cooled, the charred remains of the lad were found in the horse stable. How he came to be there and how the fire originated was the object of the inquiry yesterday.

Dr. W. H. B. Aikins was the coroner, John Blain was the witness called. After the usual caution he proceeded to give his evidence. He and his cousin Stewart had rented the farm from David (or Mrs. M. A.) Hunter in July, 1895. The rent was $350 per annum. All was paid up in November; no rent is due till the spring; nothing was owing except $155 to relations. The inmates of the farm were John and Stewart Blain and the boy Charlie. Neither of the Blains was married, and there were no women around the place. The boy was about 15 years of age. He assisted in the general work of the farm. His general behavior was satisfactory, but at times he showed bad temper and was hard to put up with.

On Monday afternoon Mr. Webb, an agent of the Barnardo Homes, visited the farm, and the Blains represented the boy's conduct as satisfactory and the boy expressed himself pleased with the place and with the farming generally. After Mr. Webb's departure Charlie and John Blain had words. The agreement between the Home and Stewart Blain is dated July 23, 1895. He agreed to pay $10 the 2nd year, $20 the 3rd year, $30 the 4th year and $40 the 5th year. The agreement calls for the payments to be made to the Home, who would hold the money for the boy until the end of the five years.

Charlie claimed that the agreement had not been properly read to him. There was considerable discussion between them, and John Blain told him a dozen times to "Shut up," and said, "Charlie if you give me any more impudence, I'll clout your ears." The boy continued his aggravation. John Blain then shook him, and, as Charlie began to bellow, Blain took him and carried him 80 or 90 feet towards the house. Charlie was heavy, weighing nearly as much as John Blain, and he threw him down and gave him a kick in the back. Blain was pretty angry and went into the house. Stewart Blain went out and brought the boy in. Charlie said he would make Blain suffer. Stewart Blain said: "That's enough, my boy. I don't want to hear any more of it."

They left the boy standing on the stoop and John went out and hitched up a horse to the cutter, fastening the stable on the outside. The lantern was taken into the house. John and Stewart drove away about 7 to David Hunter's, about 1 1-2 miles away. Fred Hunter and Stewart Blain took the horse out of the cutter and put him in the stable, while John Blain went into the house. He had barely taken off his overcoat when Miss Hunter drew attention to a fire in the flats. He said: "I'll bet it's our house and that Charlie has done it." The horse was again put into the cutter and Stewart and John Blain and Fred Hunter drove back to the farm. They had been away about 40 minutes. When they got back they found the cow stable nearly burned down, the barn on fire and the horse stable just starting up. A number of the neighbors were there saving the stock and implements. Among them were Henry Elliott, Mr. Elliott, sr.; Edward and William Gooderham, Jim Henry, Joe Sloss, Albert Hunter and Robert Montgomery, and a number of others. The horses and implements were all got out, but the cows were burnt.

John Blain went straight to the dwelling house to look for Charlie. In his bedroom he found the bed on fire, simmering. Very little of the mattress or bed clothes had been burned. John snatched up the sheets and quilt and took them out, throwing them on the snow, and called to Stewart, who brought out the mattress. All this did not take more than two minutes.

Later on in the evening John found matches on the floor in the pantry. They are usually kept on the shelf. On Tuesday morning the boy's body was found in the box stall, which had been nearly full of pea straw, and the lantern was found there also. John and Stewart went to Toronto on Tuesday about 11 a.m., and saw Mr. Owen at the Barnardo Home on Farley-avenue. Stewart told him about the fire. John spoke about the quarrel and said it looked as if the boy had intended to burn up everything, that the neighbors had come quicker than he expected and he had jumped into the box stall to hide himself and had got suffocated and didn't know the way out.

The farm had been rented to the Blains for five years, but the landlord, Mr. Hunter, had agreed to let them out on April 1, 1897, and the farm was rented to Mr. Law, who did 40 acres of fall plowing and sent in some implements and hay.

The Blains' loss is seven cattle, worth $250, and other effects, $50, with no insurance. In the cow stable where the fire started there was a large quantity of chaff.

Questions were asked in reference to a missing razor, but nothing was learned.

At the conclusion of John Blain's evidence the enquiry was adjourned until Monday afternoon. The witness had been under examination four hours. He gave his testimony in a straightforward manner and made no effort to keep anything back, as far as could be ascertained, and his story did not vary from what he has said ever since the occurrence.

TEN YEARS TROUBLED

With Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia---Suffered Greatly and Found No Relief in the Scores of Medicines Prescribed.

South American Nervine Was Recommended, and Before Half a Bottle Was Taken Relief Came.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.

What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Chesley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

CANCER CURED
—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

TESLA'S NEW INTERRUPTER.

An Electrical Current Broken 80,000,000 Times a Second.

Nikola Tesla, the great electrician, has just taken out patents for a device for producing almost incalculable electrical vibrations, and the Electrical Review gives a full description of the invention and its uses. It was by the use of this device that Mr. Tesla has been able to demonstrate the scientific possibility of producing brilliant illumination by means of vacuum tubes that were not in mechanical contact with the electric source. Under the the influence of a current of electricity interrupted 60,000,000 or 80,000,000 times a second the tubes with which Mr. Tesla was experimenting burst into a brilliant white light, which was demonstrated by photography to be much more powerful than the arc electric light, although the tubes were entirely disconnected and stood so far away from the exciting coils that Mr. Tesla sat in a large armchair between the tubes and the coil while he was photographed by the light of the tubes.

No such effect has ever been produced by any other means, and this gives only a rough indication of the ways in which Mr. Tesla's latest patented device may be of use in the arts. For the production of Roentgen rays, the making of ozone and argon, and for electro-therapeutic treatment, the new device will find immediate use.

The interruption of electrical currents for the purpose of breaking these currents into electrical waves or vibrations has never before been a purely mechanical operation. In its simplest form this is done by the commutator or vibrating armature of the Rumfkoff induction coil. The vibrations of such an armature or even of the needle with which the armature has been replaced in some devices, must be confined within the narrow limit of a few hundred to the second. Rotating interrupters, connecting and breaking the electrical circuit, with a change in the position of their teeth as they revolved, added much to the number of interruptions which could be obtained, but even their best speed bore but a pitiful relationship to the 100,000,000 or more vibrations a second which Mr. Tesla calculates that he has obtained from his device.

The simplicity of the latter is one of the remarkable features.

Catarrh in the Head

Is a dangerous disease. It may lead directly to consumption. Catarrh is caused by impure blood, and the true way to cure it is by purifying the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh because it removes the cause of it by purifying the blood. Thousands testify that they have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOod's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. All druggists. 25c.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on with increasing suffering until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs directly feminine. Over thirty years ago the need for a reliable remedy for so called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now chief consulting physican to the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

GOING TO INVADE TORONTO.

Ballington Booth Will Send to Canada a Detachment of His American Volunteers.

New York, Feb. 3.—The desire of the the American Volunteers, Ballington Booth's organization, to launch out and work in other fields, has caused the council of officers to map out a visit to Toronto, with the direct purpose of arousing interest there in the volunteer movement, and with the ultimate object of establishing an organization in the Dominion to be known as the Volunteers of Canada.

A council of the officers of the Volunteers has been in session for the past ten days, and one whole day was given over to discussing this question of enlarging the field of work. Many of the officers told of requests they had received from friends in Canada, and it was decided that Commander Booth be empowered to arrange a series of meetings in Toronto.

The Salvation Army is well established in Canada, so that this aggressive action on the part of the new organization will be watched with interest. If the movement is successful in the north the next step will be taken in England with the object of establishing "The Volunteers of England." National Secretary Holloway said today to a reporter that he predicted a brilliant future for the Volunteers in Canada and England. He declared that the sentiment for local government was as strong among the people of these countries as in America.

"Our campaign," he said, "will not be a political fight, but an education of the people to the ideas of home government. We are especially desirous of establishing posts in England and Canada because of the dissatisfaction which prevails among many ex-officers of the Salvation Army, who left that organization for the same reason that we did. These persons do not find work congenial to them in other fields, and they are well equipped by experience to advance the cause of the Volunteers."

Rescue by an Equine Hero.

A graphic story is told of Surgeon-Captain Grey, one of the officers who served in Rhodesia. In the attack on Mashangombi's, the horses began to drop, and soon thirteen lay on the ground, and it looked as if the men would all be killed. Evidently Capt. Turner thought so, for he virtually gave the order, "Suave qui peut," telling every man to fight the best he could for his own hand. But, though the horses continued to fall, the men escaped. Dr. Grey, to use his own words, "led toward the way out under a raking fire at a gallop, and was closely followed by the troop," according to the St. James Budget. "Very soon, however, I fell from the saddle, struck with a bullet from an elephant gun, about 500 yards off. The bullet struck me on the top of the thigh, smashing the socket of the thigh bone, breaking a vein and otherwise wounding me. My horse was carried on at full speed with the rear guard, which rushed at desperate speed to clear the pocket-like entrance to the drift, where the natives were rallying in the hope of killing us. As I lay on the grass, bleeding profusely, I looked up and saw two natives aiming at me at a distance of about forty feet. At the some moment I saw my horse come thundering back from the drift. It suddenly stopped, and stood over my prostrate body, covering me from the firing, and at the same time making a peculiar noise through its nostrils. I thought it had been wounded, and that with pain, noise and confusion it had gone mad. This notion, however, was soon dispelled, for it continued to stand over me in a kneeling posture, and I could see that the faithful animal had come back to protect me. I may remark here that this horse, which I myself selected, I made a pet of. The assegais from the approaching natives were now beginning to fly around me, and, thinking if I could reach my horse's back I would be shot, which was preferable to being assegaied, I seized the reins, put my right foot in the stirrup, and made a supreme effort to mount. And I was successful, but how I did it I do not know, for my left side was entirely paralyzed. On finding myself in my saddle, I called "Go!" to my horse, which darted like an arrow toward the exit from the drift."

IF WE EXPECTORATE

We Cannot Expect to Rate 'as Good Citizens — Ottawa Endorses Peterborough.

The Ottawa Free Press has the following in a recent issue:—The town of Peterborough has always been regarded as progressive, and it ought ere long to write "city" after its name. Its Board of Health has taken action, at once, upon the same lines as those of the New York Board in connection with tuberculosis, which were noticed in these columns. It is to be hoped the action of this enterprising town, which has thus taken the initiative, will be followed. Dr. G. Burnham at the meeting in question, took the opportunity of condemning the too common practice, spitting on the sidewalks and drew attention to the fact that Chicago and Los Angeles, Cal., imposed a penalty on those who spat on the sidewalks as disease germs were often taken up by the dresses of ladies and otherwise. He severely denounced the conduct of local young men who stood around the street corners and carried on the this habit of spitting on the sidewalks. Unfortunately the habit is not confined to sidewalks and the disease germs are distributed in other quarters. It is time that the dangerous consequences of this "habit," bad at that, was made better known than they are at present. The extent to which it is carried finds a witness, to those who seek to know, in the snow on the streets which to the passer by affords a disgusting testimony. And the frost does not destroy any germs of disease which may be hidden. It merely holds them, and when dry weather comes in the spring they will be blown about with doubtless fatal results. In the interests of public health the practice should be suppressed.

SPITTING IN STREET CARS.

The agitation here against the pernicious habit of spitting has extended to Montreal and Toronto as well as Ottawa, and the demand for the diminution of the nuisance has included street cars. The Toronto World thus remarks:—

"Has a passenger a legal right to expectorate in a street car? This point will soon be submitted to the courts for decision if the Montreal Street Railway Company persist in carrying out a recent order they have issued to their conductors. According to this order, when a conductor notices any passenger spitting in the car he is to politely call his attention to a notice forbidding the practice. If the passenger does not obey the notice the conductor is then to peremptorily order him not to spit in the car. If this last order is disobeyed the conductor must then stop the car and order the passenger off, and if necessary, he is to call on the motorman for assistance to forcibly eject him. Whether the company could legally justify itself for ejecting a passenger for spitting on the floor of a car is a debatable point, but there is no doubt that the Montreal and the Toronto Street Railway Companies will receive the moral support of the public in any efforts they may make to suppress this nuisance.

If the courts cannot restrain passengers, a street railway company can certainly, it would be thought, prevent their officials from indulgence in this filthy habit.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

BETHEL—KEENE CIRCUIT.

We are still endeavouring to work for Christ and the church. On Wednesday evening the meeting was opened by Mr. H. Patterson. The topic, "Our Failures and Successes," was conducted in an able manner by Mrs. J. Humphries, and Miss Addie Pallis led the prayer meeting. At the close of the services we held our regular business meeting. The attendance was good, there being about eighty present. We feel that God is with us in our work.

One by one our ranks are thinning—
Thinning here, but swelling there;
One by one bright crowns are winning,
Crowns they shall forever wear.

Yes, our ranks are thinning here. Death has come to our society again and taken another beloved member. Mr. Wm. Shearer passed away Thursday morning, Jan. 21st. Although this is the fifth time death has visited our society within the past year, still we say, "Thy will, O Lord, be done."

A precious one from us has gone,
His pain and sufferings past;
And all his work on earth is done,
He is numbered with the blest.

While here among us on this earth,
He was a cherished one;
A faithful member of our League,
A loving brother and son.

When sickness called him to his bed,
He thought 'twould not be long
Until he would meet with us again,
To join in prayer and song.

But all the work of loving hands,
By parents and sister given,
Could but a moment break the chain
That linked dear Will to heaven.

For God who doeth all things well,
And always works in love;
Saw best to take him to himself,
In yon bright home above.

On Thursday morn at dawn of day,
He said to one who watched,
Tell them I am going now—
Angels their harps have touched.

He called his aged father first,
And strength seemed to him given;
"Father dear, I am going home,
Please meet me up in heaven."

Then next he called his mother near,
To bid a fond good bye;
"I shall be free from all this pain
Up yonder in the sky."

"Oh Willie dear," the mother said,
"I cannot let you go;"
In calm and peaceful tones he said,
"'Tis for the best you know."

And then he called his sister dear,
And clasped her to his breast;
"Oh Nellie dear don't weep for me,
I soon shall be at rest."

And then he called his brother Rob,
With sad and tearful eye,
"Good bye," he said, "We'll meet again
In Heaven, bye and bye."

And to the absent ones he left
This message to be given:
"Tell them for me that I do hope
To meet them all in Heaven."

And to the members of our League
This message, too, was given:
"I can no more see them on earth,
But hope to meet them all in Heaven."

Then, looking round the room, he said:
"God be with me and you:
T will not be long until you all
Shall be in Heaven, too."

"Oh, how I wish I was in Heaven,"
Were the last words he said,
"Be patient yet a little while,"
The eager watcher said.

And then he closed his peaceful eyes
And lay calm upon his bed;
The pulse had ceased, the heart was still,
His spirit then had fled.

O God, we would not call him back
To earth for toil and care,
We know that he is happy now
In Heaven bright and fair.

Then help each one of us to say,
"Thy will on earth be done,"
And when our work is done on earth
We'll all make Heaven our home.

A report is given to each pupil at the end of each month. By this report a parent can tell how his child stands in his class, whether he has been absent, and whether he is making satisfactory progress. Most of these reports are signed and returned promptly by the parents. Parents will please insist on seeing these reports at the end of each month; then sign and return them.

WE ARE GLAD

To be able to announce that we have finished Stock-taking, and have something left after a satisfactory year's business. To be sure Profits have been small during the year just closed, but we have kept the expense account small likewise.

Ladies who shop here have shown their appreciation of our goods and our plain way of doing business. We have reason to be thankful for their confidence and patronage, and solicit a continuance of their favours for another year.

An Aftermath Of Bargains.

We have laid out for bargain overs special lots of DRESS GOODS, APRON MUSLINS, FLANNELETTE, FLANNEL, and the rest of our WINTER MILLINERY, which we can afford to sell at a loss at the end of the season, so as to make room for new goods. As a matter of fact you run no risk in buying here, because our goods have no chance to grow old. The store the ladies like must have a large daily outflow of goods to keep the stock new and fresh. You catch the idea.

It does not necessarily follow when our customary January Reduction Sale takes place, that good dressers want the commonest grade of Clothes that lack fit, finish and style. WILL MOVE FORWARD

British Tone of Defiance to France and Russia.

ON TO KHARTOUM IS THE POLICY

And John Bull Will Not be Worried From His Purpose—Slaughter of Christians by Mohammedans in Crete—The Town of Canea Burned—Other Cable News.

London, Feb. 5.—In the House of Commons to-day Sir Michael E. Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced that a further advance of Egyptian troops would be made toward Khartoum next season.

As regarded the action of the Egyptian tribunals, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach continued, Great Britain would not be worried out from her policy when her mind was made up. He then proceeded to move a resolution granting the sum of £798,000 to meet the cost of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition to Dongola, including the maintenance of the garrisons in the Soudan.

The action of the mixed Court of Appeal in upsetting the judgment of the Egyptian Public Debt Commission in regard to setting aside certain Egyptian funds toward the expense of the Dongola expedition, he said, was calculated to prolong British occupation of Egypt. Great Britain had advanced the money to pay Egypt's share of the expenses, leaving Great Britain and Egypt to mutually decide when the sum should be repaid.

In the course of his remarks, Sir Michael said that the occupation of Egypt by Great Britain had been prolonged because France had not allowed the British to have as free a hand as was necessary. Great Britain, he added, intended to occupy Egypt until that country was able to do without her. Moreover, it would be necessary to reconsider the powers and authority of the Egyptian mixed tribunals, and to decide whether they should be allowed to interfere in such affairs as the cost of the recent Anglo-Egyptian expedition.

Right Hon. John Morley (Liberal) said that the remarks of the Chancellor of the Exchequer amounted to a challenge to France and Russia to take issue with Great Britain in the latter's Egyptian policy. In view of the sensitive condition of Europe at the present time, he declared, nothing more rash could be uttered.

Sir Charles Dilke (Liberal) denounced the Egyptian policy of the Government.

Sir William Harcourt, the leader of the Opposition, expressed regret at the unwise language and gratuitous provocation of the powers which characterized the remarks of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach.

George N. Curzon, Under Foreign Secretary, sought to minimise the effect of Sir Michael's language, and denied that it was in any way intended as a menace to France.

Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, Unionist member for North Lambeth, said that Great Britain was only doing in Egypt what Russia was doing in Siberia and France was doing between the Senegal and the Niger Rivers in Africa.

The committee of the House of Commons re-appointed to enquire into the troubles in South Africa met to-day and selected Right Hon. William L. Jackson, M. P. for North Leeds, as chairman. It was decided to begin the taking of evidence on Feb. 16, when Cecil Rhodes, formerly Premier of the Cape Colony, will be called to the witness stand.

WHAT THE TABLET SAYS.

The Tablet, the chief Catholic organ of Great Britain, owned and managed by Cardinal Vaughan, publishes an article to-day upon the Manitoba school question, in which it says: "Hon. Edward Blake's opinion is a sad disappointment. It is now clear that the best course of the Catholics is to support Premier Laurier in trying to carry negotiations with Manitoba to a successful conclusion."

The Tablet advocates the appointment of an apostolic delegate to Canada, who might be able to focus Catholic opinion to formulate a Catholic united demand, and so effect a final settlement of the difficulty.

RELIGIOUS WAR IN CRETE.

Mohammedans Attack Christians and Burn and Slaughter Recklessly.

London, Feb. 5.—A despatch to the Central News from Athens says that a deshperate fight has occurred between the Christians and Mohammedans in the Island of Crete. The Mussulmans have set fire to the city of Canea and the place is now burning. The city is in a state of anarchy and a Christian is safe nowhere Many Christians who had locked themselves in their houses were driven out by the flames, only to meet death at the hands of the Turkish soldiers, who shot them down at sight. A number of Christians have succeeded in finding refuge on the warships in the harbor, but the outlook for those still in the city is very precarious. The situation is so critical that marines have been landed from the British and French warships to protect the consulates of their respective Governments.

A later despatch to the Central News says that the Christian quarters in Canea have been almost destroyed. The various consulates are crowded with fugitives.

A Boy Hit One Horse Which Ran Away and Started Three Others—The Boy's Father Shot Himself

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 5.—The 13-year-old son of Peter J. Dreis, the oldest druggist in St. Paul, and one of the leading politicians, yesterday threw a snowball at a man in a cutter, the ball striking the horse and causing it to run away. This runaway resulted in three other runaways, in which large damage was done. Two of the injured people called at the drug store of Mr. Dreis and demanded that he pay damages. Without making any answer, he walked into the office at the rear of the store, put a revolver behind his right ear and fired. Death was instantaneous.

Wayland Trask and Alfred N. Rankin, New York Bankers, Arrested.

New York Feb. 5.—Wayland Trask and Alfred N. Rankin, composing the firm of Wayland, Trask & Co., bankers and brokers, were arraigned in the Tombs to-day, charged by Andrew J. Willets, a member of the Produce Exchange, with grand larceny. Willets swears that they hypothecated $2000 worth of bonds he had deposited with them, failed to pay a promissory note of $5000 and sold, without authorization, a large number of shares of the Iowa Central Railway, which they held for his account. The defendants declare they merely acted as complainant's agents and under his orders. They were held in $2000 bail each.

On the Rack Again Yesterday—No Conclusion Yet Reported.

Goderich, Feb. 5.—The investigation case against William Campbell, postmaster here, was resumed this morning prove him an offensive political partisan in examination in regard to political interference. A number of witnesses were examined and tried to prove him an offensive political partisan.

Mr. Campbell then entered the witness box in his own defence, and the remainder of the afternoon was occupied in his examination. The case was adjourned until evening.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER has sailed for Canada. If he had been here to take part in the bye-elections the Government would probably have carried East Simcoe too.

THE Globe put it this way: "Of the Ontario seats that have been contested in the bye-elections Conservatives held four and Liberals one. The result of the bye-elections has been to reverse those figures, the Liberals having retained North Grey by a largely increased majority, and won Cornwall and Stormont, South Brant and North Ontario from their opponents." Turn about is fair play.

'Twas Hard Work Fifteen Years Ago.

To-Day Diamond Dyes Makes Home Dyeing Easy.

Fifteen years ago the work of home-dyeing was just in its infancy. The old-fashioned crude preparations were then in vogue, necessitating much time and great expense, while the results even with the greatest amount of care never brought satisfaction.

The introduction of Diamond Dyes revolutionized home dyeing work completely. Diamond Dyes saved time and money to thousands of busy women and at once became popular with every family.

Each succeeding year found the Diamond Dyes improved in colour, brilliancy and durability of shade. To-day they stand far ahead of all other dyes in every leading point, and are as perfect as science can make them.

There are many imitations of Diamond Dyes in the land, and many women are deceived daily when purchasing. In order to insure absolute success in home dyeing see that every packet of dye you buy is marked "Diamond Dye."

BAD RENNET IN CHEESEMAKING.

Important Recommendations by the Butter and Cheese Association, of Montreal.

Some time ago, says a recent issue of the Montreal Star, the Butter and Cheese Association of Montreal, appointed a committee to consider a remedy for the bad rennet which had found its way into some cheese factories, and to report on the kind of wood required in butter boxes and the proper parchment paper to be used for lining them. This committee having completed its labours, a meeting of the Association was held, when the following report was submitted by Mr. A. A. Ayer:

"Your committee who were appointed to consider a remedy for the bad rennet which has been imposed upon factorymen, beg to report that in their opinion the best remedy is to remove the cause of the trouble. The cause seems to have been confined to the bad rennet furnished by a single manufacturer. Remove this cause and destroy all this brand so that no more can be sold, and the disease will be cured. We have heard no complaints of this taint in our autumn cheese, and may therefore presume the factorymen have entirely ceased to use this bad rennet.

"Your committee beg, however, to recommend that all parties who sell rennet should henceforth use extra care as to quality, should apply all known tests thereto, and that factorymen should be especially warned against using cheap rennet, or cheap supplies of any kind in the manufacture of either butter or cheese. Special care should be used to keep rennet in the coolest and darkest place possible; a temperature of between 35 and 45 degrees is preferable, as heat injures the flavour and exposure to air decreases the strength. Rennet of a previous year's manufacture should never be used. When too large a quantity of rennet is required to coagulate the milk, the fault is usually to be found in it having been exposed to the air or to great heat, or in improper treatment by the cheesemaker either of the rennet or the milk. Factorymen should never use rennet, not even for one day, that is not perfectly sweet to the taste or smell. The inspector should be specially qualified to instruct makers on all the above points."

Mr Ayer moved that the report be adopted, and that any complaints of bad rennet in the future be made at once to the Executive committee, who shall immediately notify the Dairy Commissioner, or take such other steps as they think advisable.

Mr. J. C. Warrington did not think that the adoption of the committee's report would in any way protect the exporters of cheese in the future. They had no knowledge that the rennet which had been complained of had been destroyed after it was returned to the manufacturer, nor whether the latter had ceased to manufacture it. He considered that the complaints for the past twenty years regarding July and August cheese were due to bad rennet. Factory men did not keep it at a sufficiently low temperature.

Mr. Vaillancourt explained that he had been informed by the manufacturer of the rennet complained of that he had thrown about $7,000 worth of it into the St. Lawrence.

Mr. A. C. Wieland considered that the way to deal with the matter was by Government inspection.

Mr. Ayer observed that in the country the factorymen frequently kept their rennet in the boiler room, right beside the boiler, so that it became thoroughly heated. A Government inspection of rennet would, he considered, be quite impracticable.

Mr. Warrington then moved—"That the Government appoint an inspector for rennet who shall certify the quality, the date when inspected, and the temperature at which it shall be kept; that any breach of these regulations shall be the responsibility of the manufacture of the cheese."

This motion was lost and Mr. Ayer's report was adopted.

Mr. Duckett then moved—"That this meeting instruct the executive committee to place the facts before the Minister of Agriculture, and request him to take the necessary action to see that all the brand of rennet complained of is destroyed, and also to express our opinion as to the advisability of the Department of Agriculture instructing factorymen that only first class rennet should be purchased, and to call their particular attention to the necessity of keeping it in a cool place."

This was carried.

Mrs. Harkley, the Wife of Captain Harkley, Well-Known Lake Captain of Owen Sound, Ont., Tells How La Grippe Left Her, and How Often Doctors Gave up Hope and Her Family and Friends Despaired of Her Recovery—The Great South American Nervine was the Beacon Which Directed Her Into the Good Health Harbor.

"About four years ago I was afflicted with a severe attack of la grippe, which left me almost a complete wreck. I was prostrated for weeks. I doctored with several physicians and used many remedies, but none had any lasting effect. My friends began to be alarmed for my recovery. The doctors shook their heads and held out little hopes. I was attracted by an advertisement of South American Nervine, and as my trouble was of a nervous nature I decided to try it. The first bottle helped me greatly. I persisted in its use, and this great remedy has completely built up my system, and I positively declare that it is the only remedy that gave me any relief." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

TWEED TOPICS.

Mrs. James Davenport Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Davenport is well-known in Tweed, and this is how she spoke to our representative concerning Doan's Kidney Pills. Said Mrs. Davenport:—

"I have suffered for some years from dizziness pafling under the eyes, pains in the side and back, sleeplessness, poor appetite, and in fact, was in a bad state generally.

"I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at P. E. Newton's drugstore, and experienced immediate relief from their use.

"I am now very much better indeed; appetite improved, pain almost disappeared and I feel stronger and healthier in every particular.

"I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

FELL FROM THE VERANDAH.

The Wife of Mayor Cole of Niagara Falls, Ont., Very Badly Hurt.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Feb. 5.—While Mrs. Charles C. Cole, wife of Mayor Cole of this town, was out on the verandah in front of her residence on Simcoe-street at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon, something attracted her attention on the street. Leaning over the railing, there being ice on the verandah, her feet slipped from under her and she shot over the railing, falling on the frozen ground, some 16 feet below. The accident was seen by some workmen on the street opposite, who picked her up, and carried her into the house, when she was found to be unconscious. Dr. McGarry was called and found she had partial concussion of the brain. She regained consciousness this evening, but is very dangerously ill, having severely injured her spine, besides being otherwise shaken up.

The Acme Heating Drum

is the best appliance to economize fuel. We are selling them rapidly. They pay for themselves in a short time. Read what our Citizens say:

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 20x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north; and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 15th, '97. McFARLANE WILSON.

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 14, '97. HATTON & WOOD.

THEY SHOULD PAY UP

Ottawa Retail Merchants After Civil Servants.

THEY WILL PETITION GOVERNMENT

To Have a Law Passed on That Line—Mr. Mulock Still Economizing in the Postal Department—Vancouver Flag Pole for Bisley—General News From the Capital.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 5.—(Special.)—The Retail Merchants' Association last night discussed the question of garnisheeing the wages of the civil servants. There was a consensus of opinion that no special privileges or special protection should be accorded to the Government employes. A committee was appointed to wait upon the Government and express the opinions of the association and urge the passing of a law that would remove this unfair protection accorded to Government employes.

Although Mr. Mulock is absent, the work of cancelling postal contracts and re-letting them goes merrily on. The Postmaster-General on three contracts in this district will save $2900 per annum. Mr. Poivin of Billings' Bridge, for an annual payment of $400, will make eight trips a day between the city postoffice and Hull railway station and postoffice, just about half the figure that was paid to the former contractor. The mail contract for carrying the mail from Grace Field, in the Gatineau Valley, to the Desert, has been renewed to the former contractor, William Brooks of Ottawa, at about half the figure paid him hitherto.

Commenting on the result of yesterday's elections, the Journal says: The result indicates not merely that many electors like to be on the Government side, but the Conservatives of Ontario have no good fighting ground at present; further, they need not only new fighting ground, but, in The Journal's opinion, they need new leaders. The old ones who led them to defeat do not seem particularly disposed to work hard for the party, now that no salaries are attached to the business. They ought to be fresh men at the front, men free from the suspicions and taints of the past, and disposed to exert themselves unselfishly for the future."

In another place the same paper says: "In East Simcoe the Conservatives had Mr. Bennett, a strong, young and active candidate, one of their best stump-speakers; while on the other hand H. H. Cook, the Liberal, had been billed for the Senate in the Canadian press ever since the change of Government. His defeat was not a surprise. Mr. Bennett voted against Remedial Legislation.

It seems to be definitely settled that Major Dunbar of the 8th Royal Rifles of Quebec will be adjutant of this year's Bisley team. Some riflemen think, however, that the Government might have chosen a man more in sympathy with shooting men. Unlike the prospective commandant, Major Mason of Hamilton, Major Dunbar has never manifested any great interest in the D. R. A.; indeed, so little as not even to be a member of the association at the fee of $2 a year.

The Department of Inland Revenue learns that Messrs. Walker & Sons of Walkerville have secured a true bill against the Chicago parties who were charged with imitating the corks, labels and capsules of the well-known Canadian firm.

Vancouver folk are talking of sending a flagstaff to be erected in front of the Baley building. A tree suitable for the purpose, straight as an arrow and 200 to 250 feet long up to the usable point, can easily be obtained and passage secured for it on some of the many sailing vessels leaving Vancouver lumber-laden for the United Kingdom. Arrangements will be made with the British Columbia agent in London to have it looked after and forwarded upon arrival.

Archbishop Langevin is in town and stopping at Ottawa University. His Grace has received a sum of money from France to be used in connection with his schools in Manitoba. With this sum and that already received from the various dioceses of the Dominion, he expects no difficulty in keeping his schools in operation until the question of Separate Schools is settled to his satisfaction.

The Fisheries Department has received reports of the wholesale destruction of trout in Lake Loch Lomond and and Lake Mispeck, within a radius of 20 miles of St. John. While the department has no desire to be too rigid in enforcing the prohibition of trout fishing through ice for domestic use of the poor residents, the illegal fishing reported to be carried on by those engaged in such operations on a large scale is now said to be purely undertaken for trade purposes. Inquiries are being instituted with a view to adopting stringent and drastic measures, should further information justify the department in making such a move.

A statement of the amount of the Indian famine fund, of which Mr. Courtney, Deputy Minister of Finance, is treasurer, was issued to-day. The total amount of subscriptions is $25,000, without including the several local funds.

The steamer Petrel, which was conducting the mail service between Cape Tormentine and Cape Traverse, has been forced to lay up for a few days to have a new propellor put on in place of the old one, which was broken by ice.

Replies to circulars sent out months ago by the Trade and Commerce Department to Canadian merchants and manufacturers, respecting their several trades, are still coming in.

A telegram was received this morning by the Deputy Minister of Marine from the owners of the American schooner Neriad, who apply to the department for the privilege of renewing their crew at Liverpool, N.S. The men have all left the vessel, and they ask for this concession under the circumstances.

Hon. W. S. Fielding passed through Ottawa this afternoon on the Western express on his way to Winnipeg and will be joined at North Bay to-night by Hon. William Paterson, who was in South Brant till last evening. The hearing in Winnipeg will open Monday and is certain to last at least three days.

THROAT HAD BEEN CUT.

More Startling Developments in the Case of the Barnardo Boy.

Toronto, Feb. 6.

John Blain was yesterday taken before Magistrate Wingfield on the charge preferred against him by Alfred B. Owen, the Toronto agent of the Barnardo Home, of doing grievous bodily harm to Charles Bradbury. High Constable Jones and County Constable Burns had charge of the case, in the absence of the Crown Attorney. No evidence was taken, and the case was remanded for a week. An application for bail was readily granted by the Magistrate. The bail was first fixed at $1000 and two sureties in $500 each, but Mr. Wingfield afterwards thought it better to have the prisoner bound in $2000 and sureties in the same. His father, cousin and Mr. Taylor became bound, and John Blain was released. Mr. B. E. Swayzie and Mr. W. T. Bull appeared in his interest.

Blain's relatives are most respectable people, and in York Mills and the neighborhood there is considerable indignation at the arrest having been made. The general notion is that it would have been quite sufficient in the interests of justice if John Blain had been kept under surveillance.

Coroners Johnson, Thomas Armstrong and Drs. S. R. Richardson and W. R. Walters (Little York) yesterday held a post-mortem on the remains of the boy. Their examination was a careful one. They found the limbs had been burnt from the trunk, that the boy's throat had been cut before the fire, the cut being clearly perceptible, and the back part of the throat full of blood. They have taken away the heart and lungs for further examination.

Used Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Jan. 23 (Special).—Mr. John Medill, known locally as well as far and near as a physical giant, and glorying in his strength, came to be a great sufferer and tells of his cure as follows:—

"I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me and I think it will cure others why not say so?

"It is true I had been suffering for some time with Bladder trouble, and, learning of a cure made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

"In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the highest terms of praise, for I know of many persons who have been cured by them."

Oakville, Feb. 5.—While walking along the lake shore on Wednesday afternoon some boys discovered the badly decomposed body of a man in the water. Deceased was a woodworker in a planing mill for some years. He leaves a widow and small family. Buzzard was a member of the A.O.U.F., and had filled the chair in the local lodge.

A New Law Firm.

A reference to our legal card column indicates that Messrs. G. M. Rogers and J. W. Bennet have entered into partnership for the practice of their profession. Both gentlemen are well known, and their record gives them a character for ability as well as reliability that will doubtless win for them a large clientele. They have occupied one of the most complete suites of legal rooms in town, which have just been specially and excellently fitted up. In addition to the legal branch of their business, important insurance corporations are represented by Mr. Bennet.

The affair passed off most pleasantly and is spoken of as quite the most exclusive evening of the season.

'Twas but a Dream.

A few nights ago a lady residing on Water street was awakened from a dreamless sleep by the frantic struggles, mutterings and groanings of her husband. After lighting a lamp she discovered that her husband had got his two feet entangled in the space between the bed and the wall, and was almost paralyzed when in answer to her question her husband replied, "Don't you know, I've got my feet in the paddle-wheels and can't get them out, and I don't know what minute ——— will start the engine." He had during the summer been learning to be an engineer on one of the river steamers, and having heard a thrilling story of an engineer's assistant catching his foot in the paddle-wheels had been rehearsing the yarn in his dreams in a very realistic manner. His wife pulled the bed further from the wall and released the hubby's foot, which were nearly cold from their exposure to the night air. After an hour or two he went to sleep with his wife's caution, that closed her curtain lecture, not to cultivate such realistic dreams by lunching on pickles, cheese and ale before retiring.

MILLBROOK DEFEATS KEENE.

The Keene hockey team drove over to Millbrook on Wednesday evening and were defeated by the home team by a score of 11 to 5. The playing on both sides was very slow, the home team especially putting up a very poor game. This was, however, owing to the fact that Millbrook was confident of victory and did not exert themselves. The teams lined up as follows:

Millbrook.		Keene

J Nattrass	point	J Quinn
B Whyte	cover point	J McIntyre

THE PETERBOROUGHS LOSE AT KINGSTON.

THE FRONTENACS WON BY A SCORE OF 12-5.

Our Boys Were off Colour for the Night and were Unable to Shoot Effectively — A Great Game on Monday Night.

The Peterborough II team was retired from the intermediate series in Kingston last night when the First Frontenacs defeated them by twelve goals to five.

It will be remembered that the Frontenacs tied the Peterboroughs last Monday on the local ice, when each team scored five goals. As the schedule called for home and home games to be played, the Peterboroughs went down to Kingston yesterday morning and as the team was to be reinforced by Phelan and King, it was thought there would be no difficulty in winning the match and thus securing a place in the semi-finals. Phelan, however, for some reason best known to himself, failed to show up at the station and the boys had to go without him, thus completely disorganizing their forward combination. Dinner was partaken of and the team arrived in Kingston early in the afternoon and took in the sights before going to the rink at night, visiting the Penetentiary and Rockwood Asylum.

Arrived at the rink in the evening, the two teams lined up as follows:

Peterborough.		Frontenacs.
E Wasson	goal	Geo Lamb
A Hollingshead	point	J Rigney
S Adams	cover point	J McDowall
Montgomery	forwards	H Rayner
King	forwards	"Jock" Harty
Graham	forwards	J Cunningham
Davidson	forwards	M Murray

As will be seen "Jock" Harty, acknowledged to be the fastest forward on the Queen's University team's rush line, replaced his brother on the Frontenacs, and the change proved a wonderful strengthener to the team. Harty, the boys say, is a very strong player, and it takes a very close check indeed to keep track of him.

The Peterborough team, by all accounts, seem to have kept the puck down on their opponents goal most of the time, but owing to the following back of the Frontenac forwards, were unable to score. As in the game here the shooting of the Peterboroughs seemed to be although it was thought King's presence would remedy this fault, but strange to say he did not score a goal. Of the five goals tallied by the Peterboroughs, Graham scored one on the first rush of the evening, when he eluded three or four men, and with a beautiful lift sent the puck whipping through the Frontenac flags. The rush is described as being equal to anything that Wonham ever accomplished. Adams scored a goal on a long lift from centre ice, and the three others were all sent in from "Monty's" stick.

The Peterborough defence did not play its usual game, apparently being somewhat disheartened by the small amount of assistance given them by the forwards, who could not be induced to "follow back" with the play.

The score at half time stood 7—2 in favour of the Frontenacs, and though the Peterboroughs at the last it was too late to attempt to catch up to the big lead which had been obtained over them.

An amusing incident which occurred during the evening was caused by the fact that Wasson became frozen to the ice between his flags. It seems that the rink was flooded about fifteen minutes before the game, but the water did not freeze before play began, and consequently the ice was soon cut up into slush. As the night grew colder the slush hardened somewhat and when a shot came in on the Peterborough flags Ernie's skates were frozen to the ice and he could not draw his feet together to stop the puck, so it passed between them.

The Peterboroughs attributed their defeat to an extraordinary run of hard luck and, without wishing to appear ungenerous, attribute the loss of the game more to that fact than to the superior play of their opponents.

At the conclusion of the match the Frontenacs banqueted the Peterboroughs royally.

With just their own share of the luck the boys think that they can give Queen's a fast game here on Monday, and can hold their own with the crack eastern team. It will without doubt be the best game played here for several years and the rink should be crowded from end to end. Hundreds of visitors are coming to town to witness the match from Lindsay, Omemee, Millbrook, Port Hope, Campbellford, Lakefield and Norwood.

THE ROBES FOUND.

They Were Stolen by two Young Men of Peterborough.

(Port Hope Times.)

On Sunday evening, December 27th, the driving shed at the Methodist church was invaded and a number of valuable robes stolen. Since that time Chief Douglas has been on the lookout for the thieves. Believing that the theft was committed by parties who had driven to Port Hope from a distance, the chief has carefully scanned all the newspapers of the district in the hope that he would learn of their operations elsewhere. In this he was not disappointed, for on Tuesday the Peterborough papers contained an account of the arrest of a young man on the charge of stealing robes from one of the churches of that town.

The chief immediately went to Peterborough and arrested the young man who, having made restitution, had been allowed to go on suspended sentence. The chief was convinced that his prisoner had a companion in the theft here, and after some clever work, aided by the Peterborough police, also arrested the young man suspected. Both prisoners were brought to Port Hope yesterday and this morning they had a hearing before Police Magistrate Holland.

They were arraigned on four specific charges of stealing robes belonging to Messrs. Johnson Beatty, Peter Pollard, W. H. Symonds and G. R. Race. To these charges both prisoners pleaded guilty, pleading in justification that they were under the influence of liquor when the thefts were committed.

They were committed to stand trial at the Cobourg Spring Assizes. Chief Douglass deserves great credit for his clever work in apprehending the guilty parties. The chief says the Peterborough police rendered him every assistance and he is more particularly indebted to Chief Roszel.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Is the Testimony of Frank S. Emerick of Alvinston, Ont.—Says South American Kidney Cure Saved His Life—It Relieves in Six Hours.

"For two years I was greatly troubled with kidney disease. I suffered intense pain, and frequently was unable to work. I doctored at intervals, but got little or no relief. I began to grow worse, and the pains were frequent and intense. About this time I saw South American Kidney Cure advertised as a speedy relief for all kidney troubles. I purchased a bottle, and it gave me wonderful relief in a few hours. I improved steadily, and after taking four bottles I am completely cured. I consider it worth its weight in gold, for it assuredly saved my life." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

To do do this trick will appear at first to the outsider hard to perform; so it is until you know how, then it is comparatively simple. First tie a large silk handkerchief, folded twice, over some person's eyes. Pass your hands over his face once or twice, and gently smooth his forehead. Then quietly ask him where he can get the best groceries at reasonable prices, and if he is possessed of ordinary common sense he will answer without hesitation: From R. OBITUARY.

The Late James Mann.

On Friday, Mr. James Mann, one of the township of Smith—having been a resident of the township for seventy-six years—passed away at Hawthorn Cottage, at the age of 78 years. The deceased gentleman was born in New Jersey, U.S., and came to Canada with the family who settled on the Mann homestead, where Mr. Mann died. He was, perhaps, the oldest resident of the township at the time of his death, having come to the township in 1821. The cause of his death was Bright's disease of the kidneys, from which he has been suffering for some time, and his death, though not a surprise, causes sincere regret in the community where he was so highly respected for his many excellent qualities. He was of a quiet retiring disposition, and took no active or ambitious interest in municipal or political affairs, though as a staunch Liberal he was always found on the right side when the exercise of his franchise was demanded. He never sought any office and was content to do his duty as a citizen in all other respects in his station of life. He leaves behind to mourn his loss seven direct descendants, Mr. J. H. Mann, Mr. Thos. R. Mann, Mr. G. W. Mann, Mrs. W. B. Kelly, Mrs. T. T. Milburn, Smith; Mrs. Wm. Garbutt, Douro, and Mrs. James Elliott, of Oregon, U. S. A. Mr. Mann was a Baptist in religion, a member of the congregation of the Gilmour Memorial church. The funeral takes place on Monday at 1 o'clock, from the family residence to the Little Lake Cemetery.

Death of Wm. Drummond, Formerly of Otonabee, in Lindsay.

It is with feelings of deep regret we chronicle the death of William Herbert Drummond, youngest son of the late Alexander Drummond, of Otonabee, which took place at his residence, Victoria Avenue, Lindsay, on Saturday, January 9th, after an illness of seventeen weeks. He was 28 years of age, and an employee of the G.T.R. for nine years.

The funeral took place on Jan. 11th to the Riverside cemetery. The Oddfellows and Brotherhood of Trainmen, of which Mr. Drummond was a respected member, sent beautiful wreaths of flowers, and in a body followed his remains to the grave. Very great sympathy is felt for the bereaved young wife, his mother, sister and two brothers.—COM.

JOHN BLAIN ARRESTED.

Another Development in the Case of the Dead Barnardo Boy.

Toronto, Feb. 5.

Yesterday afternoon County Constable Burns arrested John Blain at his residence, east of York Mills, and brought him to No. 1 Police Station.

The information was laid by Alfred B. Owen, the Toronto agent for the Barnardo Home, and the charge is that he assaulted and did actual bodily harm to Charles Bradbury.

Bail was applied for and refused.

At 9 o'clock yesterday morning County Constable John Smith of York Mills, while turning over the ashes and debris in the box-stall where the charred body of Charles Bradbury was found on Tuesday morning, discovered the remains of a razor. It was a blade without a handle, but with the rivet, and on the blade were stains which had the appearance of blood.

The razor was found about 18 inches from where the body was discovered. Among other things found in turning over the ashes were a brace buckle and several human bones. Constable Smith handed over the razor to County Constable Burns.

At the inquest on Wednesday John Blain was asked by County Crown Attorney Dewart when he had last seen the razor, and replied he had not seen it since Sunday.

The fact that the razor was missing from the case was discovered by Mr. Ball, a World reporter, who pointed out the circumstance to County Constable Burns on Wednesday. On the floor of the living room of the residence half a dozen spots of various sizes and some as large as a penny were noticed. Shavings of the flooring were taken, and the spots will be examined under the microscope.

The discovery of the razor near the body indicates the probability that the razor had been used to end the boy's life, and explains what had been a mystery before, namely, why the boy did not call out or escape before the fire reached the place where he was.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realising great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

ONTARIO HORSE BREEDERS

Held Their Annual Meeting in Toronto Yesterday and Heard Reports.

The Shire Horse-Breeders' Association held its eighth annual meeting yesterday morning. The president, Mr. H. N. Crossley, was in the chair. Mr. Wade reported that not much progress had been made. More money, members and fees were required. The receipts for the year were $37, and there is a balance on hand of $11.40.

Mr. Crossley, said, notwithstanding the hard times, the association had been able to meet all demands. Reports from all quarters showed that the prices of horses were on the increase, and the demand better.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, H N Crossley, Rosseau; vice-president, W E Wellington. Directors—John Gardhouse, Highfield; Wm. Hendrie, jr., Hamilton; Wm Wilkie, Toronto; J Y Ormsby, Woodstock; Jas M Gardhouse, Highfield; Geo Garbutt, Thistleton; John Temple, Tottenham. Delegate to Industrial Exhibition, John Gardhouse, Highfield. Delegates to Western Fair, H Wade, Toronto, and H N Crossley, Rosseau; secretreas., H Wade, Toronto.

THE CLYDESDALES.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Clydesdale Horse Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Albion Hotel. Among the well-known horse-breeders present were: Robert Davies, president; R. Beith, M.P., Bowmanville, first-vice; D Sorby, Guelph; James I Davidson, Balsam; J P Spencer, London; Robert Miller, Brougham; R Graham, Claremont; John Gardhouse, Highfield; George Clarton, Peepabum; George Cockburn, Baltimore; H W Crossley, Toronto; O Sorby, Guelph; A Wilson, Paris; A Dougherty, Ellsmore, and H Wade, secretary.

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME.

Mr. Davies, the chairman, in welcoming the members, expressed the hope that better times would soon arrive. The number of transfers and registrations are increasing. A conference has been held between the Hon. Mr. Fisher, the Hon. Mr. Dryden and authorities at Washington. The result may be that arrangements will be made whereby the certificates of the association will be recognized on equal terms with registration across the border. Both the United States and England are good markets for Canadian Clydesdales. Only the best class of horses should be bred, as these find a ready market at good prices. Dray horses have increased in price 50 per cent. There are a number of foreign buyers who require horses from 1600 to 1800 pounds in weight. There is not enough of that class of horses to meet the demand. The export trade to the Old Country is increasing, but most of the shipments are made from United States ports. Last week Mr. John Sheridan and the speaker waited upon the Deputy Minister of Marine at Ottawa, and asked him that better accommodation and more comfortable stalls be furnished shippers for their stock. An order-in-Council embodying the carrying out of these improvements will be passed as soon as possible.

Mr. Wade, the secretary, in his report, states that during the year 109 Clydesdales were recorded and 13 transfers made, the fees amounting to $130. There was a falling off in membership. The receipts for the year amounted to $80 and disbursements to $197, leaving a balance on hand of $12.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following were elected officers: President, Robert Davies, Toronto; first vice, Robert Graham, Claremont; vice-presidents, Ontario, D Sorby, Guelph; Quebec, R Ness, Howick; Nova Scotia, Col. Clarke Blain; New Brunswick, A S Murray; Prince Edward Island, Hon James Clow, Murray Harbor; Manitoba, J E Smith, Brandon; Northwest Territories, A Turner, Calgary; directors, R Beith, M.P., Bowmanville; John Davidson, Ashburn; George Cockburn, Baltimore; R Miller, Brougham; J Vipond, Brooklyn; J Clayton, Peepabum; A Dougherty, Ellsmere; delegates to Toronto Fair, W Smith, Columbus; O Sorby, Guelph; Western, R Graham, Claremont; C W Charlton, Dunerief; Ottawa, John Davidson; Montreal, R Ness; Canadian Horse-Breeders' Association, R Miller and C R Davis.

It was decided to offer $100 towards a prize for the best heavy-draught team, sired by a Clydesdale stallion, shown at the Canadian Horse Show. A prize of $50 will also be given for the best three colts foaled on or after Jan. 1, 1898.

The name of Mr. Beith will be suggested to the managers of the Canadian Horse Show as judge of Clydesdales. The following were appointed on the reserve list of judges: W Graham, R Ness, J Lee and R Miller.

THE HACKNEYS.

The annual meeting of the Hackney Breeders' Association was held last night in the Albion Hotel. Mr. Robert Beith, M.P., Bowmanville, the president, was in the chair. There were present A. Wilson, Paris; R. Graham, Claremont; John Holderness, Robert Davies, H. M. Crossley, Toronto; J. Weld, S. J. Spence, London; D. Sorby, Gpelph; J. K. Macdonald, G. Pepper, R. Bond, Dr. A. Smith, Toronto; Major McEwen, Byron.

The president said that since the association had been formed, splendid progress had been made. A large amount of money had been spent in the breeding of hackneys, and the returns were now commencing to come in.

The secretary reported that 33 hackneys had been recorded during the year, making a total of 152. The treasurer's statement showed a balance on hand of $122.

Messrs. Beith and Wade were instructed to draw up a memorial on the death of the late George Hastings.

James A. Cochrane suggested that mares by standards as well as thoroughbred stallions out of full registered mares be eligible for half registry. The amendments were left to a committee.

Application will be made to the English Hackney Association for the medals for Canadian-bred mares and stallions out of imported stock, at the Spring Horse Show, and to ask the Industrial Fair Association to give medals for the imported stock.

A paper entitled "Lessons from the Shows," by Richard Gibson, Delaware, was read.

Robert Beith was re-elected president, H N. Crossley 1st vice-president, and John K. Macdonald 2nd vice-president. Vice-presidents for the Provinces: Ontario, A. G. Ramsay, Hamilton; Quebec, J. A. Cochrane, Hillhurst; Nova Scotia, W. W. Black, Amherst; New Brunswick, Hon. D. McLellan, St. John; Alberta, A. M. Rawlinson, Calgary; Manitoba, A. J. Moore, Swan Lake.

Directors—Robert Davies, Robert Graham, Robert Miller, Dr. A. Smith, P. Sorby, R. McEwen, John Holderness, George Pepper, Robert Bond.

Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Beith were recommended representatives on the Board of the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association.

A VETERAN'S STORY.

At Eighty Years of Age One Box of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder Cures a Case of Fifty Years' Standing—It Relieves Colds and Catarrh in Thirty Minutes.

George Lewis, of Shamokin, Pa., writes: "I am eighty years of age. I have been troubled with catarrh for fifty years, and in my time have used a great many catarrh cures, but never had any relief until I used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. One box cured me completely, and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to all suffering from this malady." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

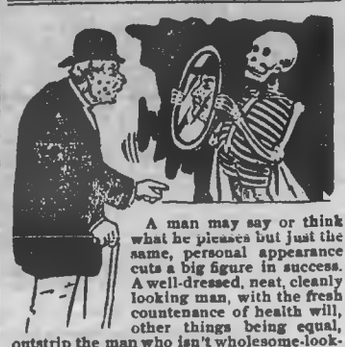
Burdock Pills, small, safe, and sure, regulate the liver and cure constipation.

Strange Use of Gunpowder.

A peasant woman in the village of Slavyansk has a daughter, aged 10 who recently suffered from some affliction of the eyes. She consulted a "wise woman" in the village, who gave her the following advice. She told her to procure some gunpowder, put it in the child's eyes and apply a match to it. This advice the mother implicitly followed. The writer of the letter states that he was passing the house at the time, heard the report and went in to see the cause of it. He found the room full of smoke, and when this had cleared off the wretched child was seen lying in agony with two cavities where once had been eyes.—London Lancet.

A Good Paste.

To make a paste that will not sour for a long time, use flour, a tablespoonful, mixed dry with half a tablespoonful of powdered alum. Mix smoothly with a tablespoonful of cold water, then set on the back of the stove and pour in another tablespoonful or two of boiling water, stirring briskly, and let it cook for a long time. It should be very thick when removed, and it should not burn, for that will blacken it. Put in a wide-mouthed bottle while yet warm, and have a tiny paddle made to lift it out with. You can perfume it if you like. It will keep indefinitely.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.



A man may say or think what he pleases but just the same, personal appearance cuts a big figure in success. A well-dressed, neat, cleanly looking man, with the fresh countenance of health will, other things being equal, outstrip the man who isn't wholesome-looking. Many men imagine that hard work—"hustling" they call it—counts for everything. In the long run the easy-going man who takes time to think of his health and his personal appearance outstrips the reckless, neglectful "hustler." Many men are held back in the struggle of life by their personal appearance. Through neglect of the digestion their blood gets full of impurities and humors which show themselves on the face and body in the shape of skin affections, blotches, eruptions, eczema and scrofula.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery drives all impurities from the blood and cures all forms of skin affections. It is the great blood purifier, liver invigorator and flesh builder. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. Thousands have testified to its merits. Druggists sell it.

Wm. Smothers, Esq., of Millston, Jackson, Co., Wis., writes: "I wish to say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine for the grip that I have ever tried."

CANCER CURED
—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

Notes Worth Knowing.

The best carver will let the knife slip sometimes, unless it is kept very sharp.

Potted ferns will soon die if dirt is allowed to accumulate on them. An occasional syringing will keep them clean.

A mustard plaster ought never to blister the skin. If it burns too much an extra piece of muslin can be placed between it and the body, and can be removed when the patient becomes accustomed to the heat. Mix the mustard with equal quantities of flour and ground ginger.

To make a celery salad cut the stalks into one-inch pieces and let them stand in ice water for two or three hours before using. Then drain them, dry thoroughly, and lay on the white leaves of lettuce. Pour over all a mayonnaise dressing, and serve on ice-cold plates.

This Century's Work.

A century ago there was not a mile of telegraph or telephone wire in existence, not a foot of railway, nor a steamship.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on with increasing suffering until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs directly feminine. Over thirty years ago the need for a reliable remedy for so called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies. Send 21 cents in one cent stamps and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," illustrated.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies the blood.

M'KINLEY TARIFF

Is What Canadians Will Have to Fight.

THE PRODUCTS OF OUR FARMS

Will be Shut Out of the United States if the Ways and Means Committee's Ante-Election Promises are Fulfilled—And Their Fulfilment is Promised.

New York, Feb. 4.—A Washington special to The Herald says: The Republican leaders purpose to fulfil their campaign pledges to the farmers of the country by a general increase in the tariff rates on all agricultural products. While the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee have not yet formally drafted the agricultural bill they have practically agreed upon most of their items.

With the exception of cattle, nearly every farm product in the schedule will be returned to practically the McKinley rates. The duty on cattle, which is 20 per cent. ad valorem, under the present law, and which was $10 per head on cattle more than 1 year old and $2 per head on cattle 1 year old or under in the McKinley Act, will be somewhat less than that under the new McKinley act, but will be high enough to keep out most of the Mexican cattle, which, under the present law, are brought into the United States to be fattened in Kansas and neighboring States, before being sent to market. While the cattle raisers of Texas are to be given only a part of the protection they enjoyed under the McKinley law, the growers of barley, hay, hops, beans and other products with which similar products in Canada come into competition are to have a return to the old McKinlay rates on most articles.

The hens along the border are also to have a return to the McKinley protection of 5 cents per dozen on the eggs laid by the hens of Canada. Butter and cheese makers of New York are also to have the duties on those products increased from 4c per pound to 6c, and the raisers of vegetables whose principal competition comes from the early vegetables grown in the Bermuda Islands, are to have a substantial return to McKinley protection.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee, at a secret session held this morning, practically re-adopted the agricultural schedule of the old McKinley law. This includes salt, vegetables, meats, meat extracts, fruits, eggs and poultry, potatoes and hops. The McKinley rate of 30 cents a bushel on barley was also restored as a protection against the imports from Canada in spite of the protests of the maltsters, who prefer the Canadian barley for its superior qualities in the manufacture of malted liquors.

The rate on barley is the McKinley rate of 30c per bushel, which was demanded by the American barley growers.

Hay is put at $4 per ton, the same as in the McKinley law, and hops at 15c per pound, which is also an extract from the McKinley law.

Vegetables all go back to the McKinley rates, potatoes being put at 25c per bushel and flax seed at 30c per bushel. Other items on which McKinley rates are restored are: Salt, 12c per 100 lbs. in packages, and 8c when in bulk; starch, 2c per pound; salt meats, 25 per cent.; meat extracts, 35c per pound; milk, 5c per gallon, and poultry, 20 per cent. Eggs go back to 5c per dozen and berries to the old McKinley rate. Oranges and lemons will be adjusted in a manner to meet the wishes of the California fruit growers. The rates have not yet been absolutely fixed, but will involve a different classification from the McKinley law. The cotton schedule has not yet been quite completed, but there will be but few changes, except on fine yarns and the costly fabrics. The schedule was satisfactory in its construction to many of the manufacturers when it was put in its present form and they are asking only minor changes. Wines and spirits will be made as satisfactory as possible to the California grape growers and manufacturers.

The earthenware schedule is also incomplete, but will be put upon a firm protective basis.

You're Right, Neighbor.

Buffalo, Feb. 4.—The Buffalo Commercial (McKinley Protectionist) says editorially to-day (and the editorial is significant as being the first slap which any Buffalo newspaper has dared to take at the American alien labor legislation): "Minister Laurier is entirely justified in advocating the passage of retaliatory laws forbidding any American temporarily working in Canada, in case the American alien labor laws are made more stringent. The point of such retaliation will be felt in Maine, Michigan and Oregon, whence hundreds of Americans are in the habit of going to Northern Ontario and New Brunswick, lumbering, and to British Columbia, mining. It is not a very enlightened game for civilized neighbors to play at."

CAN KOOTENAY CURE RHEUMATISM?

This is a question which has agitated the minds of thousands of Canadian citizens. The answer is contained in the testimony which comes from all parts of the country, from all classes of people, and never before in the medical history of Canada has there been such a popular flood of testimony as that which has poured into the Ryckman Medicine Co.'s offices at Hamilton during the last year.

Rheumatic sufferers who have doctored for years with the best physicians, and undergone hospital treatment to no purpose, declare themselves cured by Kootenay. Limbs that have for months at a time been warped and twisted by the fetters of rheumatism are released by the action of Kootenay Cure. The new ingredient which enters into its composition reaches the old stubborn and chronic cases and leads the way to speedy recovery, causing discerning physicians who have watched its cures to admit that it is a "miracle worker." Read the testimony in which the convincing ring of truth is sealed by sworn statements. It is the only true cure for rheumatism on earth.

HAMILTON.

I, Mrs. Isabel Sullivan, residing at 65 Walnut Street South, in the City of Hamilton, County of Wentworth, do solemnly declare: That last fall my little boy, aged five and a half years, was attacked with rheumatism and also pains in his back and kidneys. He was unable to stand and could not get out of bed without assistance. His suffering was terrible, and although he had medical treatment he got no better. The pain was so severe at times he would almost faint. His appetite left him and he grew very weak. About this time we heard of "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure," and commenced giving it to him, with what results I am pleased to tell you. Since taking the first bottle of medicine he has not had a pain, never complains, and is as healthy a boy as one could wish for. He has gained flesh and plays hard all day, and in my opinion is completely cured. Young as he is the boy himself appreciates the medicine, and I heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from rheumatism or kidney trouble.

Isabel Sullivan,

Sworn to before Notary T. F. Lyall, 25th day of August, 1896.

LONDON.

I, C. B. Hamilton, of the City of London, County of Middlesex, do solemnly declare that I reside at 131 Sydenham Street in said city and that I had rheumatism for over seven years. I was so bad that at times I was unable to satisfactorily use my limbs. I was employed by I. D. Saunby, Black Friars Mill, as head miller, and it was while working for him that I was so severely afflicted. I am now a well man and was cured by "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure," which I recommend to all rheumatic sufferers. In connection with this I may add that my wife gratefully endorses my recommendation of Kootenay Cure, as she also has good cause to speak highly of it as a tonic and blood purifier.

C. B. Hamilton.

Sworn to before Notary C. G. Jarvis, 15th day of August, 1896.

OTTAWA.

I, Martin Watson, of the City of Ottawa, in the County of Carleton, do solemnly declare that I live at 112 Cathcart Street, in the City of Ottawa. That I am thirty years of age and a tinsmith by trade. I was severely afflicted with rheumatism, and so bad was my case that I was confined to my bed for two months. In June, 1895, I began taking "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure." I used two bottles and am now entirely cured and free from rheumatism. I have since been exposed to wet weather which has had no bad effect on me. I consider Kootenay a great cure for rheumatism. I have also gained 27 pounds in weight. It is a grand tonic and a wonderful blood purifier. I attribute my cure solely to the use of Kootenay Cure.

Martin Watson.

Sworn to before Notary Daniel O'Connor. 19th day of February, 1896.

TORONTO.

I, George Baker, of the City of Toronto, County of York, do solemnly declare that I am a fur dyer, and reside at 14 Stayner Street in the said City. That I was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism in the knees for over a year and was barely able to walk the short distance from my home to my work and then only with great pain. After taking two bottles of "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure" I am an all round healthy man, have a good appetite and sleep well. I frequently walk six to ten miles at a time and feel no fatigue whatever from this exertion. Am free from all pain and attribute my present wholesome and sound condition of body to "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure."

George Baker.

Sworn to before Notary J. W. Seymour Corley. 10th day of July, A.D. 1896.

INGERSOLL.

I, Charles Brittain, of the Town of Ingersoll, County of Oxford, do solemnly declare that I am forty-five years of age, and I live in said town, and was formerly employed by the Ingersoll Pork Packing Company; that I suffered severely with rheumatism for six years. I tried several kinds of patent medicines and was under the care of a physician for some time without relief. I was so bad that I was unable to hold up my arms; in fact I could not raise my hand to my head. I have taken two bottles of "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure" and am now entirely free from rheumatism, and I attribute my recovery solely to the use of "Ryckman's Kootenay Cure," and I recommend the remedy to all sufferers from rheumatism.

Charles Brittain.

Sworn to before Notary J. F. Mence, 21st day of August, A.D. 1896.

If you are sick and discouraged by Rheumatism, Bright's Disease, Kidney Troubles, Eczema, or any Blood Disease, write The S. S. Ryckman Medicine Co., Hamilton, for Chart Book, mailed free. It will tell you of cures made by Kootenay that were considered hopeless. The medicine is put up in bottles containing over a month's treatment, and sold for $1.50 per bottle, making it cheaper than a month's use of inferior medicines. If not obtainable from your dealer, send charges prepaid, by addressing S. S. Ryckman Medicine Co., Hamilton.

Behring Sea Claims Against Uncle Sam Found to Amount to $147,000, Costs to be Added.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 4.—Montreal has been chosen as the scene of the final argument and award of the Behring Sea Commission, and when the members of that international body left here yesterday it was with instructions to meet in the Canadian metropolis on June 16.

The claims, including personal damages sought, aggregate $507,000, and the costs and counsel fees will bring the total well into three-quarters of a million dollars.

Burned Out of House and Home.

Ridgeway, Ont., Feb. 3.—Mrs. J. Russell, who runs a bakery in this village, had her place of business destroyed by fire Monday about noon. The fire originated from an overheated stove. Mrs. Russell's loss, though small from a financial standpoint, falls heavily on her, as it means the destruction of her business place and home.

FRATERNITY.

"Be not ye called Rabbi; for one is your teacher, and all ye are brethren."—Jesus Christ.

"For as the body is one and hath many members, and all the members of the body being many are one body; so also is Christ. For in one spirit we are all baptised into one body, whether Jew or Gentile, whether bond or free." St. Paul.

"Poor, wandering, wayward man! Art thou not tired and beaten with stripes, even as I am? Even whether thou bear the royal mantle or the beggar's gaberdine, are thou not so weary, so heavy-laden; and thy bed of rest is but a grave. O, my brother, my brother, why cannot I shelter thee in my bosom and wipe away all tears from thy eyes?"—Carlyle.

There are, it has been said three elements in a perfect religion: God, self and the world. As we are in these papers only indirectly interested in religion, we may put the same truth in another way, and say that man has relations to God, self, his fellow-man and the world of nature and each of these relations imposes upon him certain duties. When a man is altogether absorbed in himself we call him an Individualist. When the common teaching of the day is "Every man for himself, and the Devil take the hindmost," we call that teaching Individualism. There is, of course, truth in Individualism. Every man is a distinct personality, and has his own rights and responsibilities. "Each man shall bear his own burden," said St. Paul. But Individualism is only a half truth. We certainly have very close relations with some, as, for example, our fathers and mothers, our husbands and wives, our brothers and sisters. We have less close but real relations with our fellow Churchmen, our fellow citizens and so on. We recall in this connection our Lord's teaching in reply to the question, "Who is my neighbour?"

Some men see the social claims and duties so strongly that they commit the opposite mistake from that of the individualist, and then we call them Socialists. Many socialists would simply destroy the individual or enslave him for the sake of the society. The wise man will recognise truth in the position of both the individualist and the socialist, and will strive to balance evenly the claims of the man and of the society.

It will be perfectly clear to all our readers that the discussion of fraternity is a discussion not of man's individual right and duties, but rather of his social relations and obligations. And just as we noticed last week that equality was one of the greatest cries of the French Revolution so it is that fraternity was another. But the fraternity of the French Revolution has never been realized, and none ever proved in a higher degree its enemies than the Revolutionaries themselves. On the other hand it would seem as though the individualistic spirit had been entirely victorious. Signs of this are to be found in the veneration of the political economists and the "Manchester school" of Radicals for the principle of free competition, in which the strong man, or the cunning man triumphed, and the weak man went to the wall. Bentham again attempted to found Democracy on the principle of self-interest. Science, too, has seemed to endorse the principle of individualism. What else is the meaning of the evolutionist's phrases, "Struggle for existence," "Survival of the fittest," "Extinction of the unfit," and lastly the cynic points out that fraternity is but a dream or a sentimentality. "The whole tendency of modern civilization, is to enable each man to stand alone and take care of his own interests, and the growth of liberty and equality will intensify these feelings."

Mr. Maccunn does not believe in this view of the matter, and he appeals not merely to sentiment but to fact. For, says he, the spirit of fraternity is anything but dead.

1. It survives in the family group. "The truth is that there is a point beyond which the tide of individualism cannot flow. "You call yourselves individualistic?" "Yes." "You will then, I dare say, prefer your own interest to that, shall we say, of a Zulu or a Malay?" "Unhesitatingly, and why not?" "Why not?" "Shall we add then of the Irish?" "Yes, of the Irish and of the British to boot. A man must look to himself." "Ah, I see you are consistent. And now one other step; there are your wife and children." "Stop there, I did not speak of them. It is not the same there." As indeed it is not.

2. A second tie modifying the universality of the rule of self-interest, is that of friendship.

3. And a third may be noted in the clubs, societies, guilds, etc., of our modern democracy.

That the spirit of fraternity exists, is proven by its activity during seasons of great distresses or calamities, when, for example, to starving Hindus we send thousands of dollars. And "what is the significance of the spirit of patriotism that runs through a country and knits its citizens together when danger threatens it?"

Mr. Maccunn finds that fraternity has its roots in the same soil as equality, according to the explanation of equality given last week, viz., in the recognition of worth in all men. Respect is due to worth, and "becomes the parent of justice and equality. Is it extravagant to think that it is, for the same reason, also the parent of sympathy?" (P. 25).

But Fraternity stands upon a fact of a very different order. Manufactures, Production, Exchange, teach us the dependence of man upon men. The lessons of division of labour, and of variety of gifts is not a lesson of hostility, but of mutual serviceableness. "This man is a scholar and I am not. This man has social gifts and I have not." These are not grounds of hostility. The true inference lies in the words of George Eliot. "I have the more need of him, because his treasure differs from mine."

It was my good fortune last Wednesday week to hear President Eliot, of Harvard University, address in Boston a large gathering, mostly of workingmen, on the subject of the relation of the University to workingmen. In that address nothing was more impressive than the profound earnestness with which he asserted that the longer he lived the more thoroughly convinced did he become of the literal truth contained in the great saying of Jesus: "Whosoever will be the greatest among you, let him be the servant of all." That is the true opinion of Fraternity.

A LEGACY OF DISEASE.

VETERANS OF THE WAR REPAID IN SUFFERING AND DISEASE.

For Over Twenty Years Mr. John Sherman Sought Release From the Tortures of Inflammatory Rheumatism.

From the Prescott Journal.

There is no man in the township of Edwardsburg who is better known than Mr. John Sherman. He is one of the many Canadians who at the outbreak of the American rebellion, joined the army of the North, and to the exposures and hardships which he endured during that trying and perilous time, does he owe to long years of suffering which he has since undergone. The writer remembers seeing Mr. Sherman a few years ago when he was so crippled with rheumatism that it was impossible for him to walk, and having heard that a cure had been effected, determined to investigate the matter for himself. When the reporter called at Mr. Sherman's home he found him in the yard handling an axe and chopping wood like a young man, and he found him also quite willing to relate his trying experience. "I have suffered with rheumatism for twenty years," said Mr. Sherman, "and I have doctored with four different doctors and yet I kept getting worse and worse. I was bent double with the pain in my back, and both legs were so drawn up that I was unable to straighten them, and for four months, when I wanted to move about, I had to do so on my hands and knees. I tried many medicines, but got no benefit, and I had given up all hope of being able to walk again. One of my sons tried to persuade me to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but I refused to take any more medicine. At last one day my son brought home three boxes of the pills, and after they had been in the house for over two weeks I at last consented to take them, but not because I thought they would do me any good. Before they were gone, however, I could feel my back was getting stronger, and I could straighten up. It required no further persuasion to get me to take the pills, and from that time on I began to get better, until now with the aid of a light cane I can walk all over the farm, get in and out of a buggy, and do most of the chores around the house and barns. I feel twenty years younger, and I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the most wonderful medicine for rheumatism in the whole world. I began them only to please my son and it was a most agreeable surprise to me when I found my legs limber, and my back gaining new strength. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to the suffering rheumatics of the world.

—An analysis shows that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, all diseases depending upon vitiated humours in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

ALL EUROPE AGITATED

Over the Strain Between France and England.

GERMANY IS WITH GREAT BRITAIN

According to the Expressions of Berlin Newspapers - French Papers Talk in Warlike Tones and Say the Challenge Must be Accepted - Other Opinions.

London, Feb. 6.—(Special Cable Letter.)—"The mischievous and dangerous language of menace and defiance towards France and Russia"; that is how Sir William Harcourt, the responsible leader of the Opposition, characterized Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's remarkable outburst in the House of Commons last night in the Egyptian debate. The outburst throws a fresh firebrand upon the flames of European jealousies, and makes a concentrated effort to coerce the Sultan ten times more difficult. France, supported by Russia, he suggested in so many words, had influenced the mixed Court of Appeal to deny Egypt the power to repay the cost of the Dongola expedition out of the reserve fund, but England was not to be worried out of her policy by such hindrances and difficulties." Next year, when the revision of the mixed tribunals falls due, it will be a grave question whether the tribunals shall be allowed thus to usurp authority.

"We are," he added, amid great Tory cheering, "in occupation of Egypt. Our payment for the expedition is rather calculated to prolong than shorten our occupation. This season our troops will move forward from Dongola to Abu-Hamud, afterwards possibly beyond; how far I do no think it right to say. Meanwhile, a railroad will be run from Waddy Haifa to Abu-Hamed." He ended by moving a resolution granting the sum of £798,000 to meet the total cost of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition to Dongola, including the maintenance of the garrisons at Suakim and elsewhere in the Soudan, and the Indian troops in Egypt, which Great Britain would pay. This was adopted by a vote of 160 to 57.

Mr. George Curzon, speaking later, added the startling assertion that Italy first proposed the Dongola expedition. Much must be allowed for a Chancellor of the Exchequer who is forced to pay half a million sterling in the face of his own pledge that the expedition would not cost the British taxpayer one farthing. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, moreover, is suffering from bronchial catarrh, which may explain the aggressive manner of a Minister who always has been regarded as a strong element of moderation and common sense in the Cabinet.

Apart from the Egyptian debate this has been a stormy week in English politics. The Ministry secured the first reading of the new Church Schools' Relief Bill by closure, and the party majority which the Irish Roman Catholics helped to swell, but many Government supporters, while answering the party whip, have not hidden their resentment at the whole method and policy of the measure. The church party say that the state grant of five shillings per child is quite inadequate to enable the church schools to keep pace with the rate-aided board schools. Especially they resent the fact that the $3,300,000 which the bill grants will not be received during the current financial year, the Chancellor of the Exchequer having, as Sir Charles Dilke said, sunk in the sands of the Soudan, the money pledged to the church at the last session. They accuse the Government of breach of faith, inasmuch as Parliament was summoned early expressly to secure immediate relief for the church schools.

London is to be fortified against a possible invasion by forces landing on the southern coast. The plan of fort works dates as far back as the time of the Duke of Wellington, but has been revived by Lord Wolseley and other military authorities, and adapted to the changes of modern warfare. The military works bill provides for the construction of a chain of fort works from the Southern Downs to the heights on the south of London, on which Crystal Palace is a conspicuous object. The scheme includes barracks and other military work. The cost, which will be something formidable for the Treasury to face, will be met by advances from the consolidated fund, to be repaid by instalments extending over 30 years.

FRANCE IS WRATHY.

Over Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's Rash Words—Challenge Must Be Accepted

Paris, Feb. 6.—The Paris press are greatly excited over the speech delivered in the British House of Commons yesterday by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, regarding Egypt. The Journal says:

"The insolent challenge thrown to France and Russia ought to be taken up."

The Autorite says: "England disdains and defies France, and Russia will continue to do so until both of these powers resort to the sword."

La Libre Parole says: "The reply to England's challenge must be action, not mere words."

OPINION IN GERMANY.

Britain Believed to Have the Support of the Fatherland.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—Official and newspaper opinions in Germany regarding the renewed strain between France and England with complete equanimity and the declarations concerning Egypt made by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer in the House of Commons in London yesterday, are attributed to that gentleman's knowledge that England has the support of Germany, Austria and Italy in regard to her occupation of Egypt.

The Hamburg correspondent in an article on the subject gives expression to the opinion generally entertained in Berlin, when it says that France has no legal right to force England to evacuate Egypt, even if all the great powers should back her up. But, the papers adds, the powers will do nothing of the kind, for the reason that they have no interest in England's welfare, and even Russia, though for reasons of policy, she has joined France in an entente, will go no further than she has already gone. Concerning the attitude of Russia toward Egypt, The St. Petersburg Novoe Vremya says that Russia intends to confine herself to placing the Suez Canal under international control; otherwise she has no interest in Egypt.

Speaking of the attitude of the Austro-Hungarian government, The Pesther Lloyd in an inspired communication from Vienna, expresses regret that the line of the Franco-Russian entente menaces the concord of the powers at the very time when a perfect harmony is most urgently needed.

"The effect will likely be," the paper adds, "to defeat a solution of the difficulties in Turkey and we must now exert every effort to restore the harmony between France and Great Britain."

The adhesion of Germany and England to a common policy in regard to Egypt, it had been hoped, would lead to an abatement of aggression in the Transvaal, but advices received here announce the occurrence of a serious split between Dr. Leyds, the Secretary of State of the South African Republic, and President Kruger, which advices furnish an explanation for the reported intention of Dr. Leyds to resign his office. Dr. Leyds has a large number of followers, and according to the despatches the prediction is freely made that he will obtain a Boer majority in favor of the Anglo-Boer convention, which will give the Transvaal Government absolute control over itself.

The Vossische Zeitung publishes a despatch from its correspondent in Pretoria which says that the fort works which have been in course of construction around the Boer capital are now being pushed forward to completion with feverish haste.

The despatch also says that distrust of England is increasing everywhere in the Transvaal, and a rapidly increasing war feeling has set in.

NEW YORK CORRESPONDENTS

Have No Lengthy Comments, But Write Briefly for U S Readers.

New York, Feb. 7.—Correspondents of the leading papers pay especial attention to the speech of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach in the House of Commons on Friday.

In his special cable to The Sun Mr. Chamberlain says: "The Egyptian situation was at last put before the world in plain language by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in his speech announcing the intentions of the British Government. He spoke with unconcealed contempt of the decision of the mixed tribunal ordering return to the Treasury of the money advanced for the Nile expedition, and forthwith declared that Great Britain was fully determined to take Khartoum. Moreover, he gave notice to the world, with significant emphasis, that when England made up her mind what was the right policy in regard to Egypt, she would not be 'worried out of it' by such difficulties as a refusal of money." Harold Frederic, in his special cable to The Times, says: "Sir William Harcourt is not alone in the belief that it will be estimated as a downright defiance of France and will prove displeasing to Russia. This untimely utterance, which practically says 'Hands off' to France, however cleverly it may subsequently be softened and explained away, may prove to have an upsetting effect on the conference of the Ambassadors at Constantinople."

Mr. Isaac N. Ford says of the speech, in his special cable to The Tribune: "It was sober and terse, but courageous and firm. Altogether it was a bold and resolute speech, with a sterling English ring and with a defiant note, which could hardly fail to cause intense irritation in France. Sir William Harcourt, Mr. John Morley and Sir Charles Dilke condemned it as dangerous and imprudent and provocative of evil results; but when the subject had been debated with great heat the financial vote was carried by a rousing majority. The Government, with their great majority and petty policies, need courageous leadership like Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's, with its lucid common sense and direct appeal to English pride."

DEAD IN HIS OFFICE.

Dr. Lamniman of Bowmanville Found Dead on His Couch—Evidently an Overdose of Chloral.

Bowmanville, Ont., Feb. 7.—Dr. Lamniman, one of our most prominent physicians, was found dead in his office this morning. He was last seen alive on Friday. This morning his brother-in-law, Mr. Ellis of Solina, came in to see him, and, being unable to get any trace of him around town or get into his office, the front door being locked, got access through Mr. McLean's house and found the doctor lying dead on his couch. Dr. Hillier was at once summoned, and said he must have been dead since Friday night, evidently from an overdose of chloral, as some was found on his table, not wholly dissolved, also a bottle of the same medicine close at hand.

The coroner, Dr. Mitchell of Enniskillen, was notified, but decided from evidence given that an inquest was not necessary. The deceased was about 38 years old, and has been practising in Bowmanville for about ten years, formerly in partnership with Dr. Hillier. He was a prominent Mason, and his death will be sincerely regretted all through this district, as the doctor was universally esteemed.

CHIGNECTO RAILWAY

Mr. Provand, M. P., and Others Find Fault

WITH THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT

They Intimate That the Old Government Broke Faith, and Expect Better Things of the Present Ministry—Military Rifle League Matches on Last Year's Lines.

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—(Special.)—The Government has received a full report of the recent meeting in London of shareholders of the Chignecto Marine Transport Railway. Evidently these gentlemen are not well pleased with the late Conservative Government. Mr. Provand, M.P. for Blackfriars, Glasgow, who has frequently visited Ottawa on the company's behalf, and was here last autumn, in the course of his remarks said he obtained in 1892 from the Government an Order-in-Council, promising that, if the company could satisfy them that they were in a position to go on with the work, a recommendation to pass the necessary legislation would be made to Parliament. Ever since then he had been engaged in a struggle to get the Canadian Government to carry out that promise. Towards the close of 1894 the Canadian Finance Minister (Mr. Foster) came to London. A deputation waited on him, and he promised that immediately on his return to Canada the matter would be settled, and added that the Government would not look on the question in a strictly legal sense but that they would consider the moral and equitable grounds on which the company based their claims for reinstatement.

Owing to various circumstances that promise was not fulfilled, and when the late Government went out of office no settlement had been arrived at. On bringing the question before the present Government soon after their accession to office, he was informed that no immediate reply could be given as to what they would do, but that before Parliament met a reply should be sent to his representations. It was with that understanding that he left the matter in the hands of the committee of the Cabinet. On obtaining an Order-in-Council as late as last May, promising the necessary legislation to reinstate the company, the board, feeling that, whatever change of Government might take place, it would not affect the position of the company, expended certain sums of money for the purpose of preserving the works. They believed that any Government going into office would respect an Order-in-Council granted by a previous Government, and so they undertook certain necessary engineering preparations, with the result that they had run short of funds for wages, etc., and required to raise a sum of £300 to meet all liabilities incurred up to the end of the month of January, 1897. When in Canada he visited the works, and found that, generally speaking, they were in an excellent state of preservation. The hydraulic machinery, which was in houses at each end of the line, was apparently in the same condition as when left there by the contractors some years ago. The only changes that had taken place were in the earth works, which were weather worn by exposure to four winters. Some cement was damaged, and a number of sle pers had become unsound, but these were trifling matters, and a few thousand pounds would replace everything.

Several stockholders spoke. A Mr. Van Raalte observed that many of them had been for a long time familiar with the way in which foreign enterprises were financed, but no one could recall any instance in which a body of investors had been treated as they had been by the Canadian Government. Various acts of Parliament were passed in order to obtain the money for the railway in London, and they had heard from Mr. Provand how the terms of the subsidy were altered in order to secure the necessary capital. There was no promotion of any kind in this country in reference to the Chignecto Ship Railway. It came to them entirely promoted by the Canadian Government and the Canadian people. The case was one of the most painful that investors in London had ever experienced. They had all heard statements from Canadians that the people of this country did not invest in Canada to anything like the extent that they did in other colonies. These statements had really been made in the form of a complaint, but how was it possible that English people could be expected to invest their money in a country when, in an enterprise promoted by the Canadian Government and people, and introduced here in the same way as a Government loan would be, they were subjected to such treatment as they had to complain of in connection with this company? It was quite certain no investor who heard of the way in which the bondholders and shareholders of the Chignecto Ship Railway had been treated would invest in any Canadian business in the future until they had beenfairly dealt with. Up to the present time very little had been said in this country regarding the conduct of the Canadian Government with the Chignecto Campany, but he hoped that until such time as the matter was settled it would be kept prominently before the public. From what he could hear of the present Canadian Prime Minister, he entertained the hope that before long the causes of their complaint would be removed.

After some further discussion, the following resolution was carried unanimously: "That, having heard from Mr. Provand an account of the present position of the claims of the company which are now before a committee of the Privy Council of Canada for report, it is resolved that this meeting of bondholders and shareholders of the Chignecto Marine Transport Company is unanimously of opinion that the claims of the company

EDITORIAL NOTES.

ANOTHER constitutional victory for Ontario—another addition to an unbroken series. The Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council on Saturday dismissed with costs the appeal of the Brewers' Association, of Ontario vs. The Attorney-General of Ontario. The point at issue was as to whether or not the Ontario Government had the right to impose a wholesale tax on the product of breweries. Those interested in the latter claimed that the inland revenue tax was all they were compelled to pay. The Privy Council as was to have been expected, decided in favour of the contention of the Province.

THE Brockville correspondent of the Montreal Herald writes that on account of the new quarantine regulations, between Canada and the United States, American buyers have already begun purchasing cattle in the vicinity of Brockville, and one big drove has been taken across the ice there to Morristown, N. Y. Such a thing, it is said, has not occurred for many years. The present government is succeeding in doing something practical for the benefit of the farmers of the country and the removal of the quarantine restrictions that permits the unimpeded shipment of Canadian cattle into the United States is only one example. The opening of a new market for cattle, especially stockers, will be a benefit to the dairy industry. Farmers are advised by experts to keep only those cows in the dairy herd that pay. Now that a good market, close at hand, is opened for such stock, farmers will not be tempted to keep unprofitable cows, which were previously retained an account of the difficulty of disposing of them to advantage.

BETTER THAN COERCION.

EDWARD BLAKE'S OPINION IN WHICH J. WALTON, Q.C., CONCURS.

The Manitoba School Settlement as Viewed by the Legal Adviser of the Catholics of England.

London, Feb. 5.—Mr. Charles Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General of Canada, who has just returned here from a trip to the continent, and will sail for home on February 13, has taken the opinion of Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., in regard to the appeals of the Manitoba Government from the decision of the Privy Council in the matter of the Manitoba school dispute.

Mr. Blake expresses the opinion that it is a complete misapprehension to think that the Privy Council ordered the discontinued schools to be restored, and is further of the opinion that the Federal Government have no power to deal with the taxes of Manitoba or to allocate any money to Catholic or Separate Schools.

An amicable arrangement on the lines of the proposal of the Manitoba Government, he thinks, would be much more advantageous from every point of view to the Catholic minority than any remedial bill could possibly be.

Mr. J. Walton, Q.C., the legal adviser of the leading Catholic bodies in England, concurs in the opinion given by Mr. Blake.

The Tablet, the chief Catholic organ of Great Britain, owned and managed by Cardinal Vaughan, publishes an article to-day upon the Manitoba school question, in which it says: "Hon. Edward Blake's opinion is a sad disappointment." It is now clear that the best course of the Catholics is to support Premier Laurier in trying to carry negotiations with Manitoba to a successful conclusion." The Tablet advocates the appointment of an Apostolic delegate to Canada, who might be able to focus Catholic opinion to formulate a Catholic united demand, and so effect a final settlement of the difficulty.

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

on the Government of Canada for the re-enactment of the subsidy cannot, consistently with good faith on the part of the Government and Legislature of Canada, be any longer refused or delayed, and that Mr. Provand be requested to use his exertions to press upon the present administration the strong feelings of the meeting in regard to the present position of this question."

Anent Mr. Van Raalte's remarks there is this to be said: The Canadian Parliament passed the subsidy on the express understanding that the works were to be completed within a given time. The company failed to carry out its part of the bargain, and, therefore, it is difficult to see what obligation rests on Canada to grant an extension of time.

The Marine Department has been notified by the owners of the steamer Sir S. L. Tilley that she struck last fall, when drawing 14 feet of water, about half a mile from the outer light due on the alignment of the range lights at Port Colborne. Mr. Stewart, in charge of the hydrographic survey, reports that this shoal is situated 2650 feet s.e.w. 1-4 w. from the main light, and has on it at present only 12 feet of water. It lies only 100 feet to westward of the alignment of lights.

OTTAWA GENERAL NEWS.

Military League Matches on the Same Lines as Last Year—Financial Statement.

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—(Special.)—The executive of the Canadian Military Rifle League has decided that owing to the uncertainty as to what arm will be adopted at Bisley this year, and the delay in the general issue in Canada of the new Lee-Enfield rifle, the league will hold its matches on very much the same lines as last year. If possible, however, the Snider will be dropped.

A certificate for marksmen has been approved of and adopted. It will be a very handsome thing, quite a work of art, in fact, and will be issued in two classes. That of first-class marksmanship will be of the greatest difficulty to obtain. The second class, while less difficult, will be by no means easy of capturing. It is a steel engraving, printed by the British America Bank Note Company, and will be given in addition to the issue of badges. Its issue will be authorised by the Department of Militia and Defence, and will probably be signed by the Minister and the Major-General commanding.

Although not yet definitely decided upon, the prizes given by the league will be of sterling silver, not plates, but other pieces suitable for regimental messes. In connection with this year's matches some anxiety exists in regard to Martini ammunition. It is said that now there are something less than 1,000,000 rounds in the country, which includes some 250,000 rounds of imported cartridges which have been found by experience to be faulty.

Claims are before the Customs Department for rebates of duty on the raw material used in the construction of iron bridges along the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The men who supplied the material ask a rebate of something like $20 per ton.

GRAVEL IN THE BLADDER.

Used Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Jan. 25 (Special).—Mr. John Medill, known locally as well as far and near as a physical giant, and glorying in his strength, came to be a great sufferer and tells of his cure as follows:—

"I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me and I think it will cure others why not say so?

"It is true I had been suffering for some time with Bladder trouble, and, learning of a cure made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

"In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the highest terms of praise, for I know of many persons who have been cured by them."

HERR PAUL STOEVING IN LONDON.

Success of His First Violin Recital in the World's Metropolis.

The London Times, Telegraph and Standard contain extended reports of a violin recital given in that city by Herr Paul Stoeving, son-in-law of Mr. Wm. Loch, and the success of the occasion in that centre of musical culture and musical criticism only justifies the high opinion which those who have heard him in Peterborough, formed of his capabilities as an artist as well as virtuoso upon the violin. The Times says of his performance;

"He possesses a good round tone, almost unerring accuracy of intonation, even in the most difficult double stopping in such pieces as a couple of Paganini's caprices, and a fine free style, vigorous and fiery when occasion requires."

"Praise from Sir Hubert is praise indeed," and when the "Thunderer," whose references to music are written in the most critical spirit possible, thus highly speaks of an artist's work it becomes the hall mark of merit and constitutes commendation to be highly valued. The Daily Telegraph says:

"Mr. Stoeving is equipped with a fine technique, his tone is bright and his intonation is rarely at fault. With so many points in his favour, elicited during the performance of Greig's sonata in G minor, in which he was associated with Madam Amina Goodwin, added to the good impression of his solos, he placed himself on excellent terms with his audience. The pieces selected were the Ciaconna by Vitali, two caprices by Paganini and Nachez' Danses Tziganes, the first being played with great dignity and resource, while the executive difficulties presented by the second were readily overcome, and the lively Hungarian music was dashed off with spirit. Later in the evening Mr. Stoeving introduced five of his own compositions, those entitled "Pastorale" and "Mittags" (mid-day) being especially agreeable."

The Standard, amongst other flattering things, said:

"His most successful effort, however, was in two caprices by Paganini, the enormous technical difficulties of which were treated in a masterly manner."

Herr Stoeving has reason to be well satisfied with his first appearance in London, and the many friends he formed during his stay in Peterborough last summer, while congratulating him heartily on his success, as heartily wish him a long continuance of it.

SIR HENRI JOLY'S VISIT TO PETERBOROUGH.

He Had a Pleasant Experience on the Occasion of His Visit to Town.

To-day, after a very pleasant visit of three or four days, Sir Henri Joly and Lady Joly left on the noonday train for the east.

During their stay in town they were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Greenwood.

On Friday Sir Henri was driven by Mr. Greenwood over the Lakefield-Peterborough section of the Trent Valley Canal. Sir Henri took great interest in the work, especially the new concrete mode of constructing locks and dams.

On Saturday Sir Henri Joly visited several manufacturing establishments, including the Canadian General Electric Company's Works, the Auburn Woollen Mills and the Central Bridge and Engineering Works, and would, if time had permitted, have visited other of our large manufacturing concerns. He was very favourably impressed with the position of industrial prominence taken by Peterborough, as shown by the establishments he visited.

On Saturday evening Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., gave a dinner party, in honour of Sir Henri, when he met and delighted by the charm of his manner the invited guests, who consisted of prominent Conservative and Liberal citizens. A delightful evening was spent.

On Sunday Sir Henri and Lady Joly attended services at St. John's, and they left behind them, on their departure at midday, most pleasant memories in the minds of all who had the good fortune to meet them during their stay in Peterborough.

WEDDED IN TORONTO.

Nuptials of Dr. Carmichael and Miss Bolster.

A quiet wedding was celebrated in Toronto this afternoon, which has a special interest to very many in Peterborough, where the contracting parties are so well-known and so highly esteemed.

At the residence of Mrs. J. G. Faucett, Grenville street, Rev. Dr. Torrance performed the ceremony that united for life Dr. D. N. Carmichael and Miss Jessie E. Bolster, Lady Superintendent of the Nicholls Hospital. The wedding was of a quiet character, only a few of the most intimate friends being present. At 9 o'clock the happy pair will take train for the east, on a honeymoon tour of about ten days, which will include, among other points, Montreal and Quebec. Dr. Carmichael occupies a prominent place in his profession, and enjoys a large popularity, both personally and professionally. Miss Bolster is a gold medallist of the Training School for Nurses in connection with the Montreal General Hospital, and has been for about a year Lady Superintendent of the Nicholls Hospital, in which capacity she greatly endeared herself by her amiability to all the patients that were in her charge. She was also greatly esteemed in the social circles she graced. Dr. and Mrs. Carmichael will receive the heartiest congratulations and best wishes of a very large circle of friends, whom the EXAMINER desires to join in the felicitations the occasion calls for.

IN ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

Meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterial Society W. F. M. S.

In the programme which was published on Saturday of the meeting of Peterborough Presbyterial Society, Women's Foreign Missionary Society, mention was omitted of the fact that Rev. Dr. Torrance of St. Paul's church, will deliver an address at the Tuesday evening meeting. Solos will also be sung by Miss Vair and Mr. G. W. Mulligan.

The meeting opens in St. Andrew's church at half-past nine o'clock to-morrow morning, when the delegates will be received and alloted to their billets. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in the movement to be present. A large number of delegates will be in attendance from out of town.

THAT CHICKEN FIGHT.

Peterborough Sports Lost About $600 the Other Evening.

There is money in chickens of the game variety, says the Lindsay Post, and ardent bird fanciers, both here and in Peterborough, are doing all in their power to develop that particular breed. Occasionally little impromptu meetings are arranged for the purpose of comparing birds, when the points are checked off by an umpire mutually agreed upon. Not very long ago an assembly was held in the upper flat of one of our Kent street stores which proved disastrous to the Lindsay fanciers, and last evening the Peterborough men again put in an appearance with their birds, confident of victory. The inspection took place in a building a short distance from Kent street, the walls of which had been carefully padded in order that passers by might not be disturbed by the cackle of the birds. It was an all night session, and we understand the Lindsay men proved victorious, scoring almost every point. As a result there was a turn-over estimated at $600.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling. "The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Dean's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore. "After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Dean's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

UP GO THE FIRE RISKS.

Many Towns in the Province Will Have to Pay Higher Insurance Premiums—Reasons for the Increase.

Business men in a majority of the towns throughout Ontario and Quebec will shortly have to pay higher premiums to the insurance companies, says the Toronto Globe of Saturday's issue. The Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association have decided upon this, and what they say, to use the vernacular of the street, goes. The question of increasing the insurance rates was brought up at the recent meeting of the Fire Underwriters' Association, and the matter was decided in this wise. The ratings of all the towns throughout the two Provinces are to be revised, and this is now going on. In most places the classification is being decreased, which means that premiums are being increased. "That is what we are doing in the majority of cases," is what an insurance man said to the Globe yesterday. How many towns will be affected by the change is not known. The reason given by the insurance companies for increasing the rates is that many of the towns are not provided with fire equipment answering to the standard required by the underwriters.

two inches across formed and in walking to favor it I sprained my ankle. The sore became worse; I could not put my boot on and I thought I should have to give up at every step. I could not get any relief and had to stop work. I read of a cure of a similar case by Hood's Sarsaparilla and concluded to try it. Before I had taken all of two bottles the sore had healed and the swelling had gone down. My

Then quietly ask him where he can get the best groceries at reasonable prices, and if he is possessed of ordinary common sense he will answer without hesitation: From E. SPORTING PASTIMES.

Rink Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

By all appearances the biggest crowd of the season will attend the rink to-night to witness the hockey match between the Peterboroughs and the Queen's University team, intercollegiate and international champions of Canada. Peterborough will have on its strongest team, including "Scuddy" Phelan, who has not figured in a match this season, and whose well-known ability as a centre forward, should sufficiently strengthen the home team to win the game for them.

Appended is the Kington News account of the recent Frontenac-Peterborough hockey match:—The whistle sounded at 8.30 and the puck was off towards the Frontenacs' goal. McDowall stopped a hot shot and delivered the puck to Reyner, who, making a series of pretty dodges, passed to "Mac." Murray, who scored the first game for the Frontenacs after three minutes play. Back came the puck on the Frontenacs' goal, and McDowall made another beautiful stop, while Harty contributed a rush on Peterborough's goal, but failed to pass the vigilant Wasson. Adams secured the puck and lost no time in making for the Frontenacs' goal. He passed to King, who equalized matters. The game became fast and furious at this stage. The Frontenacs played such a rapid and well-balanced combination game that Secretary Horkins, of the Peterborough team, admitted that the combination was too fast for his players. Jock Harty contributed one of his lightning rushes and shot on goal. Wasson kept the puck away and it bounced behind the posts. Harty brought it out and "Mac" Murray scored again. Score, 2-1 in favour of Frontenacs. The game was re-started, when Reyner and Murray contributed some more combination, and the former scored again for his side; a feat which he shortly after repeated, making the figures 4-1 in favour of Frontenacs. The puck was put in motion again, and very soon Cunningham delighted the hearts of the "rooters" on the bank by making a cyclone rush down the rink and shooting a goal; 5-1. Peterborough now awakened from their slumber and Graham made a splendid dash for the Frontenacs' goal, but was relieved of his burden by the speedy Reyner, who passed to Murphy who made the score 6-1; Reyner having added another goal (7.1). The Peterborough team made some brilliant play, and King, annexing the puck, passed to Montgomery, who made a long shot from the side of the rink with unerring aim, scoring another goal for the visitors. Score, 7-2. Half time was called, and the teams retired to their dressing-rooms for a short rest.

On resuming play, the Frontenacs played with less "snap and go" upon the strength of their comfortable lead. They took matters very easily and now and again made a dash at the visitors' goal, to show that there was no ill-feeling. Reyner scored after three minutes' play, making the total 8 to 2. Harty made it 9—2, and Reyner 10—2. On getting the rubber going again, Adams made a long lift, scoring the third game for the visitors. Montgomery further changed the figures to 10—4, Reyner and Harty having each scored. Just before the gong sounded, Graham scored for the visitors, making the final score 12--5 in favour of the Frontenacs. The Peterborough team played a good, swift game. They followed up well, and their cover-point lifted the puck in good style. But their game was no match for the beautiful, swift combination of the Frontenacs. Wasson in goal is a daisy, Adams at point, and King, Graham and Montgomery on the forward line were a fast lot. All the Frontenacs played well, the combination being as well balanced as a piece of machinery. Reyner, Harty and Murray played great hockey. Willie Harty was unable to play, his place being filled by his brother "Jock," who is a member of the team. Secretary Horkins protested against him on the ground that "Jock" belonged to Queen's team.

WON'T GO TO PETERBOROUGH.

To-day's Globe says:—"The Wellingtons have entered a strong protest against being ordered by the sub-committee to play off in Peterborough in the semi-final match of the junior series. The rink is altogether too small for first-class hockey, they allege, and that they are virtually throwing away their championship chances in going there to play. Manager Morrison is willing to have the game played on neutral ice, to be selected by the O.H.A., and, in fact, will meet the Peterboroughs on any rink but their own. Norwood or Kingston would suit them, and, as neither team have had a game out of town this season, and as the first-named place is hardly twenty miles from Peterborough, they should not object to the Wellingtons' proposition. At any rate, the city champions have virtually decided not to play the game if it is ordered for Peterborough, and, although this may sound rather unsportsmanlike, it is only a verbal crystallization of their desire to win the championship, for which, in their opinion, they would not stand the slightest show if they were compelled to encounter Peterborough on their own stamping-ground. The sub-committee will meet this morning to consider the matter.

HARD ON SAMMY.

In its account of the recent hockey match between Millbrook and Peterborough, the Millbrook Reporter says: "The visitors were well pleased with the way their opponents treated them on the ice and off the ice, in fact they could not have been used better. The spectators too used the boys "white," being very liberal with their applause. The referee, however, was away off. Why Peterborough proposed such a man we do not know, as any "hobo" that wouldn't know a hockey stick from a pine tree could have dispensed more justice. He was so sensitive that when Millbrook's captain called his attention to a couple of off-sides that he overlooked, he went to the beam and sulked like a little boy until he was coaxed back by the Peterborough men, but not Millbrook's.

There will be an exciting game of hockey on the Park rink, Ashburnham to-morrow night between the Lakeview and Park rink team. Game called at 8 p.m.

CURLIANA.

There will be a meeting of the Thistle division of the Curling Club at the rink parlours to-night, after the hockey match.

A couple of rink of Thistles go to Bobcaygeon for a friendly game to-morrow if the sleighing does not get any worse.

The final competition for the Ontario Tankard will begin, ice permitting, at 9 o'clock next Wednesday morning in Toronto. Only one group remains undecided, No. 8, in which Paris and the Hamilton Victorias play off to-day. The champions for the year in the several groups are:

1 Oshawa.	9 Buffalo.
2 Keene.	10 Brantford.
3 Lindsay.	11 Seaforth.
4 Collingwood.	12 London.
5 Scarboro'.	13 Chatham.
6 Tor. Queen City.	14 Sarnia.
7 Tor. Caledonian.	15 Guelph Union.
8 ———	16 Lucknow.

Most of these have entered for the finals and in two or three cases the runners-up in the group competitions will take the places forfeited by default of the winners.

This greatest of all curling competitions have been run for about fifteen years under the present system, and has been the means of developing superior curling ability all over the Province. The best eight men in each club of a given district contend for supremacy in each group, and the team coming through without a single defeat then enters the higher competition of the 16 teams who had a like proud experience, and the contests that ensue are examples of the highest skill and stontest resolution. Which one of the sixteen is likely to win is a most uncertain problem. One or two men of a team who may be a little out of condition will mar the fortunes of the best and most skilful, and, account for it as one may, there is no doubt that there is such a thing as luck, and sometimes a train of errors and misses may turn out successful, while carefully planned and skilfully played shots turn out ruinous.

The competition to decide which club shall compete against the winner of the tankard for the Governor-General's prize will go on simultaneously with the Tankard competition, one draw behind, and will be contested as sharply as the main competition. The Granite Curling Rink, both rinks of the Victoria Club and the Parkdale and Lakeview rinks will be used for these matches. They will begin each day about 9 a. m. and 2 p. m., and all will wish fine weather and hearty foemen to the devotees of this honourable and manly recreation

THE LOUDEST STEAM WHISTLE.

Peterborough's Well-Founded Claim to the Honour.

In Toronto Saturday Night there have been several paragraphs respecting the loudest steam whistle in Ontario, and the honours were claimed for the Gilmour mills whistle at Trenton, which are said to be heard at Belleville, a distance of twelve miles. The last issue contains the following:—

"Another reputable correspondent, writing from Marmora, Ont., gives the Gilmour whistle of Trenton a record that, so far as heard from, beats all other whistles in the Province. He says:—

The Gilmour whistle at Trenton is heard a very long distance. Its roar, which is deep and unmistakable, has been heard near Springbrook, in the township of Rawdon; the direction is north, across country not free from hills, and the distance is twenty-three miles!

QUEER CORNER.—Seing a letter in your last issue about the Gilmour whistle being heard from Belleville, I wish to state that on a calm morning I have distinctly heard the whistle from near the town of Warkworth, a distance of about twenty-three miles from Trenton. In fact, almost any morning it can be heard from that vicinity, as any of the residents there can testify. At the same time I may mention that the whistle of the Edison Works in Peterborough can also be heard from there.

E. P. K.

Toronto, February 1.

Now, then, in this casual manner, our correspondent really introduces a formidable competitor to the Gilmour whistle of Trenton. By the way Peterborough is further from Warkworth than is Trenton, and so the Edison whistle would, by this witness, seem the louder. The Marmora correspondent gives the Trenton whistle a record of twenty-three miles, but is it not that distance from Peterborough to Warkworth?"

While the loudest whistle is apparently something to blow about, it is proper to put in the claims of the whistle of the Canadian General Electric Company to the championship. We all know that this whistle, in its unfailing regularity and resounding roar, is used to regulate time pieces in surrounding villages within a radius of ten or fifteen miles. When it blew during the fire that destroyed one of the company's buildings, the sound was heard at Idyl Wyld, and reputable witnesses say that it is even heard in Cobourg, a distance of at least 25 miles as the crow flies. Peterborough is therefore justly entitled to claim the Electric Company's whistle as the loudest so far heard or heard from in this province.

ASHBURNHAM BRIEFS.

Delegates Appointed to the County Sabbath School Convention.

The usual quarterly services in the Mark street church were conducted yesterday by Rev. W. C. Beer, the pastor, who gave an excellent discourse based on Revelation vii, 13, 14. It was a very interesting and practical sermon, as are all Mr. Beer's discourses. In the evening his text was taken from John ix, 5.

At a meeting of the teachers and officers of Mark street Sunday school held at the close of the school yesterday the delegates were appointed to attend the County S. S. Convention in Peterborough on Thursday and Friday next. There are to be five sessions open to the public, and each delegate is to report one session. Thus the work is divided and interesting reports are expected. Thursday's convention will be reported on Sunday, Feb. 14th, and Friday's convention on Feb. 21st. The delegates are to provide substitutes in case they cannot attend.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Rev. H. G. Mellick, of Manitoba, will conduct the services in the Park street Baptist church next Sunday.

On Friday, 19th inst., the scholars of the Park street Baptist church Sunday school will hold their annual anniversary exercises.

Miss Hendren sang as an offertory solo last night in the Charlotte street Methodist church "Cast thy Bread Upon the Waters."

Yesterday the feast of the Purification or Candlemas day was celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral the candles used in the services for the year were blessed before 10 30 mass.

The morning anthem in the Charlotte street Methodist church was entitled "Christian, the Morn Breaks Lightly o'er Thee." The solo parts were admirably taken by Miss Hendren and Mr. A. L. Davis.

GEORGE STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

On account of the improvements that are being made in the audience room of the George street church, the services yesterday were held in the basement.

The bare chairs were not quite as comfortable as the cushioned pews, but as an offset to this enforced mortification of the flesh the morning sermon was one of marked excellence. In the evening Mr. Young again preached to a large audience.

While the collection was being made Mrs. Seward and Miss Lumsden sang a duet with taste and feeling, that could hardly fail to please everyone.

The Sabbath school in the afternoon was largely attended. The lesson was taught in full conclave by Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Young. The Misses Bellegham, Mr. Maybee and Mr. Harvey sang a quartette which was much admired.

It is altogether probable that the services on next Lord's Day will be held in the same place. All are invited. Sittings entirely free.

"I Love to Hear the Saviour's Voice," was the anthem which was sung by the choir yesterday morning in the George street Methodist church. Mrs. Seward took the solo in her usual excellent manner.

During the offertory in the George street Methodist church yesterday morning Mrs. Seward sang a solo entitled "Jesus is Passing By," and during the offertory in the evening she and Miss Lumsden sang a duet entitled "In Thy Love." Both the solos and duet were given with excellent effect.

THE LATE ALEX. NICOLL.

The Star-Clipper published at Traer, Iowa, contains the following reference to the death of Mr. Alex. Nicoll, a former resident of this section: Another of North Tama's pioneers dropped out of the rapidly depleting ranks this week. Alex. Nicoll died at his home in Traer on Tuesday morning. The direct cause of his death was la grippe, which intensified the old ailments to which he had been subject for years. Mr. Nicoll has been unable to do any work for ten years, in fact was confined to his home much of the time. He grew very fleshy and at the time of his death weighed nearly 400 pounds. This growth affected his respiration and circulation, and although able to be about the house Mr. Nicoll has walked very little for several years. He was born in Peterborough, Ontario, Sept. 21, 1833, of Scotch parents. In 1836 he was married to Elizabeth Dinsdale, who survives him. They came to Tama county in 1866 and have lived here continuously since, first in Grant township, later and for many years in Traer. Mr. Nicoll was a man of strict integrity, kind, open-hearted, of generous impulses, and always commanded the highest respect of his neighbours. He was a good man. His heart beat in sympathy with the poor and unfortunate and his purse often opened to their needs. He bore his trials with a heroism that is worthy of remark. The funeral services will take place at the home at 9 a.m. to-day. Rev. F. X. Miller, of Clinton, a former pastor, will make the principal address. He will be assisted by Rev. Geo. B. Shoemaker, of Toledo, and Rev. Lackey, of Traer. The body will be taken to Goldfield on the 10.40 train for interment.

HIAWATHA HAPPENINGS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A week ago last Saturday, 30th inst., Mr. John Lukes had his barn and contents burned to the ground. In the barn were straw, chickens, some small pigs and a span of horses, but fortunately no grain. Mr. Lukes, who was home at the time, saved quite a few of the things. On Tuesday following Mr. Lukes had a bee drawing wood to the Lake for another person. Among those who were at the bee are Messrs. Geo. Mather David Cruickshanks, Arthur Taylor, Wm. H. Hatherly, Oswell Craig, W. Cowe and Jeremiah Crowe. The amount of wood drawn to the lake was about eighteen cords.

Mr. Wellington Cowe lost a valuable dog lately.

Prominent Business Man of Peterborough cured of Eczema.

Mr. Thos. Gladman, bookkeeper for Adam Hall, esq., stove and tinware dealer, Peterborough, writes the following facts:—"Have been troubled for nine years with Eczema on my leg, and at times the itching was something terrible; tried many eminent doctors and was pronounced incurable. I had given up hopes of ever being cured when I was recommended by Mr. Madill, druggist, to try a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am happy to testify that after using two boxes I am completly cured.'

A Familiar Manifestation.

The attendant who had thoughtlessly laid his hand on the arm of the sultan's chair jumped back in alarm, exclaiming:

"What is it—an earthquake?"

"Not that I know of," replied the sultan.

"Possibly your majesty has chills and fever?"

"No. I know what you have reference to. I've read about it in the newspapers. What you felt was the quivering of my uncertain sovereignty. You needn't pay any attention to it. It's the same old totter."—Washington Star.

A sickly, fretful baby is a distressful burden to both of the parents. After passing worried and sleepless nights the father is unfitted for business and the mother for her household duties. If a woman will take proper care of herself during the period preceding motherhood, and see to it that the organs that bear the burdens of maternity are kept strong and healthy, her children will be robust and good-natured. The best medicine for keeping these delicate and important organs in a healthy condition is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Thousands of women have testified to the marvelous action of this remedy. More of it is sold than of all other medicines for the same purpose combined. It acts directly upon the organs involved. It restores their health and vigor. It prepares a woman for the duties of motherhood. It insures the health of baby. It makes its advent easy and almost free from pain. Women who use it do not experience the usual discomforts of the period of gestation. It is the most marvelous medicine ever known for wives and mothers. It is the preparation of an eminent and skillful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, who has been for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Women who wish to know more about it should write him.

"About six years ago my wife became afflicted with female weakness," writes the Rev. I. J. Coppedge, of Elmo, Kaufman County, Texas. "She could not stand on her feet or get in any position in which she did not suffer great pain. She was naturally a strong woman. I had several physicians to treat her without any permanent relief. She despaired of ever again being well. She saw an advertisement of your 'Favorite Prescription' and spoke to me about it. I got her a bottle of the medicine which she soon found was helping her. She kept on until she had taken six bottles. Since taking the last she has not suffered a moment with the old trouble. She has been well nearly twelve months. The 'Favorite Prescription' was all the medicine she took. She is in good health and we are happy."

BUTLER HAS A NEW GAME.

The Alleged Murderer of Captain Weller Says He Will Tell Things When He Gets Back to Australia

San Francisco, Feb. 5.—Murderer Frank Butler, or Richard Ashe, as he now calls himself, has formed a plan by which he hopes to clear himself from the charge of murdering Lee Weller. He says nothing, however, as to how he will attempt to save his neck on the charge of murdering Preston, Leash and Harwood, the mining engineers, whose papers he secured and which he used in Sydney to convince the innocent prospectors that he was fully capable of finding gold in the Blue Mountains.

Butler told one of his friends yesterday that as soon as he reached Australia he could easily clear himself by turning Queen's evidence. "I was not within three miles of the shooting of Capt. Weller," said Butler, "and how can I be guilty? As soon as I get back to Australia there will be other arrests. Then I will give my side of this whole affair. I am more than anxious to get away. I did not want my attorneys to oppose an immediate hearing of the extradition proceedings, and I was disappointed in not being able to get back on the steamer Friday. I do not wish to be freed here by a legal technicality, for I am positive that my innocence will be established on my return."

The Australian detectives place no credence in the statements of Butler that he can establish an alibi or escape by turning Queen's evidence. They believe the scheme was decided upon to enlist the sympathy of the public.

"That is Richard Ashe, a native of Ireland, who served on board my ship in 1893," said Captain Petrie of the British ship Olive Bank last night, when shown a picture of Frank Butler, the Australian murderer. "I shipped Richard Ashe in Rio de Janeiro," continued Captain Petrie, "in April, 1893. He told me that he held a certificate of competency and only shipped before the mast because he wanted to get out of the place. He was a good seaman, and truthfully I can only remember of one occasion on which he gave trouble.

"Last December when we were in Newcastle, N.S.W., I ran across Ashe again. He was well-dressed and prosperous, and when he accosted me on the street I stopped and spoke to him. In answer to my question he said he had come from Sydney to ship as mate of a vessel and he expected to get away in a few days. He went about openly in Newcastle and seemed to have plenty of friends."

A young man in Lowell, Mass., troubled for years with a constant succession of boils on his neck, was completly cured by taking only three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Another result of the treatment was greatly improved digestion with increased avoirdupois.

WHAT THE EDITORS DID.

Discussed the Newspaper Postage Question and the Libel Law.

Toronto, Feb. 6.

At the meeting of the Canadian Press Association yesterday morning Mr. Cameron, on behalf of the committee appointed to interview Mr. Mulock, Postmaster-General, reported that the Minister seemed to have his mind made up to re-impose postage, and it was therefore simply a matter of adjusting the rate. During the discussion that the report evoked, the majority seemed to favor a charge of 1-4c per pound, with the first 1000 of each issue exempt. A resolution was introduced by Mr. P. D. Ross, with a lengthy preamble, referring to the postage question and customs duties on printers' materials, presses, stereotypes, etc. The association decided, by the adoption of Mr. Ross' resolution, as a body to take no action in regard to the Postmaster-General's proposition to re-impose postal rates, except to send a copy of the resolution to every publisher in Canada, suggesting that, should this question come before Parliament, each parliamentary representative should be asked to insist upon reduction or abolition of the customs duties on publishers' materials, as a necessary co-relative to the imposition of postage.

Mr. P. D. Ross presented the report of the Committee on Libel, as follows: "That the Ontario law is, in the opinion of the association, equitable in the main to both the press and the people, giving no protection on the one hand to malicious and reckless journalism, nor, on the other hand, facilities to attempt blackmail upon fair publishers. The committee think there are some minor points which might be further considered with advantage to press and public, and suggest that a memorandum drawn up by the committee be sent to Hon. Mr. Hardy for his consideration, the committee to report again at next annual meeting." The report was adopted.

During the forenoon session papers on the following subjects were read: "Illustrated Editions for Weeklies," by Mr. W. Ireland of The North Star, Parry Sound; "Early History of Our Association," by Mr. John Cameron of The London Advertiser; "Country Correspondence," by Mr. A. R. Fawcett of The Toronto Junction Leader; "The Outlook for Canadian Journalism," by Mr. A. Pattullo of The Sentinel-Review," Woodstock; "Estimating," by Mr. R. G. McLean of the Employing Printers' Association, Toronto, and "Machine Work," by Messrs. P. D. Ross of The Ottawa Journal and H. W. Laird of The Sentinel-Star, Cobourg.

The balloting for members of the Executive Committee resulted in the election of the following: Messrs. W. Ireland, North Star, Parry Sound; J. S. Willison, Globe, Toronto; J. T. Clark, Saturday Night, Toronto; D. McGillicuddy, Signal, Goderich; A. G. F. Macdonald, News, Alexandria.

The summer excursion was incidentally referred to, and a trip over the new Ottawa and Parry Sound Railway was warmly espoused. Another journey spoken of was through the Temiscamingue country. The Executive Committee will select the route.

President-elect McLean took the chair just before the adjournment, and briefly thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him.

In the afternoon a number of the publishers of country newspapers discussed the advisability of organizing a branch of the association for their own protection, the membership to be confined exclusively to proprietors of country weeklies. It was the opinion of the meeting that too much time of the convention was taken up with the discussion of affairs relating to the dailies, and that the interests of the weeklies were, to a certain extent, overlooked.

This resolution was adopted: Moved by John H. Thompson, Thorold Post, seconded by H. W. Laird, Cobourg Sentinel-Star, That A. J. Jeffrey, Arnprior Chronicle; M. A. James, Bowmanville Statesman; P. A. Bellamy, Ingersoll Sun, with the mover and seconder, be a committee to issue a circular to the publishers of country weeklies, laying before them the project of forming this section of the association, and urging a general attendance at the next meeting of the association for fuller consideration of the advisability of organizing this special branch. The committee has also power to take any other steps it may choose to further the same object."

Mr. Jeffrey will act as chairman and Mr. James as secretary.

Major McLean, the President of the C. P. A., expressed his sympathy with the movement.

A Grenville County Man Speaks his Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Feb. 1 (Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realising great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

Their Occupations.

A middle aged woman with an armful of parcels was walking along Mission street when she suddenly stopped and stared at a laborer shoveling dirt out of a trench in the street. As he straightened up she recognised her divorced husband.

"Ah, how are ye, Moike? Phat are ye doin?"

He tried to wither her with a glare, but she continued to smile sweetly.

"Ye want to know what I'm doin, eh? Well, I'm earnin alimony. Phat are ye doin?"

"Sure, Moike, I'm a-spendin it."

He resumed his shoveling, and she went on down the street feeling pretty well satisfied with herself.—San Francisco Post.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

SKATING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

McCulloch, the Canadian Champion, Beats Foreign Cracks at Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 5.—The ninth annual race meeting of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada was inaugurated on the M.A.A. rink to-day under the most favorable circumstances. The world's fastest men were on hand in good form, and the ice was in splendid condition. The weather, while extremely cold, was clear and beautiful, and there was nothing to mar the success of the occasion. The races were amongst the most brilliant ever witnessed on the track. They were veritable record-breakers, several world's records being knocked to smash in a most astonishing style.

J. K. McCulloch, the Canadian skater from Winnipeg, Manitoba, carried off the honors of the day by establishing a new record for the 5000-metre race. The best previous record was that held by J. J. Eden of Norway, 8 minutes 37 3-5 seconds, but McCulloch covered the distance easily in 8 minutes 32 4-5 seconds. Seyler, the Bavarian skater, who finished second to McCulloch, also lowered the record by covering the distance in 8.37 1-5. The Canadian's victory was hailed with the greatest enthusiasm, and he was the hero of the hour.

In the three-mile professional J. Wilson of Minneapolis established the record by covering the distance in the astonishing time of 7 minutes 42 1-5 seconds. Alfred Nass, the Norwegian flyer, in the 500 metre race, equalled the world's record held by him of 46 4-5 seconds, McCulloch being a good second.

The Canadian record for the half-mile backward was lowered by William A. Lockhart of St. John, from 1.41 2-5 to 1.36 2-5.

The record for the one-mile junior championship of Canada was lowered from 3.30 to 3.20 3-5 by B. Spooner of Montreal, and in the 220 yard hurdle F. B. Irwin of the M.A.A. lowered the record from 27 seconds to 25 seconds.

Nearly 2000 people witnessed the races, and the arrangements were excellent. The races for the world's championships were run under the international rules, each race being decided by the fastest time competitors, skaters in pairs, and the skater finishing in the fastest time was declared the winner. This method was found to be far fairer and more satisfactory. The track was 400 metres, equal to 437¼ yards. Following is a detailed account of the various events.

First, 500 metres, international amateur race. World's record, W. Manforth, Norway, Feb. 3, 1895, .46 4-5 seconds; Alfred Nass, Norway, Feb. 8, 1896, .46 4-5 sec. Race, according to time: Alfred Nass, Norway, .46 4-5 seconds, 1; J. K. McCulloch, Winnipeg, .48 1-5 seconds, 2; Julius Seyler, Switzerland, .48 3-5 seconds, 3; C. E. Greene, Smith's Falls, .49 1-5 seconds, 4; John Davidson, Montreal, .50 1-5 seconds, 5; M. Lordahl, Norway, .50 3-5 seconds, 6; W. H. Merritt, St. John, N.B., .50 4-5 seconds, 7; A. E. Pilkie, Toronto, .52 2-5 seconds, 8; A. Lee, Montreal.

Second race, 1 mile professional—John Nilsson, Minneapolis, 2.41 1-5, 1; Joe Donoghue, Newburgh, N.Y., 2.46 2-5, 2; Harley Davidson, Montreal, 2.46 3-5, 3; O. A. Rudd, Minneapolis, 2.49 4-5, 4; W. T. Letts, Hoboken, N.J., 2.56 4-5, 5; H. P. Mosher, Stormking, N.Y.

Third race, 5000 metres, international amateur race. World's record, J. J. Eden, Hamar, Norway, Feb. 25, 1894, 8.37 3-5 seconds—J. K. McCulloch, Winnipeg, 8.32 4-5, 1; Alfred Nass, Norway, 8.37 1-5, 2; Julius Seyler, Switzerland, 8.37 3-5, 3; John Davidson, Montreal, 8.52 3-5, 4; C. E. Greene, Smith's Falls, 8.52 4-5, 5; M. How to Treat a Wound.

Three useful things to have in a farmer's house as a provision in case of wounds not sufficiently serious to necessitate the calling in of the medical attendant are a spool of adhesive plaster, some iodoform gauze and a package of carbolated absorbent cotton. Cleanse and dry as nearly as may be the cut surface with a wad of the cotton, using moderate pressure and elevating the part if necessary to check the flow of blood. Do not apply any water. Bring the cut surface together as accurately as possible and retain them there with as few and as narrow strips of the plaster as will suffice, cutting them of a good length. Then cover the wound with a dozen or so thickness of the iodoform gauze, which should extend an inch beyond the wound. Over the gauze apply a liberal layer of the absorbent cotton, allowing it to extend over the gauze. The cotton may be kept in place by a bandage of cheesecloth, or a part of a leg of a stocking may be drawn over it. Moderate pressure, if evenly distributed, is helpful. The pressure of a string is hurtful. Keep the part moderately elevated and take care that there is no constriction of the limb above the wound by a garter.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

An exchange says,—James A. Brown, of Windsor, an owner of race horses, has a claim against the C. P. R. He alleges that during the racing season he shipped a car load of horses including one valuable racer valued at $12,000, from Windsor to Montreal, at the same time instructing the company to use the greatest despatch. He says that they followed his directions so literally that the journey was accomplished in fifteen hours and a half, or at the rate of 46 miles an hour, and the animals arrived at the track in a condition totally unfitted for running, with the result that he incurred great loss. It is understood that the company will submit his claim to arbitration. The carload was valued at about $50,000.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company will soon issue orders to trainmen to dispose of their watches and secure timepieces nominated by the company. There should be a chance to purchase a good watch at a reasonable price.

During these dull times the Grand Trunk Railway is economizing. On the regular passenger trains carrying baggage and express cars, the latter have been taken off and half the baggage coach is appropriated for the use of the express messengers. This makes one coach less to haul, which will be a decided advantage especially in stormy weather.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company have just completed the building of a new derrick at Toronto for use on the road. It is constructed on a flat car 44 feet in length, and consists of two winches and two derricks, one at each end of the car. The derricks can be swung into any position required, and are intended to be used in replacing derailed engines or cars, enabling the operators to lift an ordinary engine out of a ditch and swing it on to the track. The derrick is constructed almost entirely of iron, and is the only one of the kind in use on the Grand Trunk system.

On Tuesday night a train made up of thirty-six cars of freight and hauled by two locomotives left Belleville. The train was in charge of a conductor and two brakesmen, and the use of the extra engine and additional cars did away with the necessity for an extra train crew of three men. Ordinarily a locomotive will haul about twenty-five full loads. The additional loads and engine will cut off the trainmen's pay list considerably, and will relieve the necessity of sending out light engines. The plan as used with the first train is said to have worked very well.

A Toronto despatch says: "The firemen are rather perturbed over another innovation which is keeping many of them idle; and it is not the old story of firemen being dismissed and engineers being reduced to take their places. At present if a man applies for work at the round house he is told that he must "learn the road," and work for a month without salary, paying his own expenses every time he goes out out on a trip. Of course every time such a man is employed it means that a regular fireman must remain idle."

The Lindsay Post says: When the Haliburton passenger train pulled in the other morning bystanders were amazed to see that the cow-catcher and front of the engine were bespattered with blood, and that pieces of hair and flesh were adhering to the wheels and other portions of the machinery. Some of the passengers of the north imparted the information that on the way down the train had struck and killed a team of horses belonging to a farmer of the Dutch line.

The accident happened about a quarter of a mile north of the I. B. & O. R. R. junction, and about two-and-a-half miles north of Kinmount. At that point there is a high trestle bridge, the approach to which is a steep down grade. Shortly before the train was due the settler referred to had arrived at a dumping ground near by with a load of wood, and the morning being very cold his horses became restive and broke away. In their struggles they freed themselves from the heavy sleigh and ran down the track towards the bridge. Just then the farmer heard the train approaching and fearing an accident he ran with all his speed to the top of a little eminence near the track in order to warn the driver, but owing to the fog and the noise his shouts were not heard, and the train rushed on towards the bridge. Just before the engine reached it, Driver Clarke noticed the animals ahead through a rift in the fog, and noticed that one horse had become wedged between the open ties, which meant almost certain derailment of the train when the engine struck it. Shouting to Price to apply the tender brake Clarke reversed the lever and jumped, followed by the fireman. Their escape from death is a very narrow one, as they alighted close to the edge of the ravine—had they delayed a second longer they would have landed at the bottom, 60 feet below.

When the engine struck the prostrate horse, the jar caused everyone on the train to leap to their feet in alarm, but luckily the engine did not leave the track, and the second horse was caught up on the cow catcher and thrown over the side of the gully below. When the grade on the other side of the gully was reached, the train came to a standstill.

Had the engine left the track the trestle-work would undoubtedly have collapsed, as it is a somewhat frail structure and is soon to be replaced by an iron bridge.

MASKED ROBBERS

In a Most Daring Way Held Up Two Walkerville Merchants—Got Nearly $300.

Detroit, Feb. 7.—Two of the most daring robberies that ever occurred in Western Ontario took place in Walkerville last night. A few minutes before 9 o'clock a man, wearing a mask, entered the general store of J. H. Luxford, on Wyandotte-street, and, pulling a revolver from his pocket, presented it at the heads of the astonished proprietor and his clerk, at the same time demanding in a low voice that they hand over all the money in their possession. About $75 was poured into the fellow's hands.

While this was transpiring, a scene precisely similar was being enacted in the meat shop of Whiteside Bros., next door. The two stores are practically under the same roof. John Whiteside, the senior partner, was alone in his store, and the robber had no difficulty in securing what cash there was in the till, amounting to about $120. As though by preconcerted arrangement, both men left the stores at exactly the same time and met just outside. They jumped into a waiting buggy and drove rapidly out the Walker-road. As soon as the men had left Mr. Luxford started out to give the alarm and was met by Mr. Whiteside, also bound on the same errnd. Chief Constable Griffith of Walkerville and Chief Wills of Windsor were notified by telephone, and men were put on duty at the ferry docks to see that no suspicious characters crossed the river. Detective Campan also started out to look for the robbers, but up to a late hour nothing had been seen or heard of them. But little description of the men can be obtained. They are said to have been about 5 feet 10 inches in height, and were dressed in dark clothes. Both wore heavy overcoats. The whole affair occupied but a very few minutes, and from the time the robbers entered the stores until they took their departure could not have been over a couple of minutes.

Died in Australia.

Guelph, Feb. 7.—Word was received by Mr. Samuel Terrell by letter this morning from Melbourne, Australia, of the death from inflammation of the lungs of Mr. Thomas Graham, which occurred about a month ago. It will be remembered that the deceased went to Australia many years ago as a book agent for Mr. Lyon with Mr. Beney and several others, and was quite successful in his enterprise. Deceased was 41 years of age. His mother is still living in the city, his father, the late William Graham, having died about a year ago.

FAST WORK ON ICE

McCulloch and Nillson Cut Records at Montreal.

THE WEATHER WAS UNFAVORABLE

Amateur Championships Still Undecided—Long Races Have to be Skated Over—John Davidson of Toronto Did Some Notable Work—A Full Record of the Events.

Montreal, Feb. 6.—Despite the fact that the elements were unpropitious, some remarkable records were made to-day at the meeting of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada. A light sleet, half snow and half rain, which commenced to fall during the morning, rendered the ice extremely heavy and a very strong wind blew during the afternoon. These features handicapped the skaters considerably, and when the conditions are taken into account the time made must be regarded as remarkable.

Neilson, the Minneapolis flyer, performed the greatest feat of the day by establishing a new world's record of 14.47 for the five-mile professional race. McCulloch, the Canadian champion, won two more events, the 1500 metres, in which he outran Nass, the Norwegian, in a close and exciting race, and the 10,000-metre race, in which he proved faster than Zeller of Bavaria. Had McCulloch been allowed the 5000 metres race, which was declared off yesterday, he would have been entitled to the title of world's amateur champion, having won three out of four principal events.

In the 1500-metre race, which was the first event on the card, McCulloch tied with Nass by covering the distance in the same time—2.42 2-5—and the tie was raced off, resulting in one of the closest and most exciting races of the day. Both men put forth all their powers, but McCulloch was superior, and despite all the efforts of Nass he kept ahead and crossed the finish line one second ahead. McCulloch's victory was hailed with deafening applause.

In the half-mile professional, the principal race, however, was between Neilson and Harley Davidson, Neilson showed his wonderful speed by covering the distance in 1.17 1-5.

In the 10,000-metre race, Zeller of Bavaria and Greene of Smith's Falls, Ont., showed up in splendid form and succeeded in covering the distance in 20.42 1-5. McCulloch, who paired with John Davidson, was in magnificent form and covered the ground in a wonderful manner, defeating Zeller's time by 40 seconds, covering the distance in 20.02 2-5. John Davidson, a clean and graceful skater, came pretty near equalling Zeller's time.

In the five-mile professional the feature was the race between Neilson and Joe Donoghue. There has been considerable coldness between the two men for some time and Neilson was heard to remark before the race:

"Donoghue has been doing a great deal of talking, but I will give him something to talk about."

Neilson took the lead from the start and increased it until he had gained a lap on the Newburg boy. In the fifth mile he was two clear laps ahead of Donoghue. Neilson's skating was simply marvelous. He covered the ground with wonderful strides and crossed the line in 14.47, breaking the best previous record of 17.15.

The judges have decided to declare off the 5000-metre race and the three-mile professional race of Friday, as it was found that a mistake had been made by the scorers in the counting of the laps. The races will be run over on Monday.

FOR CYCLE RACING ADVANCEMENT

Uncle Sam's National Track Association Formed and the Big U. S. Divided Up Into Districts.

New York, Feb. 7.—Uncle Sam's National Cycle Track Association was formally organized here last night. The association elected E C Hodges of Boston president, B F Pelouse (Louisville) vice-president, H B Ducker (Manhattan Beach) secretary, and L M Rich (Springfield) treasurer.

The objects of the association, as set forth in the constitution, are "The improvement of bicycle tracks, the advancement of cycle racing methods of conducting race meets." The bylaws provide for the creation of four racing districts, as follows:

District No. 1, to be known as the Eastern District, composed of the New England States, the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and District of Columbia.

District No. 2, to be known as the Central District, comprising the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas.

District No. 3, to be known as the Southern District, comprising the States of North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky, Tennessee, South Carolina, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas and Florida.

District No. 4, to be known as the Western District composed of the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and all territories and States west of the Rocky Mountains.

Article 3, sections and 2, provides that each district shall arrange a circuit and name dates for annual national circuit meetings. Amateur prizes will be given at these meetings of the value allowed by the League of American Wheelmen and professional prizes of money as each member of the association shall determine, not exceeding in value the amount allowed by the League of American Wheelmen.

Section 3 further provides that no bonus shall be given to any racing man, trainer or manufacturer or dealer, and that nothing more than the advertised prizes shall be given in any race. Violation of section 3 is punishable by a $100 fine for the first offence and $200 for the second. Failure to pay the fine is punishable by expulsion. The annual election of officers will take place at the annual meeting and each representative will be entitled to one vote.

The track owners or those controlling tracks are eligible for membership on payment of $25, and the annual dues are put at $10. Districts wanting dates for national circuit meets must forward requests for same before Feb. 15 each year and such dates will be assigned by the secretary not later than March 1.

This store is an habitual record-breaker! Stock-taking has just been completed, and we are pleased to be able to say that the past year's business has been satisfactory. Each year breaks the record of its predecessor, and we are encouraged with the promise of still greater things.

But this store never rests on its past successes! We hold great bargain-making power, and are going to use it to your advantage.

HARBINGERS OF SPRING!

We are now in receipt of large consignments from New York, personally selected by Mr. Fair. The spring merchandise now rushing in fairly discounts everything in the past. "It's Fair's Way."

Special values will bring people here in spite of themselves, and down-right money saving will encourage you to continue to stay with the Golden Lion.

There is an air of elegance in our new goods, and when our new stock is completed we can pride ourselves on having an unrivalled stock, to be sold on the easiest terms ever offered in Peterborough.

Such a business as ours speaks for itself. There is a spirit of discontent in some quarters; opposition puffs out an odor of "hurt feelings" in almost every breath. We hope others are busy—we know we are. Like Browning's gypsies, it must be disheartening

"To go on with the grinding,
Up and down and nobody minding."

But this is an unusual store—different from others. Fair keeps his word and respects it.

TO ENLARGE TRADE,

The Mission of Sir Richard and Hon. Mr. Davies.

WOULD BENEFIT BOTH COUNTRIES

Provided a Fair Arrangement Were Reached—Canada's Wheat is Best, U. S. Excels in Corn, and a Free Interchange Would be Good for Both Sides.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Sir Richard Cartwright, Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Hon. L. H. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, for the Dominion, who arrived in Washington on Thursday last, are making the most of their visit to the National Capital. During the past few days they have had interviews more or less extended with Secretary Olney, Speaker Reed, Senator Sherman and other prominent Republicans and Democrats in the two Houses of Congress. To the United Associated Presses reporter to-day Sir Richard and Mr. Davies outlined the basis upon which such a treaty could be drawn.

"In the first place," said Mr. Davies, "please make it clear to the American people that we believe closer trade relations should exist between the two countries, and that a commission, consisting of two Americans and two Canadians, should be appointed to consider the general subject of reciprocity and report to their respective Governments if a commercial treaty be possible."

It was suggested to Mr. Davies that the American farmers along the northern frontier would protest vigorously against any reciprocity which included an exchange of the natural products of the soil.

"But," interjected Sir Richard, "our people raise the same objection. Our agriculturists fear American competition quite as strongly as the American farmers fear Canadian competition. During the past three months, while our Tariff Commission was giving its hearings at Ottawa, we were constantly reminded that American competition would be fatal to Canadian interests. The Canadians living in the Niagara peninsula were most insistent that the barriers should not be thrown down. They asserted that the American grape and the American strawberry would, if protection were removed, flood our country and destroy their interests."

"Similar objections were made by our farmers with reference to a free exchange of other products. The truth is," continued Sir Richard, "the quality of some of our articles is superior to yours. On the other hand, the Americans raise certain articles which are superior in quality to ours. For example, our wheat is better in quality, generally speaking, than that of America. Your corn is superior to ours. This is true of a large number of articles. Those natural products which develop better in a warmer climate are superior on your side of the line to ours. Other products of the soil, which are more natural to a cold climate, are produced better by us. There is no reason why the people of both countries should not enjoy the superior products of Canada and America at the lowest price instead of purchasing an inferior article for the same money."

"Laying aside the question of natural products, to what extent would the manufacturers of the United States be benefited by such an arrangement?" Sir Richard was asked.

"The trade of the United States with Canada," replied Sir Richard, "would be greatly stimulated. We are to-day your best customers. We purchase more largely per capita in the American market than Great Britain does. Our trade with the United States aggregates $100,000,000, of which the larger share is in favor of the United States. Under the stimulus of reciprocity this trade could be expanded to $300,000,000 a year, with the same relative advantage on the side of the United States. We estimate it this way: We have a population of five millions of people, which is equal to the population of one of your larger States. There is little, if any, difference between the two peoples. We speak the same tongue, we are descendants of the same race, the climatic and soil conditions are similar, and there is no difference in temperament and feeling. Your statistics show that the trade in this country between two States having populations of five millions each amounts annually to about $300,000,000. I think trade between the States and Canada, with a liberal measure of reciprocity, would equal, if it did not exceed, that amount."

"Are the Canadians large consumers of American manufactures?"

"Our largest trade with the United States," replied Sir Richard, "is in these articles. We purchase comparatively few manufactured products from Great Britain. We purchase from the home country our woolen manufactures, a certain brand of extra fine prints, cotton cloths and books of a certain quality. This practically covers our trade with Great Britain. On the other hand, nearly everything we need in the line of manufactures would, under reciprocity, come from this side of the line. Our manufacturers would naturally protest against this competition, but that is to be expected. I might observe in this connection that our trade with Great Britain has suffered a steady decline. During the 25 years I have been in Parliament it has decreased from $68,000,000 to $32,000,000 annually with a corresponding increase in favor of the United States."

Referring for a moment to an exchange of natural products, Sir Richard went on, "There is the matter of coal for, instance. Our statistics for the past five years show that our annual consumption of American coal has amounted in round numbers to $8,800,000. The United States, on the other hand, during the same period has purchased Canadian coal to the amount of $3,800,000 annually. If the duty on coal were removed in both countries Cape Breton coal might be shipped to the New England and some of the middle States at a much lower rate than it is now purchased. While this might affect the American producer, so far as this particular trade was concerned, his output would be largely increased through his sales in Ontario and Manitoba. Then, as an offset to this, British Columbian coal would find a larger market in your Pacific Slope States, so that the exchange would even up pretty generally all around, with both countries reaping the benefit of a cheaper price."

"What will be the result if the American Government declines to make a reciprocity treaty such as you desire?"

"It will result," said Mr. Davies, who at this point again took part in the conversation, "in an enlargement of our trade with Great Britain. We must trade somewhere and shall naturally trade where we can make the best bargain. We have in Canada today a large element whose influence is thrown in the direction of a more extended trade with the Mother Country as against the United States. We Canadians believe that our trade should flow through natural channels, and this natural channel inclines to this country. If we can't trade with America we shall be compelled to trade with Great Britain, and once these intimate relations are established with the Mother Country it will be difficult to break them. The effect of Canadian competition can only be felt immediately along your northern border, while on the other hand the manufacturers of the United States will secure a greatly enlarged market. I do not believe that the effect of Canadian competition is felt to any extent except along the northern fringe of your northernmost States. As Sir Richard has said, our Canadian agriculturists fear American competition quite as keenly as the Americans fear Canadian competition, so that there is practically little difference between them. On the other hand the American manufacturer has nothing to fear, he has everything to gain by such an arrangement as we propose."

CUT HIS OWN THROAT.

That is What is Now Said Regarding the Dead Barnardo Boy.

Toronto, Feb. 9.

"That Charles Bradbury came to his death by a wound self-inflicted" was the unanimous verdict of 14 jurymen who sat on the inquest concluded last night, a verdict which was agreed in by 99 out of every 100 who heard the evidence.

The enquiry was resumed at 1.30 yesterday afternoon at Birrell's hotel, York Mills, and the decision was rendered at 10.10 at night, after the jury had been three-quarters of an hour in consultation.

Dr. W. H. B. Aikins was the coroner. He was assisted by the Crown Attorney, Mr. Dewart; High Constable Jones and County Constable Burns also assisted. Mr. F. E. Hodgins represented the Barnardo Home and Messrs. W. G. Murdock, B. E. Swayzie and W. P. Bull looked after the interests of John and Stewart Blain, Mr. Murdock having been called in by the relatives of the young man.

Dr. Thomas Armstrong, one of the coroners, gave the result of the first post mortem, held on the 2nd inst., when the examination was solely directed to the appearance of the remains in reference to cremation and not in connection with any wound on the throat.

The results of the second post mortem were detailed by Dr. Johnson, the others present having been Dr. Armstrong, Dr. Richardson and Dr. W. R. Walters, all of whom agreed in the results. The examination showed that the greater portion of the arms and legs had been burned away, but that the trunk and head remained. The head was turned to the right, and the right arm, or what was left of it, was raised. There was an irregular cut upwards in the throat below the Adam's apple, and the evidences were that smoke had been inhaled and, therefore, that the boy had been breathing when the fire reached him. The wound in the throat was not necessarily fatal. The razor blade produced could have inflicted the wound.

FIGHT AND RUN AWAY

Is What the King of Benin Proposes to Do.

THAT IS IF HE FIGHTS AND LOSES

Reports of the Troubles in Crete Said to Have Been Exaggerated—Greek Warships Arrive at Canea—The Anglo-French Incident—General News by Cable.

Brass, Guinea Coast, Feb. 8.—The King of Benin, who caused the massacre of Consul Phillips' party, to avenge which a punitive expedition is now being fitted out under the supervision of Rear Admiral Rawson, C. B., Commander-in-Chief of the British Cape of Good Hope station, has sent a message saying that if the whites choose to fight he will come and fight them with his soldiers at the waterside as they land. The King says that if his soldiers are killed he will send more, and if these are killed he will retire to the backwoods.

THE CRETAN TROUBLE.

Announcement in the House of Commons That Reports Were Exaggerated.

London, Feb. 8.—In the House of Commons to-day Right Hon. George N. Curzon, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, stated that the rumors of a massacre in Crete were unfounded. It was true that there had been some firing there, but the loss of life had been small. During the firing he said the Turkish troops are reported to have conducted themselves in an exemplary manner and there was practically no plundering. Mr. Curzon said that 5000 refugees had embarked from Canea, and that place was now perfectly quiet. As there had been a scarcity of food reported at Canea the admiral in command of the British Mediterranean squadron had sent a troopship with biscuits and meat sufficient to feed twelve hundred persons for a fortnight. Two thousand refugees were on board the British warships at Canea, Mr. Curzon said, and the last of the fugitives were taken off by the Greek war vessels.

Greek Ironclads Under Orders.

London, Feb. 8.—A despatch to The Times from Athens says that the Grecian ironclads Spetsia and Peara, now being repaired at Toulon, have been ordered to get ready for an expedition to Crete. The Government submitted a measure in the legislative chamber appropriating £4000 to the relief of the Cretan refugees at Milo and elsewhere.

A despatch to The Standard from Athens announces that an Englishman was killed and an Austrian subject wounded during the recent Cretan troubles.

Snubbed the Turk.

Athens, Feb. 8.—Advices received here to-day from Canea say the Greek squadron has arrived at that port, and that upon arriving failed to salute the Turkish flag, according to custom. The officer in command of the British warships at Canea paid a visit to the commander of the Greek vessels immediately upon their arrival.

The despatches also say that the Christians and Moslems at Retymo, Crete, are massing in opposition to one another and making all preparations for a battle.

Two Hundred Buildings Burnt.

Canea, Island of Crete, Feb. 8.—It is officially announced that the fires started by Mussulmans in the Christian quarter have been quenched. In all, according to the official report, 200 buildings have been destroyed, and 5000 Christians have fled. Of this number 2000 are on board British warships. The Greek warships have taken the remainder of the Christian refugees. In conclusion, the report says that tranquility reigns in the town and in the vicinity, and that the Turkish troops throughout behave in an orderly manner. No excesses are reported on their part, and it is asserted that there had been no plundering.

French Cruiser Started.

Toulon, Feb. 8.—The French cruiser Troude has started for the Island of Crete.

PAPAL DELEGATE FOR CANADA.

That Was One Subject Talked Over by Mr. Fitzpatrick in Rome.

London, Feb 8.—Lawyer Russell, who with Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General of Canada, is charged with the mission of presenting the Manitoba school case to the Vatican, will start for Rome to-morrow, for the second time, he and Mr. Fitzpatrick having fulfilled their mission a fortnight ago. Mr. Russell's present visit to the Vatican relates to the appointment of an apostolic delegate for Canada, which matter he and Mr. Fitzpatrick have already induced the Vatican to consider favorably.

DID THEY KILL HIM?

Second Mate and Crew of a Nova Scotia Vessel to be Tried in England.

London, Feb. 8.—The first and second mates and fifteen of the crew of the British ship George T. Hay, who were brought here from Rio Janeiro, on Jan. 3, charged with having caused the death of a seaman named Brostrom through ill treatment, will be arraigned for trial in the Winchester Court to-morrow. The specific charge against them is assault with intent to kill. The George T. Hay is owned by G. D. Spyer of Parrsboro, N.S., where

Some doctors are like owls. They look wise and talk wise but they don't think. In diagnosing disease they don't go back to the starting point. When a man gets sick, nine times out of ten his evident sickness is only a symptom of some hidden and long-neglected disorder. Most frequently the original and exciting trouble is a disordered digestion. If that is corrected nature will in the majority of cases do the rest. It is easy for a man to avoid sickness if he will keep a watchful eye on his digestion and resort to the right remedy the moment he feels himself out of sorts.

All disorders of the digestion are corrected by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It restores lost appetite, invigorates the liver, and fills the blood with the life-giving elements that build healthy flesh and firm muscles. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder, and nerve tonic. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. It cures wasting diseases and nervous troubles. It wards off disease of every description. Buy "Golden Medical Discovery" of reliable dealers; with tricky ones, something else that pays them better will probably be offered as "just as good." Perhaps it is for them; but it can't be for you.

"My wife has found great help from Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, as, when she takes cold from any cause it generally settles on her lungs," writes E. James, of Box 281, Brooklyn, Cuyahoga Co., Ohio. "The 'Favorite Prescription' we keep on hand all the time. It is a wonderful medicine. My wife has great faith in it. By being careful in the way we live and by using Dr. Pierce's medicines when we don't feel just right, we have had to call in a doctor but once in fifteen years."

A man can't either make money or enjoy life who suffers from headaches, and sleeplessness, and heart-burn. These troubles are caused by constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a sure, safe, speedy and permanent cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe. Dishonest druggists sometimes try to substitute inferior articles for the sake of profit.

MORE FIGHTING IN CRETE.

Great Excitement in the Chamber at Athens—British Warships and Greek Troops Ordered Forward.

Athens, Feb. 6.—The galleries of the Chamber of Deputies were filled with members and spectators when that body was called to order to-day, and intense excitement prevailed. Several deputies at once offered resolutions calling upon the Government to actively intervene in Crete in order that further massacres of Christians in that island might be prevented.

Premier Delyannis replied that the Foreign Office had received despatches confirming the reports that the city of Canea was in flames, and that many Christians there had been killed, and assured the chamber that the Government would do their duty in the matter.

British Warships for Crete.

London, Feb. 8.—Several British warships of the Mediterranean squadron have been ordered to proceed to Crete at once in view of the renewal of disturbances.

More Fighting.

Athens, Feb. 7.—A despatch from Canea to The Asty states that incessant rifle and cannon firing was heard outside Canea yesterday and to-day, and that the Turkish troops took part in the fighting, using artillery. Many Christians were killed. It is reported that the Christians have captured the arsenal at Suda. The Asty's correspondent adds that he saw Moslems pillaging the bankers' quarter in Canea and killing and mutilating Epirot bankers.

Later Reports

London, Feb. 7.—Advices from Canea, Crete, the scene of the disturbances between the Christians and Mussulmans, say that the city is quiet to-day, though the situation is still serious. The latest reports declare that there has been no massacre of Christians and that the fighting was less fatal than was supposed. The British Consul at Canea reports that thirty Christians were killed.

A despatch from Athens to the Central News says that the Greek Government has asked the Chamber to grant a credit of 100,000 drachmas to be devoted to the support of the Cretans who are fleeing to Greece owing to the disturbances in Crete.

Prince George, second son of the King of Greece, will command the Grecian torpedo fleet, which is in readiness to start for Crete.

The Standard's Athens correspondent telegraphs that sailors were landed from the foreign vessels in the harbor of Canea to prevent the entire destruction of that city by the incendiary fires that were started on Friday. The flames were not subdued until they had burned for 36 hours. The despatch adds that a number of Turks, aided by the troops, have marched to Hi-epa, which place is defended by Christians. With the exception of Canea, Rotimo and Heraklion, nearly the whole island is reported to be in possession of armed Christians, who were only awaiting a signal from Greece to proclaim the union of Crete with Greece.

A FARMER IN TROUBLE.

Grenville County Man Speaks his Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Feb. 1 (Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realizing great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

BUSINESS IN ENGLAND.

A Montreal Banker Says the Old Land is Prosperous — Canadian Credit Good.

Montreal, Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Mr. Erwin Hanson of the banking firm of Hanson Bros., St. James'-street, arrived home by the Majestic.

"In England trade is very fair," said the Montreal banker, "and the railway companies, bankers and shopkeepers have had a very good year.

"I should judge," he continued, "that the emigration agent would have a more arduous task now in Britain than for many years past, owing to the fact that the people over there are doing fairly well."

Continuing, Mr. Hanson states that general satisfaction is expressed at the recent signing of the Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty, and business people especially express the hope that it will be ratified by the American Congress.

"What about Canadian affairs?" Mr. Hanson was asked.

"There is a good deal of interest," he replied, "in financial circles over the probable fiscal and general policy of the Laurier Government. So far the new Government had done very little that would put them in bad odor with the imperial authorities or with the public mind of Great Britain. On the contrary, I find that a very good opinion prevails as regards Hon. Mr. Laurier, and when the Canadian Premier makes his visit to the Old Land, as the guest of the British nation he will be accorded a very hearty reception both from the Government and from the people of England.

"The mines of British Columbia are also the subject of very great interest on all sides, while the Crow's Nest road has become a live question amongst British capitalists and those who look for the speedy development of the Pacific Province."

Mr. Hanson also referred to another question which had been much discussed in London since Mr. Provand's return, and that is the Chignecto Ship Railway. There is a pretty general feeling, he says, that the Canadian Government, after pledging itself to the scheme, should see that it is carried out. "You will understand," he said, "that anything smacking of repudiation finds little encouragement in Great Britain."

Mr. Hanson's chief mission to England was in connection with the conversion of the Quebec city debt, which has had the very greatest success. So good, in fact, did the credit of the Ancient Capital appear in the eyes of the English bondholders that not one out of twenty-five wanted their money, but preferred instead to invest in the new issue.

"England," he concluded, "has the strongest faith in Canada and I believe she has also a greater faith in Canadian than American honor."

Dropping the "H."

The fine old English custom of discarding the initial "h" is said to be going out of use. Some writers are indulging in reminiscences of men to whose conversation it gave picturesqueness.

At the celebrated election in 1865, at which Mr. Gladstone lost his seat for Oxford University, his opponent was Mr. Hardy. The practice then (and for aught to the contrary it may be so still at a contested election) was for each elector to record his vote by word of mouth before tellers for each party sitting in the Convocation House or some other suitable place of meeting. The late Professor Henry Smith was acting as teller for Mr. Gladstone, when an uncouth country parson entered, and to the usual question for whom he wished to record his vote replied in confusion, "I vote for Mr. Glad—I mean for 'Ardy." "I claim that vote," quietly put in Professor Henry Smith. "No, no," protested the old clergyman, "I didn't even finish the name." "You didn't even begin the other," was the professor's dry retort.

A story is told of an eminent legal practitioner who was afflicted with a similar difficulty in pronouncing his aspirates many years ago. He had a particular dislike to a late learned Lord Chancellor, who had published a book upon hymns. Upon seeing his rival enter the court on one occasion he was heard to mutter: "'Ere 'e comes, 'umming 'us 'ymns; 'oly old 'umbug, 'ow I do 'ate 'im!"

Six Miles of Elk.

Wyoming's game warden is credited with the statement that the number of elk wintering in the Jackson Hole country is greater than for many previous years. A conservative estimate fixes the number at 30,000. They are on every hill and in every valley, and the night's sounds are most piteous from the crying of the calves lost from their mothers. Every morning thousands are seen traveling from the great swamps along the Snake river to the Gros Ventre hills. The game warden says:

"I recently gazed upon a sight which far surpassed anything I had ever seen, and it utterly astonished and amazed me. For a distance of six miles a herd of elk was stretched out. The animals had made a trail through the snow which was packed as hard as flinted ice. I know there were 15,000 head of elk in that band."—From Sports Afield.

CANCER CURED

LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

"THE BOYS." GOD BLESS 'EM.

THIS ARTICLE WILL BRING THE MEMORY OF MOTHER'S KNEE AGAIN.

Only the Proud Mother of a Lovable Lad Will Fully Understand, Though Its Subtle Thought May Indefinably Thrill Us All.

If you are only the mother of girls you really know very little about boys. The mother of boys is always a different kind of a woman to the mother of girls. She has absorbed a good deal of their vitality, is as wholesome as a fresh sea wind, and withal is a practical, calm, level-headed person, full of understanding of the other sex. She is always sighing for a little girl in the family—a dear girl who would trot after her and help her about the house, and be with her when the boys are out at play. I always think the mother of boys longs more for a little daughter than she who has daughters longs for a boy. Boys are so noisy, says the latter. The boy's mother loves the dear clatter of them. Her ear is attuned to their boot stampings and lusty bellowings, and her busy hand never tires cutting huge chunks of bread and butter for them. Of course the woman who is the lucky mother of both boys and girls is the all round happiest in her progeny. She has jam on her bread, so to speak. The girl is the jam. But jam wouldn't be much without the bread, would it?

He begins—the boy does—as supreme tyrant of the household. Everyone is afraid of him. Everyone toadies him. With calm and unconscious effrontery; he upholds the flag of tyranny and makes slaves of true Britons. We have done great things for liberty: we have forced Magna Chartas from truculent Johns; have chopped the heads off Kings and Personages; have broken up Parliaments and passed Reform bills, but in the very sanctuary of our homes we harbor a despot more powerful than all the Czars of all the Russias melted down into one magnificent Czar. No Czar of them all can equal in despotism King Baby. He makes hypocrites of the most conscientious and upright men, and saps the very foundations of morality by making virtuous people tell flagrant lies as to his beauty, his size, his weight, his general appearance. His aggrieved howl is a sign of "splendid lung power." His clawing gestures indicate latent histrionic talent: his imbecile grin and wild kicks at the middle button of your waistcoat point to his sense of rare humor. Nothing that he does is wrong, not even the wild chant with which he proclaims his nocturnal edicts, and insists on dragging his chief slave and bondsman—his father—from the depths of his cosy bed, to tramp wearily up and down in scanty garments that whirl in the breeze like distracted flags of truce, and will not be induced to shroud his shivering legs. "Sing, croon, pacify me," chants the despot in a series of piercing, chromatic scales, and the slave croaks deep lullabys, under the impression that he is soothing the despot into tranquil slumbers, till a wild and unfortunate shriek, like the harmony of ten argumentative cats rolled into one, proclaims the tyrant's displeasure with his bondsman, and resort is made to weird dandlings and pattings and prancings.

And later, when the tyrant is in short frocks, what liberties he is allowed to take! The most portentous chronometer is a toy for him to play with and try to eat as he gleefully stutters "tic, tic." He claws the tail of the unhappy cat whom he finds dozing by the hearth, and nobody pities the cat. Nay, if she but try in the most natural manner to defend herself by taking her velvet glove off for a moment and hitting out straight from the shoulder, what a "bad, bad" —(slap, slap)—"naughty pussy" she is. That dolorous shriek of King Baby when the cat scratches him, who has not heard it? Later again, when the despot begins to "gee gee" and "bow-wow," and hail every man he sees as "dada," how we fall down before his cleverness—was there ever anything like it? And his head! The size and shape of it! Brains, sir, brains!—that boy is going to be a great man.

And through it all—the boy's mother is bearing the eternal pangs of maternity. These never cease. The mighty pains of birth are the smallest of all. Side by side with every deep joy her boy baby brings, there lies some shadow of grief, anxiety, pain! What sorrow it is to wean him! It is the first growing away of her boy. That is a night of woe, that first night, when her arms are empty. There are no baby no longer. I think if strong men who are going to be cruel to a woman waited a second to think of the far time when all their home lay in the arms and on the breast of a woman they would be a little kinder. There are men everywhere who in their anger strike women—sometimes the blow falls on this tender and sacred place, and then the pain of the mere blow is lost in the anguish of the thought that it fell on the breast of a woman.

The second growing away of her boy from her is when she breeches him. His kilts are taken off, his long curls cut, and there he is with the first sign of his manhood upon him. It is a grieving time for a woman. I know how I grieved, crying indeed foolishly, the way women do, upstairs in the attic. He may grow strong and tall and lusty and all that a man may be, but he will always be a baby to his mother.

For this is the way with women. You will see very old women going regularly to the churchyard to "visit" a little grave long since covered with thick greenery. I knew an old, old creature who used to grieve over the grave of a boy who was dead before he was born—her first-born. Someone has said that one may well believe unhesitatingly in the divine when he has once watched a mother's face with a pure and discerning eye. The old woman who hears that her brave son —a bearded man long since—has been slain in battle will not think of him in the moment of her grief as a man grown. Her mind bents down the barrier of years. She will take from some secret place the little garments he first wore—his christening robe perhaps—like sweet Margaret Ogilvie did, or his little worn shoe or one-legged wooden horse. She will recall his pretty incoherencies as he clung to her breast that far time long past, and she will grieve for the baby that is dead, hardly thinking of the gallant bearded man who lies far away on the battle-field. Raphael understood what the holy maternal instinct means, and it has been said that you may hear your own heart beat as you face the Sistine Madonna, for the inner soul of divine womanhood is made manifest to you.

There comes the mischievous age when a boy is considered by those who know nothing at all about his royal nature—to be a nuisance. A considerable percentage of people look on a boy as a sort of dangerous animal who is always laying traps for you, always moving restlessly about; always destroying things and making a noise. Timid old ladies live in mortal fear of him. He is like a powder magazine to them. They never know when he will blow up the house with rockets, or set fire to himself or kill the cat. Well, anybody who cannot contentedly live in the midst of alarms had better shun boyhood. I have the greatest respect for the small boy. I used to fear him, but that was before I knew him. I remember five or six of him calling "Dudeen" after me the second week after my arrival in Canada—when my clothes were new —and how I blushed and stumbled as I ran from them. "Dudeen" was a fearsome and unknown title. What did it mean? That certain delicate and shy garments were revealing themselves? That one's placket-hole was gaping? That something desperate had occurred to one's back hair? I have been called worse things than Dudeen since then, for I distinctly heard an imp call me "Pie-face" one afternoon, but I had got on to the ways of boys by that time and merely laughed, which aggravated him sorely.

We women stand in danger of overpetting our boys, so if we are wise we send them away from us. A "coddled" boy always remains a puling puppy. Boys really like discipline when once their imagination is fired by it. So striving to do the best thing for him, we go through another deep grief, and pack a bright little trunk with a bright little outfit—a few very bright tears falling amid the sponges and brushes, maybe, and we take our baby and deliver him into the hands of the college principal. The boy is, that last day, a mere baby again. And your heart is breaking for all that you keep up so bravely and tell him to work hard and be a man and take his lickings when he has earned them. You are suffering far more than he is, indeed he is not suffering at all—the high-hearted rascal. He is taking his first lonely journey into the world—for school is the world in miniature—with his imagination full of the most delightful possibilities, full of the excitement of expectancy, of the highest spirits, and with implicit belief in his own ability to pull through every difficulty and hold his own "with the fellows." You begin to realize the injury your coddling would do to this brawny, manly, bright-eyed young creature who has always hated a command but welcomed a suggestion. To be sure you were his comrade, his play fellow always. You had your lessons together and your stories and your taffy-pulling. Your don't you think?" always carried further with him than your "don't do this," but you were spoiling him all the while. You couldn't teach him to fight. You thought him too sensitive. And what a pity it is to turn a high-hearted, fearless lad into a milksop who does not dare hold his own against youths who have had a harder training. To be strong and hard and plucky are the cardinal virtues in a boy's eyes. His heart will never be so stout in the after years as it is now. With what alacrity he will plunge into the wildest fight and stick to it till he wins or is "wiped out." Yes; you are doing the very best thing in sending your boy away from you to where he will be among his fellows and learn to give and take. Boys themselves have the best conception of what they ought to be. Let him work out his own salvation.

But when the moment of parting comes how wistful grows the lad's face? His small heart is full to bursting. You who know him as no other woman in all the world ever can know him, read his grief and his love in his large soft eyes, that at times take on all the gentleness of a girl's. He is bearing up bravely and you are fighting with a queer thing in your throat. He rubs his head softly against your sleeve, and strokes your hand all the way driving down to the station. (He never used to be so gentle), and he holds you that last supreme moment so closely and strongly that you feel quite suddenly that your son is grown up, and, in a new way, protecting his mother, then you step away quickly to the train, tearing your skirt as you mount up, and looking back you see a little figure you never before thought it was so frail—standing bare-headed beside the head-master, and a wild longing takes you to get all somehow and gather your boy in your arms and carry him off with you again. Perhaps there is no moment of her life when a woman comes nearer to being a heroine than when she stands calmly in and takes her lonely seat in the train that is bringing her back to a world that is very empty for her now.—Kit, in Toronto Mail and Empire.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. We wish to thank our customers for their patronage through the late season.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD
Are Fixed Upon South American Nervine.

Beyond Doubt the Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

WHEN EVERY OTHER HELPER HAS FAILED IT CURES

A Discovery, Based on Scientific Principles, that Renders Failure Impossible.

In the matter of good health temporizing measures, while possibly successful for the moment, can never be lasting. Those in poor health soon know whether the remedy they are using is simply a passing incident in their experience, bracing them up for the day, or something that is getting at the seat of the disease and is surely and permanently restoring.

The eyes of the world are literally fixed on South American Nervine. They are not viewing it as a nine-days' wonder, but critical and experienced men have been studying this medicine for years, with the one result—they have found that its claim of perfect curative qualities cannot be gainsaid.

The great discoverer of this medicine was possessed of the knowledge that the seat of all disease is the nerve centres, situated at the base of the brain. In this belief he had the best scientists and medical men of the world occupying exactly the same premises. Indeed, the ordinary layman recognised this principle long ago. Everyone knows that let disease or injury affect this part of the human system and death is almost certain. Injure the spinal cord, which is the medium of these nerve centres, and paralysis is sure to follow.

Here is the first principle. The troubles with medical treatment usually, and with nearly all medicines, is that they aim simply to treat the organ that may be diseased. South American Nervine passes by the organs, and immediately applies its curative powers to the nerve centres, from which the organs of the body receive their supply of nerve fluid. The nerve centres healed, and of necessity the organs which has shown the outward evidence only of derangement is healed. Indigestion, nervousness, impoverished blood, liver complaint, all owe their origin to a derangement of the nerve centres. Thousands bear testimony that they have been cured of these troubles, even when they have become so desperate as to baffle the skill of the most eminent physicians, because South American Nervine has gone to headquarters and cured there.

The eyes of the world have not been disappointed in the inquiry into the success of South American Nervine. People marvel, it is true, at its wonderful medical qualities, but they know beyond all question that it does everything that is claimed for it. It stands alone as the one great certain curing remedy of the nineteenth century. Why should any one suffer distress and sickness while this remedy is practically at their hands?

We know that Cod-liver Oil is a fat-forming food because takers of it gain rapidly in weight under its use and the whole body receives vital force. When prepared as in Scott's Emulsion, it is quickly and easily changed into the tissues of the body. As your doctor would say, "it is easily assimilated." Perhaps you are suffering from fat starvation. You take fat enough with your food, but it either isn't the right kind, or it isn't digested. You need fat prepared for you, as in Scott's Emulsion.

Condition of the Roads.

The farmers are complaining about the roads, there being not much sleighing and much less wheeling. If the present mild weather continues the sleighing will be gone entirely and the roads will be in a very bad state for traffic. Make Them Work.

Commissioner Wright, of New York, has laid a plan before the Mayor of that city for the establishment of a farm on Riker's Island as a sort of home for vagrant tramps. He is going to ask the Board of Estimate for $30,000 to build a house on the island and lay out a farm on which the vagrants can be employed. The idea is a good one. Every well regulated community should have such a farm. Compulsory labour would soon drive a large number of the fraternity out of the "profession."

This is to be a great year for the Cleveland wheel. Prosperity has made its manufacturers very energetic. The '97 Cleveland is a masterpiece. A. H. Stratton & Co., of the Peterborough Bookstore, have been appointed agents for the Cleveland for this district. If you are anxious to see the lightest, handsomest, strongest, swiftest and best improved wheel in the market, consult the live agents of the Cleveland.

Hypnotic Entertainment.

The Ferris and Salvail Company opened their week's engagement at the opera house to a fair-sized audience. The entertainment opened with a strong vaudeville bill. Mr. Tatlock in his song and clever dances was well received, especially in his long shoe dance. Frank Burt, the balancer, did feats that were wonderful and entirely new in this line of entertainment. Miss Belt Morrison sang some very catchy songs, while the sketch by Salvail and Morrison was extremely funny. Last on the programme came the great Ferris. It was hard to get a committee on the platform, but finally three gentlemen responded, and then the hypnotist tried to induce subjects to come on the stage, but none would respond, so he was compelled to use his own subjects. With these he accomplished some very wonderful feats—tests that were new and never before seen, such as piercing a subject with pins, and making the pulse run up and down at will. To-night all subjects used will be local subjects, taken from the audience. By request the sleeping subject was not put to sleep last night as several wished to see the test who could not be present, so it was postponed until to-night at 10.30, when the subject will start in upon a five days' sleep.

PETERBOROUGH DOWNS QUEEN'S BIG ATHLETES.

The Score was Five Goals to Four.

THE MOST EXCITING GAME OF HOCKEY EVER WITNESSED ON THE LOCAL ICE.

The Local Men Played a Superb and Faultless Game, and the Visitors Were Only a Shade Less Perfect—Peterborough's Great Defence Proved a Rock Upon Which Queen's Forwards Came to Grief Time and Again.

Almost a thousand spectators saw the Peterboroughs defeat Queen's hockeyists last night at the rink by the score of five goals to four. The game was the fastest and most exciting ever witnessed on local ice and the crowd shouted itself hoarse in applauding the brilliant plays which took place every minute.

By inflicting defeat on the visitors the Peterborough boys have earned for the town a place in the front rank of the hockey centres of Canada—nay of America, as the University team came to town with their inter-collegiate and international championship laurels still fresh on their brows, and the blow dealt them through their defeat also dims the lustre of their boasted record of being unbeaten in three years.

All honour then to our boys who through their grit and cleverness have brought such distinction upon Peterborough, as has placed the name of the town in the mouths of hundreds of thousands to-day.

When the seven brawny athletes from the Queens University came upon the ice, it could be seen at a glance that the local men would be greatly handicapped by the disparity in weight, their opponents apparently averaging about twenty pounds a man, the heavier. But through their grit and and staying power the Peterboroughs proved themselves the better team, the two sevens being about even on the other points of the game.

For the visitors Harty, Dalton and McLennan figured in every rush, the former playing a fast and thoroughly clean game. Curtis at point put up a fast game also, but his cross-checking drew down on him the disapproval of the spectators to an extent which caused them to see no merit in his otherwise almost perfect game.

Wasson in goal was a wonder and only once did a clean shot get past him, the puck being put through out of scrimmages on the other three occasions when Kingston scored. He made some beautiful stops at different times during the evening and without doubt can discount any goalkeeper who has yet come under the observation of the Peterborough public. In front of him was Montgomery, back in his old place at point, where he played a grand game throughout the evening. This is his proper position, without a doubt, and though he has proven himself a fast forward, yet someway the boys on the rush line don't play with half their accustomed confidence unless they feel that "Monty" is on the defence and sure of stopping anything which comes within reach of his stick. His bullet-like rushes, when he precipitated himself upon the Queen's forward line last night to break up a combination had to be seen to be appreciated.

Sam Adams played the game of his life, and anyone who is at all conversant with hockey topics, knows what that means. He played a game, the equal of which, even the Queen's man say, was never seen before. He skirmished around just behind the forward line—in fact almost dangerously far up the rink, but he had his reasons for so doing, as by this means he disorganized the Queen's famous combination, before it could get under way. The manner in which he anticipated the puck and broke up the rushes was incredible, unless witnessed. The plaudits of the crowd were bestowed upon him without stint, and he deserved it all and more. Cool, nervy and alert to seize every advantage, Sam is an ideal hockey player.

It would be hard to individualize in mentioning the forward line of the Peterboroughs. The work which they did last night was of the cleanest possible description and of the "chain lightning" order, as it had to be, to cope with their doughty antagonists, whose bodies as well as sticks had to be eluded, as with the exception of Ashe, the local rush line would have been strictly "out of it" if they had tried to win the game through rough play, the superior weight of their opponents being far too great to combat with any hope of success. Ashe, of Norwood, who is a member of the club, was played on the forward line, and his weight on centre ice was sufficient to deter any visitor from attempting to "body" him—although at the start one or two tried it to their cost. He played just the sort of a game that was needed—assisting in starting off a rush and then dropping back just behind the forward line, where his presence proved a strong factor in breaking up a Queen's rush, which would get into motion when their goal was relieved. At intervals during the evening he made some great individual dashes down the ice and once carried the puck right through, the visitors flags and score. His presence is a great strength to the team and his work will be even more effective on the larger ice which will have to be played on in Kingston.

King played his usual fast game and his ready stick was always in the right place at the right time to intercept the puck. Once he got the gypsum he knew what to do with it, too, and his shots on goal were always on the "red hot" order. Davidson and Belleghem both played "the game of their lives" and although they have done yeoman service for Peterborough time and again, they never showed up to better advantage than last evening. Their checking was close and the way they "stayed" with their heavier opponents is especially worthy of mention. The combination work which they evoked, with King, was by far the neatest and prettiest seen since Peterborough held the championship and the proud distinction of being unbeaten in four years.

The two teams lined up at 8.09 in the following order:

Peterborough.		Queens.
E Wasson	goal	Hiscock
W J Montgomery	point	Curtis
Sam Adams	centre point	Merrill
L King	forwards	Dalton
B Belleghem		McLennan
F Ashe		Harty
R Davidson		Brock
	umpires

Referee—Mr. Code, of Norwood.

As is usual there was little or no team work to be seen for the first few minutes after the game started and the puck was carried up and down the rink by individual rushes and scrimaged on centre ice for several minutes. The scrimage slowly worked down towards Peterboroughs flags and presently Dalton sent a bat lift through the crowd which found its way through the goal scoring the first point of the match for Kingston. Time, three minutes.

The next game started out with a terrific onslaught on the Kingston goal. Again and again the visitors relieved and attempted to work the puck down the ice, but Adams was on his mettle and seemed impossible to pass. King made a fine rush in but was stopped, and a moment after Harty came out of the scrimmage and dashed down the ice, only to be met by "Monty," however, and to be relieved of the puck. Adams and King got in some nice combination work and passed to Davidson, who shot well but did not score. After nine minutes of furious play the Kingston flags were relieved and the play transferred to Peterborough territory, when Dalton again tallied, making the score 2—0 in favour of Queen's.

Nothing daunted by the score which was being rolled up against them the Peterboroughs started in again harder than ever and some very fast play was witnessed, the rush line dashing into the fray with a vim which carried everything before it and kept the puck constantly around the visitors' goal. Curtis finally relieved with a long lift. Adams took the puck and dashed up into the Kingston defense where he passed to King, who eluded Curtis by passing to Davidson, the latter sending a bullet-like shot whizzing between the Kingston posts, scoring Peterborough's first game. Time, 4 minutes. Score 2—1.

Just after the beginning of the next game Harty was struck in the eye with the puck and had to retire for a few minutes. When play was resumed the Peterborough goal was hotly besieged and the visitors made a combined and desperate effort to score. Falling in this they relaxed for an instant and taking advantage of the pause the puck shot out and like a crimson streak, the famous forward line of the Peterboroughs went down the rink through the Queen's defense like a flash and a mighty cheer announced that Belleghem had evened the score on a pass from Ashe. Time, 14 minutes (inclusive of time lost on account of Harty being hurt). Score 2—2.

The feature of the next game was the neat passing of Adams to King and the number of rushes which the latter made into Kingston territory. So persistent were these onslaughts that the visitors dropped Brock back on the defense line. It was no use, however, Peterborough's blood was up, and encouraged by the cheering crowd, Belleghem rushed in and scored with a grand shot. Time, 4 minutes. Score, 3 2 in favour of Peterborough.

Half time was announced before the score was changed, and for the first time since the beginning of the match the cheering ceased.

The most noticeable feature of the next game was a fine rush made by Ashe. He failed to score, however, and Kingston then began to force the play with the result that McLennan scored in four minutes. Score, 3 3.

The excitement was now intense, and when King and Davidson, by a beautiful combination, worked the puck the whole length of the rink, the applause was deafening. The Queen's defence, however, interfered before a shot could be made, and the puck was sent whizzing far down the ice, where Montgomery gathered it in, and made one of his old time rushes up the ice, calling for a still louder burst of applause. A terrific scrimmage now ensued in front of the Kingston goal, but King eventually got a chance and forced the rubber through, breaking the tie and giving Peterborough a lead of one game. Time, 3 minutes.

Peterborough took the puck from the start off in the next game, and for a few minutes the shots rained like hail on the Kingston flag, but the fine work of the defence prevented a goal being scored. Harty came out of the melee with a rush, and evading the Peterborough defense dashed in on Wasson with not a man between them, but the bullet like shot was stopped, and a wild cheer showed that the crowd appreciated the play. Centre ice was now used for some time, as the rush lines in both teams were being checked too sharply to get away with the puck. The battle slowly surged down on the Peterborough goal, and three shots were made in as many seconds on the flags, and each one was successfully stopped by Wasson, who was once reduced to such extremities as to have to sit on the puck until relief came to him. Kingston, however, finally scored in 15 minutes, McLennan doing the trick. Score 4—4.

As the score was now a tie, terrific efforts were made by both teams to tally what would in all probability be the deciding game. The rally made by the visitors and the home boys was a desperate one and a little roughness cropped out at times and Curtis had to be warned to exercise more discretion in this respect. However, no ill feeling was displayed and the excitement waxed higher than ever, every trick and manœuvre known in hockeydom was brought to bear to secure the coveted goal. After eight minutes of the fastest play of the evening, Ashe made a determined dash for the visitors' flags and brushing the defence aside like men of straw went through everything but the end of the rink and and scored for Peterborough amidst a scene of the wildest enthusiasm.

A few minutes later the whistle was blown for the end of the match, which was thus won by the score of five goals to four, after the hardest and gamest fight in the hockey history of this town.

Sour

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine." MRS. MORE MINING MACHINERY.

Shipped by the William Hamilton Company to the Golden West.

The excellent quality of the machinery produced by the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company results in a demand which is very flattering to the work and resources of the establishment.

Last Thursday the Company shipped to the Lillooet, Fraser River and Cariboo Gold Field Liability (Limited) of Illecillewaet, British Columbia, two pairs of their celebrated "Boss" Turbine water wheels. Each pair, set in steel cases, is to work together on a horizontal shaft. Along with this shipment was sent the necessary steel piping to be used in conveying the water from the head race to the water wheels. One pair of these wheels is to be used for electric lighting purposes, and the other pair for driving an electric power generator, which will be employed to operate a concentrating mill, which the above company has erected on their valuable property at Illecillewaet. It is gratifying to know that there is a probability of the resources of this enterprising manufacturing concern, the Hamilton Company being taxed in filling orders for mining machinery or machinery for purposes directly allied to mining.

A CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

Nuptials of Miss Catharine Callaghan and Mr. Thos. Twomey.

This morning, at the Cathedral, Ven. Archdeacon Casey performed the marriage ceremony between Mr. Thomas Twomey, of Ennismore, and Miss Catharine Callaghan, of Otonabee, daughter of the late John Callaghan.

As both the bride and groom are well and favourably known in Peterborough, where they have hosts of friends, the church was well filled.

The bride was most handsomely gowned in a dress of chameion blue with garniture of silk velvet and pearls and wore a hat of the same shade with trimmings of white, osprey tips and pearl ornaments.

The bridesmaid was Miss Norah Devlin, of Otonabee, who wore a very pretty suit of Balemos, trimmed with silk velvet with hat to match.

The groom was supported by Mr. Jeremiah Twomey, also of Ennismore. A large number of most valuable presents were received by the young couple. The EXAMINER desires to extend the most hearty congratulations.

SIXTEENTH [illegible] MEETING.

Of the Peterborough Presbyterial Society W.F.M.S.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterial Women's Foreign Missionary Society convened this morning in St. Andrew's church.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Neil F. MacNachtan, Cobourg, the chair was taken by Mrs. J. K. Smith, Vice-President, of Port Hope.

The session was opened by the singing of a hymn, after which Miss Forsythe, of town, read a portion of the Scriptures and prayer was offered by the presiding officer.

Mrs. J. G. Potter, of town, welcomed the visiting delegates in terms of the utmost cordiality, after which reports were received from the various auxiliaries and Mission Bands in connection with the Society. On the whole the reports were most pleasing and satisfactory, signifying an increased interest and attendance with a proportionate increase in the voluntary contributions.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

President—Miss Gilchrist, of Baltimore.
1st. Vice-President—Mrs. Sutherland, Warkworth.
2nd Vice-President—Mrs. J. K. Smith, Port Hope.
3rd Vice-President—Mrs. J. G. Potter, Peterborough.
4th Vice-President—Mrs. Stewart, Peterborough.
Corresponding Secretary—Miss Martha Dickson, Peterborough.
Recording Secretary—Miss Helen J. Craik, Port Hope.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. K. Craik, Port Hope.

The following delegates were registered at the morning session:—Mrs. D. Sutherland, Warkworth; Miss Jessie Milan and Mrs. S. Stickles, Hastings; Mrs. R. Curle, Mrs. T. Rutherford, Miss Winnie Govan, Mrs. Warwick, Campbellford; Miss Greer, Centreville; Mrs. Alex Mathieson, Norwood; Mrs. John Hope, jr., Westwood; Mrs. R. K. Scott, Mrs. J. K. Smith, Port Hope; Miss Christina Shand, Vernonville; Mary R. Gilchrist, Baltimore; Isabel Jameson, Grafton; Mrs. Wm. M. Graham, Lakefield; [illegible] and Mrs. J. K. Craik, Port Hope.

This evening [illegible] meeting will be held when [illegible] will be delivered [illegible] programme rendered. [illegible]

COMING TO ONTARIO.

The William Hamilton Manufacturing Company to Furnish the Required Sawmill Machinery.

The Holland & Emery Lumber Company of East Tawas, Michigan, one of the largest operating lumber firms in that state, which owns extensive tracts of pine lands in Ontario, have decided to remove their large plant from Michigan, to Byng Inlet, in the Parry Sound district. The firm has discovered that it will need a large quantity of new sawmill machinery. After making extensive inquiry as to prices and quality of work, the firm decided to visit Peterborough personally, and the result of their investigation here is that they have placed their order with the Wm. Hamilton Company, a practical evidence that the company is able to give better satisfaction than other establishments in similar lines. "A good name is better than riches."

Prominent Business Man of Peterborough cured of Eczema.

Mr. Thos. Gladman, bookkeeper for Adam Hall, esq., stove and tinware dealer, Peterborough, writes the following facts:—"Have been troubled for nine years with Eczema on my leg, and at times the itching was something terrible; tried many eminent doctors and was pronounced incurable. I had given up hopes of ever being cured when I was recommended by Mr. Madill, druggist, to try a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am happy to testify that after using two boxes I am completly cured.'

The various kind of fish from sea and lake are carefully inspected and sold on a guarantee of being in perfectly sound condition. Prompt delivery of all orders ensured by entrusting them to J. B. OKE & Co. Telephone 304.

THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

The Importance of Promptly Reporting Cases of Ill-Treatment.

The agent of the Children's Aid Society, Peterborough, found, on reaching Young's Point, yesterday, where he went to investigate a case reported to the society, found that the agent of the Colborne Children's Aid Society, acting under instructions from the Government superintendent, Mr. J. J. Kelso, and armed with a warrant, had arrived previously and taken the little girl away. It seems strange that people are so much afraid of giving information in cases of this kind that they will allow ill usage to continue for a long period, as had been done in this case. In this respect the visiting committee system seems to be susceptible of great improvement. A local society must have information before it can take action, and it is contrary to the spirit of the Act that a child should suffer a long course of cruel ill-treatment before the circumstances are brought to the knowledge of the local society. It would seem that persons having knowledge of such cases of ill-treatment, and failing to report them, are to a certain extent responsible for the continuation of the ill-treatment, for, at once such cases are reported, action is taken and relief afforded.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Rink Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

It is probable that the return match with Queen's University in Kingston will be played on Friday next. Quite a crowd will accompany the team to the Limestone City to witness the match.

The Wellingtons come from Toronto to play off in the Junior series on Thursday next, and the team which will go up against them will be composed of the first mentioned of the appended seniors:

Dixon	goal	Wasson
McRae	point	Montgomery
Toorne	cover point	Adams
Graham, H King, Wak, Crossley	forwards	Davidson, Lefevre, Bellegham, King

The above mentioned players will practice to night, when the seniors will make an effort to get the juniors into shape for contest.

The Globe says: The Wellingtons of Toronto, will have to go to Peterborough after all, the O. H. A. Executive having decided that it would be only fair to the team of that place that the game should be played there. The city champions have accordingly accepted the inevitable, and on Thursday night will do their little utmost to beat the husky Peterborough lads. The Executive thought that as both [illegible] intermediate matches have been played in the rink, and it had [illegible] it was certainly large enough for [illegible] to disport themselves on. Good [illegible] was brought to bear on Messrs. C. A. B. [illegible], A. Cleveland and A. H. Beaton, but they would not back down from their pastige. A protest from Peterborough II against J. Marty, who played with the Frontenacs, was not considered as it was not accompanied by the necessary amount.

CURLIANA.

The following draw has been made for the Innes medal in the Granite division:

H M Allen	vs	J H Conoal
T P Attrill	vs	W D Parker
Dr Boucher	vs	G W Hatton
Judge Weller	vs	Geo Edmison
D W Dumble	vs	R S Davidson
R M Dennistoun	vs	E B Edwards

It is desired that these matches be brought off as soon as possible.

Three rinks of curlers are coming down from Lakefield to try conclusions with teams of the Granites to-morrow afternoon.

GOLDWIN SMITH AND NOVEL READING.

Strong Condemnation of Sensational "Swill."

Among the causes of the increase in lunacy, especially among women, may surely be reckoned intemperance in novel-reading. It is astonishing how this morbid appetite has grown. To satiefy it a deluge, mostly of swill, flows in vast and ever-increasing volumes from the press. One light almost wish there was no such thing as copyright, if the effects of it is to foster the manufacture of sensational novels. The writers, whose name is legion, and of whom not one in a dozen has any real genius for fiction, are forced to have recourse to all sorts of factitious stimulants in order to excite the interest which they cannot excite in a legitimate way by skill in weaving a plot and depicting character. They drag in politics, social problems, religion or irreligion. When every other sort of condiment has been exhausted, they season with the red-pepper of immorality. Such reading, when it becomes a constant habit, must produce its effects as certainly as rum-drinking. Eschew this trash, which is made only to sell at the expense of your good sense, of the purity of your affections, and of your rational beliefs. Keep up your Dickens. His costume and manners may belong in a measure to the last generation. He may offend the prohibitionist by his rather frequent introduction of liquid refreshment. But he is a man of genius, not a literary mechanic manufacturing shoddy goods for sale. Though he carves in strong relief and sometimes carieatures, he is fundamentally true to human nature, and he is always generous and genial. He can always give you a hearty laugh and sometimes he draws a not bitter or unsalutary tear. His morality is perfectly pure; never does he rake in the sewer for the materials of a sensation. He makes you forget your cares, and he makes you love your kind.

LINES

WRITTEN ON THE DEATH OF THE LATE MARY A. CROWE, RELICT OF THE LATE FRANCIS CROWE, HALL'S GLEN, WHO DIED JANUARY 2ND, 1897.

Oh, friend forever loved, for ever dear,
How many tears have bathed her honoured bier.
What sighs re-echoed to her parting breath,
As she struggled in the arms of death.

Could our tears stop the tyrants course,
Could youth and virtue stay his fearful force
She would still have lived before our sight,
Her children's honour and her friends' delight.

O, who can justly fill her former place,
Impart her image to another face;
Alas! no form on earth so like her own,
Can supply the want of a mother's hand.

But should we dare to call her down
To this world of sorrows, this naught but frown,
When her fleeting, gently wavering spirite
Has winged its way, its heavenly flight.

No more will she return to earth,
But we must up and follow her,
And this world with all its sin,
A celestial hearth and home to win.

May the dear family left behind,
A loving friend in Jesus find,
That they may join her up above
And wholly rest in Jesus' love.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Wm. Warner, of Asphodel, has Her Leg Broken.

Mrs. Wm. Warner, of Asphodel, met with a serious accident the other day, while driving from her home to her son's, Mr. R Warner. Just after leaving the main road, and going down the lane to the house, the horse took fright and ran away. Mrs. Warner was thrown out of the rig and in the fall her leg was broken just above the knee, and her face badly cut. Her son, who was some distance away, heard the racket and saw the horse running, and came to her assistance as quickly as he could. She was taken to her own home and Drs. McNaughton, of Westwood, and Ford, of Norwood, were summoned, and set the broken leg. Mrs. Warner is 69 years of age, and for some time has been suffering from heart trouble, so much so that the physicians dare not administer chloroform. She, however, went through the ordeal with much patience and is doing nicely. The cutter is a complete wreck.

Baby Eczema and Scald Head.

Infants and young children are peculiarly subject to this terrible disorder, and if not promptly arrested it will eventually become chronic. Dr. Chase made a special study of Eczema and disease of the skin, and we can confidently recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure all kinds of Eczema. The first application soothes the irritation and puts the little sufferer to rest.

QUARANTINE AND THE CATTLE TRADE.

The Mail and Empire has tried, says the Brantford Expositor, by proxy, to question the utility of the agreement to mitigate the stringency of the international quarantine system. For this laudable purpose it publishes the opinions of Thomas Crawford, M.P.P., a hard-shell, old-fashioned, unthinking, believe-as-you-are-told Conservative, and those of Mr. James Eakins, another well-known cattle buyer, feeder and exporter. It is instructive to the farmers who raise the cattle in which these men deal, to note the ground of their complaint. They do not allege that the relaxation of the quarantine has endangered the health of Canadian herds, but they hint that it has lessened the number of cattle fed in Canada. Now, every farmer knows that he can easily raise to a certain age far more young cattle than he can feed. Heretofore many of these "stockers" have been shipped to Britain by Toronto and Montreal buyers, after being partly fed by them. The note of dissatisfaction sounded by two of these buyers is that the opening up of the Buffalo market will make it harder to procure "stockers" for feeding and exporting purposes. Why? Simply because those raised by the farmer will be more in demand in the United States. In short he will have practically a new market from which he has been debarred by quarantine as well as customs duty. Now he will find the worse of these two obstructions abolished, thanks to the practical knowledge and diplomatic tact of the Ministers of Agriculture, Messrs. Fisher and Dryden.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE present stand of parties in the House of Commons gives the Liberals a straight majority as against the Conservatives of 39. There are now 120 Liberals, Conservatives, 81; Patrons, 3; Independents, 4, and vacant seats 5. Last session the Patrons and Independents acted with the government. If they should continue to do so the Liberal Government would have a majority of 46 on a division, or if the rate of success at the last bye elections should be manifested the Government would capture 3 of the vacant seats, making the government majority 49—or giving them half of the Independents and Patrons, 46 of a straight Liberal majority—quite enough to permit an honest government, such as the present, to carry out its progressive platform.

THE EXAMINER has received the first number of "The Economist," a monthly journal devoted to insurance, banking, mining, industries, and trade and commerce. It is very neatly printed in bold, clear type, on good strong paper, and has a general air of solidity. It contains a number of well-written articles covering the special fields in which it operates. It's articles seem to be well considered and conservative in tone, which is something very much needed when the spirit of boom in connection with mines is in the air. The Economist appeals strongly to its constituency, and should, one would think, receive a liberal support. The extent to which it enjoys business confidence is shown in the very large advertising patronage bestowed upon the initial number. HOW MANY EGGS A HEN CAN LAY.

This is an interesting point, and one about which many conflicting statements are heard. Of course some breeds are much better than others, and so no statement can be exact. But a French writer of considerable repute says that the ovarium of a fowl is composed of six hundred ovals or eggs, and consequently a hen cannot lay more than six hundred eggs in her whole life, and, in a natural course, these are distributed over nine years in the following proportion:

First year after birth	15 to 20
Second year after birth	100 to 120
Third year after birth	120 to 130
Fourth year after birth	100 to 115
Fifth year after birth	60 to 80
Sixth year after birth	50 to 60
Seventh year after birth	35 to 40
Eighth year after birth	15 to 30
Ninth year after birth	1 to 10

This table shows the largest number of eggs in the third year; yet many of our poultry writers tell us that it is a mistake to keep hens after they are two years old, as they are then past the best laying period.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on with increasing suffering until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs directly feminine. Over thirty years ago the need for a reliable remedy for so called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now chief consulting physican to the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotal at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

THEY HAVE 6000 MEN.

Bahia Fanatics are Growing in Numbers, and the Outlook is Not Very Peaceful.

New York, Feb. 8.—The Herald's correspondent in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, telegraphs that the fanatical insurrectionists, under Conselheiro, have now 6000 well-armed men, organized and concentrated in Bahia. The people in the rural towns are helping the fanatics with arms and money. Where this help is not given the vengeance of Conselheiro's band falls upon the settlers. In this manner more than 60 rich plantations have already been destroyed.

The Government has been informed that several foreigners have joined the fanatics and are pushing forward a more scientific military organization among them. Two small towns were pillaged and burned by the fanatics yesterday. In several skirmishes with the Federal troops the latter were defeated. The fanatics have obtained steam launches, and now patrol the rivers and streams in the districts where they are strongest. In this way the range of devastation committed by them is extended, and the utmost terror prevails in that region.

The press of Rio Janeiro demand that the Government immediately send a much stronger force to Bahia to overcome the fanatical movement. The Society of Spiritualists of Rio Janeiro has sent a commission to Bahia to attempt to convince the fanatics that it will be well for them to submit to the Government in temporary matters.

It is again charged by the press of Brazil that the enemies of the Republic are the instigators of the outbreak.

Three Distinct Lines of Work.

HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

When you want to dye cotton or mixed goods a deep and lasting black, use only Diamond Dye Fast Black for Cotton and Mixed Goods; fast and permanent as the rock of Gibraltar.

For dyeing over goods and garments that are all pure wool, if you wan a handsome and fast black, use only Diamond Dye Fast Black for Wool; a dye unequalled for strength, purity and brilliancy of shade.

For dyeing silk and feathers a beautiful and lasting black, use only Diamond Dye Fast Black for Silk and Feathers. This is a new dye prepared specially for the work, and when used according to the simple directions gives the most perfect satisfaction.

For the three lines of dyeing just mentioned see that your dealer gives you the proper dye for the work, and see that each package bears the name "Diamond."

Our People, Farms, Stock and Products.

OVER FOUR HUNDRED ACRES EACH

If a Distribution of Land Were Made Among the People—How We Stand in Regard to Religion—The Houses We Live in—Ottawa News.

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—There was issued from the Printing Bureau to-day the fourth volume of the census of 1891. It is a bulky book of 570 pages, and is possibly the most interesting of the volumes so far published. It deals with immovable property, field products, animals and animal products, various farm products and products of the forest. Then there is a vast amount of information about industrial establishments, with comparisons for the years 1881 and 1891. A comparative statement of industries in cities, towns and villages is also given.

The summary statements relating to the population are most interesting. Canada is shown to have 439.1 acres of land to a person, while the unoccupied area of land is 430 acres to a person. The proportion to the total acreage by provinces is as follows: Ontario 6.5, Quebec 4.7, Nova Scotia 0.6, New Brunswick 0.6, Manitoba 1.9, P.E.I. 0.1, British Columbia 11.5, and Territories 71.4.

The following figures represent the kind of houses the people live in: Wood 81.5 per cent., brick 15.5 per cent., stone 3.0 per cent.

The percentage of population by provinces is: Ontario 33.9, Quebec 30.7, Nova Scotia 9.3, New Brunswick 6.7, Manitoba 3.1, P.E.I. 2.3, British Columbia 2.0 and the Territories 2.0.

The table relating to the civil conditions of the people shows that there are for the Dominion 5.6 persons to a house, 5.2 persons to a family, and one family to a house. The percentage of houses in Canada having one storey is 61.5, two storeys 33.6, three storeys 2.5 and four storeys 0.4. Out of every thousand in the population there are 509.1 males and 490.9 females; 328.6 are married, 39.7 widowed and 631.7 children and unmarried. The proportion of French Canadians is given as 290.7 per thousand.

The various religious denominations are represented in Canada by the following proportions per thousand of the population: Roman Catholics 412.2, Methodists 175.6, Presbyterians 156.2, Church of England 133.7, Baptists 82.9, Lutherans 13.2, other denominations 27.7, and not specified 18.5.

The places of birth of the people per thousand are given as follows: Born in Canada 806.0, in Great Britain and Ireland 99.6, in other British possessions 2.6, in the United States 16.8, in Germany 5.8, in Scandinavia, Poland and Russia 3.6, in China 1.9, in France 1.1, in other countries 2.5.

The urban population in 1891 was 28.7 per cent., and the rural 71.3 per cent.

Divided into two classes of age the population showed the following results: Under 20 years 46.60 per cent., over 20 years 53.11.

United States papers on the Pacific Coast are once more handling the Alaska boundary question, pointing out the alleged disagreement between the Canadian and American surveyors and the possibility of friction before an agreement is reached. All this talk is mere guess work. A comparison of the two surveys show that at Forty-Mile Creek, Fort Cudahy, the largest settlement on the Yukon, the 141st meridian, the international boundary as run by the American surveyors only shows a difference of six feet from that defined by Mr. William Ogilvie, the well-known Canadian surveyor. At another point, where there are neither miners nor population, there was a difference of 600 feet in the two surveys, but in this case the United States gave Canada exactly 200 yards more territory than Mr. Ogilvie did. All along where the line has been run the difference is so small comparatively that it is thought in official circles here there will be very little difficulty in reaching an agreement.

The Journal has a very sympathetic reference to the late Patents Commissioner Pope, who died yesterday and was a native of Toronto. It says: "In addition to his enlightened and far-seeing views of the place the mineral wealth of Canada held in any plans for development of his country, Mr. Pope had patriotic views of what constituted duty to the land of his birth. When, in the last days of November, 1861, Captain Wilkes of the United States steamer San Jacinto boarded the British Royal mail steamer Trent and forcibly carried off Messrs. Mason and Slidell, Commissioners of the Confederate States, great was the excitement throughout the United Kingdom. Canada and the United States [illegible] demonstrations on a large scale were indulged in all over the Northern States. Within a month a firm despatch from the British Government was in the hands of the President in Washington. English troop and mail steamers were carrying soldiers to Canada. Halifax and St. Andrew's and Woodstock, N. B., were full of troops hurrying by forced marches in the winter through New Brunswick to Quebec and the martial spirit of Canadians was aroused at the very earliest information of the outrage. Mr. Pope at once saw the needs of the hour and organized the Quebec Volunteer Rifle Association, thus showing the Imperial authorities, at a time when it was most wanted, that the sympathy of Canadians went out to them in the trying time. In his official life those who came most closely in contact with Mr. Pope speak warmly of his unvarying urbanity and kindliness. His administration of the various public offices showed him to be an honest, active, painstaking public officer. The civil service owes him a debt of gratitude for preparing the case of the service in the cause of Leprohon v. the City of Ottawa, on assessment of the civil service incomes. In private life he was ever a true gentleman, hospitable, courteous and considerate. A large circle of friends will warmly sympathize with Mrs. Pope and the family in their hour of sad bereavement."

Little Bear, the Cree chief, was busy at the Department of Indian Affairs to-day. Little Bear is the son of the famous chief, Big Bear. On the return of the Crees from Montana last year Little Bear was arrested for complicity in the rebellion, but was acquitted for lack of evidence against him. Naturally he is very anxious to know the scope of the proposed amnesty, and it is for this reason chiefly that he is now in Ottawa.

The Venerable Archdeacon Phair of Winnipeg, secretary of the English Church Missionary Society, is here in the interests of Indian missions in the Northwest, of which he is superintendent. He had an interview with Mr. Sifton to-day.

John Tolmie, M. P. for West Bruce, is in the city, and had an interview with the Premier.

TARIFF ENQUIRY.

Winnipeggers are Not All of One Mind—Farmers Want Wheat and Flour Protected

Winnipeg, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—At the opening session of the Dominion Tariff Commission here to-day the elevator men made a demand for the reduction of the duty on gasoline, claiming that with gasoline power they could operate the elevators at a cost of one cent per bushel, as compared with two cents per bushel for steam power. They said the farmers would get the benefit.

Dairymen asked that the duty be taken off cream separators, which could not be manufactured in Canada.

The deputation of the wholesale fruit dealers of Winnipeg asked that American fruit be admitted to Canada free. They declared that after repeated experiments it was found absolutely impossible to import to Manitoba either Ontario or British Columbia fruit, the one item of apples alone being excepted.

The Northwest Patrons of Industry, through their president, J. K. McInnes, demanded tariff for revenue only, and vigorously condemned the policy of protection.

R. H. Williams, President of the Regina Board of Trade, on behalf of that body, asked for the abolition of the duties on wagons, cotton, coal oil, agricultural implements and other articles used by settlers.

At the afternoon session J. H. Ashdown, ex-president of the Winnipeg Board of Trade, dealt with the duties on hardware and building materials, urging reductions.

F. W. Thompson, manager of the Ogilvie Milling Company, adduced arguments in support of maintaining the duty on wheat and flour in the interest of farmers as well as millers.

A farmers' delegation presented a largely signed memorial declaring it would be disastrous to take the duty off wheat and grain.

Another delegation asked that the duty on pig iron be maintained also the bounty of two dollars per ton.

The tariff inquiry goes on to-morrow morning. A delegation of forty representative farmers, one from each Manitoba electoral district, will then be heard.

A convict named Jones suicided at Stony Mountain Penitentiary, hanging himself with a pair of braces.

The full court has refused the final application of counsel for the Liberals to extend the time for the Marquette election trial, and Dr. Roche is confirmed in his seat.

Prominent Winnipeg business men tried to beat the Chicago wheat market. They lost many thousands of dollars. Now they have had Messrs. Beech and O'Brien, through whom they operated, arrested for breaking the laws in respect to gambling. The case is likely to be very interesting.

GOT THE ICY SHOULDER.

Don M. Dickinson Says the United States Commissioners Were Coldly Received in Victoria.

San Francisco, Feb. 8.—Don M. Dickinson, chief counsel for the United States in the pending international enquiry into the amount of damages due to British sealing vessels on account of seizure by United States cutters in Behring Sea, arrived here last night from Victoria, B. C.

When the United States commissioners first appeared in Victoria, said Mr. Dickinson, they were looked upon in their official capacity with very great disfavor. The witneses introduced to give testimony favorable to the side of the United States were tabooed and were generally made to feel that they were very unpopular with the people of Victoria. But, notwithstanding all these disparaging conditions, the United States commissioners were able to bring out all the facts they wished to establish. This antagonistic feeling in Victoria was one of the very important factors.

It is estimated that 15 per cent. of the total business capital of Victoria is invested in the ocean sealing business. Those primarily interested are all sailors and men engaged in the marine business, but their success and their misfortunes have an effect upon the whole community, particularly when it comes to taking sides in an international controversy.

In private social life Mr. Dickinson found the people of Victoria most courteous and entertaining.

INJURY AND NEGLECT.

He Failed in Health and Strength—His Kidneys Ached and he Took Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Deseronto, Feb. 8. — (Special). — Among business people here, and especially by his fellow workmen, great interest has been taken in the case of Mr. James Stokes, who for the past fifteen years has been shipper for the Rathbun Company.

Lately he has run down in health and strength to the point of being compelled to quit work, and his recovery now as the result of using Dodd's Kidney Pills is the talk of the town. On seeing Mr. Stokes he said:

"From overlifting and strain I suffered greatly from Kidney trouble, being advised after all else had failed to use Dodd's Kidney Pills; from the first dose I got relief, and hundreds of people here can vouch for my cure."

BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

Foreign Minister Hanotaux Says the International Act Holds.

Paris, Feb. 8.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, M. Hanotaux, Minister of Foreign Affairs, replying to a question by M. Deloncle, regarding the effect of the Franco-Russian memorandum, said that nothing had been done to change the international situation in Egypt as founded with the accord of the powers. France, he said, was held by the international act, which it was impossible for any power to invalidate.

M. Hanotaux, continuing, said he did not desire to engage in any polemics between Parliament and Parliament (French and English) which might cause regrettable misunderstandings. The declarations made by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the English House of Commons, would not tend toward a solution of international questions. England had accepted the position of defending her case before the mixed tribunal, and why should Sir Michael Hicks-Beach discredit that tribunal, which had the approbation of Europe? Would England have protested, he asked, if the verdict of the tribunal had been favorable to her?

The incident was closed.

BRITISH GENERAL DEAD.

Sir Wilbraham Oates Lennox Passes Over to the Silent Majority.

London, Feb. 8.—General Sir Wilbraham Oates Lennox is dead. General Sir William Wilbraham Oates Lennox, K.C.B., V.C., was born in 1830, entered Royal Engineers in 1849, became captain in 1857, major in 1863, lieutenant-colonel in 1869, colonel in 1867, major-general in 1881, lieutenant-general in 1888 and general in 1893, retired 1895; served in Crimean campaign in 1854-56, in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857-58, was present with the German army in the Franco-Prussian war, 1870-71, was military attache in the Turkish army in Bulgaria during the Turko-Russian war, 1876-77, commanded the garrison at Alexandria 1884-87, and the troops at Ceylon in 1887-88, and was director-general of military education in 1893-95.

HONOR TO NANSEN.

The Arctic Explorer Lectures to the Big Bugs—Reporters Badly Treated.

London, Feb. 8.—The Royal Geographical Society held a reception to-night in Albert Hall in honor of Dr. Fridjof Nansen, the distinguished Arctic explorer. Sir Clements Markham, the president of the society, presided, with the Prince of Wales sitting at his right hand and the Duke of York at his left.

Dr. Nansen delivered a lecture describing the voyage of the Fram and telling of his adventures in the far north. He said that the object of his expedition was not to discover the North Pole, but to explore the unknown region in its neighborhood.

Upon the conclusion of the lecture the Prince of Wales presented to Dr. Nansen a special gold medal voted to him by the Geographical Society. The recipient expressed his thanks for the honor accorded him.

The audience was a most exclusive one. Despite the enormous capacity of the building the members of the press were ill-provided with facilities for reporting the lecture, and there is a very strong suspicion that it was not desired that the newspapers should have a verbatim report. All of the arrangements were of a "hole-in-the-corner" character, and the general public is resenting the manner in which Dr. Nansen's agents and publishers are reserving his explorations. Dr. Nansen's reception compares badly with that accorded to Henry M. Stanley upon his return from Africa. The conduct of the explorer's campaign here gives the impression that the object of the expedition was simply to make money, and that the benefit to science was a small consideration, especially as Dr. Nansen has declared that he will not go on another expedition.

M'VEAGH'S BALL.

The U. S. Minister to Italy Entertains Italian Royalty and Nobility.

Rome, Feb. 8.—A grand ball was given this evening by Wayne MacVeagh, the American Ambassador, and Mrs. MacVeagh, at their residence, the Palace Piombino. There was a large assemblage of guests. Among them were King Humbert, Queen Margherita, the members of the Cabinet, the diplomatic corps, all the prominent members of Roman society and a number of Americans who had previously been presented to Queen Margherita at a soiree.

The MacVeaghs will leave Rome upon the expiration of the Ambassador's tenure of office, and the ball was given as a formal adieu to Rome, and as a slight return for the marks of esteem shown to them during their three years' residence here.

Great Britain's Trade.

London, Feb. 8.—The returns issued by the Board of Trade for January show an increase in imports of £1,501,812 and a decrease in exports of £1,384,114 during that month, as compared with those for January, 1896.

DEATH OF MR. FAUVEL.

The Liberal Member for Bonaventure Taken Off by Typhoid Fever at Paspebiac, Quebec.

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—The Premier received a telegram to-night, announcing the death of one of his stalwarts, in the person of Mr. Fauvel, M. P. for Bonaventure, which occurred at his home at Paspebiac, Que. Only yesterday Mr. Laurier learned that Mr. Fauvel was seriously ill from typhoid fever, from which he succumbed to-day. The deceased, who was a Protestant, was popular with both parties, as he was by no means a strong partisan. He was a Jerseyman by birth and prided himself on being an ardent Britisher.

IRON AND STEEL TARIFF.

The Ways and Means Committee Increases the Duty a Fraction—It is to be 1 1-2 Cents a Pound.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee held another session to-day, which was devoted mainly to the consideration of the iron and steel schedule in the new Tariff Bill. A slight increase was made in the duty on tin plate, which is fixed in the present law at 1 1-3 cents a pound. The manufacturers have asked for a rate of 2 cents a pound, but the committee felt that 1¾ cents a pound would be a sufficient protection and the duty was placed at that figure.

In the McKinley law the duty was fixed at 2 2-10 cents a pound. Iron ore, pig iron, bar iron and steel rails were left at the present rate.

A tentative agreement was also made with reference to cotton ties, which in the new bill will pay 1 1-10 per cent. additional to the rate imposed on the iron from which they are made.

NIMROD FROZEN IN.

Steamer Sent to Look for the State of Georgia in Trouble Herself.

St. John's, N.F., Feb. 8.—The steamer Nimrod, which went out in search of the missing steamer State of Georgia, is frozen in an ice floe five miles south of Cape Race. Two of her crew came ashore over the ice to-day to report that the Nimrod had found no trace of the missing steamer. The Nimrod steamed 170 miles off the coast and searched the ice floes north, but without avail. The general opinion that the State of Georgia has gone down with all on board is strengthened by the report from the Nimrod.

IT IS ALL TALK.

Yes, but it is Norwood Talk—The Kind That Tells in Norwood.

Talk that tells.
Talk that is endorsed.
Every day talk by people that know.
City talk.
Kidney talk.
Do the kidneys talk?
Well, yes, both loud and long.
You are learning the kidney language.
Backache in kidney language means kidney ache.
Lame back means weak kidneys.
Weak back means weak kidneys.
The kidneys are talking trouble.
Here is some Norwood talk:

Mr. George Taylor, well known in Norwood, has this to say about Doan's Kidney Pills:—

"For a great many years I have been a sufferer from kidney disease. Terrible pain in my side and back made my life a burden. The urine was a dark wine colour, and I was greatly troubled with frequent urination. My sleep was destroyed because of this annoying trouble.

"I have taken scores of medicines, but could get no relief, and thought that I would never be cured. Happily I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. C. Moffatt's drug store, and have continued their use for one month.

"I am thankful to say as a result that they have fixed me up. I feel like another person. I do not now have to get up at night, and in fact am entirely cured.

"I think they are the grandest medicine ever placed before the public, and I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney [illegible]."

Next on the Program!

This store is an habitual record-breaker! Stock-taking has just been completed, and we are pleased to be able to say that the past year's business has been satisfactory. Each year breaks the record of its predecessor, and we are encouraged with the promise of still greater things.

But this store never rests on its past successes! We hold great bargain-making power, and are going to use it to your advantage.

HARBINGERS OF SPRING!

We are now in receipt of large consignments from New York, personally selected by Mr. Fair. The spring merchandise now rushing in fairly discounts everything in the past. "It's Fair's Way."

Special values will bring people here in spite of themselves, and down-right money saving will encourage you to continue to stay with the Golden Lion.

There is an air of elegance in our new goods, and when our new stock is completed we can pride ourselves on having an unrivalled stock, to be sold on the easiest terms ever offered in Peterborough.

Such a business as ours speaks for itself. There is a spirit of discontent in some quarters; opposition puffs out an odor of "hurt feelings" in almost every breath. We hope others are busy—we know we are. Like Browning's gypsies, it must be disheartening

"To go on with the grinding,
Up and down and nobody minding."

But this is an unusual store—different from others. Fair keeps his word and respects it.

Stock-taking is all over now, with the balance in our favour. That means something! There's more to this business than brag and bluster. When we say a thing we mean it, and when we mean it we stick to it. It's a satisfaction to know that shoppers are in line with the kind of store we keep, the kind of goods we sell, and the terms on which we sell them.

Talk It Over With Your Wife.

Every woman knows how to economize to pay for clothing the family. Few men succeed in saving money without a wife's help.

You need'nt wait to order your Suit for yourself or boy till you can save money enough to pay the whole amount down. The man who can only save small amounts can pay weekly, and get good honest clothes to wear when our prices are so very low.

If every man waited until he could save large amounts, there would be very little saving done and very little business done either. Comfort, prosperity and savings come in little bits.

LATEST CABLE NEWS

Cretan Troubles Showing a Rather Serious Phase.

FIGHTING BEGUN BY CHRISTIANS

The Greek Government Thinks the Time Opportune for Taking Possession of the Island—The Anglo-French Affair Apparently Quieting Down—Notes From Europe.

Athens, Feb. 9.—The Greek cruiser Hiaoluis has started for Retimo, where the Mussulmans have occupied the Christian quarters and are pillaging the stores and houses. Three thousand Turkish troops have been concentrated at Salonica in readiness to embark for the Island of Crete, but the Steam Navigation Company refuses to convey them to their destination until the money for their passage is paid.

Christians the Aggressors.

London, Feb. 9.—Private and official advices, and private letters from English officers, show that the troubles in the Island of Crete are undoubtedly caused by Greek agitators, and that the Christians are the aggressors. The Greek Government, believing that the end of the Ottoman Empire is near, thinks it opportune to carry out the long desire to annex the Island of Crete. Public officials here and on the Continent regard the situation as serious and threatening the peace of the whole of Europe, owing to fears of a collision between Turkey and Greece. In which case it is doubtful whether the entente of the powers could be maintained. The papers everywhere urge the powers to bring pressure to bear on Greece in order to prevent her further aggravation of Turkey.

It is announced to-day that Turkish warships and transports have left Constantinople for the Island of Crete, and that in spite of the advice of his Ministers and of the ambassadors, the Sultan favors the despatch of troops, and repressing the troubles by force.

A Significant Order.

London, Feb. 9.—A despatch from Athens to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the official gazette published a royal decree ordering all of the available Greek warships to be put into commission immediately, and requiring several of them to be sent to Crete, with the least possible delay.

Details of the Fight.

London, Feb. 9.—A despatch to The Times from Canea says: "The immediate cause of the outbreak here was the news of the troubles at Heraklion. Before dawn one half of the Mohammedans had left the town, and great numbers fired upon Galata and other villages. The Christians descended from the mountains in strong force, and during the next two days there were incessant conflicts around Canea in which the Christians appeared to have had the advantage. The efforts of the consuls and bishop to pacify them failed, and the Mohammedans, whose anger had been aroused to the utmost, found themselves unable to continue their expedition into the country. The excitement among the Christians of Canea increased, but the first fighting in the town was on Thursday. It began with desultory shots, and in a few moments became general and incessant. The shooting continued until dark. Among the victims were Turkish soldiers, but the troops under great provocation behaved excellently."

Nothing Heard in London.

London, Feb. 9.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. George N. Curzon, Under Foreign Secretary, said that nothing had been heard by the Government of the formation of a provisional Government in Crete. It is reported here that the Greek flag has been hoisted at Retimo, and that order at that place is rapidly being restored.

Athens, Feb. 9.—A despatch from Canea states that the union of Crete and Greece was proclaimed at Halepa Sunday. It is possible that a Cabinet crisis may follow the popular manifestation made here Sunday in favor of the annexation of Crete.

War Almost Inevitable.

Berlin, Feb. 9.—A large number of the German newspapers, in their comments on the Cretan situation, declare that war between Greece and Turkey is almost inevitable.

Must Have Order First.

New York, Feb. 9.—A special to The Herald from St. Petersburg says: A sensational panic occurred on the Bourse yesterday, which gave rise to all kinds of false rumors of a political nature.

The Bourse here has been weak for the past fortnight, especially in Caucasian naphtha—Nobel and Baku—on which so much speculation takes place here. On Saturday the Bourses of Berlin and Paris were weak. Yesterday's panic here is the contrecoup of these weaknesses, the trouble here being that the market is always sensitive, owing to its being small and speculators not having facilities given to settle "on time," as in New York and London and other exchanges, and being called upon to put up much larger margins. The slump is, it is said by a financial expert, purely local. Business in general is not affected and is just as good as before. Russians understand thoroughly the scheming intrigues worked through Athens. The semi-official suggestion coming from Vienna, that the powers should hold Greece responsible for the rising for the moment meets with considerable approval, as it is recognized that Greece, for her own selfish ambition, does not hesitate to endanger the peace of Europe, that peace of which Russia and France are champions.

In regard to the Cretan question, the Novoe Vremya thinks that no reforms can be applied until order is restored.

The Glasnost is of the opinion that the signal for the rebels in Crete was given from the Yildiz Kiosk.

The Novosti says the same scenes will occur whenever an attempt is made to apply reforms in Turkey.

MORE MODERATION.

The French Press Talk More Reasonably About the Egyptian Dispute.

Paris, Feb. 9.—The Paris newspapers are now beginning to discuss the Anglo-Egyptian situation with more moderation than they have hitherto observed. The Soleil says: "England does not heed the vain protests of France, knowing that they will not be followed by results. Let us, therefore, utilize the territories which France already possesses."

The Dix Neuvieme Siecle says: "Diplomacy is useless unless France makes up her mind to enforce her claims by a resort to arms."

CHANDLER GOES DOWN.

The Forger From Toronto Pleads Guilty and Gets Five Years.

London, Feb. 9.—John Chandler, a clerk, who gave himself up to the police on Dec. 28 last, and who was committed for trial on Jan. 26, charged on his confession with forging bills of exchange on S. F. McKinnon & Co., of Toronto, and others, pleaded guilty today at the Central Criminal Court, Old Bailey, and was sentenced to five years' penal servitude. A list of his forgeries, all for sums exceeding £200, was presented by counsel for the London Bankers' Association.

Muravieff Is for Peace.

Berlin, Feb. 9.—The Berliner Tageblatt announces that while in Berlin Count Muravieff, Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, declared that his chief aim would be to preserve European peace. He would regard it as a matter of the greatest misfortune should Russia become involved in a war with any other country, either alone or in conjunction with any other of the powers. Count Muravieff, it is asserted, said that if Russia was ever obliged to declare war he would resign the same day.

Madras People Protest.

Bombay, Feb. 9.—The Viceroy of India, the Earl of Elgin, has given his sanction to Madras being made a port of departure for pilgrims en route to Mecca. The citizens of Madras, however, have entered a vigorous protest. The plague is increasing here, at Karachi, and at Poonah.

Mr. Chamberlain is Better.

London, Feb. 9.—Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, who is confined to his bed with an attack of gout, is somewhat better to-day.

Ironclads for Spain.

London, Feb. 9.—It is reported that the English shipbuilding firm of Armstrong's are about to sell to Spain, with the permission of the Chilian Government, two ironclad warships now under construction in Armstrong's yards upon the order of Chili, and which are nearly completed.

Mr. Jones Will Act.

Rome, Feb. 9.—It is announced that Mr. W. S. Jones, United States Consul-General here, will represent the United States at the International Conference, which is to be held at Venice to consider means of preventing the spread to Europe and America of the bubonic plague, now raging in India.

The Kaiser Urges Unity.

Berlin, Feb. 9.—The National Zeitung says that, in conversation with members of the Reichstag at a dinner given by Dr. Miquel, Prussian Minister of Finance, last evening, the Emperor urged the union of Conservatives and National Liberals in the Imperial Legislative body as the only means by which great national undertakings could be achieved. Among the undertakings the success of which was eminently desirable, the Emperor mentioned that of the increase of the effective strength of the army and navy of Germany, which he warmly advocated.

Russian Strikers Rallied.

Moscow, Feb. 9.—A strike among the operatives in the cotton mills at Serpukhof, 58 miles south of this city, has resulted in the killing of several of the strikers. The operatives became riotous yesterday, and a detachment of Cossacks was sent to the town to restore order. Upon their arrival they attacked the strikers, and several of the latter were killed. The situation in the town, which has extensive manufactures of woolen, cotton and linen goods, is serious.

Mr. Sexton Will Stay Out.

London, Feb. 9.—Thomas Sexton (Anti-Parnellite), formerly member of the House of Commons for the north division of Kerry, who resigned his seat last year, has written a letter declining to re-enter Parliament. Mr. Sexton says: "I am still convinced that the Irish party must have better discipline before anything worth laboring for can be obtained from the House of Commons, even for the most palpable grievances of Ireland."

First Mate Guilty.

London, Feb. 9.—To-day's proceedings in the trial of the first and second mates of the British ship George T. Hay, who, with fifteen of the crew of the vessel, were brought here on Jan. 8, charged with causing the death of a seaman named Brostrom by ill-treatment during the voyage of the ship from Mobile, Aug. 24, 1896, to Rio Janeiro, where she arrived Nov. 22 last, resulted in the conviction of the first mate, Fraser, who was found guilty by the jury of having inflicted unlawful punishment upon Brostrom. The court postponed sentence upon Fraser until the completion of the trial of the second mate and the fifteen seamen, which will take place to-morrow.

The Angloman Ashore.

London, Feb. 9.—The British steamer Angloman, which sailed from Boston Jan. 30 for Liverpool, is ashore on Skerries Island, in the Irish Sea. Assistance has been sent to her. The ship will probably be a total loss. All on board were landed in safety. The Angloman was a steel screw steamer of 4892 gross and 3036 net tonnage, 403 feet 5 inches long, 45 feet 6 inches beam and 25 feet deep. She was built in Laird's yards at Birkenhead in 1892, and owned by the British and North Atlantic Steam Navigation Company of Liverpool.

Sugar Barque Burned.

London, Feb. 9.—The British barque Mark Curry, Captain Liswell, in port at Iloilo, Philippine Islands, for Delaware breakwater, has been burned at her wharf. She had on board a cargo of 1200 tons of sugar.

Twelve Men Killed.

London, Feb. 9.—Through the collapse of the scaffolding of the viaduct of a railway in Cornwall, twelve men fell 150 feet, and were killed.

EDWARD FENTON'S DEATH.

All Evidences of Foul Play Obliterated by the Fire.

Shelburne, Ont., Feb. 9.—The adjourned inquest on the death of the late Edward Fenton was held this evening in the Town Hall by Coroner Norton. The only evidence given was by Dr. Barr, who held the post-mortem examination. The Doctor's evidence did not throw any light upon the cause of Fenton's death. The body was charred beyond recognition, nothing but the trunk remaining, the arms and legs having been burnt off. The brain, lungs, stomach and liver were so affected by the fire that not much could be learned from them. If Edward Fenton met his death by foul play, then the fire most effectually covered up the tracks made by the atrocious fiends. The inquest is again adjourned at the request of the Crown, until Monday, the 22nd inst., at 7 o'clock p.m., when it is most likely another batch of witnesses will be examined.

LUMBERMEN ARE HIT.

Strong Delegation Lobbying at Washington to Block the $2 Duty.

Alpena, Mich., Feb. 9.—Great interest is being felt here regarding the lumber tariff question, and it is hoped the committee sent to fight the $2 duty will be successful. In an interview with all prominent lumbermen they are unanimous in saying that a retaliatory log duty means the shutting down of Michigan mills. They declare the McKinley schedule sufficient for protection.

Up in Arms.

Detroit, Feb. 9.—A Washington special says: The corridors of the Capitol were unusually lively to-day through the lobbying operations of about 40 active lumbermen. The "All-American" crowd is using matter like the following telegram received by Congressman Bishop this morning: "If Huron shore lumbermen continue to oppose a $2 duty on rough lumber we insist on a duty on Canadian logs. Please notify the Michigan lumbermen, now in Washington, of our position in this matter."

This is signed by John Canfield, Filer & Sons, Manistee Lumber Company, McKillip & Hopper, Eureka Lumber Company, Hope Lumber Company, Louis Sands, Buckley & Douglass, Canfield & Wheeler, Union Lumber Company, R. G. Peters' Salt and Lumber Company, Mitchell, Son & Hanson Lumber Company, Sailing, Hanson & Co., Canfield Salt and Lumber Company, J. A. Jameson Lumber Company, S. Babcock & Co. and E. N. Sailing. These signatures representing millions in Western Michigan will array that side of the State against those on the east side, who have millions invested in Canada, and the warmth of the battle between the contending forces is expected to increase at a big rate unless the Canadian operators quit. They show no signs of doing so at present, and it will not be surprising if the lobby is materially strengthened here.

Col. Ililes and his committee, representing Canadian lumber operators, feel somewhat as if they had been hornswiggled by the "All-American" people. They say the understanding given them was that they would be in plenty of time to show up their case before the Ways and Means Committee if they got there yesterday. On arriving, however, they found that the lumber portion of the tariff bill is practically agreed upon, that a big lobby is here to oppose them, and that they can get no congenial opening held out by the Ways and Means Committee to make a showing. The committee is going right along with other schedules. The "All-American" fellows are button-holing members on every corner urging the $2 rate on hemlock, yellow pine, basswood, etc., as well as on white pine.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on with increasing suffering until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs directly feminine. Over thirty years ago the need for a reliable remedy for so called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now chief consulting physican to the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

DIED AT HIS TABLE.

While Enjoying His Evening Meal Mr. Christopher Fox of Thamesville Breathed His Last.

Thamesville, Ont., Feb. 9.—Christopher Fox, one of the oldest residents of Thamesville, and at one time a prominent business man of the village, died suddenly to-day while seated at his table enjoying his evening meal. The only other occupant of the house at the time was his son, a boy of 16 years, who immediately called a neighbor, and then ran for a physician, but death had taken place before the latter arrived, and apparently without a struggle. Dr. Stewart, coroner, investigated the circumstances, and decided an inquest unnecessary.

Politics Alleged in Civic Matters.

Collingwood, Ont., Feb. 9.—Last night the Town Council met in the Council Chamber, but the attendance of citizens was so large that they had to remove into the court room. It had been rumored that the Conservatives, who have a majority in the council, were going to apply the spoils system to municipal matters. The event proved that the rumors were well founded, for every official of Liberal politics was summarily dismissed from the employment of the corporation.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. We wish to thank our customers for their patronage through the late season.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA

A Strong Delegation From British Columbia.

THEY WANT A RAILWAY CHARTER

The Proposed Road to Run From Burrard Inlet and Tap the Mining Districts —Who Will Get the Maxim Guns?—Hon. Mr. Fisher is a Busy Man—Notes.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—There was a great influx of British Columbia politicians to the Capital this afternoon. Among them are Senator T. R. McInnes, his son, Mr. W. W. B. McInnes, M.P. for Vancouver district; Dr. G. L. Milne, Liberal candidate for Victoria at the last election, and Rev. G. R. Maxwell, M.P. for Burrard. They are here to urge the Government to assist them to secure a charter as well as substantial aid to the Vancouver, Victoria and Eastern Railway and Navigation Company, which purposes to build a line from Burrard Inlet through the great mining camps of Fairview, Rock Creek, Camp McKinney, Boundary Creek, Kettle River and East and West Kootenay, to the eastern boundary of British Columbia. The deputation say that mining development is going on in Southern and Eastern British Columbia and has reached gigantic proportions. New leads have sprung up and are springing up every year. Thousands of people are now residing in this great mineral and agricultural country, and their numbers are increasing with unsurpassed rapidity. Thousands of mines have been located and new discoveries are being made every day. They claim, however, that, owing to the lack of railway communication with the coast cities of British Columbia, the development of this country is greatly retarded, as the agricultural lands cannot be opened up nor the enormous deposits of ores be developed without transportation facilities. They are therefore here to urge the construction of this railway in order that Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster may be placed within easy reach of the great mining camp. Last year the promoters of the railway came to Ottawa for a charter, but were refused it by the Railway Committee, as at that time Dr. Milne, who is now with this deputation, opposed the application on the ground that a syndicate of which he was one of the chief promoters—the Burrard Inlet and Fraser River Co.—had a charter over this particular route. Since that time the two companies have amalgamated, and will make a united attack upon the Government for aid. The deputation is to have an interview with Mr. Blair to-morrow.

In a certain sense this road may be regarded as a rival to the Crow's Nest Pass line, although the promoters disavow any opposition to the latter project. Dr. Milne told your correspondent that all that British Columbia wanted was that if Kootenay country is to be tapped from the east by a railway line through the Crow's Nest, thereby giving eastern cities access to Northern British Columbia, the coast cities also desire that they should have equal facilities for sharing in the trade of the mining district by simultaneous construction of a line from Burrard Inlet.

The Department of Militia has under consideration the best means of disposing of fifteen Maxim-Nordenfeldt guns, which have just arrived from England. The desire is to make as effective a use of them as possible. Six or seven will be kept in stock for emergencies, the remainder allotted to city corps. Permanent corps will first be instructed in the mechanism and handling of these guns, and then from the permanent corps an instructor will be assigned to such city corps as may desire to secure a Maxim. As there will not be sufficient guns to give one to each city battalion, it will depend upon the interest which different corps manifest in learning the uses of the Maxim as to whether or not one of these guns be assigned to them. Regular courses of instruction will be given, with competitive examinations founded thereupon, and on the results the Maxims will be allotted to the different battalions.

The Free Press says: "Report has it that a motion will be introduced next session with the purpose of endeavoring to cause trouble in the Government ranks (over the school question). It will affirm the principle of Remedial Legislation, and is specially designed to arouse feeling among the Liberal members who voted in support of the Remedial bill at last winter's session."

Hon. Mr. Fisher has returned to the city and will be here continuously now until the session. He is now looking into the question of reorganizing the patents branch of his department. He is satisfied that it will be in the public interest if some changes are made in the classifications. Under existing conditions, if the examiners devote the time and research which is desirable before reporting on any new invention, they will not be able to handle the business that is continuously pouring in. There are in the neighborhood of 400,000 Canadian patents, and these will have to be revised, and printed lists made up at the Government Printing Bureau. Five thousand dollars will cover the additional expenditure.

The Finance Department has received a letter from a resident in the United States, in which a cheque for $15 is enclosed as conscience money. The writer says that he was engaged in doing work for the Government in the Northwest Rebellion and defrauded the Dominion revenue to the above extent. When he did so he was not aware of the real extent of the evil which he had committed. Since then he became converted, and is now a Christian. The letter is not marked private, and the name and address of the writer are given. He occupies a prominent position in one of the cities of the American Republic, although he was working hard for a small salary during the Northwest Rebellion in 1885.

An appeal has been entered in the case of Bell v. Ottawa Trust Company, a dispute between the heirs of the late Peter McRae and his partnership creditors, as to the disposition of $34,000 of insurance money. Mr. W. L. Scott, Master-in-Chambers, in deciding on the case, allotted three policies amounting to $11,000 to a surviving child, and five policies, amounting to $22,000, to the creditors. He ruled that as the five policies did not definitely name Mrs. McRae and children as the heirs, and as there was no clause in the last will, disposing of the money, other than to the executors and administrators, the money should revert to the creditors.

Rev. Father Lacoste, O.M.I., Professor of Theology in Ottawa University, has received official notification of his appointment as a member of the Roman Academy of Letters at Rome. This academy was founded by Pope Leo XIII. in 1880, and is composed of only thirty members, ten of whom reside in Italy. Rev. Father Lacoste is the only member of the academy in America. He studied in Rome, and it is because of the manner in which he then distinguished himself as a scholar that he has had the present honor conferred upon him. Official presentation of the parchment will take place at the University on March 7, by Archbishop Duhamel.

There have been numerous requests of late for improvements to the mail facilities in the Lake of the Woods and Rainy River mining districts, and the Postmaster-General, while anxious to meet the views of the mining community, has decided that an improved service cannot be given under the existing appropriation. The routes are expensive, especially in winter, therefore he will ask Parliament to vote a specific sum for the purpose.

BUFFAL OCATTLE MEN REJOICE

Because They Can Now Get Good Canadian Beef Without the Quarantine Obstruction.

Buffalo, Feb. 9.—The cattle dealers of Buffalo and vicinity are jubilant over the abrogation of quarantine of Canadian cattle, which went into effect Feb. 1.

The act passed by Congress a year ago requiring all importations of cattle to be held in quarantine 90 days, proved detrimental to the live stock interest of Buffalo. In fact, Canadian consignments became very few.

A member of the firm of Woltz, Hughes, Swope & Benstead stated that it had been more profitable for Canadian breeders to fatten their stock and ship it to England than to allow it to remain in quarantine 90 days at their expense. Continuing, he said: "Last Monday we received 40 cars of horned cattle from Canada, the largest shipment that has been received here under the new law." The major part of this shipment was for stocking purposes, and 20 carloads have been shipped as far west as Wilmington, Ohio, something never before heard of. All this goes to show that the live stock market of the United States is at present very low. American breeders have told me that if they could secure cattle they could fatten them with but little expense, as they now have on hand hundreds of bushels of corn going to waste for the want of cattle to feed.

At the East Buffalo yards business is brisk, as buyers are coming here from all parts of the country and the new regulations will not only prove a benefit to the shippers and consigners, but to the consumers.

INJURY AND NEGLECT.

He Failed in Health and Strength—His Kidneys Ached and he Took Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Deseronto, Feb. 8. — (Special). — Among business people here, and especially by his fellow-workmen, great interest has been taken in the case of Mr. James Stokes, who for the past fifteen years has been shipper for the Rathbun Company.

Lately he has run down in health and strength to the point of being compelled to quit work, and his recovery now as the result of using Dodd's Kidney Pills is the talk of the town. On seeing Mr. Stokes he said:

"From overlifting and strain I suffered greatly from Kidney trouble, being advised after all else had failed to use Dodd's Kidney Pills; from the first dose I got relief, and hundreds of people here can vouch for my cure."

Maid of Boston, Ere We Part.

Maid of Boston, ere we part,
Give me forty rods the start!
As the human frozen freak
I'll get thirty plunks per week.
Trees quit growing where you lean.
You're a patent ice machine!

By that lip of frigid ice,
By that accent—oh, so nice!
By that pose of cold hauteur,
By that petrifying "Sir-r-r!"
By those eyes of glassy sheen,
You're a patent ice machine!

When I've sat an evening out,
I've had Emersonian gout.
Since I heard your voice so dear
I've had chilblains on each ear.
By the brown bread and the bean,
You're a patent ice machine!

Maid of Boston, by thy side
I'd be soon solidified.
Though I fly to Ispahan,
I'll be a rheumatic man!
You're too cold for me, my queen!
You're a patent ice machine!

Brantford After the Meet.

The cyclists of Brantford are working with a vengeance for the '97 meet. Peterborough cyclists are in favour of Brantford "by a large majority."

Come to Sleep.

Last night, at the Opera House, Hypnotist Ferris put a young man from Belleville under the mesmeric influence and he will not awaken until half past ten Saturday evening. Several of the town physicians were present to watch the operation and as the doors of the Opera House are open night and day the medicos are dropping in at intervals to take notes on the wonderful result of the perfection to which the power of mesmerism has been reduced. No charge is made for those wishing to witness the experiment and during the day hundreds took a look at the sleeper, whose respirations are even and regular and who apparently has no feeling whatever as pins thrust into him up to the hilt have no effect whatever. The vaudeville show in the evening is ahead of anything in that line which has yet been seen in Peterborough and the performances are drawing big crowds nightly.

OPENING THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.

Hon. Mr. Laurier's Conditional Acceptances of the Invitation—He Appreciates the Honour.

Mr. Geo. E. Elliott has received the following reply to an invitation to open the Peterborough Central Exhibition next fall, extended Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, by Messrs. Elliott, Yelland and Anderson, representing the society, the town and the county, respectively, as President, Mayor and Warden:

Ottawa, Feb. 6th, 1897.

Geo. E. Elliott, Esq., President Peterborough Central Exhibition, Peterborough, Ont.

MY DEAR SIR,—I have your favour of the 30th January, whereby I am informed that the Peterborough Central Exhibition Society and the Corporation of Peterborough, town and county, do me the honour of inviting me to be present in Peterborough next autumn, and formally open the Peterborough Central Exhibition. While much honoured by such an invitation, and while much inclined to accept it, I could not, at such an early date, in view of the public duties that may be pressing upon me next fall, give you a formal answer now, but let me assure you that should I find my way to accept later on, I will have much pleasure in doing so.

Please accept for yourself and all those who have joined you in tendering me this kind invitation, my very sincere thanks.

Believe me, my dear sir,
Yours very sincerely,
WILFRID LAURIER.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Preparing for the Meeting on Feb. 23rd.

The local prohibition committee that have in hand the arrangements for the plebiscite convention to be held on Feb. 23rd, are getting everything in good shape for that day. The convention will assemble in the Y.M.C.A. hall at 2 p.m. for the purpose of organizing, and it is earnestly hoped that prohibitionists and temperance workers will turn out in large force so that it will be a representative meeting from both town and country. The evening mass meeting will be held in the George street Methodist church, when it is expected all the resident ministers of the town will be on the platform, and some prominent temperance workers from outside as well. Let all who want to see the cause of temperance prosper turn out and make both meetings a success.—COM.

The farmers are complaining about the roads, there being not much sleighing and much less wheeling. If the present mild weather continues the sleighing will be gone entirely and the roads will be in a very bad state for traffic. THE WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

OF THE PETERBOROUGH PRESBYTERY IN SESSION.

The Secretary's Presbyterial Report and the Financial Statement in Full—The Tuesday Afternoon and Evening Sessions.

The afternoon session of the Presbyterial Society was opened with devotional exercises, Mrs. Sutherland, of Warkworth, giving a Bible reading and Mrs. J. K. Smith, of Port Hope, led in prayer on the subject of "All our branches, that they may fully realise their responsibilities and that every member may become imbued with the spirit of service."

Mrs. W. M. Graham, of Lakefield, then read the following most comprehensive report as secretary:

How very short a time it seems, my dear friends, since our last report was presented, and yet a year has passed—a whole twelve months have gone into history, and we come once more with the regularly-recurring presentation of facts and figures, clothed in a garb of words. Solomon has said that "A man's gift maketh room for him and bringeth him before great men," and we to-day have abundant proof of the truth of his words, inasmuch as our small gifts have made room for us in this beautiful church, and among the kindest and most hospitable of friends, with the privilege of seeing and hearing one who has one of the highest and most responsible offices in the gift of the W. F. M. S., who has won the confidence and esteem of all her fellow-labourers. We have also the additional privilege of meeting one of our Omnipotent King's ambassadors at a foreign post in the far east. Let this suffice of all that might be said in support of the Wise Man's words. There remains only for us to realize the vastness of the range of our privileges as servants and heirs of the Most High, and the stupendous responsibility that attaches to our avowed discipleship.

Once more we draw from Solomon's storehouse of good things: "The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart and a good report maketh the bones fat," and we are glad to be able to report good work done and good service well rendered. But our retrospect, though from many points of view gratifying, is not altogether soul-satisfying, for while there is the testimony that the faithful members continue true and earnest advocates of the work, there are others who are more or less indifferent, as is shown conclusively in reduced forces; therefore, while we may be thankful for what has been achieved, we must not congratulate ourselves that we have attained the height of our possibilities. And now, craving the indulgence of those to whom these reports seem "flat, stale and unprofitable, we shall endeavour to give you briefly some idea of the work done by our branches, so far as it is given our limited conception of results to interpret it to you.

In early June a semi-annual meeting was held in Centreville, at which interesting papers were read and helpful discussion participated in. A memorable feature being an address at the evening session by Rev. J. Fraser Smith, M. D., late of Honan, China, but now Chaplain of the volunteer forces at Mhow, Central India. The exceeding kindness and large-heartedness hospitality of the people of Centreville to their guests called forth the warmest expression of satisfaction and will long be held in joyful remembrance. Though the tearful clouds wept copiously, all were agreed that the meeting was most enjoyable and profitable in spite of the downpour.

MEMBERSHIP.

We regret that there has been a falling off, though not so great as would seem by comparison with the figures given last year, for it was afterwards learned that some secretaries, not quite understanding the "Hints" sent with the blank forms, had inadvertently given slightly inaccurate returns. The consequence was that the membership was in reality 677, and not 704 as reported. You would see the correct figures in the Blue Book. This year, however, we think the figures are more strictly accurate than at any time since the record system of returns came into use, and we are obliged to report a shortage of 91, which is about equally divided between Auxiliaries and Mission Bands. Four Auxiliaries and two Mission bands report an increase in members; four Auxiliaries and one Band remain the same; while the other 21 Branches are more or less reduced in numbers, and this fact we must deplore. Our total membership this year is 588, of which 127 are members of Mission Bands, 169 are members of the general Society, of which number our Mission Bands give us 3, and 4 are new life members. Of the latter, two come from St. Andrew's Auxiliary of town, one from St. Paul's, and one, Miss Greely, from the Ellenogwan Branch, who was made a life member by her friends in her ninety-first year. Our general Society membership is 7 less than last year, and while on this head we might call attention to the fact that there are 6 Auxiliaries and 5 Mission Bands that have no members of the general Society. This irregularity has been explained so often that it is painful to go into it again, and yet it is necessary to have all our Branches constitutionally sound. The whole Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Western Division is known as the General Society, and its annual meeting, which is held every April, is the same as the great gathering held in St. Paul's church, last spring. I need hardly tell you that only those who are members of that Society, are entitled to vote at its annual meeting, or are eligible for office in it, but you may have noticed that the presidents of all Auxiliaries and Branches are vice-presidents of the General Society. Is it not then reasonably clear that in order to be qualified for the office of vice-president, each president must be a member of the General Society, and consequently every Branch should have at least one such member? Those Branches which have no members of the General Society have not a single voice in the administration of the finances or general affairs of the Society, neither are they regularly organized. This is however very easily rectified, for by the payment of one dollar annually as a membership fee one becomes a member of the General Society, and the Branch into which the fee is paid. The payment of $25 at one time constitutes one a member of the General Society for life and of the auxiliary or band with which the fee is paid for that one year only. Hence you will see that life members should be reckoned each year with the members of the general society, but after the first year they must pay the fee of their local branch in order to be counted with its numbers. On the other hand those paying the one dollar annual fee are reckoned both as members of the General Society and the Auxiliary or band, that receives the fee. Again we say that most reluctantly we force all this upon your notice, year after year, but until the complexities of the matter are understood, we must continue to explain. Probably all will now study to comprehend, if only for the sake of hearing no more about it.

AVERAGE ATTENDANCE.

Under this head we have no occasion for discouragement, for although our members are depleted, there is an increase of four in the average attendance. In 1894 the average attendance in Auxiliaries was 226, in Mission Bands, 94; in 1895, Auxiliaries, 250; Mission Bands, 98; in 1896, Auxiliaries, 251; Mission Bands, 98; total average attendance for 1896, 337. Thus you see that though the numbers have been decreasing for three years the attendance at monthly meetings has been larger each year. It should, perhaps, be mentioned that we had formerly two juvenile bands in Port Hope, one of them with a reported membership of 57, but now both are extinct, one at least being crowded out by other juvenile organizations, and the loss of so many young members has materially reduced our forces, as you can readily see. In two cases the average attendance is greater than the membership, on account of some who attend neglecting to pay their fees, though they had promised to do so. In auxiliaries there are five whose proportionate average attendance has been so close that we give the names of the five in the order of their standing: Cobourg, 11 20; Colebrpringa, 8-11; Bobcaygeon, 7-6; Garden Hill, 6-4; Havelock, 8-11. In our bands there are the two whose attendance exceeds the membership, viz: "The Daisies" of Cobourg, and the "Helping Hands" of Port Hope; next in these rank the "Harvest Workers" of Keene, 7-9, and the "Wide Awake" of Cobourg, 8-11. The latter band has decided to amalgamate with the auxiliary as there are so many church meetings it seems impossible for the girls to keep up their own special organization.

SCATTERED HELPERS.

In this department there is also a slight decrease the total number being 63, with a contribution of $93.36, against $61 and $39.57 last year. One branch reports $31.60 as 'Scattered Helpers' contributors, but is unable to give the number of contributions as the person in charge took no note of names. Last year seven of our branches reported "Scattered Helpers," this year nine report help from this source, and we are quite sure the time will come when every branch will have its association of "Scattered Helpers," realizing the full value of this ally in the work. What the Sabbath school is to the church, this association may be said to be to the W. F. M. S., and no one can fail to see that the very principle of its foundation is Christ-given. "Gather up the fragments that nothing be lost." Norwood and Warkworth still lead in numbers, Norwood with the most "Helpers," and Warkworth with the largest proportionate contributions. We think Mrs. Sutherland's method of conducting this association should be sought, for her success has been very marked and continuous. Two of Norwood's "Scattered Helpers" have been gathered into the fold above, and their loss is deeply felt. Death teaches heavy lessons hard to bear, and most it teaches us what we have lost in losing those who loved and helped us. "All finer natures walk this bitter world but for a while, then heaven asks its own and we can but remember and regret."

VALUE OF CLOTHING.

Of this part of our work we may safely say there has never been in our Presbyterial Society such a generous response to the appeal for clothing. The quantity was 300 lbs. greater than last year, and the value increased by $161.43. The supply was sent to Mr. Small for his school at Birtle, Man., and Miss McLaren, the Matron, in writing of it says it was the best they had ever received. Mr. Small wished especial thanks to be conveyed to the lady in Port Hope who so kindly sent the beautiful frieze overcoat, than which, he says, nothing could have suited him better. He further says it is rather difficult to give the kind ladies who prepared this clothing any conception of how much it is appreciated both by the children or by those who have the allotting of it to them. The bales weighed 1500 lbs. and the total value given was $300.89, of which amount $59.30 is to the credit of our Bands. The "Faithful Workers" of St. Paul's sent about $27 worth; and the "Helping Hands," of Port Hope, First Church, nearly $12 worth. The new goods were valued at $283.70 and was mostly made up. Of this Mr. Small says "it was the very best of material," meaning that it was strong and warm.

THE CONTRIBUTION

shows a falling of $9, an increase over 1895 of $77, though there were then 85 more members than in 1896, so that it is apparent the slight diminution is not the result of waning interest. Nine of our branches suffered the loss of their church by fire. This necessitated re-building, and the women became responsible for the furnishing, pew-cushioning and the purchase of a pipe organ. With all this burden the Auxiliary of course suffered, and much though they regret it, their finance returns and membership are considerably diminished. The "Helping Hands," of Port Hope, has the greatest increase; St. Paul's Auxiliary comes next, "Ellengowanna" third, the "Frasers" of St. Paul's fourth, Vernonville fifth and the "Daisies" of Cobourg sixth. Twenty-nine of our branches report voluntary offering; the remaining three have used various means to augment their funds, but all but about $140 has been given directly to the great cause we love. We may well congratulate our branches upon their financial returns, especially as the year has been one of unusual claims and continued commercial depression. The agonized cry of Armenia's persecuted and suffering Christians, must have touched many hearts, and famine stricken, plague-scourged India has likewise stretched forth her hands in a silent appeal for aid. We thank our God for the response that has come to these in such dire distress, and we believe a crisis in missions is thus brought about which shall win many lives and much service for the great enterprise which Christ Himself ordained. The sorrow-laden anguish-burdened wail that echoes and re-echoes from the stricken lands in the Orient shall not be heard in vain, for, verily, "man's extremity is

Mothers

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." MRS. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

COUNCILLORS MAKE A NUMBER OF CHANGES

AT A SPECIAL MEETING WHICH WAS HELD LAST NIGHT.

Mr. Samuel Belcher Appointed Town Engineer and Messrs. Ranney and Innes to Look After the Street Inspecting and Surveying—The Trent Valley Canal Deputation.

The town council held a special meeting last night for the purpose of appointing an engineer, in order that the work of making the assessments for the sewers might be begun at once. The Mayor presided and the following councillors were in attendance:—Best, LePlante, Robertson, Denne, Davis, Dawson, Cobb, McWilliams, Meldrum, Graham and White.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with, as was also the taking up of general business and the reports were taken up at once:—

through its chairman, Councillor Best, reported as follows:

That in the absence for several weeks of Mr. John E. Belcher, town engineer, in the Old Country, and in view of the immediate necessity of having the yearly assessments adjusted upon the sewer work, sections three and four, so as to be placed upon the collectors' roll for this year, being the basis upon which the debentures are to be issued for the payment of said sewer work, we recommend that Mr. Samuel Belcher be appointed Town Engineer, to be paid the usual commission upon work upon which he is employed.

Adopted.

THE LEGAL COMMITTEE,

through its chairman, Councillor McWilliams reported:

That they had enquired into the claim of Mrs. Elizabeth Chatten referred to them, and recommend that, without admitting that she has a claim under the law against the town, she be paid $75, and that out of this amount a cheque be given to the tax collector for the amount of the taxes of 1896 payable by her, that her physician's bill be paid and that the balance be paid to her in weekly instalments of $3 per week.

Adopted.

THE STREET AND BRIDGE COMMITTEE

through its chairman, Councillor McWilliams, reported, recommending,

That Messrs Ranney & Innes be appointed street inspectors and engineers for the striking of all grades for street improvement at a salary of $650 per annum, the appointment to take effect on the first of April next.

Adopted.

THE FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT COMMITTEE,

through its chairman, Councillor White, reported as follows:

1. That, as formerly reported, the fire engine was sent to the Wm. Hamilton machine shop for repairs. After the repairs were made the steamer was taken to the creek to be tested. During the test a plug blew out of the line, and it was taken back and put in a thorough state of repair. It was again thoroughly tested and is now in the fire hall.

2. We recommend that fifty feet of one-inch hose be purchased for the fire department, which will all be used in the police cells and for other purposes.

Adopted.

A COMMUNICATION

was received from the Mayor of Trenton, stating that the town was sending down a large deputation to Ottawa next week to urge the completion of the Trent Valley Canal, and asking the co operation of Peterborough.

Councillor McWilliams thought that it would better if Trenton waited and sent its deputation with the large one which would go down from this district. He mentioned the fact that the County Council intended going down in a body and urged the members of the council to go also. Arrangements should be made at once to arrange a date with the ministers as to when the deputation could wait upon them. He represented that if the deputation went to Ottawa before the estimates were struck a better chance of securing an appropriation would be insured.

Councillor Best thought a greater impression would be made by the deputation going down when the House was in session. Then the representatives from the various municipalities interested would be present.

Councillor Dawson took Mr. Best's view of the case and urged that a cheap excursion be arranged, so that a large number of citizens could join the deputation.

Councillor Meldrum thought, with Councillor McWilliams, that a larger appropriation could be secured by going down before the estimates were struck. It stood to reason that a larger sum could be secured if an appropriation was placed in the estimates at the start instead of being inserted in the supplementary estimates. Seconded by Councillor McWilliams, he moved that the mayor and entire council go down in a body to wait upon the Government. A day should be set upon which to go. The deputations from all along the route of the canal should go.

The motion carried.

On motion it was decided that the Mayor and Councillors Best, Meldrum, Davis and McWilliams be a committee to arrange with the ministers as to date for the reception of the deputation, and to send out circulars to the municipalities interested urging that the united deputation wait upon the ministers at the same time.

It was also decided that the deputation would go to Ottawa before the House met, and that the representatives in the House from the various municipalities along the line be invited to accompany the deputation.

The bylaw appointing Mr. S. Belcher as town engineer was then passed.

Councillors Meldrum and McWilliams moved that Mr. Belcher and Councillor Best be authorized to go to Toronto to ascertain how the sewerage assessments were made there.—Carried.

On motion, the clerk was instructed to notify the Peterborough Light and Power Company that the service given the citizens was very unsatisfactory.

The Council then adjourned.

THE MEETING OF THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

AGNOSTICISM AND RELIGION.

An Interesting Paper on this Subject by Rev. H. Symonds.

The paper on the above subject read before the Fortnightly Club last night by Rev. H. Symonds, consisted mainly of a review of a book bearing the same title by Dr. Schunnan, the Principal of the Cornell University. The subject was divided into three parts. 1. Philosophical Agnosticism. 2. Scientific Agnosticism; and 3. Spiritual Religion.

Philosophical Agnosticism is based upon the teaching of the German Philosopher Kant, who taught the doctrine that all knowledge of things was relative to ourselves, and that we do not know things as they really are. The Agnostic sets up a hard and fast distinction between apparent and real knowledge. From this it follows that God, who is the Supreme Reality, is unknowable. Again the same conclusion flows from the teaching that there is an absolute contradiction between the Finite and the Infinite, and it is assumed not only that the Finite cannot know the Infinite but that the Infinite cannot make itself known to the Finite.

The reply to this question of philosophical Agnosticism is (1) that there is no such contradiction as is supposed between apparent and real knowledge. Our knowledge is certainly imperfect, but it is not as far as it goes. So of God there are many things we cannot know, but it does not follow that our knowledge is purely imaginary. As St. Paul, a man highly skilled in the philosophy of his day, said: "We see through a glass darkly," and "We know in part." (2) There is no contradiction between the Finite and the Infinite. The former is embraced in the latter. There is something infinite in everything. Only in man there is a consciousness of the Infinite, which is really only the philosphical way of saying that man is made in the image of God. (3) Hence the almost absurd dogma of the Agnostic that the Infinite cannot make itself known to man, is clearly a baseless assumption.

Scientific Agnosticism is the name given to the teaching of Prof. Huxley, who conducted three great battles which Schurman entitles the battles of Evolution v. Creation, of Pithecus (the life) v. Adami and of Science v. Revelation. Few would deny that Huxley had some right on his side, but now that the din of battle was over it was seen that whilst men's conception of creation and Revelation were changed, there is in reality no contradiction between Evolution and Creation, nor between the ape and Adam, nor between Science and Revelation.

In the third division of his book Dr. Schuman explains what he means by Spiritual Religion. He describes it as the third and perfect stage of the Evolution of Religion in the human race. In the first stage Ritual or Cultus is the all important thing, as is seen for example in the religious forms of the Old Testament. In the second stage Dogma or Creed occupied the primary place, and orthodoxy was the first necessity and heresy was the cardinal sin. This second stage is an advance upon the first, but it in its turn is yielding to the third stage, viz, Spiritual Religion. Ritual and Dogma will not disappear, but will be recognized not as ends in themselves, but as means to the next end, viz, Communion with God and the transformation of character.

In conclusion Mr. Symonds indicated some advantages of the third stage of religion. First, less stress would be laid upon things external, and more stress upon things internal. Secondly, the conscious elevation of spiritual religion to the first place will result in an alteration of our test of individuals and of churches. We shall not pass off-hand judgments on men because they are either Roman Catholics or Protestants, Anglican, Methodists, Presbyterians or Baptists. Thirdly, spiritual religion will tend to unity. Many of our divisions are unnecessary. We have to thank Huxley and the Agnostics for rousing us to a sense of the folly, in the presence of materialism and scepticism, of our religious civil wars. Things were certainly improving and meantime he would ask all seriously to consider the great words of the Apostle: "Now, there are diversities of gifts, but the same spirit; and there are differences of ministries, but the same Lord; and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God that worketh all in all."

W. M. S. CONCERT.

A Concert and Social was Held last Evening in the Charlotte Street Church.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Charlotte street Methodist church held a social last evening which was attended with great success, there being a large number present. Rev. J. J. Rae, the pastor, was in the chair, and the following interesting programme was presented:—

Instrumental duet	The Misses Morrow
Vocal solo	Mrs Dr Hunter
Instrumental solo	Miss McBain
Recitation	Miss Lewis
Vocal solo	Miss Grace Stanley
Vocal duet	The Misses Belleghem
Instrumental solo	Miss Campbell
Vocal solo	Mrs Pearce
Instrumental solo	Miss Clark
Address	Mrs Kendry
Vocal trio	Misses Stevens, Deland and Sherlock.

During the evening refreshments were served by the ladies. The programme, as presented, was one of the most satisfactory of the many interesting ones which have been given at the various entertainments in the Charlotte street church this season.

SELWYN LITERARY SOCIETY.

The concert held at Selwyn on Friday evening, February 5th, was a success beyond all expectations.

The President of the Literary Society, Mr. Eph. McIlmoyle, acted as chairman and at exactly eight o'clock in a few introductory words opened the concert. The house was crammed to overflowing and many were turned away. Some of those taking part in the concert were compelled to seek the window for entrance to the stage. The following is the programme which was rendered:

Chorus	Glee Club
Club swinging	Lourine and Mary Sullivan
Song	Mr Harry Kearney
Dialogue, "The Glass Man"
Reading	Mr Harry Andrews
Instrumental music	Miss Fobert
Dramatic selection	Miss Louise Kearney
Solo	Miss Pearson
Song	Mr Harry Kearney
Recitation	Miss F Graham
Instrumental music and whistling	Roberts Family and C Mann
Song	Lourine Sullivan
Song	Mr C Mann
Instrumental music	Roberts Family and C Mann
Dialogue, "Men and Women's Rights"

The concert concluded with a charade entitled "Refinement," which was rendered by members of the Young's Point Dramatic Club. It was especially fine and the acting was far superior to anything which has appeared in Selwyn before. Mr. H. Kearney's song took well. The loud applause given by the house showed their appreciation and Harry kindly gave an encore in each case.

The committee wish to thank Miss Fobert for the interest she evinced in the concert, not only simply taking part herself, but training two little girls, whose club swinging and songs were among the best items on the programme.

All went home feeling that three such hours' fun and amusement should never have been given for the small sum of 10c.

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 14, '97. HATTON & WOOD.

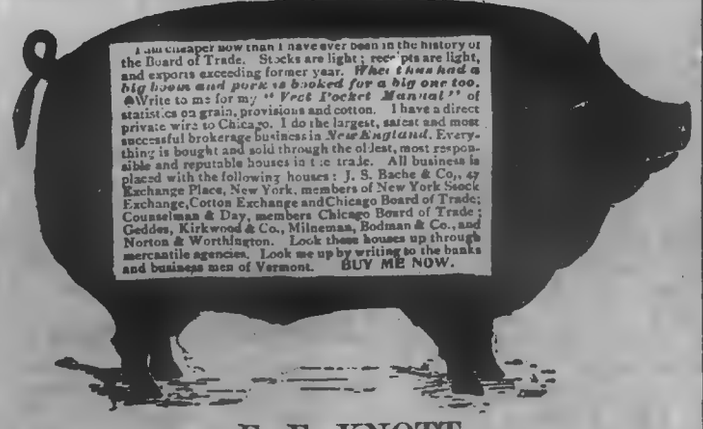
HOW MEN BECOME MILLIONAIRES



E. E. KNOTT,
Stock and Commission Broker, BURLINGTON, VT., U. S. A.

Death grimly bars the passageway through the door of happiness for thousands upon thousands of wistful women. The woman whose nerves are racked by pain, and whose strength is sapped by debilitating drains, due to weakness and disease of the organs peculiar to women, cannot be happy. She is not only shut out from happiness, but death daily confronts her. Maternity, to a woman thus afflicted, is fraught with great danger. Even if she escapes with her life, it is only to live a martyr to untold agony. This is needless. Thousands of women have found a sure, and certain remedy and have spoken in no uncertain words of its almost miraculous action.

This remedy is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly upon the organs that make wifehood and motherhood possible. It gives them health and vigor. It stops weakening drains, allays inflammation and soothes pain. The nerves, no longer tortured, resume their natural function of directing the healthy action of all the organs of the body. Under its benign influence the weak, sickly, nervous, fretful invalid, becomes a robust, capable, helpful, amiable wife, fitted for the duties of motherhood. All good druggists sell it.

"Three years ago," writes Mrs. J. N. Messler, of 1794 Vanderbilt Avenue, New York, N. Y., "I was given up by some of the best physicians in this city. They said there was no cure for me—unless I would go to a hospital and have an operation performed. I could not walk across the room for the pain in my side. I thought I would die. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after I had taken three bottles I could work, walk, and ride. I could write a year and not praise your medicine enough."

Dr. Pierce's book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser" is a treasure in any family. It contains 1008 pages and 300 illustrations. A copy FREE to every person who will send to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of customs and mailing only. For cloth binding, 50 stamps.

THE CUBAN CAPITAL.

PEN PICTURE OF THE INSURGENTS' MOUNTAIN STRONGHOLD.

Sierra Cubitas, Where the Standard of the Plucky Rebels Waves — Where Their Seat of Government Is Situated.

That the Cuban patriots have an active and fully established Government, with a fixed place of abode, can no longer be gainsaid. From the heights of the Sierra Cubitas their standard waves, and from the Matanzas line on the west to Cape Maisi at the eastern extremity, throughout the whole breadth of the island, with the exception of the larger towns, it is recognized as the emblem of authority—the flag of the people of Cuba.

Sierra Cubitas is within less than twenty-five miles of the city of Puerto Principe and less than that distance from the strongly fortified port of Nuevitas, within sight of the great camino or highway, from Havana to Santiago de Cuba. Yet here within a day's march of the Spanish garrisons the Cubans have established and have maintained for fifteen months their seat of Government.

To the east lies the town of Zanjou, where the Cubans were duped into signing a treaty of peace, the conditions of which the Spaniards never meant to observe, and thus lost all the fruits of the ten years' struggle from 1868 to 1878. Southeast, near the boundary between Puerto Principe and Santiago de Cuba, is Gualmaro, where the first constitution was promulgated. Southeast of Manzanillo lies the town of Yara, where the first republic was proclaimed.

The present movement for independence was first declared on February 24, 1895, at Ybarra, in Matanzas, by about two dozen men, but the first real organization was made farther east in the province of Santiago de Cuba. Marti, the organizer of the revolutionary movement, issued a call during the summer for a constitutional convention to meet on September 13. Delegates from all the provinces, except Pinar del Rio, were present. Three days later a constitution was adopted, and on September 18 the convention elected state officers and the government of the republic of Cuba was inaugurated.

Salvador Cisneros, who had been President of the former republic from 1873 till the peaces of El Zanjou in 1878, was chosen as president, and with him Bartolome Mazo of Manzanilla, vice-president; Raphael Portuondo of Santiago de Cuba; Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; Carlos Roloff of Santa Clara, Secretary of War, and Sivero Pina of Espiritu Santo, Secretary of the Treasury.

Maximo Gomez was at the same time chosen as commander-in-chief, Marti having been killed shortly before, and Antonio Maceo as his lieutenant-general. Laws were also passed dividing the island into states, districts and prefectures, establishing post-offices, regulating marriages and providing for the imposition and collection of taxes. Local officers under the new Government were soon after installed in many places in the three eastern provinces.

The seat of the Government was soon after established on the top of the Sierra Cubitas just north of Puerto Principe, where it has since been kept and practically unmolested by the Spanish army. This place is naturally most difficult of access, and with but a handful of men can be held against any sized force. In places the only pathway winds round the side of a precipitous mountain and is so narrow that two men cannot ride abreast. A body of resolute men are always at hand for defense. The occupants of the place are not dependent on outside supplies, as the top of the mountain is flat, with a sufficient quantity of good arable land to raise all the food they need. Buildings have been erected for the Government offices and an arsenal and magazine built for storing arms, powder, etc., and a factory for the manufacture of dynamite.

On the western slope of the mountain is the small town of Banao. Six others, with all their inhabitants fully enlisted in the cause of freedom, stretch along at intervals of a few miles to the east to the banks of the River Marimo. Through one of these La Entradu, the pathway to the top of the mountain, passes. On all other sides of the mountain is as inaccessible as the Rock of Gibraltar. The mountain is of limestone formation, with numerous caves, which readily afford refuge and storing places for such articles as cannot well be taken to the top.

The province of Puerto Principe, in which the Sierra Cubitas is situated, is bounded on the east by Santiago de Cuba, from which it is separated by the Rio Jobabo, and on the west by Santa Clara with the rivers Jatibonico del Norte and del Sur between. Near the western boundary is the old military trocha of Moron, and just east of it the boundary line between the dioceses of the occidente and the oriente, into which Cuba is divided. The island is here cut by a low, swampy plain into two parts.

From the very first months of the war the patriots have had almost entire control of these three provinces, the Spaniards confining themselves to the larger towns and the lines of railroad, and making occasional raids therefrom.

Coming from Matanzas on the west and running through Santa Clara, Espiritu Santo, Puerto Principe, Las Tunas, Bayamo and thence on to Santiago de Cuba, is the grand camino or central highway from Havana to the east. It is one of the few paved roads on the island and is but little troubled by the revolutionists, as they find it as useful as do the Spaniards.

A Giant Balloon Fish.

Who has ever heard of a balloon fish? Not the little, puffing fellows that are so annoying to modest anglers fishing from a dock or small boat, but a huge monster that plows the seas far away from land, and one who is a worthy compeer of the great unknown and highly respected sea serpent, asks The New York Journal.

Capt. Slocum of the schooner Saladin, out from Jacmel, Hayti, while in latitude 26 degrees north, longitude 75 degrees west, descried to the eastward an object which at first he supposed to be the wreck of a small vessel. Altering his course, he ran down to the supposed wreck, a distance of about five miles. The following extract from the ship's log book will explain the adventure:

"Time, 7.30 a.m., June 4. At 6 a.m. the object was first seen—weather murky—and at 7 a.m. we came up to it. It proved to be a large and vicious-looking sea monster, such as I had never seen or heard of at any time. The body appeared to be about forty feet long and the tail about sixty feet, with forked ends, each fork about four feet long. It had two feet, or fins, not unlike those of a sea serpent. The creature stood about twelve feet high out of the water and was fully forty feet in breadth."

CANCER CURED
—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

ART IN DRESSMAKING

STRIKINGLY BEAUTIFUL CREATIONS BY PARISIAN MODISTES.

A Leisurely Run Through the Great Dressmaking Establishments of the Gay French Capital — Some of the Dresses.

In the showrooms of Mmes. Emma and Marie Weille I was shown a dress of drab cashmere. The skirt is made quite plain, and round at the bottom. There is no fullness in front or at the sides at the waist; behind there are large pleats which widen into godets. The corsage is composed of a blouse of yellowish lace in front, with a yoke at the top. Over this blouse is a bavette of drab velvet, cut round in the centre and square at the sides, embroidered with braid of the same color as the dress, and with silver. The round part and the square ends are connected with frogs and olives of passementerie, between which the lace appears. The epaulets are of drab velvet, like the bavette. There is a broad pleat down the centre of the body behind, bordered by two narrower pleats, and at the sides are half braces of drab embroidered velvet. The sleeves are very little puffed at the top. They are pleated above the elbow, and very flat below. The cuffs are trimmed with lace, and the neck trimming is of velvet and lace.

At Levillon's, 14 Rue de Rome, I was shown a dress of silver gray senana. The skirt is round at the bottom, quite flat in front and at the sides, and has a godet widening considerably from the hip on each side. There are also gathers at the waist which widen with godets. The ground of the skirt is of silver gray faille, on which senana is applied. The balayeuse is of taffetas. The corsage is draped in front with pleats at the waist, and is open down the centre, and is made with small lapels of white satin, on each of which are three strass buttons. They are trimmed with thread lace and edged with weasel, which runs behind and forms a kind of collar. In the centre of the corsage is a plastron of white satin edged with the same fur. The seams at the shoulders are trimmed with the same fur. The sleeves are draped with small balloons and ornamented with rosettes of ribbon and are gathered along the inner seam down to the wrist, but are not very tight. The cuffs are trimmed with a frilled flounce of mousseline de soie. The neck trimming is of black velvet cut on the cross, simply draped and fastened with a bow behind. The waistband, of the same velvet, is round and eight centimetres wide. It fastens on the left side with a bow of the same, cut on the cross and formed of four rosettes confined in the centre, with short ends.

At Viola's, 1 Rue Castiglione, I saw a dress of navy blue serge, the skirt of which is trimmed with three rows of black velvet about eight centimetres apart. The skirt is flat in front and at the sides, and is made with godets behind. The body is a blouse, made very plain and with black velvet braces. The sleeves are plain, very slightly draped and trimmed with two rows of velvet from end to end. With this dress is worn a jacket of beige or black cloth, straight in front and forming a kind of plastron. The vest fastens on the left side with two large pearl buttons. On the same side is a band of sealskin or beaver. The back is made with two seams and with tabs fastened on with pearl buttons. The sleeves are made with three seams at the top to diminish the size, and at the bottom are eleven rows of stitching and tabs with pearl buttons. The collar is upright, bordered with sealskin or beaver.

Mme. Raymond, who was formerly at Messrs. Worth's firm, has opened an establishment at 17 Place de la Madeleine. She showed me many models in very good taste, among them a large mantle of shot green and drab moire, falling straight in wide pleats both before and behind and set into a yoke of fine Luxeuil lace over a ground resembling Argentan point. This yoke is round and trimmed with three pipings of the moire. The lace falls in square ends to the waist before and behind, forming an independent belero. The garment is made with broad lapels of white satin, edged with a band of sable, which is carried down to the ground. The collar is large and upright, coming up to the chignon behind and sloped away at the sides, leaving the front quite free. It is trimmed and veiled on the inner side with fine accordion sun pleats of cream mousseline de soie. The sleeves are very long and blouse shaped, but are not very large. They are caught up above the elbow with three pipings of moire, which give the upper part the form of a balloon draped over itself They are equally wide at the bottom and widen over the hand into a flounce of the moire. From the interior issues a gathered flounce of Luxeuil lace, narrower over the arm than on the outer side of the cuff, where it forms a sabot.

In the same establishment I saw a costume, the skirt of which is of cream faille. It is round all around the bottom, made as a fourreau at the sides and in front above. The godets start from behind the hips and widen very much at the bottom, where the skirt is very full. The corsage is of cream poult de soie printed with very small patterns and is gathered at the waist. Over the shoulders is a large square collar of Luxeuil lace indented all round and cut up to make way for the sleeves. The epaulets are of the same lace draped so as to half cover the sleeves. The corsage opens over a blouse chemisette of cream mousseline de soie, trimmed with a twist of pink China velvet and a shamrock pattern over the lace collar. The neck trimming is composed of the same velvet cut on the cross and the collarette is very high behind, diminishing in size at the sides and front. The sleeves, which match the corsage, are large at the top and simply draped, and are tight from the elbow to the wrist, where they are trimmed with pink velvet and Luxeuil lace. The waistband is of the same velvet, five centimetres wide, and fastens in front with a plain bevelled gold buckle.

At Bazau's, No. 101 Rue des Petits Champs, I saw a ball dress of pink brocaded satin in the Louis XVI. style. The skirt is flat in front and at the sides, and touches the ground behind, and is made with an apron widening from the waist to the bottom, and has four round pleats behind, which widen into godets. The corsage is cut square at the neck and completely encloses the shoulders, and is draped like a shawl on each side at the waist, with a flat part in the centre. Around the decollete is a yoke of white satin, embroidered with Louis XVI. patterns in gold and silver spangles. It forms three pointed indentions; the centre point is ornamented with a shamrock worked in spangles, with the head downward. The sleeves are short, reaching barely to the elbow, are rather large and are draped irregularly in points over a lining of white taffetas. Over the shoulders are braces embroidered in gold and silver spangles and edged, like the yoke with similar spangles. The waistband is of white satin cut on the cross and in three pleats, with a small point over the skirt in front.

At Virot's, No. 12 Rue de la Paix, I was shown a novelty, in an astrakhan hat, somewhat resembling the chapeau

A LONGAIN PINK BROCADED TEA GOWN.

Polichinelle. The brim turns up high in the centre in front, and diminishes in size to the extremities, where it ends in points, separated by the hair, and is very narrow behind. The crown is crunched several times. In the centre in front half over the hair is a rosette of old green velvet, surmounted by an aigrette of black cock feathers set in a strass buckle placed in the centre of the rosette. This hat was made for the Princess of Thurn and Taxis.

One of the prettiest dresses I have seen for some time past was at Longain's, No. 18 Rue Daunou. It is of white Liberty mousseline de soie, the skirt composed of five accordion sun-pleated flounces, each forming a heading to that beneath it. The highest is set into the waist over white faille. The skirt is round at the bottom. The corsage is sun-pleated like the flounces, the front trimmed with a wide bavette of the same material, which entirely covers it, except down the centre. At the sides it forms points at the waist. The waistband is made of three bands pleated crosswise and sewed together, with ruches of mousseline de soie across them. The bavette is edged with a ruche of the same material, and a similar ruche runs along the seams at the shoulders. The back of the corsage is also accordion sun-pleated. The sleeves are in two parts, the upper part formed of three flounces, one over the other, the lower two only showing two or three centimetres of depth. The lower part, from the elbow to the wrist, is of white lace, over white faille, very tight around the arms and the cuffs are trimmed with flounces of mousseline de soie. The waistband, which is very wide, is of pink velvet, draped, wider at the sides than in front, and fastens on the left side beneath a double crest; down the flat part, in the centre, is a row of six jeweled buttons. The collar, which is very high, is of the same velvet, and the collarette, which is very high at the sides and behind, is of frilled mousseline de soie. The neck trimming fastens behind in the same style as the waistband. This costume is also made in black, with a waistband, etc., of nasturtium velvet.

In the same establishment I was shown an indoor dress of green satin embroidered with rose blossoms. It is made in one piece from top to bottom in front and falls straight. It opens all down in the centre over a series of seventeen flounces of English lace, each forming a head to that beneath it. There are three bands of weasel down each side of the dress and the contract of the brown fur and bright lace is most effective. There is a small square yoke of embroidered satin forming a bavette and draped round the neck. The back opens from the waist to the ground, with the same arrangement of lace flounces as that in front. The corsage is tight fitting. The sleeves are made in one piece; they are rather full down to the elbow and below are tight, but slightly funnel shaped at the wrist. They are ridged with three bands of weasel, starting from the shoulder which run down to the elbow and then

God's opportunity." And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, "this land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden, and the waste and the ruined and the desolate cities are become fenced and are inhabited. Then the heathen that are left round about shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places and plant that that was desolate. I the Lord have spoken it and I will do it. Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be sought of by the House of Israel to do it for them. I will increase them with men like a flock, as a holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men, and they shall know that I am the Lord. The sun shall no more go down, neither shall the moon withdraw herself, for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light and thy days of mourning shall be ended. "A little one shall become a thousand, and a strong one a great nation. I the Lord will hasten it in his time.

"LETTER LEAFLET."

Our official organ is a valued link between ourselves and our representatives in our own and foreign lands. Through it we are given a glimpse of the armaments and flanks of heathenism, and by it messages of eternal import are wafted to all our branches. General missionary literature should deepen and expand our sympathies with all efforts to evangelise the heathen, but our own especial missionary journal must surely impel us to greater zeal quicken us to greater activity since its very existence is dependent upon us to enlarge or quench. There are 565 copies of the "Letter Leaflet" in monthly circulation in our Presbyterial Society, 510 being the greatest and 3 the least number taken by one Branch.

We can neither estimate nor gauge the influence of the silent visitor to so many homes, but time will reveal how great has been its power for welding hearts to purposeful service. Miss Craick, of Port Hope, has had entire charge of this part of the Presbyterial work, and also of the distribution of the annual reports, to the number of several hundred, and for her most efficient discharge of her duties, we are deeply indebted to Miss Craick, and desire to record our acknowledgment of the gratitude we feel. To Miss Laird, of Port Hope, we also extend thanks for cheerful, willing and ever-ready assistance in correspondence.

NEW SOCIETIES.

No new societies have been organized this year, though efforts have been made to do so; so we still recognize Havelock as the youngest in our family of Branches, and we feel the greater sympathy for the members there on account of their love of their President, Mrs. McClelland, who was also a Presbyterial Vice-President. Another Vice-President has been removed from our society in the person of Mrs. MacWilliams, of St. Andrew's Auxiliary, and the loss of those ladies we deplore, for though but a short time with us, both had given us marked evidence of deep interest and most capable service, and by their many amiable qualities of heart had greatly endeared themselves to us. Our forces for 1896 aggregate 23 auxiliaries, 6 young ladies' mission bands and 3 juvenile bands—the latter is a misnomer, however, for the members are no longer children, but tolerably well-grown girls, if not altogether acknowledged young ladies, but being our youngest workers, the term "juvenile" still clings to them. We beg leave once more to testify to the excellence of the reports sent by these juvenile branches. For neatness, accuracy and completeness, none can surpass the reports of the "Aye Readies," of Baltimore, the "Daisies" of Cobourg, and the "Frasers" of Peterborough. Every year it is the same. Such evidences of skill and conscientious preparation would lead one to think the writers had passed through an excellent training school or graduated with equal honours. The Presidents of these Bands are to be congratulated upon the material they have to work with, and our Presbyterial may claim some reflected glory in reckoning among its members such promising young lives.

Brighton Auxiliary has sent no report this year, nor did we succeed in securing a report from [illegible] showing steady and vigorous growth.

Twenty-four thank-offering meetings have been held, and in most cases are reported as invaluable agencies in awakening interest in congregations. Substantial monetary aid has been secured in this way. Thank-offering meetings are now an established institution, and have effectually routed the "pink tea" and "neck-tie" socials of other days.

DECEASED MEMBERS.

It has been truly said, "In the midst of life we are in death," and this year while so much of life is pulsating and throbbing about us, six homes have been invaded since last we met, and in each case the mother called hence. Our report would be incomplete without mention of those who have been with us, but are now peacefully entered into the "rest that remaineth for the people of God." Of the venerable Mrs. Tassie we made mention last year, though she left us in '96, and we must now add to the chronicle of departed members the names of Mrs. Alex. Mann, of Baltimore; Mrs. McGregor, of the Ellesgowan Auxiliary; Mrs. Adam Hall and Mrs. Tucker, of St. Pauls; and Mrs. Clydale and Mrs. Cameron, who were "scattered helpers" in Norwood. Sadly, reverently we letter their names; lovingly, lingeringly we dwell upon their many excellences of heart and mind; tenderly we recall precious memories of pleasant and helpful intercourse with them; regretfully, sorrowfully we note the great loss we sustain in their removal; but we strive designedly to rejoice that for them grief and pain are alike vanquished and the victory over death is achieved. "Sorrow should be these universal links that draw all His together," so we desire to draw near to those whose loss is immeasurably greater than ours, and whisper words of consolation. Death holds no greater bereavement than the loss of a mother, and those, the fond, patient mothers who have passed out of sight, leave hearts aching with grief and heavy with desolation.

"Alas the tears that still will fall are selfish in their fond recall,
If ever tears should win from heaven a loved one, and yet be forgiven,
Mine surely might. I may not tell the agony of my farewell!
It was my heaviest loss—my worst—my mother."

And yet "the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away," but though He cause grief yet will He have compassion according to the multitude of His mercies. For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. "Soul of our souls and safe-guard of the world sustain, thou only canst, the sick at heart."

"Oh let her whose sorrow,
No relief can find.
Trust in God and borrow
Ease for heart and mind.
When the mourner, weeping,
Sheds the secret tear,
God his watch is keeping,
Though none else be near.
God will never leave thee,
All thy wants he knows.
Feels the pain that grieves thee,
Sees thy cares and woes.
Raise thine eyes to heaven,
When thy spirits quail,
When by tempests driven,
Heart and courage fail.
When in grief we languish.
He will dry thy tear,
Who His children's anguish
Soothes with succor near.
All our woes and sadness,
In this world below,
Balance not the gladness
We in heaven shall know.
Jesus, Holy Saviour,
In Thy realms above
Crown us with Thy favour,
Fill us with Thy love.

Dear friends and co-workers, the task is ended, the record finished and the year of '96 is sealed until the last great day. It has been to us as a society comparatively uneventful, and yet abounding in golden opportunities and glorious privileges which are now gone forever, whether well or ill used. The present is ours, and while on the threshold of another year shall we not each resolve to be more earnest in service than we have heretofore been, thinking, speaking, acting with an eye single to God's glory? And shall not each day by God's help be a fulfilment of our purpose? Then,—

After the toil and turmoil,
And the anguish of trust belied;
After the burden of weary cares,
Baffled longings, ungranted prayers,
After the passion of fever and fret,
After the aching of vain regret,
After the hurry, and heat and strife,
The yearning and tossing that man call life,
Trust that mocks and fair hopes dimmed,
We shall be satisfied.

When the golden bowl is broken,
At the sunny fountain side
When the turf lies green and cold above
Wrong and sorrow, and loss and love,
When the great dumb walls of silence stand
At the doors of the undiscovered land,
When all we have left in our olden place,
Is an empty chair and a pictured face,
When the prayer is prayed and the sigh is sighed,
We shall be satisfied,

Respectfully submitted,
S. E. GRAHAM, Sec.

Miss Forsythe, of Peterborough, then led in prayer, after which Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Main sang a duet in perfect harmony.

Mrs. M. Shortreed, of Toronto, on being called upon for an address, spoke upon the degradation into which the followers of Buddha and Mahommed had fallen and urged on the members the necessity of coming to the relief of these benighted heathen. Nothing, said she, can elevate and raise up these people but the gospel of Christ. As Christians we must ask ourselves about what relation we bear to this great truth. There are only two classes in Christ's church: those who are called to preach the gospel and those who minister to them—to their material wants.

If we are not called on to preach, as followers of Christ we are bound to minister to his representatives, yet the majority of church members live as though they had no responsibility in the matter.

A person in this world who takes all and gives nothing, is either a pauper or dishonest, and this also applied to spiritual things.

In reviewing the past, the speaker thought that the Society had certainly become a power, but it did not go as far yet as it should. There were still many who were in the church, yet did not join in the missionary work and took no interest in it. To awaken interest in the movement in Christian lands was in reality the most important part of the work.

The speaker urged the members to get the younger members of the church to come into the Society and give their energy and enthusiasm to Jesus. So many were wasting their time and utilizing their forces in pastimes which advanced neither themselves nor others.

The missionaries, Mrs. Shortreed explained, asked for as little as possible and even their requests were cut down when the estimates were made up. Nothing was wasted. She urged the members to follow the prayer card of the society and pray month by month for the success of the work. Man's greatest power is prayer, as through it supernatural agencies are set in motion and results accomplished which could not otherwise be obtained.

The following additional delegates registered during the afternoon:—Mrs. John Davidson, Norwood; Miss Maude Campbell, Keene; Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. McEwen, Lakefield; Miss Fair, Centreville; Mrs. Douglas, Cobourg.

EVENING MEETING.

At the public meeting in the evening there was a fair attendance, principally ladies. The pulpit platform was very tastefully brightened with blooming potted plants. The choir was present and led the singing.

Rev. J. G. Potter, pastor of St. Andrew's presided. Rev. Wm. Bennet read the Scripture lesson and offered prayer. Before the principal address of the evening, vocal solos were sung by Mr. Mulligan and Mrs. H. Jones.

Rev. Mr. Potter said he appeared as the representative of the Presbytery, in the stead of Rev. John Hay, B.D. He also joined with Rev. Dr. Torrance, who was prevented by illness from being present, in welcoming the ladies of the Society to Peterborough. The Presbytery heartily recognized and appreciated the work of the Presbyterial Society in the cause of missions.

Mrs. Wm. Graham, presented a summary of the Presbyterial report, which is printed in full above.

Rev. Dr. Buchanan, medical missionary Jhansi, Central India, said that the best way to reach the hearts of the people of India was by convincing them of the divinity of Christ and practically showing them the love which Christ feels for them. He said that medical missions were one of the most effective means of reaching the hearts of the heathen of India and opening them to the Gospel message. He painted a thrilling picture of the degraded moral and physical condition of the Hindus that easily accounted for the famine, for the mass of the people could get only two meals a day of the coarsest food, and sometimes only one. They lived on the border line of starvation, and a very little scarcity was needed to bring on famine conditions. His picture of the effects of the famine were very graphic and pitiful. There was, he said, plenty of wealth in India, but the rich Hindus, with hearts untouched by the love of the Gospel, had no feeling for the starving, but on the other hand wrung from them the uttermost farthing. They say, in [illegible] man, (who is often left to starve and die, with thousands passing him by), "he does not belong to me." Their hearts are not softened by the love of Christ. The speaker pointed out the necessity of combining work for the body and soul in India missions. He made a strong appeal to Christians to contribute to the support of missionaries who work on these lines. A sum of $5,000 was needed to build a hospital and orphanage in the district in which he was labouring, and to which he would return when the health of his wife, a faithful co-labourer, specially fitted for the work, had been regained. It was through their suffering bodies that we could best reach the souls of the heathen Hindoo. The speaker was listened to with great attention, and his simple, earnest manner in relating his experiences evidently produced a deep impression.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Doxology and the benediction.

Work and Wages

There are hundreds of people who are dependent on this store for work and wages, and other hundreds who are directly benefitted by our store being their Savings Bank. If retail prices of goods go down anywhere you can be sure it will be here first. If manufacturers are bothered through lack of orders or worried through lack of work and money, we go to the rescue of the calamity-stricken, and as we buy we sell in the same liberal spirit.

Next on the Program!

This store is an habitual record-breaker! Stock-taking has just been completed, and we are pleased to be able to say that the past year's business has been satisfactory. Each year breaks the record of its predecessor, and we are encouraged with the promise of still greater things.

But this store never rests on its past successes! We hold great bargain-making power, and are going to use it to your advantage.

HARBINGERS OF SPRING!

We are now in receipt of large consignments from New York, personally selected by Mr. Fair. The spring merchandise now rushing in fairly discounts everything in the past. "It's Fair's Way."

Special values will bring people here in spite of themselves, and down-right money saving will encourage you to continue to stay with the Golden Lion.

There is an air of elegance in our new goods, and when our new stock is completed we can pride ourselves on having an unrivalled stock, to be sold on the easiest terms ever offered in Peterborough.

Such a business as ours speaks for itself. There is a spirit of discontent in some quarters; opposition puffs out an odor of "hurt feelings" in almost every breath. We hope others are busy—we know we are. Like Browning's gypsies, it must be disheartening

"To go on with the grinding,
Up and down and nobody minding."

But this is an unusual store—different from others. Fair keeps his word and respects it.

SCENE OF SPLENDOR

Was the Bradley-Martin Ball in New York.

GRANDEST EVER SEEN IN AMERICA

Seven Hundred Guests Present at the Hotel Waldorf—A Display of Gorgeous Costumes and Dazzling Gems—Music by Victor Herbert's Orchestra.

New York, Feb. 10.—The Bradley-Martin fancy dress ball took place this evening in the magnificent ballroom of the Waldorf Hotel.

The scene was one of bewildering enchantment, a veritable fairyland, resplendent with all that wealth and taste could command, and graced by the presence of many hundreds of the fashionable set, garbed in oddity robes of historic correctness. As a superb social function it has had no parallel in America. There were about 700 guests present. Almost every character of note in the times of Louis XIV. and XV., from the peasant to the jewel-crowned King or Queen, was personated. They presented striking figures, dancing in the stately minuet or whirling in the merry waltz.

The Marie Antoinette ladies predominated. America's historic notables seemed sadly neglected, even the father of this country, George Washington, being honored by only two representatives.

Aside from the beauty of the costumes interest centred in the unprecedented display of jewels, many princely family heirlooms being worn. There is no estimating their monetary worth, but they certainly represented vast fortunes. Many of the women seemed ablaze with the sparkling gems.

The guests began arriving about 11 o'clock. They entered the hotel through a private door on 33rd-street, and were immediately ushered to the second floor, where a suite of 15 large apartments had been reserved for dressing purposes. Here were stationed numerous hair-dressers, costumers, modistes and all the other functionaries required for the final polishing touches of the exquisite outfits. These rooms were decorated with a profusion of roses and smilax.

After the guests had assembled and made ready for the grand entree, they descended the flower-strewn stairways to the reception parlor on the main floor.

As they passed through the archway they were met by the hostess, Mrs. Bradley-Martin, who stood on a dais surmounted by a canopy of rich tapestries.

Mrs. Martin wore a becoming costume of the Queen Elizabeth period, made of black velvet over red brocade. She was adorned with all the magnificent jewels, including her famous robe of diamonds. Near the dais stood a string of lackeys, and as the guests approached their names and the characters impersonated were announced.

The decoration of the reception room was a beautifully conceived achievement. The walls were covered with costly tapestries of the daintiest color, while myriads of roses, carelessly thrown, rested in the folds as they chanced to fall. The furniture was exclusively of the Louis XV. period. In one corner was placed the Hungarian band, hidden behind a bank of roses.

The guests moved from this saloon through the corridors, which had been made to represent a woodland lit by scores of incandescent lights, to the big ballroom. The decoration of this room was also a work of art, and the illumination brilliant.

As the company entered their figures were reflected in immense mirrors imbedded in the walls. Above each mirror were festoons of lanset garlands entwined with demeuss vine, and a lavish display of mauve orchids. The big candelabra had pendant pouches of blue silk bursting with a wealth of bridesmaid roses. Pink roses, entwined in asparagus vine, made a garden-like effect at the far end of the room. Here also was a balcony handsomely adorned, in which was stationed Victor Herbert's orchestra for the dance music.

Beneath this balcony were green-covered nooks, overhung with southern clematis, where the merry-makers retired for quiet talks.

It was near midnight before the opening quadrille was danced. It had been organized by Mrs. Astor and was the principal dance of the evening. John Jacob Astor was the king of the ball and Mrs. Bradley-Martin the queen. They led the quadrille and at their side were Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and Robert Van Cortlandt. At the opposite end were Miss Gerry and J. Townsend Martin and Mrs. Whitney Warren and Lispenard Stewart. The opposite side couples were Mrs. Orme Wilson and Harry Lehr Mrs. Lee Tailor and Craig Wadsworth, Miss Lena Morton and Center Hitchcock and Miss Madeline Cutting and J. J. Van Alen.

Following this came Mrs. Edmund L. Baylis's quadrille, which was participated in by Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., Mrs. Henry Sloane, Miss Edith Morton, Miss Van Rensselaer, Messrs. Alfonso de Navarre, H. D. Robbins, Worthington, Whitehouse and others.

Then came the debutante quadrille, all the dancers wearing costumes of Louis Quinz epoch. It was a pretty array of youth and beauty The quadrilles were danced to the slow music of the minuet and the different figures were executed with grace and precision. General dancing was now indulged in until the call came for supper. Then the guests were conducted to the Empire dining rooms. The tables were prettily decorated with vases filled with long-stemmed roses.

Supper over, the guests returned to the ball room for the cotillion. This was led by Elisha Dyer, jr., who wore a costume of the period of Francis I. There were three favor figures in the cotillion, one set of favors being of silver, including repousse match boxes, memorandum tablets for the writing table, or chatelaine cases in repousse silver for memorandum books.

The grey streaks of dawn were struggling through the windows of the Waldorf before the last echo of "Home, Sweet Home" had died in the flower-scented room and the greatest ball in Gotham's history was ended.

There were many guests from out of town, small parties coming from San Francisco, Chicago, New Orleans, Washington, Boston, Philadelphia, Albany and Baltimore.

About fifty persons came down from Albany. Mr. Martin's native city, among them members of the Sard, Townsend, Martin, Cornell, Van Rensselaer, Lansing, Pruyne and Corning families.

Extraordinary precautions for guarding the guests at the ball were put into effect early this evening, and seldom has an affair of this kind brought forth the police guard that was in and around the Hotel Waldorf tonight. Outside of the uniformed officers there were a perfect cordon of detectives and patrolmen in citizens' clothes around the block in which the hotel is situated. Crooks and other lawless characters gave the vicinity a wide berth.

SPLENDID OPENING

Of the Ontario Legislature in Toronto Yesterday.

SOCIETY TURNED OUT IN FORCE.

The Venerable and Honored Sir Oliver Mowat Was a Spectator of Hon. A. S. Hardy's Inauguration as Premier—Mr Casimir Gzowski Officiated in the Absence of Mr. Kirkpatrick.

Toronto, Feb. 11.

The touch of the Old World ceremony in connection with the opening of our Legislative Assemblies is one of the few picturesque and historic things which a utilitarian western civilization has permitted to linger in our midst; and in these latter days, when the practical common sense of the majority has made it an unwritten law that the male portion of humanity, from a waiter to a Governor-General, shall, so far as dress is concerned, be reduced to a black-coated level, it is not to be marveled at that large numbers of people eagerly seize the opportunity of treating the aesthetic side of their natures to a feast of form and color such as one sees in the picturesque costumes and military uniforms, worn only on such state occasions as yesterday.

But there were other attractions, for not every day is a new Speaker installed with his robe of office or does a new and able Premier assume his arduous duties. And there were to be eulogistic speeches

From the galleries the ground floor presented a very brilliant scene—there was an immense concourse of people, among whom were our most prominent judges, church dignitaries, lawyers, newspaper men and politicians. Many society women graced the occasion, in beautiful gowns, a number of which were decollete, and in the seats where grave and solemn members are wont to consider affairs of state and great moment, frivolous big hats, with plumes and flowers, swayed and nodded, silk and satin rustled and perfume spread itself mysteriously through the warm air, while bouquets of roses, violets and lilies made summer of the winter afternoon. The galleries, too, were thronged and below that set aside and known as the ladies' gallery, hung the now locally famous portrait of the Hon. Edward Blake, fresh from the brush of our well-known painter, Wyly Grier.

At 3 o'clock the Government House party and guard entered the Assembly Room and gathered in a brilliant group about the Speaker's chair, where Sir Casimir Gzowski, in military uniform and cocked hat, acted as Administrator, in the absence of the invalided Lieutenant-Governor. The election of the new Speaker was then proceeded with and the new Attorney-General, in very feeling terms, referred to the almost tragic death of the last Speaker, Mr. Balfour, and made a motion for the election of a successor in the person of Mr. Francis Eugene Evanturel of Prescott, a man in whom both sides of the House had every confidence. After some preliminaries the vote was put to the House, and Mr. Evanturel took the chair amid general applause, where he was welcomed by members on both sides of the House. Mr. Whitney's speech especially, was exceedingly graceful and cordial.

Then came the Speech from the Throne, its reference to the long reign and approaching jubilee of the Queen, to the convalescence of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, and to the various matters which will be placed before the House for consideration during the session, two of the most important being legislation regarding mining and the care of imported waifs. This usually brings the House to an adjournment, but the presentation of a portrait of the Hon. Edward Blake to the Legislature was the occasion of more speeches and more eulogy, in which Dr. Hoskin, the Speaker, the Hon. G. W. Kin presented the portrait on behalf of the Trust Company, and Principal Sheraton unveiled it from the ladies' gallery. The Speaker acknowledged the gift on behalf of the House, the Minister of Education, in a brief and interesting speech, reviewed the history of the Provincial Parliament

THE OPENING PROCEEDINGS.

A Speaker Had to be Elected Before the Speech Was Read.

For a short time, which, to the expectant audience, seemed an hour or more, the proceedings were delayed by the non-appearance of Her Majesty's representative. The Ministers and Opposition leaders improved the opportunity by passing among the ladies and giving all a cordial handshake. Sir Oliver Mowat, too, was not idle, and with his usual smiling countenance succeeded in making himself as ardent a ladies' man as any of the others who had not seen half his years.

At last the strains of "God Save the Queen," emanating from the outside, heralded the approach of the representative of the Crown. He wore his uniform as A.D.C. to the Queen, and was ushered through the crowd by an escort composed of his own aides-de-camp and the commanders of the various city corps. Standing upon the throne the aged knight was notified by Hon. E. J. Davis of the vacancy in the office of Speaker, and accordingly proclaimed that before the opening could be proceeded with the Legislature must "choose a fit and proper person" to be Speaker.

Sir Casimir then retired, and the Clerk of the House arose and declared the result of the three bye-elections which had occurred since the last session, duly declaring Hon. E. J. Davis elected for North York, Andrew Pattullo for South Oxford and John Auld for South Essex.

The office of Speaker having been duly declared vacant, Premier Hardy arose to offer the name of the Government nominee. The circumstances, he said, which had rendered the position vacant were familiar to every member of the Legislature. The late lamented Hon. A. J. Balfour was a man who had possessed the confidence and esteem of both sides of the House. He had won it by his long and faithful membership, his vigor in debate and his impartiality in decision. The fact that the deceased Speaker had but two weeks before his death reached the object of his ambition—a place in the Cabinet—rendered tragic his untimely end. Proceeding, the Attorney-General reviewed the different attributes which should characterise a good Speaker. He should be a man of strict integrity, of fairness of thought, and of impartiality. He thought that the man he was proposing, Mr. F. E. A. Evanturel, member for Prescott, would meet all these requirements. Mr. Evanturel had been a member of the House for ten years, was a graduate of Laval University, and an LL.B. His former connection with the public service at Ottawa had made him fa-

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"THE grandest proposal that we have yet heard," says the Montreal Witness, "for the celebration of the Queen's jubilee is the suggestion of a citizen of Montreal, whose name will be connected with it if it is adopted. It is practically the putting of Daniel Webster's sublime 'Drum-beat of England' into actuality by having all the Queen's subjects, wheresoever they are, at high noon on that day take off their hats and sing 'God Save the Queen," and having all organs and bands of music play it. Thus from Victoria, in Australia, round the world to Victoria, in British Columbia, there would flow for twenty-four hours a ceaseless song of praise, one meridian taking it up as another dropped it. What do our fellow-subjects think of this for a grand idea?' One good thing about this proposal is that it is inexpensive—as mere lip loyalty usually is. We are sure that something that would be of more real benefit to her subjects would meet Her Majesty's approval much better than mere hurrah and the beating of tom-toms.

LONDON, Ontario, is noted for having more politics to the square yard than any other civic community in the Dominion. The natural consequence of this is that politics have invaded municipal matters, of course to the disadvantage of civic interests. In view of the evil effects of such a condition, the organization of a Citizen's League, with the object of removing politics from municipal affairs, is to be highly commended. Nothing but evil to the interests of a municipal corporation, whether it be school board or council, can come of electing members simply because they are of one party or the other. It would be as wise to select a man for a representative, without regard to his personal qualifications, simply because he is an Irishman, Scotchman or an Englishman, as because he is a Liberal or a Conservative. A partizan is sure to work from the interest of his party, and in this the interests of the community at large, composed as it is on the average pretty equally of both, are generally sacrificed. The notoriously bad management of municipal affairs needs to be ended, and a great step in advance will have been made when party politics are eliminated as factors in municipal affairs, and a greater advance will have been made when municipal representatives rise to the height of working, in their conducting of public matters, as carefully and with as due regard to economy as they do in their private business affairs.

A young man in Lowell, Mass., troubled for years with a constant succession of boils on his neck, was completely cured by taking only three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Another result of the treatment was greatly improved digestion with increased avoirdupois.

In Every Province, Says Her Excellency—No Opposition to Existing Hospitals—Railway Men Wanted to See Mr. Blair, But Were Disappointed—Capital Jots.

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—The meeting held in the Normal School this afternoon for the purpose of hearing Countess Aberdeen explain the scheme of the Victorian Order of Home Helpers, to commemorate the Queen's diamond jubilee, was well attended. His Excellency presided, and in his opening remarks said he thought no better plan to celebrate this great event could be devised than the one now before the public.

Lady Aberdeen spoke for about half an hour and delivered a thoroughly practical address. She said there were two main objects to be considered: First, what memorial would please Her Majesty in connection with this year of jubilee, and second, what memorial would most appeal to the hearts of Canadians. The Countess proceeded to speak of the inception of the work, and also of its need. There was not a province in the Dominion in which it was possible to get sufficient nurses for the rural districts, and she, therefore, believed that a project of this kind was calculated to be a great benefit. The scheme was not submitted in opposition to any hospitals, but as a supplementary of hospital work. In training nurses for the country districts three qualifications would be necessary before they could accept engagements, namely, a practical knowledge of midwifery, practical knowledge of first aid to the injured, and some knowledge of home sanitation. She trusted that a large representative committee would be appointed to work out the details. It was thought $1,000,000 would be required to properly carry out the scheme, which would be equivalent to $1 to each family of Canada. At Lord Aberdeen's request, A. E. Forget, Indian Commissioner, spoke on the project, showing the need for such an organisation in the Northwest.

Mr. Laurier, who was received with applause, expressed himself heart and soul in favor of this project. In eloquent language, he sketched Victoria's reign, speaking of the development of arts, letters and science. Charity was the most fitting thing in which the people of Canada could mark appreciation of the diamond jubilee, and he trusted, therefore, that the people would take hold of this proposal. He moved a resolution, pledging the meeting to hearty approval of the scheme, and affirming the desirability of opening a fund for the purpose of carrying it out.

The motion was seconded by Hon. Clifford Sifton and carried unanimously. After speeches from Rev. John McDougall of Morley and others, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Local representatives of the Dominion Board of Arbitrators of Railway Employes saw Mr. Laurier again today in reference to their request for the appointment of a committee to enquire into cases of political partisanship on the Intercolonial. Mr. Blair was to have been present, but, as he had left for Montreal during the day, the meeting had to be deferred to another day.

Sir C. H. Tupper informed your correspondent to-day that he expects to be in Ottawa right along until July, when the final argument before the Behring Sea arbitrators comes up. Sir Charles co-operated with the Government counsel in the entire case, and was in fact given a standing which he would not have occupied as a private counsel for those on whose behalf he was specially retained. He does not think that the Government work could have been better done than by the genetlemen to whom it was entrusted. Mr. Peters, leading counsel, with Mr. Belque and Mr. Bodwell, won encomiums on every side. Mr. Dickinson, the American counsel, fought his side well. Sir Charles will be engaged with the Government counsel in preparing their written argument, which is required to be printed and delivered by the end of March. The American counsel will put in a reply and then there will be a closing reply from Canada in writing.

A. W. Ross, ex-M. P., of Toronto, is here on mining business.

The British Columbia delegation had another interview with Mr. Blair today in reference to the railway project. The Minister promised to secure them an interview with all the members of the Government to-morrow. It is said their little line will cost fifteen millions.

ALIEN LABOUR LAW.

(Montreal Star.)

Mr. Laurier appears to have elevated his attitude on the alien labour question to the dignity of a party "plank" during the by-election campaign in Ontario. At Orillia he declared, on the invitation of an elector, that if the Americans did not abandon their policy of petty prosecution, he certainly would introduce a retaliatory measure into Parliament, and at Brantford he repeated this promise, talking of the alien labour issue as he had talked of tariff reform and the Manitoba school settlement.

This is a new spectacle in Canadian politics, and on which Uncle Sam should not permit to escape his eye. There was a time—not so long distant, when the House of Commons hardly gave Mr. Geo. Taylor, of Leeds, a patient hearing, when he introduced his oft-rejected alien labour bill, and both the leader of the then Government and the leaders of the opposition seemed to feel the unwisdom of prompt and effective retaliation. Then was your Uncle Samuel comparatively safe in his despicable encouragement of the De Barrys and the pen nut legislators that back them; but now when the Premier of the country, with a comfortable majority at his back, and with the Opposition in full and open accord with his policy, threatens immediate and severe retaliation if the Corliss-De Barry business is to go on, the American need not calculate upon a monopoly of this kind of thing very much longer.

CAN CURE ASTHMA

A Leading Physician's Discovery.

He Will Prove it Free of Charge to Every Sufferer in Peterborough.

It is but natural that sufferers from that terrible disease known as "Asthma," after treating with doctors and trying without avail, numberless remedies advertised as "positive cures," have come to the conclusion that there is no cure for this most distressing of diseases and can be pardoned for being still skeptical when they learn that Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann, the recognized authority, who in thirty years of experience as a medical practioner, has treated more cases of Asthma and its kindred than any living doctor, has at last achieved success by perfecting a remedy which not only gives instant relief even in the worst and most inveterate of cases, but has cured thousands of sufferers who were considered incurable.

Knowing that in making this broad claim a strong doubt may exist in the minds of many who have been duped by fraudulent nostrums, and that a personal test will establish the truth of his claims, Dr. Schiffman authorizes this paper to announce that any sufferer from Asthma, Bronchitis, Nasal Catarrh or Hay Fever, who will send him their address plainly written on a postal card will receive a free trial package of Dr. Schiffman's Asthma Cure absolutely free of charge. To accept this most generous and extraordinary offer involves only the cost of a postal card and the remedy undoubtedly possesses the merit he claims for it, otherwise the Doctor would not openly invite sufferers to test it absolutely free of charge, before purchasing; even paying the postage on the sample himself. This offer is not good after March 1st, so persons desiring to avail themselves of the same should promptly send their address to Dr. R. Schiffman, 845 Rosabel Street, St. Paul Minn., U.S.A.

SPLENDID OPENING.

miliar with the rules of debate, and he himself was in the foremost ranks of the debaters in the chamber, always listened to attentively. The Government leader then proposed the name of Francis Eugene Alfred Evanturel, the member for Prescott as a fit and proper person to fill the chair.

Mr. J. R. Stratton seconded the nomination. He endorsed the previous speaker's remarks and hoped Mr. Evanturel would be elected by acclamation. A man's race and religion should not be taken into consideration, but a man of integrity and ability was wanted.

Mr. J. P. Whitney, leader of the Opposition, endorsed the Government candidate. He said that it was so seldom he had a chance to agree with the Government that when he did he felt strongly the tension of the situation.

The Clerk then put the motion, and Mr. F. E. A. Evanturel was declared elected unanimously and was assisted to his seat by his mover and seconder.

And then, with more than his usual eloquence, the Hon. Speaker-elect thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him. The position he now occupied was one which had been held since Confederation by some of the most eminent statesmen and greatest sons of Ontario. He would endeavor to follow in their footsteps and be guided in his conduct by the decisions of the British and Colonial Parliaments. He pledged his honor that his decisions would be marked by the strictest impartiality.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE'S PICTURE

Formally Presented to the Legislature by the Toronto General Trusts.

According to announcement Dr. Hoskin, Q.C., ascended the steps before the throne, to present to the Legislature, on behalf of the Toronto General Trusts Company, the picture of Hon. Edward Blake, which hung on the western wall and directly in front of the Government benches. The painting was unveiled, and presented to view, a life-sized picture of the then youthful Liberal leader in the act of addressing the House. In the background are seen the faces of the late Hon. Alex. Mackenzie and the late Archibald McKellar. In making the presentation Dr. Hoskin said;

"Mr. Speaker: A committee from the Toronto General Trusts Company, consisting of its vice-presidents—Dr. Meredith and Mr. W. H. Beatty—the Speaker of the House of Commons, its managing director, Mr. Langmuir, Mr. George Gooderham, Senator Cox, Sir Frank Smith, Mr. Jaffray and myself, have the honour to wait upon the members of the Legislative Assembly for the purpose of presenting the portrait of the second Premier of the Province of Ontario, the Honorable Edward Blake.

"The honorable gentleman was the first, and for 14 years continuously, president of the Toronto General Trusts Company in the formation of which he took the leading part, seeing from his experience in connection with trusts estates, which come under his notice professionally, the great need for such a company which was the first of the kind called into existence, and upon his retiring from the position of president because of his absence for the time being from the province the directors desired to mark their esteem for him and their appreciation of his services in some lasting way, and to that end it was concluded, with his approval, to present his portrait to the province, and we are here to-day, sir, for the purpose of asking you to accept it in the name of the Legislative Assembly.

"The portrait represents Mr. Blake speaking in the old legislative chamber; one of the scenes of his former triumphs; on either side of him will be observed the portraits respectively of the late Alexande Mackenzie and Archibald McKellar.

"The artist, Mr. Grier, I may add, is entitled to much credit for the excellent way in which he has executed his work.

"And words of mine as to Mr. Blake's standing, ability and character will be superfluous—you all know him as well as I do. He is one of Canada's greatest sons, an honorable man, a scholar, a statesman, a lawyer; one who has occupied the highest places in the legislative, scholastic and professional world—for many years the Chancellor of the University of Toronto, for many years the treasurer or head of the Law Society of this province, once Premier of Ontario, and formerly the Minister of Justice for the Dominion of Canada, and while his voice is not now heard in our Legislative Halls and Courts, yet it is frequently and effectively heard at Westminster and in that High Court of the Empire, Her Majesty's Privy Council.

"Apart from the ability to discharge the varied duties pertaining to these high positions, he has manifested great financial skill as evidenced by his connection with the affairs of the Toronto General Trusts Company and by his having been recently chosen to represent at Westminster the views of those who are interested in contending that there has been an inequality in taxation.

"We respectfully ask that his portrait may be placed near that of our great and distinguished friend, Mr Oliver Mowat, in the hope that it will follow those of the first and fifth premiers of this great province, which will fittingly adorn the walls of this magnificent building, which is a lasting memorial to the name of the late Christopher Finlay Fraser." [Applause.]

Speaker Evanturel replying on behalf of the Legislature, desired to offer to the givers his deep-felt gratitude. There was not a resident in Canada to which the name of Edward Blake had not penetrated as one of the greatest sons of our province. He had now crossed the ocean to throw additional lustre upon the Canadian name in the old land. Excellently as the picture had been painted, it would fade long before the memory of Blake would have us. Concluding he made a touching reference to the two great Canadians, Sir John A. Macdonald and Hon George Brown, whose views were opposed in life, but whose monuments now stood almost side by side, a fitting foreground for the Parliament pile.

Hon. G. W. Ross also made one of his happy speeches in reply. He made a glowing reference to Mr. Blake's services in his capacity as leader of the Provincial and Federal Opposition and as Premier of Ontario. He had been the second to fill the latter office and had been succeeded in it by Sir Oliver Mowat. Sir Oliver, who stood among the concourse of notable gentlemen in front of the Speaker, hung his head and blushed while Dr. Ross proceeded with an eloquent tribute to himself for the services he had rendered his province during his 24 years of power. And yet, the speaker added, "this long lease has left no wrinkles upon his noble brow."

The reference to the ex-Premier was well-received and the Minister concluded by paying his respects to Mr. Laurier, in which the assemblage also endorsed him.

Cries from Mr. Hardy and his colleagues of "Whitney!" "Whitney" resulted in bringing the opposition leader to his feet to make a few remarks. He heartily concurred in the propriety of the incident which had taken place. It would not become him to paint the lily and adorn the rose like Mr. Ross had done, but nevertheless he agreed with all that gentleman had said of Mr. Blake's fame and renown. In time, he concluded, there would be many other pictures of noted Canadians adorning the walls of the chamber, but in that distant future the passageway which led up to the picture of Hon. Edward Blake would be worn by the tramp of sight-seers as much as that leading to any other.

Mr. Whitney sat down amid applause and the most brilliant legislative function Toronto has witnessed for many years was over.

BURNED THE BABY TO DEATH.

Fearful Result of a Fire at the House of Stephen Roguiski in Detroit—Girl Badly Burned.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 10.—Fire at 2.30 o'clock this morning resulted disastrously to the family of Stephen Roguiski, in a small frame cottage on the Emerson-road. The result is that his 2-year-old son was burned to death in his cradle and his 12-year-old girl Mary is not expected to live. Five other members of the family were also more or less seriously burned before they made their escape from the burning structure. Roguiski was awakened by the flames, and at once awoke his family. With the assistance of his wife he threw the children out of a window to save them from cremation. The 2-year-old child's crib was a mass of flames when the frantic father reached it, and the little one had already become a victim of the flames. Neighbors soon after succeeded in pulling the little body, which had been burned to a crisp, out of the debris with some long poles. Roguiski is the man who was under suspicion of having attempted to kill the Kooncal family of Springwells by trying to blow up their house with dynamite.

ALL FOR FREE TRADE.

The Tariff Commissioners Conclude Their Sittings at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—The Dominion Tariff Commissioners concluded their enquiry in the west to-day and leave for Ottawa to-morrow. Most of to-day was occupied in hearing representative agriculturists, the remarkable feature of whose testimony was the unanimity with which they demanded free trade.

They declared almost without exception that Mr. Laurier had obtained their votes on the pledge of free trade, and that if he did not carry out his promises there would be trouble in the Liberal camp.

Many of the delegates pronounced in favor of direct taxation. Farmer Robt. Hogg of Russell said that the Government was on trial now and this tariff commission would be judged by the results. Already there were mutterings of discontent at the utterances of members of the Government. If the Liberal Government did not fulfil its promises of free trade, it would be swept from power.

John E. Smith, representative of Brandon, said if Mr. Laurier gave them free trade they would all take down the motto, "God Bless Our Home" from their walls and substitute one reading "God Bless Wilfrid Laurier."

Mr. Thomas Sissons of Portage la Prairie submitted a memorial from the Portage and Lakeside Agricultural Societies. The memorial endorsed free trade as a policy, and urged the Liberal Government to carry out its free trade election promises.

TRIMMER GOT SQUEEZED.

A Locomotive Fireman Pretty Badly Hurt at the Falls.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Feb. 10.—G.T.R. Locomotive Fireman W. Trimmer of St. Thomas got squeezed between the rear of the tender and his engine and the wall of the roundhouse at 6 o'clock this evening. The hostler was backing the engine into the roundhouse, when Trimmer stepped up behind to put his oiling cans in the box on the rear of the tender. He was caught across the stomach, and, although very seriously injured, the doctors say he is not fatally hurt.

A FARMER IN TROUBLE.

A Grenville County Man Speaks his Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Feb. 1 (Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realising great help. I now feel like a new man and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form.

Clothing the British Army.

It costs the British Government $6,250,000 annually for the clothing furnished its army all over the world. Each of the foreign possessions, however, has to pay back, to a certain extent, the amount which the uniforms of the troops stationed or sent there has cost, and this entails no end of complicated bookkeeping.

India, for instance, pays for the clothing of its own troops and also for the uniforms of the men which England sends there. The latter item is about $675,000 annually. On the other hand, when a regiment comes home from India that country has to be paid back the full value of the clothes they wear.

The Government sells old and worn-out articles to the second-hand dealers, who, by the way, usually accumulate fortunes in a short time. The value of cast-off clothes so disposed of is about $140,000 yearly. The scraps remaining after the uniforms have been cut out also bring a matter of $50,000 annually. In all, the authorities receive back about $1,500,000, thus reducing the total cost of clothing the army to less than $5,000,000 a year.

The best quality of everything is used in the manufacture of uniforms. In fact, it is said, they are too good for durable wear. A huge factory in Pimlico, London, makes a large share of the furnishings, but vast quantities of foot and head gear are bought ready made. Boots and leggings, for example, cost $1,165,000 and head dresses $250,000.

The thousands of miles of flannel, linen, calico, cloth, velvet, etc., the millions of buttons, the tons of cotton wool, the billions of yards of sewing cotton, that are made into smart tunics, tidy trousers and warm shirts, cost $2,425,000. The wages paid for making these up is over $6000 a week. Some of the salaries paid in this branch are excellent for England. The inspector of clothing receives $8000 and his assistants $3750 apiece, and son on down the long list.

But all this vast expense is probably much less than the annual outlay that France and Germany makes for keeping its soldiers smart in appearance in times of peace. In Germany, for example, every man in the army is said to have four complete suits of military clothing.

Dr. CHASE CURES FATHER AND CHILD

Both afflicted with Eczema of a very troublesome type and cured in a remarkably short while by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"I was troubled for ten years with eczema on one leg; the itching was something terrible; would scratch until the blood came. How I came to know the value of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT, I have a little girl two years; when she was one year old the same disease began to show upon her face. It wasn't long before her face became literally covered with it. In order to keep her from scratching it we had to bandage her hands up. I tried several doctors, but got no relief. Seeing DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT so highly advertised I made up my mind to purchase a box, which I did from one of our leading druggists. The first application I noticed a change. It was then I began to think about myself. With four or five applications, to my surprise, I am completely cured, no sign of the disease, and my little girl's face to-day is clear of all the scabs. I am only too glad to inform any person what a blessing DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT has proved itself.

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 80x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north; and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,

It is desired that all who attend this evening's session of the County Sunday school Association at St. Paul's church, bring their Bibles, as the Rev. The Fairweather Bicycle.

After many days an owner has been found for the Fairweather bicycle. The lucky holder of receipt No. 1790 was Miss C. R. Sutherland, daughter of Mr. James Sutherland, grocer, town, who made a fifteen cent purchase on October 7th, 1896, and the accompanying cash register coupon was the lucky 1790.

Reduction of Water Rates.

At the meeting of the town council the other evening Councillor Adam Dawson, on hearing that some of the citizens objected to connecting their premises with the sewer on account of having no water service, the latter being too expensive, mentioned the fact that as soon as the town had expended $20,000 in sewerage, the Water Company would reduce their rates 10 per cent., as per agreement.

Friday's Carnival.

The open air carnival on the Riverside Park Rink, Ashburnham, to-morrow evening, will undoubtedly be a grand affair. The Fire Brigade Band will be in attendance during the evening, and will render a programme of music from the very latest selections, which will add greatly to the merriment of the masqueraders. Medals will be offered to lady and gentlemen fancy skaters. A feature of this carnival is that all those desirous can skate the entire evening. Everybody will be there. Prizes on view at the "Times" bookstore.

A FEBRUARY WEDDING.

Celebration of the Rutherford-Shortly Nuptials Yesterday Afternoon.

The wedding of Mr. Benj. Shortly, one of Peterborough's most enterprising merchants and president of the local Board of Trade, took place yesterday afternoon to Miss Flora Rutherford, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Arthur Rutherford, Benson Avenue.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., pastor of the George street Methodist church, in the presence of the near relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride was handsomely costumed in a travelling suit of purple and black brocade, with souave jacket and vest of deep cream silk. She carried a beautiful bouquet of cream roses. Miss Mary Rutherford, of Norwood, and neice of the bride made a very sweet little maid of honour. After partaking of the wedding dejeuner, Mr. and Mrs. Shortly left for the west on the C.P.R. afternoon express.

A large number of handsome gifts were received. The groom's present to the bride consisted of a handsome gold watch, the case of which was set with diamonds. A host of congratulations follow Mr. and Mrs. Shortly on their trip.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Messrs. W. A. Miller's and J. W. Crosby's Entertainment.

There was a good attendance at the George street Methodist lecture room Tuesday evening, to see and hear the illustrated lecture. The entertainment is composed of a series of paintings of scenes in the Holy Land. As each picture is shown Mr. W. A. Miller explains it very fully. The illustrations were very attractive, interesting and instructive. There are forty paintings in all, and the first twenty of these were shown in Grace church some time ago. It was Mr. Miller's intention to show the whole forty paintings, but as the mechanism connected with the paintings would not work, he could only show the following:—Damascus, oldest city in the world; Antioch, in Paul's time; Patmos, prison of St. John; Corinth, Ephesus, Athens, Smyrna, Samaria, Arch of Severus, Temple of Saturn, Coliseum of Rome, Banquet or Feast, Marriage Procession, Treading the wine press, agriculture, plows, threshing and winnowing, wells, grinding corn, etc.; Fellowcrafts squaring stones, Israelites brick-making, pyramids, etc.; Ships of desert and sea; Warfare, copied from Rome's greatest painter. Two scenes worth two hundred dollars. They show ancient engines of war, horses, elephants, chariots, shields, catapult, &c. Triumphal March, Evening Service. One of the best paintings in the collection was that of the Collisieum of Rome. The painting is very natural, and the spectator becomes so absorbed in the scene that he fairly is standing beside these famous ruins.

The scene of "Warfare" is also very realistic. One can see the dead and the dying men horses, the latter galloping around making their way over human bodies, heedless of where their hoofs fall. The whole lecture was a success as far as it went and it is to be regretted that the circumstances were such that the twenty views which were seen at Grace church could not be repeated at George street.

While Mr. Crosby was arranging some part of the canvas so as to have it in readiness for the evening entertainment, he had the misfortune to fall from a step-ladder, hurting his knee so severely that he was unable to attend the lecture in the evening.

Sunday Street Loafers.

The number of loafers allowed to stand in the doorways and at street corners on Sunday nights, and almost every other night in the week, is simply disgraceful. TO-NIGHT'S MATCH.

The Globe of to-day says:—"The result of the match between the Wellingtons and the Peterborough III in the latter place this evening is eagerly looked forward to. The crack city aggregation will leave on a special car this morning and it is expected that quite a bunch of their supporters will follow them on a later train. A. H. Beatoe, Secretary of the O. H. A., will witness the game in the capacity of umpire, and will incidentally see that the match is played according to Hoyle. Percy Brown, who is entitled to be termed the best referee in the city, will do the honours of the game.

CURLIANA.

The Lakefield curlers came to Peterborough yesterday, three rinks strong, and played a friendly match with the Granites in the afternoon and with the Thistles in the evening. All six of the games played were won by big majorities by the winning rink with the exception of that played between skips Geo. Brown and Arthur Strickland in the evening—this score being fourteen all. The results on the different rinks were as follows:—

Majority for Thistles, 4 shots.

The Thistles as will be seen won from Lakefield yesterday by four shots and when playing in Lakefield last week won by two shots.

The Granites have yet to go to Lakefield for a return match.

The Lakefield Colts are anxious for a match with Peterborough Colts.

In the bonspiel last evening when rinks Nos. 1 and 3 has ceased playing Lakefield had a lead of one shot, but Skip Geo. Brown's rink, which was five points down at the time, made a three and a two-end in succession and by tieing their opponents won the match for the Thistles by four shots.

The following is the second draw in the Kendry Cup series:—W. D. Parker vs. Dr. Boucher; J. H. Connal vs. E. B. Edwards: D. W. Dumble vs. winner of the Edmison vs. Davidson draw.

HOCKEY.

The Y. M. C. A. have organized a new hockey team. They will probably play their first match with the Junior Boys' Brigade. The team lines up as follows:—Goal, Yokome; point, Hall; cover point, Perks; forwards, Wood, Tovey, Robinson and Cleeves.

The Kingston News says: The Peterborough people are holding a jubilee because their swift aggregation of puck-chasers defeated Queen's University hockey team in the first game of the second round of the senior series of the O. H. A. games. But the other half of the game is to be played in Kingston early next week, and the local "rooters" who believe in the old adage that "he laughs best who laughs last," are keeping their broad grin for the conclusion of the game in Kingston, and are willing to stake their reputation that good old Queen's will be on top at the end of the game. Peterborough expresses as much joy over their part-victory as we expect to do when we celebrate Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee. There is no doubt that the Peterborough team are a speedy lot of players, and will make matters interesting for the wearers of the tri-coloured jersey in their game in Kingston next week; but Queen's supporters are confident that when the wearers of the garnet and white get down to work on the broad Kingston rink our men will out-skate them. There will be no more brilliant board shots for the Peterborough "boys" and that will be a loss to them. Alfie Pierce is willing to bet his old hat that "Peterboroo" will not be in it at the next game. Win or lose, the Peterborough team will receive a warm welcome when they come to the Limestone City. They are very popular with our local players.

The boys have decided to go down for the return game with Queen's on Monday next.

The Juniors of the town will show the citizens what they can do in the way of hockey to-night, when the run up against the Wellingtons of Toronto in the semi-finals of the series. The Wellingtons are the city champions, and have not sustained a defeat this year, so that in winning from them the Peterboroughs will have their work cut out for them. The local team will be composed as follows:—Goal, Dixon: point, Glover; covarpoint, Thorne; forwards, Crossley, Graham, King and Watt.

An exciting game of hockey was played on the Riverside Rink last night between the Ashburnham seven and the South End septette, composed respectively of the following players:

Ashburnham.		South Ends.
H Neil	goal	A Picard
F Logan	point	W Meagher
J Scott	cover point	J Picard
C Calcutt	forwards	W Crowley
B Kindred		E Mitchell
J Tobin		H Morgan
L McWilliams		H Labbe

Referee—"Ripiets" Hartley.

The game was hotly contested, though the teams were not evenly matched as to weight and age, the South Enders being mere boys, the oldest about 10 years of age. H. Labbe scored the first game for the south enders, and Jos. Picard the second by a splendid lift from centre ice. In the second half the Ashburnhams in their anxiety to discover where the goal posts really were, put Lorne McWilliams on the forward line, but this precaution did not prevent W. Crowley from scoring the third straight for the boys, to which Ernie Mitchell added another a few minutes later. At length McWilliams justified his appointment on the forward line by scoring two goals for the Ashburnham team, making the score 4—2 in favour of the youngsters. A return match will be played next week.

A fast game of hockey took place at the Charlotte street rink yesterday afternoon when two junior teams—the Colts and the Collegiate Institute seven—lined up as follows:

Colts.		Coll. Inst.
W Macdonald	goal	L Best
E Graham	point	S Hall
M Hallihan	cover point	L Hall
W Reatley	forwards	F McGrath
R Armstrong		J Dixon
H McBain		O Dumble
F Bradburn		W Robinson
H Armstrong	umpires	W Kennedy

Harry King, umpire.

Misses Gertie Kendry and Mabel Bradburn kindly consented to act as timekeepers for the boys.

The game was played for all there was in it from start to finish, but the Colts were a little too fast for the Collegiates—winning by three goals to one. Of these three goals H. McBain scored two and R. Armstrong one. For the Collegiates J. Dixon scored. McBain, Armstrong and Bradburn put up a great game for the Colts, as did Hallihan at point.

For the Collegiates McGrath, S. Hall, L. Hall and Dixon did exceptionally well.

TWO BUSINESS CHANGES.

Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co., having purchased the Robt. Hall dry goods stock at 61 cents on the dollar, are engaged in taking stock. As soon as this is completed the stock will be removed to the Simcoe street establishment, where it will be speedily converted into cash, which the moderate prices at which the purchase figure will enable them to offer first-class goods, will soon accomplish.

Mr. R. M. Roy has purchased the photographic business of Mr. P. H. Green, on Hunter street, and will take possession on Saturday or Monday. Mr. Green has brought his business to a high position, which Mr. Roy's well known ability and artistic instincts will doubtless maintain. Mr. Green has in contemplation the establishment of a large studio in one of the cities of western Ontario.

Mr. "Paddy" Carroll, who has been a long time connected with the Oriental Hotel, has purchased the Pullman Restaurant and will hereafter conduct it in a first-class manner. "Paddy" is popular with the boys, and should enjoy a liberal patronage.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Jas. McClennan was down town yesterday—the first time in six weeks.

The '97 Cleveland Bicycle.

This is to be a great year for the Cleveland wheel. Prosperity has made its manufacturers very energetic. The '97 Cleveland is a masterpiece. Forty-six important improvements have been made, including new tires, chains, bearings, frames, handle-bars, chain guards, aluminum clinchers, dust proof barrel-hub pedals, cranks, nuts, cushion saddles, saddle posts, etc. Messrs. A. H. Stratton & Co., of the Peterborough Bookstore, have been appointed agents for the Cleveland for this district. If you are anxious to use the lightest, handsomest, strongest, swiftest and best improved wheel in the market, consult the live agents of the Cleveland.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

PROGRAMME FOR THE PRESENT SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The Diamond Jubilee—India Famine—Provincial Litigation—Lumbering and Mining—University Endowment.

The following is the text of the speech from the throne, read at the opening of the Ontario Legislature on Wednesday:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:—In consequence of the temporary absence of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Honourable George Airey Kirkpatrick, the Governor-General-in-Council has been pleased to appoint me administrator of the Government. After the arrival of his Honour in England it was learned that he was suffering from a severe illness. This intelligence was received throughout the province with deep regret. I am greatly pleased to be able to state that his health is improving, and also to express the hope that he will soon return to the discharge of his public duties fully restored to his former health and vigour.

THE DIAMOND JUBILEE.

It is a subject of congratulation that since your last meeting her Most Gracious Majesty has entered upon and is now approaching the completion of her 60th year of her illustrious reign. Our interest in the event is enhanced by the consideration that her reign has been the longest, happiest and most progressive in the annals of the Empire. An address to her Majesty upon an event so gratifying to all her loving subjects in this province, and expressive of your loyalty and attachment, will be submitted for your consideration.

The first day of June next will be the one hundredth anniversary of the meeting of the Parliament of Upper Canada in the present capital of the province. During all the intervening years the province has steadily advanced in wealth and population and many of the institutions which in its early history were incomplete in their organization and limited in their operations have been greatly enlarged and improved under the beneficient influence of that form of Government which we so happily enjoy.

I congratulate you upon last year's bountiful harvest of nearly all the staple crops of the province, and further upon the advance in the prices of some of them.

THE INDIA FAMINE.

You will regret exceedingly to learn that the inhabitants of some parts of India are suffering from famine and the plague and that local resources are inadequate to meet the emergency. I confidently rely upon your generous disposition to grant such aid for the relief of our afflicted fellow-subjects as the circumstances appear to demand and the means at your disposal will permit.

PROVINCIAL LITIGATION.

Judgment has recently been given by the Supreme Court of Canada in the case submitted between the Government of Canada and the Provinces for the determination of their rights respectively in the public fisheries. It affords me much satisfaction to be able to inform you that the rights of the provinces are much greater than has been hitherto recognised by the Government of Canada, not only in the fisheries of the inland waters, but also in those of the great lakes and rivers. An appeal and a cross appeal have been made to her Majesty in her Privy Council. The necessities of the case require that a bill upon the subject shall be considered by you doing the present session.

It will be satisfactory to you to learn that the claims of the Government of Canada against this province for repayment of certain annuities heretofore paid by that Government to Indians under the Robinson treaty, and for additional and increased annuities which it is alleged may hereafter become payable, have upon appeal been disallowed by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

Since your last session the same tribunal has also given judgment on appeal in the case formerly submitted to the Supreme Court of Canada respecting the powers of the Parliament of Canada and of the Provincial Legislatures respectively as to the right to prohibit the manufacture, sale, and importation of intoxicating liquors. A copy of the judgment will be laid before you.

Increased interest has been manifested during the past year in the new settlements in Algoma, on Rainy River, at Temiscamingue, and at and near Dryden, on Wabigoon Lake, and considerable farm land has been taken up by actual or intending settlers. You will be asked to appropriate a reasonable sum for the purpose of aiding in the colonization of these new settlements.

The arbitration between the Governments of Canada, Ontario and Quebec has not yet been brought to a conclusion, but several additional awards have been made by the arbitrators.

LUMBERING AND MINING.

There has been no improvements in the condition of the lumber trade. The monetary stringency and business depression which prevailed in the United States during 1895, contrary to general expectation, continued during the past year, and the sawn lumber trade consequently became depressed. I am glad to be able to state, however, that there is an increasing demand for our timber and lumber in the English market. It is interesting to know that notwithstanding the adverse condition of the lumber trade, the receipts from the woods and forests have considerably exceeded the estimated revenue.

The work of the Instructor in Road Making, for whose appointment provision was made last session, has been vigourously pursued, and I am pleased to learn, has during the past year been received with a large measure of public approval.

I rejoice to know that the past year has been one of growing activity in mining affairs. Furnaces for smelting iron, nickel, and copper ores, and mills for reducing and refining gold ores, and for the treatment of other minerals, have been steadily operated. The known limits of gold-bearing country have been widened in different directions by the enterprising spirit of prospectors, and the work of development carried on in several new localities encourages the hope that in the year upon which we have entered capital, directed by experience, will find useful and profitable employment. Indeed our province offers to investors, explorers, and miners attractions scarcely equalled elsewhere, and I am gratified to know that its mineral wealth is receiving the earnest attention of our own people.

Amendments of the mining laws, the necessity of which has been suggested by the experience of unusually active operations in the past year, will be submitted for your consideration, and in other ways you will be asked to give to our mining industries generous encouragement.

UNINERSITY ENDOWMENT.

Your consideration will be asked to a measure to set apart certain of the wild lands of the Crown for the uses of the University of Toronto, the proceeds of which shall be applied towards making further provision for instruction in mechanics, engineering, mineralogy and geology, and for the encouragement of scientific investigations and discoveries in connection with the undeveloped mineral resources of this province.

Among other measures to be submitted for your consideration will be a bill relating to the immigration and care of indigent children; a bill further to improve the liquor license laws; a bill to reduce the number of councillors in small towns; a bill to consolidate and amend the Acts relating to Unorganized Districts; a bill to consolidate and improve the Joint Stock Companies' Act; a bill relating to Loan Companies; a bill to make further provision respecting women and children employed in shops; a bill making provision for the establishment of technical schools; and a bill respecting the audit of municipal accounts.

Progress has been made during the past year in consolidating the public laws of the province, and it is hoped the work of consolidation may be completed during the session.

The reports of the various departments of the public service for the past year will be laid before you at an early day.

The public accounts of the province, showing the receipts and expenditures of the past year will also be promptly laid before you.

HON. MR. EVANTUREL, SPEAKER.

Yesterday Mr. Francis Eugene Alfred Evanturel, the member for Prescott, was elected Speaker of the Ontario Legislature. In proof of the wisdom of the choice no better evidence can be presented than the remarks of those who proposed and seconded Mr. Evanturel for the position.

Mr. Hardy, in nominating a Speaker, said: "It becomes the duty of the members present to elect a presiding officer. The circumstances of the vacating of the Speaker's chair by the late Mr. Balfour are too familiar to the members to warrant me doing more than simply alluding to the fact that the late Speaker possessed the confidence of all sides of this House. His long experience in the House, some sixteen years, the foremost part which he took in debate, and his studious habits, familiarized him with the rules, orders and procedure of debate. There were few men occupying to a greater degree the confidence both of the House and of the public than our late Speaker; and his lamented death within the walls of this building had something tragic in it. He had reached what to him had been the object of his ambition but a few weeks previous to the sad occurrence. I need scarcely mention the office and functions of the Speaker to the hon. members. The duties of the office are well known. It is an important office, one of high consideration under our Parliamentary government form and procedure. The duty of the Speaker is to preside in this House. He should be a man of integrity, fairness, a man of a judicial habit of thought, above all impartial between the different members of this House. The name that I have the honour to mention to you I think to a very large extent will meet the requirements of the situation. I am to propose as Speaker Mr. Evanturel, the member for Prescott. (Applause.) He has been a member of this House for some ten years. He is a graduate of Laval University, a bachelor of laws, a barrister, and for some time he was connected with the public service at Ottawa, and had an opportunity there of witnessing the procedure of Parliament and making himself familiar with the rules of debate. His father before him was a member of the Government of 1858, was the first Minister of Agriculture in Canada, was himself the creator, in a sense, of what is now the great Department of Agriculture. These are considerations which should have very great weight in the choice of Mr. Evanturel. That he will well fulfil the duties I do not doubt; that he has ability is beyond question. He has stood in the foremost ranks of the debaters of this House, and although not perhaps taking as active a part in debate as some other members, he has always spoken to attentive ears. He is familiar with the rules and procedure of the House. He knows well the duties of the Speaker, and I am sure I have but to mention his name to all the members of this House to find a general admission that he will well and ably discharge the functions of the distinguished position to which I propose that he should be elected." (Applause.) The Attorney-General concluded by proposing that Francis Eugene Alfred Evanturel take the chair as Speaker.

MR. STRATTON SECONDS IT.

In seconding the motion Mr. Stratton confirmed all that had been said by Mr. Hardy of the high qualities of mind and heart possessed by the late Mr. Balfour. Proceeding, he said:

"In regard to the present nominee, it may be said that the Attorney-General, in making the motion has maintained, the traditions of this Government in being invariably fortunate in the selection of a gentleman to preside over the important deliberations of this House, and I have no doubt that the 30th session of this Legislature will also maintain the tradition still by unanimously electing the hon. gentleman whose name has been mentioned by the Attorney General. It is true that Mr. Evanturel has not had so long an experence in the Legislature as some of his predecessors, more especially his immediate predecessor, but he came into the House the same year that I had the honour to enter it, and his ability and capacity for the effective representation of his constituency, and the knowledge that he had acquired of Parliamentary procedures and precedents, amply fit him, I believe, for a post so important as that of the Speaker's chair. It is very gratifying to know in this, the sixtieth year of her Majesty's reign, that in the first province of the first colony of the first empire of the world a man's race and religion are not taken into consideration by the members of this House, but that only ability, integrity and fitness for the position are required. I have no doubt that the legal training which has been referred to by the Attorney-General and the knowledge that Mr. Evanturel has acquired of constitutional law will be a benefit to him instead of a detriment in the chair to which I believe that he will be unanimously elected. I have every reason to hope and believe that Mr. Evanturel will occupy the position with dignity and with judicial impartiality, and that the tenure of his office will demonstrate that he has all the abilities that are required for the proper discharge of the important duties that may fall to the lot of the first Commoner of the Province." Mr. Stratton concluded by formally seconding the motion, which the Clerk put to the House.

THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION APPROVES.

Mr. Whitney, leader of the Opposition, in making his first speech in the House in that capacity, was listened to with close attention. He endorsed the selection of Speaker made by the House, and agreed with the remarks in reference to Hon. Mr. Evanturel's qualifications, and he had no hesitation in saying that the selection of a compatriot of Cartier and Taché for so important a position would have a tendency for good in this country.

The farmers are complaining about the roads, there being not much sleighing and much less wheeling. If the present mild weather continues the sleighing will be gone entirely and the roads will be in a very bad state for traffic. HOURS—11.30 to 4.

The man who has been struck by a locomotive and is picked up alive and carried on by the cow-catcher has had a miraculous escape. The man who through neglect has sacrificed his health and wrecked his body, and through the merits of a medicine is picked up alive and restored to health has had an almost equally wonderful experience. There are thousands of men, who have for years overworked themselves to the neglect of their health, and then when utterly wrecked in body and shattered in nerve have been picked up and restored to health by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It is a marvelous remedy that corrects all disorders of the digestion, invigorates the liver, and fills the blood with the life-giving elements that build new flesh and muscle. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption and is a specific for diseases due to disorders of the digestion or imperfect nutrition. Druggists sell it.

"Myself and wife," writes Mr. H. G. Adams, of Turners Station, Henry Co., Ky., "have taken five bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription.' The medicines are curing both of us. We can't say too much for them or for you. My wife persuaded me to quit the doctor here and try one bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so, and I thank God for it. I have recommended it highly to many of my neighbors. I told them that if it did not do them one dollar's worth of good that I would pay for it.

"I will give you a little statement of my own case. I was enervated, could hardly get up in the morning, never got a whole night's sleep, was short of breath, had a tight feeling in the stomach, and was restless. I would throw up my food, and had numerous other ailments which I have not time to write about now. I now feel better and look better than ever before in my life."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the surest, safest, quickest cure for constipation. They never gripe. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Substitutes are sometimes dangerous, and always cause discomfort.

FIERCE RIOT AT HAMBURG.

Strikers Attack the Police and a Bloody Fight Ensues With Loss of Two Lives.

Hamburg, Feb. 9.—Ever since the decision of a majority of the men who took part in the great strike here of dock laborers and others employed in the shipping trade to return to work, there has been much discontent among the men, and those who watched the situation closely could see that trouble was brewing. The defeat of the strikers was due mainly to lack of funds, and they felt very bitter that they were compelled to return to work without having in the least benefited their condition. To-night the bad feeling among the men culminated in a bitter fight between a large number of men who had been on strike and the police, who for several days past had been anticipating trouble. Before the disturbance was quelled two men were killed and 19 seriously wounded. Among the latter were five policemen.

It is not known exactly how the fighting started, but one report has it that it originated in a dispute between some men who were arguing as to the correctness of the decision to return to work, and who finally came to blows. When the police attempted to intervene the men abandoned their own quarrel and combined to thrash the policemen, the fighting soon assuming wide proportions. Another story is that the police were the aggressors. However this may be, the fighting became very serious, revolvers and sabres being freely used.

The police were rapidly getting the worst of the contest, they being greatly outnumbered by the raging mob of rioters, whose numbers were quickly swelled, not only by genuine working men, but by the hordes of vicious idlers about the harbor, who were only too anxious under the circumstances to engage with their natural enemies, the police. The latter at first attempted to get the mob to disperse by the use of mild means, but these proving unavailing, sabres were drawn, and orders given to charge the mob. The rioters, some of whom were armed with revolvers, while others had bludgeons and stones for weapons, held their ground tenaciously, and made a desperate resistance, which the police were unable to overcome.

Eventually reinforcements were received in response to the urgent call of the officer in command of the police, and finally the rioters were dispersed with great difficulty. Later crowds of workingmen gathered in Sanct Pauli, Wilhelmsburg and Altona, all of which places are practically parts of Hamburg, and threatened vengeance on the police. The latter, fearing that there would be another outbreak went in strong force to the place mentioned, and compelled obedience to their orders that the streets be cleared.

INJURY AND NEGLECT.

He Failed in Health and Strength—His Kidneys Ached and he Took Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Deseronto, Feb. 8. — (Special). — Among business people here, and especially by his fellow-workmen, great interest has been taken in the case of Mr. James Stokes, who for the past fifteen years has been shipper for the Rathbun Company.

Lately he has run down in health and strength to the point of being compelled to quit work, and his recovery now as the result of using Dodd's Kidney Pills is the talk of the town. On seeing Mr. Stokes he said:

"From overlifting and strain I suffered greatly from Kidney trouble, being advised after all else had failed to use Dodd's Kidney Pills; from the first dose I got relief, and hundreds of people here can vouch for my cure."

FREE TRADERS' DAY

Before the Tariff Commission at Winnipeg.

A TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY

In What the Farmers Say if There Must be a Tariff at All—Strong Representations of the Spokesman of the Patrons—The Government Criticised.

Winnipeg, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Nearly all the time of the Dominion Tariff Commissioners to-day was occupied in hearing the testimony of farmers who represented all sections of the Western country. The first delegation heard was composed of one representative from each of 40 provincial electoral districts, in attendance at the request of Premier Greenway. This delegation submitted resolutions passed by them as follows:

1. It is our opinion that a protective tariff is detrimental to the best interests of our Dominion and that in the framing of a new tariff it should be entirely abandoned; that until free trade becomes practicable, a "tariff for revenue only" should be adopted, levied mainly on luxuries, or upon articles of general consumption not produced in the country.

2. That agricultural implements, farm machinery and all tools used on the farm, binder twine, fence wire, lumber, nails and building material, coal oil and fruit be free, and that the duty on salt, cotton and woolen clothing be materially reduced.

3. That the high protective tariff has very materially restricted commerce with Great Britain, which is the country we look to above all others for our markets, and has greatly retarded the settlement of this province.

4. That the adoption of an income tax, with a reasonable exemption, would be desirable.

Yesterday a memorial signed by over 2000 farmers was submitted, declaring that to remove the duties on wheat and flour would be disastrous. In view of this the delegation above referred to also submitted a resolution as follows:

"Whereas, it has been represented to the commissioners that the farmers of this province wish the duty retained on wheat and flour, that this meeting hereby expresses its opinion that the said duty is of no practical value to the farmers of Manitoba and the Northwest.

Memorials covering much the same ground were also submitted by delegations representing various farmers' Institutes and Patrons of Industry.

Mr. Fleming, who was chosen as chief spokesman for the farmers' delegation, said that for 17 years he had fought in ranks of Liberals, believing they were sincere. Now, he declared, he was disappointed and disgusted to hear Liberal Cabinet Ministers assuring "protected" eastern manufacturers they would not be disturbed. He was disappointed to hear Hon. Messrs. Laurier and Mowat now saying the tariff changes must be made slowly and gradually. Hon. Mr. Laurier before election had declared the high protective tariff was legalized robbery, and now did he propose to continue that legalized robbery? Messrs. Laurier and Mowat reminded him of two new and nervous surgeons about to amputate a man's injured limb. They knew the limb must come off, but as the man was "hollering" a good deal and declaring he would die under the operation, they decided to take it off gradually, first by cutting off a toe. The fear was, he said, they would not cut off more than the toes before the next general election, and if that proved the case the chances were that the new doctors would be called in. If Messrs. Laurier and Mowat persisted in such a policy, the speaker could see little difference between it and the Conservative policy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is known to be an honest medicine, and it actually cures when all others fail. Take it now.

Beauty of the Creole Women

"As you see his face," writes Ruth McEnery Stuart in an article on the Creoles, "A People Who Live Amid Romance," in the Ladies' Home Journal, "you will know that he (the Creole husband or father) realizes that no flower upon the lily-covered altar is half so fair or so fit for the temple's perfect adorning as his blooming wife and budding daughters, who sit in line beside him. If he does not think these things he is a dullard—or, maybe, only half Creole. Perhaps his mother was an American, or Scotch. And then—? Perhaps he would not think them because they might not be true. They would be other things, other things just as fine and good, no doubt—they might even have rare beauty of a different type—but the Creole woman is a flower. She is a magnolia or a jasmine—occasionally, a camellia—or, especially where there is a good warm drop of Spanish blood in her veins, she is a red, red rose—a rose too sweet to pass untouched, but for her perfect dignity and a piquant hauteur that is as protective as any thorn upon a rose's stem.

"Properly speaking, or rather, narrowly speaking, the Creole is an American, born of French or Spanish parents, or of both, and, strictly, both parents should themselves be foreign-born, but the Creole if often only the great-great-grandson of a Creole, and some of their families of purest blood could not reach the mother country without going back through three or four American-born generations."

NEW RATES ON WOOL.

The Joint Traffic Association is Hot After Canadian Pacific Competition for the Seaboard.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—By authority of the Board of Managers of the Joint Traffic Association, the Chicago Committee, composed of all eastern roads having charge of the terminals, gave notice today of new rates on wool, the schedule including all important cities of the east. The new tariff almost cuts the old one in two. The following are samples of the reduction: Boston 71 cents, to 44 cents; New York 65, to 39; Philadelphia, 62 to 37; Baltimore, 61 to 36; Buffalo, 39 to 23 1-2. These rates are for corload lots of a minimum capacity of 20,000 pounds, and a penalty of $1 a car is added for each day the car is left unloaded after 48 hours' shipment. This sweeping reduction indicates a desire of the Board of Managers to protect their own roads against competition, as well as the Western Association roads. When the wool crop of the Northwest was being moved last spring the Soo Line and Canadian Pacific, by making low rates, secured a practical monopoly of the shipment from St. Paul to the Atlantic seaboard, via Canada. The Chicago-St. Paul roads vainly protested and appealed to the Joint Traffic Association to join them in meeting the Canadian competition, but the policy of the managers was then against such co-operation.

By the Persistent Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. Fields, Bloomfield, Ia.

WEALTH OF CANADA.

THE NATURAL RESOURCES OF THE GREAT NORTHERN DOMINION.

Interesting Statistics About the Country We Live in—It Has Room for Many Millions—Its Agricultural Resources —Other Branches.

At the Canadian Club of Hamilton the other night, Mr. B. E. Walker, general manager of the Bank of Commerce, delivered an interesting lecture on "The National Resources of Canada." Mr. Walker pointed out that the basis of love of country was not the fertility of the land and its goodness to the people who cultivated it, nor was it either the physical beauties of the country or its historical associations. But the true root of this feeling was such intimacy with the qualities of a country as was sufficient to enable its inhabitants to conceive it as a whole.

Canada, however, had only been in existence since 1867. Cabot had made his discovery 300 years ago and Peter Kalm, the famous Swedish naturalist, had written about the resources of the country as far back as 1750, but at the time of the capitulation, in 1763, the population consisted of only about 70,000 French-Canadians, and from the St. Lawrence river to the Pacific ocean was practically an immense waste.

Proceeding with his subject, Mr. Walker said that how little a community could live on was shown by the inhabitants of Gaspe and Muskoka. The statement that the savings of the world thus far amounted to only ten months' food supply and about three years' annual income enabled us to perceive what we had in our control. Many millions could live in Canada in simple comfort.

Forty-five per cent. of our people were engaged in agriculture, and it was only desirable that the percentage should be far larger. At the date of Confederation the agricultural exports were under $20,000,000, and now they were over $80,000,000, including animal and dairy products. That was a great deal of money, but small as compared with the exports of other countries. Canada was now only beginning to be mentioned as a wheat country, yet our wheat brought the highest prices in Europe and had taken gold medals at London, Chicago and San Francisco. Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Assiniboia and Alberta possessed 239,000,000 acres, of which only 7,832,000 were used for crops or ranching. Wheat was also being grown within the arctic circle. Canada could equal any country in raising wheat when the conditions were equal.

Speaking of the growth of the cattle trade in the west, Mr. Walker said that it was in 1890 that the first car load of cattle was shipped from the Northwest, as previous to that time those engaged in the trade had only been acquiring stock from which to breed. In 1895 $1,000,000 worth of cattle had been sent out from there, whilst last year Manitoba had exported 12,800 cattle, and had packed and exported 26,000 hogs. He also spoke of the enormous trade there would be when Manitoba possessed the same stock as Ontario, illustrating his points by the aid of the following instructive table:

Farm Stock.	Manitoba 1895.	Ontario 1895.	Dominion 1891.
Horses	95,000	650,000	1,500,000
Cattle	210,000	2,150,000	4,200,000
Sheep	34,000	2,000,000	2,600,000
Swine	73,000	1,200,000	1,800,000

Poultry (sold at home, 226,000), 7,800,000.

The fisheries of the country came next. Mr. Walker pointed out that the coast line of British Columbia was more than 7000 miles—twice that of the British Isles—and the eastern coast line up only to Belle Isle was 5600 miles. There was also 15,000 square miles of inshore salt water, and 36,350 square miles of fresh water. The catch of the last 25 years in the east included 100,000,000 cod, 50,000,000 herring, forty-five million lobster, 36,000,000 mackerel, 38,000,000 salmon and 12,000,000 haddock. The men employed numbered 70,000. The catch of herring, whitefish and salmon trout in the great lakes during the last 12 years amounted to 300,000,000 pounds. In British Columbia the value of the catch in 1876 was $105,000; in 1894 it was $4,000,000. The salmon caught in the past twelve years was worth $21,500,000. Our chain of lakes extended right up to Hudson Bay, which itself contained an almost inexhaustible supply of fish, which might in the future be the food supply of a portion of the population of the United States.

Canadian forests had already been denuded of oak, elm, sycamore and walnut. In white pine, however, Canada was in the lead. The great bulk of the world's supply of white pine was in Canada. What we had would last for 100 years if any care was taken of it. The belt commenced at the southern edge of Algonquin Park and moved west and north to the Gatineau, Boulonge and Black River districts. In the latter localities it was rapidly reproducing itself. The most valuable timber asset we had, however, was the spruce timber. Reproducing itself as it did it was practically inexhaustible, and, in addition, it was of a much better quality than that which grew in Europe. Canada already supplied Europe with timber for pulp for the best paper, and the next step should be to make the paper itself here. The British Columbia forests, with their immense trees, could not literally be said to be inexhaustible, but the quantity was so great that that was practically the case.

Mr. Walker referred o the mineral resources of Canada. He stated that in 1895 the metallic products, including gold, silver, nickel, copper and lead, were worth $6,370,146; the non-metallic products, which consisted of coal, stone, bricks, lime, petrolene and slate, were valued at $15,875,197, and sundries at $254,657, a total of $22,500,000. Of this only $7,500,000 was exported. The following table of comparison between the outputs of Canada and the United States was given:

	Canada, 1895.	United States, 1891-92.
Gold	$1,900,000	$33,000,000
Silver	1,150,000	83,000,000
Iron	238,000	25,300,000
Copper	950,000	37,800,000
Lead	750,000	18,000,000
Nickel	1,400,000	57,000
Coal	7,800,000	101,000,000
Petroleum	1,200,000	30,200,000
	$15,398,000	418,357,020

Novel Floor Treatment.

The last new thing in floor-covering is paper—that is, the floor is laid with a paper imitating or representing grained oak, parquetry, tiles, mosaic pavement or what not. The process is as follows: The floor is first smoothed, then two or three layers of newspapers, saturated with flour paste, are applied, made smooth, and left to dry. Then the wall-paper—that which represents grained oak being preferred—is glued down on the substratum of newspapers, and after being sized, is varnished. The chief recommendation of paper flooring is its cheapness; for a room not used for much traffic it will answer a purpose. It will not do if there is any dampness about the floor.

Enameling is another novel process for treating floors, but it differs from papering in that it is rather expensive, requiring as it does several coats of paint, with vigorous intermediate rubbings down with very fine glass paper. The ordinary enamels sold in the shops are not to be recommended for this purpose, as, from the nature of their composition, they are apt to crack and chip.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Are Fixed Upon South American Nervine.

Beyond Doubt the Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

WHEN EVERY OTHER HELPER HAS FAILED IT CURES

A Discovery, Based on Scientific Principles, that Renders Failure Impossible.

In the matter of good health temporizing measures, while possibly successful for the moment, can never be lasting. Those in poor health soon know whether the remedy they are using is simply a passing incident in their experience, bracing them up for the day, or something that is getting at the seat of the disease and is surely and permanently restoring.

The eyes of the world are literally fixed on South American Nervine. They are not viewing it as a nine-days' wonder, but critical and experienced men have been studying this medicine for years, with the one result—they have found that its claim of perfect curative qualities cannot be gainsaid.

The great discoverer of this medicine was possessed of the knowledge that the seat of all disease is the nerve centres, situated at the base of the brain. In this belief he had the best scientists and medical men of the world occupying exactly the same premises. Indeed, the ordinary layman recognized this principle long ago. Everyone knows that let disease or injury affect this part of the human system and death is almost certain. Injure the spinal cord, which is the medium of these nerve centres, and paralysis is sure to follow.

Here is the first principle. The trouble with medical treatment usually, and with nearly all medicines, is that they aim simply to treat the organ that may be diseased. South American Nervine passes by the organs, and immediately applies its curative powers to the nerve centres, from which the organs of the body receive their supply of nerve fluid. The nerve centres healed, and of necessity the organ which has shown the outward evidence only of derangement is healed. Indigestion, nervousness, impoverished blood, liver complaint, all owe their origin to a derangement of the nerve centres. Thousands bear testimony that they have been cured of these troubles, even when they have become so desperate as to baffle the skill of the most eminent physicians, because South American Nervine has gone to headquarters and cured there.

The eyes of the world have not been disappointed in the inquiry into the success of South American Nervine. People marvel, it is true, at its wonderful medical qualities, but they know beyond all question that it does everything that is claimed for it. It stands alone as the one great certain curing remedy of the nineteenth century. Why should anyone suffer distress and sickness while this remedy is practically at their hands?

The Last Session Held Yesterday Afternoon—The Next Annual Meeting Will be Held at Port Hope—Two Interesting Papers Read Yesterday.

The morning session yesterday of the Peterborough Presbyterial Society W. F. M. S. was opened by Miss Dickson with a Bible reading, after which Miss Hope, of Westwood, delivered a prayer "For weak branches and all who are tried by discouragement that they may be divinely guided and sustained."

Mrs. Stewart of Peterborough then read the following paper on

SYSTEMATIC GIVING.

The Bible teachings as to giving are always timely and are peculiarly so at a meeting of the W.F.M.S. The fig tree which gave no fruit was condemned. The poor widow who cast all her living into God's treasury, and Mary, who in her love brought a costly offering to Jesus, were divinely approved of. If there be a willing mind it is accepted according to what a man hath, and not according to what a man hath not. Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. These are texts quite familiar to us all, and while we most highly commend willing-heartedness and liberality in all giving, allow me to say at the beginning that it is the testimony of nearly all who practice systematics giving that their willing-heartedness to give has increased under this practice of systematic giving. It is not giving just what one feels like. It is not giving what one may happen to have in his pocket or purse at the time, nor is giving large sums of money necessarily systematic giving. The man who gives large sums may be as far from being a systematic giver as he who gives a very small sum. Again, regular giving is not necessarily systematic giving. Systematic giving embraces certain definite principles. It is putting some plan and purpose into our giving. It must be clearly understood that it has definitely to do with what a man receives. It does not fluctuate with sudden impulses or pressing circumstances, nor is it governed by the needs and calls for money. But beginning with our income be that small or great, say a certain proportion of that income shall be regularly set apart and given to the Lord. We now see systematic giving means proportionate giving. Let us turn to the Bible for an answer to the question. I think we should not give ourselves any more latitude on this question than we do on others but try to make the Bible our rule of faith and practice. We find in the Old Testament there was a definite system of giving which secured something from everybody. Here is the system. Every Jew, rich or poor, paid a poll tax of half a shekel or about thirty cents, when the numbering of the adult males took place. This was known as atonement money. The tithes were the levitical or tenth of all the produce of the fields, flocks, herds, etc., for the support of the Levites; out of these the Levites gave a tenth for the support of the high priest. A second tithe went to the festival services of the temple, and a tithe every third year for the support of the poor. The first of every thing was offered to the Lord. There were also free-will offerings given voluntarily as special thank offerings. These were over and above all the rest. By this system fully one fifth and at times one third of the income was devoted to purposes of religion. We can see that God early taught the people what gifts and offerings were required of them. We are now free under the gospel dispensation. But are we any the less debtors to God? Have we not more blessings and a greater knowledge of the redemption purchased for us than they? We owe much more to the Lord's cause than they when we consider our blessings. Let us see what the New Testament says about it. In 1st Cor. 16—2 we read: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of yon lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him that there be no gathering when I come." This was the plan of raising money adopted by Paul for the church of Corinth and the churches of Galatia and other places. The first day of the week, their day of worship, and on that day they would naturally think more of their indebtedness to God for their redemption. Giving should spring from love. God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son. We should give because we love Him. We see there was regularity in this system taught by Paul and it applied to all, man, woman and child, whether rich or poor. If our income is small we will be tempted by Satan to remember the words, charity begins at home, but listen to the promissory note God has given us, and let it inspire our faith. Honour the Lord with thy substance and with the first fruit of all thine increase: so shall thy barns be filled with plenty and thy press shall burst out with new wine; give and it shall be given unto you good measure pressed down and shaken together and running over, shall men give unto your bosom. We should at least give as we get. Give as the Lord has prospered us. Systematic giving adopted as a rule would turn God's people into a body of givers, whose contributions would be a river of water of life to a dying world.

Mrs. J. W. Garvin followed in an interesting address on "How to reach the uninterested." Her heads were arranged as follows:

Get the women to attend our meetings. L By individual personal effort every member can induce some one else to accompany her; 2, by concentrated thought and persistent effort; 3, by means of look-out, invitation and other committees, with specified duties to perform; 4, by Christian friendliness, kind welcoming words and warm hand-shakes.

Awaken and sustain an interest: 1, furnish good programmes for regular meetings, each containing new material; 2, appoint a committee to provide suitable literature for distribution, also short extracts consisting of missionary items to be read at every meeting; 3, encourage home reading of missionary news, members of family reading aloud suggested: 4, hold meetings in home-like rooms adorned with pictures, gospel messages and blooming plants.

Cultivate a feeling of personal responsibility: 1, by earnest daily prayer, "more things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of"; 2, by reading and prevailing upon others to read of the self-sacrificing efforts of others; Carey was referred to; 3, by careful training of the young in Christian homes; 4, by giving freely of our time and means, our efforts and influence will deepen the earnestness of others.

The service was closed with prayer by Mrs. Reeves of Lakefield on the subject of "That the hearts of the heathen may be prepared to receive the Gospel, and that the health of the missionaries may be preserved, and that useful lives may be spared and all Christian effort blessed." In the afternoon Mrs. Warwick of Campbellford, opened the session with a Bible reading, and Mrs. McPherson of town followed in prayer "For Mission Bands; that the members may receive a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit, and seek more earnestly the advancement of missions; that the young of our church may be more fully aroused to the needs and claims of foreign missions, and that our Bands may grow in number and influence."

The delegates from Port Hope then extended a cordial invitation to the Society to hold its next annual meeting in Port Hope, and it was unanimously decided to accpt the offer.

Mrs. A. E. Lech introduced a motion rescinding one passed at the last annual meeting, whereby the treasurer was authorized to pay the expenses of the president and secretary to the meetings of the society. Mrs. Lech stated that she understood that no other society followed this mode of procedure, and she thought it was a pity to divert any of the funds from the purpose for which they were originally intended. Her motion was carried unanimously.

Short addresses on Mission Band work were given on the different branches as follows:—"How to Revive and Maintain Interest in Mission Bands," Miss Mitchell, Cobourg; "The Relationship between Auxiliaries and Mission Bands," Miss Maud Campbell, Keene; "The Need and Nature of Juvenile Work," Mrs. John Davidson, Norwood.

Mrs. Sutherland, of Warkworth, addressed a few words to the delegates before the close of the session, expressing the appreciation of those present for the many kindnesses which had been shown them in Peterborough, and hoping that through attendance the delegates had received the blessing which assuredly fell to those who participated in so hallowed a work as the spreading of the Gospel truths.

The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Stewart, of Peterborough, of the following topic, "That the Holy Spirit may rest upon and abide with every member of our society; that the officers of all our branches may have aid and direction from above. For increase of workers and means to give the Gospel to all lands and that all converts from heathenism may be established in the Christian faith."

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

Mrs. Liscumbe Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Liscumbe is well known in Havelock and this is how she spoke to our representative:—

"I have been troubled for some time with severe pains in the side and back. I took many medicines of various kinds, but got no relief.

"The box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore gave me wonderful relief from the start. The improvement in my general health is not the least of the benefits which I have derived from the use of this remarkable kidney remeny.

"I can recommend them very highly to anyone troubled with any form of kidney disease."

SHUTTING DOWN —ON— LONG-WINDED CREDIT

PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 10th, 1897.

NOTICE—From and after this date, Messrs H. LeBRUN & CO. have decided to shorten the Term of Credit heretofore given, and, in future, no goods will be sold except for Cash, or on such limited time as may be mutually arranged.

We believe the safest way to do business in these days is to sell for Cash. The next best way is to sell on short dates. Many of our customers who have regularly paid their bills after a reasonable term of credit, would perhaps feel the "Spot Cash" system a hardship, especially while times are so hard and money so scarce. We regard these customers as among the best we have, and are quite satisfied to continue to extend to them the same terms of limited credit they have been accustomed to enjoy.

Our chief complaint is with the "long-winded" customer, who compels us to say that he makes business-life a down-right worry. It makes no difference to us whether a man is worth a million if he won't pay his account. When we need money for our business and are repeatedly put off with "promises to pay" by those who are well able to pay, we have no use for such trade. If every customer treated us in that way we could not carry on business at all. Besides, it is very disagreeable to us to have to "dun" a customer half a dozen times, or spend the profits in postage stamps, and wearing out shoe-leather to boot. We are compelled, therefore, to shut down at once on long credits. Those who can't pay within a reasonable time, we don't want their account in future.

There is a resolution all over the country in favour of Cash or shorter Credits. Cash is a more powerful friend now than ever, and if we must compete with the Cash Stores, who save their discounts, we can't afford to give long credit. Wholesale houses are now offering such big baits in the way of Cash Discounts that we must be prepared to take advantage of them or be handicapped.

All past due Accounts must be settled by the 1st of March; after that date they will be placed in Court for collection. All parties having contra accounts against us are requested to hand them in for settlement at once.

IT IS CANADA'S LOSS

Western Wing of Parliament Buildings Burned

AND THERE WAS NO INSURANCE

Hydrants Were Found to be Frozen Up and the Hose Was Rotten—Firemen Were Thus Badly Hampered—A Detachment With an Engine Summoned From Montreal.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—(Special.)—The worst fire which the Capital has had for many a long day is raging tonight, and as the result thereof the taxpayers of the Dominion will eventually have to meet a bill of a quarter of a million dollars.

At midnight to-night the entire roof of the Western Departmental building and offices on the fourth floor are in flames, the efforts of the Ottawa brigade being directed towards keeping the flames from descending to the lower stories of the buildings.

The only portion of the building which has escaped, with the exception of some water in the offices, is the Mackenzie wing from the big tower northerly.

In this portion of the building are the offices of the Departments of Railways and Canals and Inland Revenue. The rooms burnt out were those occupied by the engineers' and architects' staff of the Public Works Department, including hundreds of valuable plans and records; certain offices occupied by some of the clerks of the Marine and Fisheries Department, and the entire offices of the Mounted Police Department.

All the offices below these, occupied by the Departments of Public Works, Marine and Fisheries, Militia, Trade and Commerce and Customs are deluged with water.

The fire was first discovered on the fourth flat of the Public Works Department, and is supposed to have been caused by carelessness of one of the clerks, who had been smoking. For a long time the smell of smoke could be detected before its origin was discovered.

It unfortunately happened that the conflagration broke out in the most vulnerable point of the whole building, as the whole of the top storey was a veritable fire trap. The roof was of wood, the partitions were of wood and the floors were of wood. To add to the disaster this portion of the building is, with the exception of the tower of the Parliament building, situated on the highest level of the city.

At the outset only a private alarm was sent to the central fire station and a single reel responded.

The hydrants in different portions of the Parliament grounds were tried and all, with the exception of one some distance away, were found to be frozen hard. One located almost under the window from which the smoke was now being emitted in dense volumes, was in this unfortunate condition. Just who is responsible for this unlucky contretemps, the Public Works Department or the city, cannot at present be ascertained. There was nothing for it under the circumstances but to secure water from the hydrants on Wellington-street. The first stream showed very poor pressure, and before the extension ladder could be placed in position the flames were bursting from the roof.

Chief Young, who was promptly on the spot, realising that it would be well to provide for any emergency, called out the entire brigade and had the big steamer "The Conqueror" brought up. The lumber firms also sent their steamer, the Union, and these two gave a good water service.

Inside the building the hydrants had been turned on, but the pressure was very poor and some of the Government hose had burst. On the flat below the officials of the Public Works Department were clearing out furniture and effects from the offices of the Minister and Deputy Minister.

Mr. Tarte was on deck and got all his private papers out. When your correspondent entered the Minister's room with him at 5.15 p.m. water was coming through the ceiling in torrents.

Despite all efforts of the brigade, it seemed impossible to check the progress of the flames. The inflammable nature of the upper structure made it a ready prey, and the fire gradually worked round to the southwest corner of the building. Then it swung round to the southern facade and licked its way along the roof eastward. Over the main south door there is a small tower, and it was thought at this point the fire would be confined, as there was supposed to be a fire wall, shutting off the draughting room of the Public Works Department from the Marine and Fisheries. But even this gave way and the flames gradually crept along to the southeast corner and then ran northerly the entire length of the wing which fronts on Parliament-square, consuming in its progress all the offices of the Mounted Police Department.

Thousands of people assembled on Parliament Hill to see the magnificent sight. The Parliament Buildings and the Eastern Block were magnificently illuminated and the reflection could be seen for miles around.

As the Government carries no insurance on its buildings in Ottawa the entire loss will fall on the country. It is believed $100,000 might repair to-day's damage, but a wooden roof to the building will never be tolerated, and the general impression is the Government will have to put on a metal one similar to that of Langevin block, which is of iron and copper.

At 1 o'clock this morning the burning building presented a magnificent spectacle; the entire roof was still burning, but the fire does not appear to have reached the storey below, except at one point in the Public Works Department, and here it appears to have been checked in one room. When the fire reached the Mounted Police Department the assembled crowd were startled by repeated popping off of ammunition. To check the conflagration a portion of the roof on the south side of the building, equal to 60 square feet, was cut away, but nothing was gained by it.

Two-thirds of the records of the Public Works Department have been destroyed, but the photographic negatives of different public buildings were saved.

The original records of the C. P. R. surveys, it is said, have fallen a prey to the flames.

With good judgment, the officers of the Militia, Marine and Fisheries, Trade and Commerce and Customs Departments got their books, records and papers either out of the buildings or into the vaults, so that, except for the temporary inconvenience of want of quarters, the work of these departments will go on without interruption.

The thermometer registers 5 degrees above zero at this hour. The firemen have been continuously on duty for eight hours and are pitiable sights, being covered with ice from head to foot.

It is thought Mr. Tarte will propose an additional storey to the building to give much-needed additional accommodation.

ABLE EFFORTS OF THE NEW MEN

The Opposition Leader Scores Out by Seeking Information—Premier Hardy Supplies It—Mr. Haycock Also Gets in His Say—Harmonious Day on the Whole.

Toronto, Feb. 12.

After the usual preliminary routine at the Provincial Legislature yesterday afternoon, Mr. Whitney, leader of the Opposition, interrogated the Government respecting the changes which had taken place in the Cabinet since the last session. He voiced the desire of the general public, as well as the Opposition, in asking that the Attorney-General would favor the House with as full and complete information as might be possible, having regard to the circumstances in which he found himself placed. For some time past, since the accession of his honorable friend the Attorney-General to power as leader of his party and the Government of the province, a great many rumors had been heard as to the time at which the general election will be held; as to whether this Parliament would be allowed to live out the full length of its life, as limited by the law. To the personal knowledge of the speaker, statements have been made by the supporters and friends of the honorable leader that the general election will take place in the month of June next; at any event, if not then, later in the year. On the other hand, men high in the counsel and confidence of honorable members on the Government benches have given the statement a positive denial. It is a matter that interests the people, and if there is any doubt or uncertainty respecting it the people are entitled to as full information on the subject as can be reasonably given. The speaker quoted an interview with the Attorney-General which appeared in The Globe newspaper a month or six weeks ago, in which the honorable gentleman denied any truth in the statement that the House was to be dissolved immediately after the next session. He asked for information on the question.

The Attorney-General concurred in the views of the leader of the Opposition that if there is any explantion to be given to the people of the province upon the question referred to the present was an opportune time to give it. He did not know that he could add very much to what has already appeared in the newspapers with respect to the changes in the Government. Sir Oliver Mowat had been invited to join Hon. Mr. Laurier's Cabinet. He had accepted the call, was appointed to a position in the Senate, and this required that he should vacate the seat which he had so long occupied in the House

This change involved an almost entire reconstruction of the Executive Council. Sir Oliver resigned in the month of July, and next day he (the Speaker) was honored with a request to accept the responsibility of forming a Ministry. He had invited all his old colleagues to remain with him and they accepted.

The death of the newly appointed Provincial Secretary, under circumstances which created a profound sorrow, was alluded to in fitting terms and a glowing tribute was paid to the abilities and character of the speaker's late colleague. The vacancy thus created was filled by the appointment of Hon. Mr. Davis. These were the changes that had taken place and they had, he ventured to assert, met with the approval of the country. He could not say that the acquisition of these new colleagues had in any sense changed the policy of the Government, or that the policy of the Government was affected by the change.

In regard to the other question, he had nothing to add to the statement in the interview, which his honorable friend had read, and did not know that he could make it any clearer. He had been asked for a full and frank avowal and could not give any franker expression of the intentions of the Government than that there was no intention of dissolving the House at any earlier period than that at which in the course of nature and its natural existence, honorable gentlemen have a right to expect. He could not say that something might not arise within the year and a half which still remained of its natural existence. It was impossible for him to say anything further as to any necessity which may arise for dissolution. In conclusion, he repeated the words of the interview that he knew of nothing which will interfere with the duration of this Parliament to its natural length.

A MAIDEN EFFORT.

Mr. Pattullo of North Oxford Delivered an Admirable Speech on the Address.

The address in reply to the Speech from the Throne was moved by Mr. A. Pattullo of North Oxford, who expressed his diffidence in attempting the task, and modestly accepted the compliment as being given to the constituency which he represented rather than to his own ability. The speech, remarkable for its clearness and vigor of expression and fluency of delivery, was above the average upon such occasions. In opening brief allusion was made to the history of the constituency, which had given to public life such men as Sir Francis Hincks, Hon. George Brown, Hon. William McDougall and Sir Oliver Mowat. The universal sorrow which pervades throughout the province at the unfortunate illness of Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick was fittingly expressed and a sincere wish for his speedy recovery and return to Ontario, where he and his good lady, to whom a graceful tribute was paid, would receive a warm welcome.

THE SESSION.

The present session of the Ontario Legislature is an important and interesting one for many reasons. It is the first session under the new regime—the occasion when, for the first time in 24 years, at the opening of a session, Sir Oliver Mowat has not sat in the premier's place. It is the first session under the premiership of Hon. A. S. Hardy, who, with his 24 years of representation in the House—ten as a Minister of the Crown—has developed a capacity for administration and a capacity for governing, that make him a worthy successor of the best premier that this or any other province has known; and the important legislative programme presented at the opening of the Legislature indicates that the era of good and progressive government that Ontario has enjoyed for the past quarter of a century is to be perpetuated. The session is also notable because it falls upon the hundredth anniversary of the sitting of the first Parliament in the city of Toronto, and the contemplation of the great, substantial and steady progress the province has made in that time will be agreeable occupation for the thoughtful legislators, and will be an inspiration to the House to live up to the record of the past. Another incident that speaks eloquently, if silently, of the progress of the process for the unification of the people of the country is the appointment of a French-Canadian to the important post of Speaker of the House and a practical recognition of the fact that the days of unreasoning prejudice and racial animosities are largely past; that we are all Canadians, all with equal rights and privileges and with a common purpose in the advancement of the interests of the country. This is a condition that suggests the appropriateness of the application of the spirit of Lord Tennyson's welcome to the Princess of Wales:

Normans and Saxons and Danes are we,
But all of us Danes in our welcome to thee.

Another interesting feature of the opening of the session was the unveiling of the portrait of Hon. Edward Blake, a former premier, and one of the most distinguished of Canadians, who has shown himself a peer of the leading British statesmen in the Imperial arena in which he now moves. And the broader spirit manifested by the new leader of the Opposition, Mr. Whitney, at the opening of the Legislature, is also a matter to be noted, indicating, if this new attitude is maintained, that though there may be, as there should be, vigilant and keen criticism on the part of the Opposition, it will be legitimate criticism, more free than in the past, from disturbing side-issues that should not be imported into a body whose function—both ministerial and opposition—is working harmoniously and energetically—if on different lines—with the common aim of advancing all the interests of this great province. If the work of legislation is carried on in this spirit, we may expect that the present notable session will mark a continuance of the progress and prosperity that have characterized the past of the history of this province.

LADY ABERDEEN'S GREAT SCHEME.

Lady Aberdeen, in her wide and practical sympathies and in her earnest interest in all classes of the subjects of the Empire, is a fitting consort of the representative of Her Majesty, who has conspicuously exhibited the above characteristics during her long and beneficent reign. Among the multiform schemes, sentimental and practical, visionary and practicable, no other more fully commends itself to the sympathy of philanthropists than the plan propounded by Lady Aberdeen at a meeting in Ottawa on Wednesday, as the result of action taken by the National Council of Women, in order to devise a project of a character to meet the wishes of Her Majesty, and an indication of the resolve of the women of this country that they are not going to be behind hand in the desire and effort to fittingly commemorate the Diamond Jubilee of the Queen. Her Excellency's proposal involves the establishment of the Victorian Order of Home Helpers. The necessity of such an order and its nature were thus set forth by Lady Aberdeen at a meeting in Ottawa:—

"In the few years we have spent in this country we have heard story after story of the most terrible suffering. We have heard of scores and scores of lives lost, health impaired, and homes broken up because it was impossible in the outlying districts to obtain assistance of any kind in the emergencies which come upon the family. It is not the moment, at a meeting like this, to go into details, but I think that every wife and mother and most husbands will realise what this means and what it means not only to individuals, but to the country at large, for we have all seen young couples going out happily to those far away districts, but as time goes on and as the little ones come, the difficulties begin to grow, and the daily drudgery of the wife does not lessen, and sickness and weakness and other cares come, and we know what want of health in the mother means to the children. It is not only the wife who suffers, although doubtless their suffering at special times appeals to us the most strongly, but are there not many mothers in Canada and in the Old Country who have sent out boys to seek their fortunes in the West, and sometimes they lie helpless in some shack or lodging, with no one near by who is able to help them? I do not mean to say that the neighbours are not willing to do everything they can. In our travels in the country we have had occasion to observe the large-heartedness and goodness and unselfishness of the people of Canada, for they are ready to do anything for those in sickness. But what was wanted in all newly-settled districts were trained helpers, comfortable, motherly, practical women, with some training. That was the need the Victorian Order of Home helpers proposed to meet. The Helpers were to be at least 28 or 30 years of age. They were to wear dark blue uniforms, with St. Andrew's cross and the letters V. R. on their sleeve. "The proposal," Lady Aberdeen says, "had been submitted to the Governors, ecclesiastical authorities and physicians, and the consensus of opinion was strongly in favour of it."

Hon. Wilfred Laurier, who was present at the meeting, heartily endorsed it and said in effect that the magnificent charity of the proposal was a fitting commemoration of a reign which had been distinguished by the kindness and charity of the sovereign unprecedented in the history of glorious reigns. And certainly the scheme is in step with the spirit of the founder of our Christian civilization whose Gospel alone has made possible the achievements for the betterment of the race that have marked the most benign and blessed reign in the annals of history. Lady Aberdeen's proposal will surely strike a sympathetic chord in the hearts of the women of Canada, who will doubtless extend their practical co-operation in making it a success.

Deseronto, Feb. 8.—(Special).—Among business people here, and especially by his fellow-workmen, great interest has been taken in the case of Mr. James Stokes, who for the past fifteen years has been shipper for the Rathbun Company.

Lately he has run down in health and strength to the point of being compelled to quit work, and his recovery now as the result of using Dodd's Kidney Pills is the talk of the town. On seeing Mr. Stokes he said:

"From overlifting and strain I suffered greatly from Kidney trouble, being advised after all else had failed to use Dodd's Kidney Pills; from the first dose I got relief, and hundreds of people here can vouch for my cure."

GALWAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

J. Hickey, son of Mr. David Hickey, who left here seven years ago and went to Minnesota, returned a few weeks ago and will remain at home until spring. Mr. Hickey was engaged in the lumbering trade in which he had quite an interest but has now profitably disposed of it.

Mr. Joseph J. Baushant, who has lately become a resident of this place, was last Sunday united in marriage to Miss Maggie Hartnett at the R. C. church, in Galway, by the Rev. Father Owens, of Fenelon Falls. The bride was very efficiently assisted by Miss Minnie Collins, while the groom was supported by Mr. M. Hartnett, brother of the bride. After the ceremony was performed the happy young couple drove to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous dinner was partaken of, and the well wishes of their numerous friends were extended to them. Mr. and Mrs. Baushant will take up a temporary residence in Galway, but intend afterwards removing to Bannismore.

Mr. M. Lounsbury, inspector of colonization roads, was here on Wednesday.

THE ONTARIO HOUSE.

Sir Casimir Gzowski's eminent services to Queen and state were the subject of a passing compliment, and, pursuing the theme of loyalty approval of the reference in the Speech to the celebration of the sixtieth year of Her Majesty's reign was expressed. The full significance of an instance for which no parallel existed in the annals of time could only be appreciated in the light of the full consideration of the events of that long reign, the vast extent of that empire over which Her Majesty reigns, and her own character and influence as a mother and ruler. The speaker asserted amid applause that all parties, races, creeds and classes are loyal, not only to the interests of Canada, but to the interests of Great Britain, and devoted to the person of Her Majesty. Whatever there may be in the womb of destiny for this splendid Canada of ours, only one feeling seemed to pervade the people—that of satisfaction with our institutions, hope and confidence in the future, satisfaction with the ruler of the Empire, and universal loyalty toward the flag of England and towards England's Queen.

It was especially fitting, in this connection, that an event of world-wide importance in the treaty of arbitration between the two great English-speaking nations of the world should mark the year in which the celebration to which he referred occurred. If the treaty is productive of peace between Great Britain and the United States it will be a fitting climax to a long and glorious reign.

Great Britain, Canada and the United States constitute a people kindred in origin, in language, and should be kindred in thought, and sentiment, and linked together in bonds of perpetual friendship. There are some sinister influences at work which may possibly defeat the objects of those good and true men who have arranged the treaty, but whatever the result the people of England will have the proud consciousness of having done their duty and strained self-interest in order to do so. There is no good Canadian that does not desire peace and friendliness between these nations, but it is safe to say that, whatever may come, the destiny of Canada is now and always will be in the hands of Canadian people, and the speaker for one, as a young Canadian, believed that the star of that destiny does not now nor will it ever look southwards. [Cheers.]

Attention was next drawn to the fact that owing to the removal of Sir Oliver Mowat to another throne and perhaps a wider domain the political history of the Province was entering upon a new era. The speaker ventured to assert that the high character, wise leadership, tact and marvelous skill in constructive legislation of Sir Oliver had been productive of much real benefit to the Province during the past quarter of a century, and he regretted that he had not been privileged to sit with him in the Legislature.

The speaker then proceeded to deal with New Ontario, but before doing so he modestly disclaimed any intention of framing a policy for the Government, or knowledge of what their policy is beyond the indications in the address. Having asserted that he spoke from the standpoint of an independant member of the House he declared that he was strongly of the opinion that the great work, the supreme duty of the Government and of the House for years to come, is in connection with that district. It did strike him that it is not so much a new policy that is wanted as a rapid and continuous development, extension and improvement of what the Government has already been doing. The establishment of a pioneer farm near Wabigoon had done much good. The first duty of the Government is to exert its influence and resources to the utmost to place "hardy" settlers in every part of New Ontario where there are tracts of good land to be found. [The speaker's reference to the class of settlers which were needed was received with much laughter by the House, the members accepting it as a pun, and it was some minutes before Mr. Pattullo saw the joke and apologized for not having seen the point earlier.]

The attention of the Dominion Government should be drawn to the fact that New Ontario is a part of Canada, and that a fair proportion of the expenditure and of the organized efforts of the Federal Government be devoted to bringing desirable immigrants into Ontario.

Nothing advertises a country so much as the discovery of gold, and the responsibility cast upon the Government by the discovery of the precious metal in New Ontario was pointed out and the hope expressed that in any legislation which might be passed the claims of the original prospector would be realized as superior to the speculator. It was not the duty of the Government, it was asserted, to start or promote a boom, and attention was called to the fact that the situation at Rat Portage and elsewhere has its dangers as well as its bright prospects. Before leaving this question a word of caution was uttered against rash investments in the mining regions, which can only result in disappointment.

The recent demands upon the Federal Government from British Columbia for better railway facilities were referred to, and the fact was pointed out that New Ontario also has a claim upon the Federal treasury for the same facilities. New Ontario was pictured as the spinal column of Confederation, the Maritime Provinces as the head, Quebec and Ontario the heart and lungs, and the limbs and feet belong to the West.

MR. JOHN AULD

Seconds the Address in Reply to the Speech—Everything Lovely.

Mr. John Auld, South Essex, in seconding the reply, said he thought the Premier had made no mistake in choosing Mr. Pattullo to move the address in reply. The circumstances which had caused the speaker's entrance into the House were particularly painful to himself. The late Hon. Mr. Balfour and he had been partners in business for upwards of 25 years. The deceased was hard-working and faithful, and had served his constituency and his Province well. He was loved by Liberals and admired by Conservatives, and if ever there was a self-made man it was the late Hon. A. J. Balfour.

It seemed strange, he added, not to see the face of Ontario's Grand Old Man present as in former years, but every one was pleased to know that he had been called to a sphere where his abilities would be given higher scope. The cry of the Opposition had been "Mowat must go," but they did not dream of where he would go. They had not thought he would join the trio of Laurier, Mowat and Victory and sweep the Conservative party from power last June. No doubt the battle-cry now would be "Hardy must go," but if the last two bye-elections were any criterion it did not look as though his exit would be a hasty one.

Referring to the Speech from the Throne Mr. Auld compared the plenty in Canada with the famine in India, and said he hoped Canada's sympathy would be shown in some tangible form. He believed the farmers of Ontario were more prosperous than those of any other Province, and referred to the amount the Government had spent annually in the interests of agriculture.

Then he dwelt upon the cheese and dairy industries. The cheese export from Canada to Great Britain amounted to $14,000,000 worth, or 53 per cent. of the consumption of cheese of that country. Of this Ontario sent at least two-thirds. And at the same time, while the Mother Country only imported 3 per cent. of her butter from Canada, yet she imported $1,000,000 more in 1896 than in 1895. These facts, he thought, were a sufficient justification for the existence of agricultural and dairy schools. The fruit export trade was also progressing favorably. There never was a time when the farmers appreciated more a farmer's education than now. The present low prices made it imperative that every agriculturist should know how to get as much as possible from the soil.

Continuing, the seconder endorsed the late County Councils Act. He thought it should be a matter of satisfaction to the Government to see how smoothly and satisfactorily the act was working. He believed that a similar bill, to reduce the membership of Town Councils, would also be a move in the right direction.

Passing on, Mr. Auld was also satisfied to know that the financial position of the Province was as good as ever. Concluding, he congratulated Mr. Whitney upon his elevation to the leadership. [Applause.] He was satisfied that the Government would do all in its power to help him. [Laughter]. He hoped the hon. gentleman would have the same success as his predecessors.

The new member for South Essex sat down amid mingled laughter and applause, and was followed by the Opposition leader.

The Opposition Leader Criticizes the Past Action of the Government.

Mr. Whitney was received with applause from the Opposition benches. In a brief but vigorous speech he criticized the past action of the Government, and gave promise of interesting debates when the Opposition attack their policy in detail. After welcoming the mover and seconder of the address and congratulating them upon their speeches, taking up the reference by Mr. Auld to the legislation respecting County Councils, he declared that he had spoken to hundreds of electors from all portions of the province since it was passed by the House, and he had not yet found one who approved of it. It had not reduced the cost, as the Government had claimed it would, and the honorable gentleman was as far astray from the facts as possible when he stated that the people were satisfied with it. With regard to the winning of cases against the Dominion Government, were they not all the one people, of the same speech? Why is it that there was such jibing and jeering at winning a case from their own brethren and people? Probably now that Sir Oliver Mowat was in the Federal Government, he would now turn around and upset all these victories which he had won when Attorney-General. Generous reference was made to the good qualities of the late Hon. W. D. Balfour, and genuine sympathy expressed for his family. A tribute was also paid to the eminent abilities of Sir Oliver Mowat, and full credit given him for the services he had rendered to the province. The speaker congratulated Hon. Mr. Harty upon his restoration to health and the Attorney-General upon his elevation to the leadership of the Government and party as a well-deserved reward for past services.

With regard to the mining industry, the Government should give more than careful consideration to its needs in order to encourage it and increase the opportunities of the people of this province to benefit by their mineral resources. With regard to the proposals respecting Toronto University he saw indications of new ventures on the part of the University. He wanted to tell the Government that the people will not tolerate any further trifling with the interests of the University of Toronto. The people of the province have a high regard for the University and they don't propose to do anything to impair it in its usefulness, but there are a great many people, and their number is increasing every year, who feel that the influence of the Government upon the University of Toronto has had a bad effect, and that the connection with the Government has been primarily responsible for the present unfortunate position in which the University finds itself.

In the speeches of the mover and seconder of the address no reference was made to the Public schools. The people were demanding that something be done to increase the facilities afforded in the Public school education. The education of 95 per cent. of the people commences and ends in the Public schools, and an improvement is absolutely necessary. In support of his contention he quoted from a speech of Mr. Pattullo during his campaign, which formed a concise, condensed indictment of the Government policy.

The Patron leader was next heard from. Mr. Haycock also tendered his hearty congratulations to the mover and seconder of the address.

MR. HARDY'S CONGRATULATIONS.

He Paid the Usual Compliments to the Mover and Seconder.

Hon. A. S. Hardy arose to conclude the debate for the afternoon. He congratulated the mover and seconder of the address in reply to the Speech. The two new members were a decided acquisition to the House. He was pleased particularly with their references to New Ontario. There would be no greater task before the Legislature than the carrying out of the suggestions the addresses contained. He was gratified for the kindly expressions of personal regard which Mr. Whitney had bestowed upon him. He also thanked Mr. Haycock, the other leader. He did not know whom he might call the leader of the party he saw opposite him. [Laughter.]

Mr. Whitney: There is a hyphen between us.

Hon. Mr. Hardy: Which, I take it, is a bond of union.

Continuing, the Premier added his quota to the tributes already bestowed upon His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. No one had ever filled the position better. The country had been pained to learn of his unfortunate state of health, and hoped to soon see him return, healthy and vigorous.

The resolution endorsing the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne was then adopted without a vote.

LONG-WINDED CREDIT

PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 10th, 1897.

NOTICE—From and after this date, Messrs. H. LeBRUN & CO. have decided to shorten the Term of Credit heretofore given, and, in future, no goods will be sold except for Cash, or on such limited time as may be mutually arranged.

We believe the safest way to do business in these days is to sell for Cash. The next best way is to sell on short dates. Many of our customers who have regularly paid their bills after a reasonable term of credit, would perhaps feel the "Spot Cash" system a hardship, especially while times are so hard and money so scarce. We regard these customers as among the best we have, and are quite satisfied to continue to extend to them the same terms of limited credit they have been accustomed to enjoy.

Our chief complaint is with the "long-winded" customer, who compels us to say that he makes business-life a down-right worry. It makes no difference to us whether a man is worth a million if he won't pay his account. When we need money for our business and are repeatedly put off with "promises to pay" by those who are well able to pay, we have no use for such trade. If every customer treated us in that way we could not carry on business at all. Besides, it is very disagreeable to us to have to "dun" a customer half a dozen times, or spend the profits in postage stamps, and wearing out shoe-leather to boot. We are compelled, therefore, to shut down at once on long credits. Those who can't pay within a reasonable time, we don't want their account in future.

There is a resolution all over the country in favour of Cash or shorter Credits. Cash is a more powerful friend now than ever, and if we must compete with the Cash Stores, who save their discounts, we can't afford to give long credit. Wholesale houses are now offering such big baits in the way of Cash Discounts that we must be prepared to take advantage of them or be handicapped.

All past due Accounts must be settled by the 1st of March; after that date they will be placed in Court for collection. All parties having contra accounts against us are requested to hand them in for settlement at once.

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 30x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north; and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,

Peterborough, Jan. 15th, '97. McFARLANE WILSON.

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices, in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,

ANOTHER CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

Celebration of the Riley-Chadwick Nuptials.

On Wednesday morning last a large number of the young friends of Miss Mamie Riley, daughter of Mr. M. Riley, of the Peterborough Lock Mfg. Co., gathered at St. Peter's Cathedral at eight o'clock to witness her marriage to Mr. W. Chadwick, of New York City.

The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archdeacon Casey and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Jennie Riley. The groom was supported by Mr. George Riley, brother of the bride.

The wedding party afterwards repaired to the residence of the bride's father, Stewart street, where a sumptuous wedding dejeuner was served. The newly married couple left for their future home in the metropolis on the 4.48 C. P. R. Express.

A large number of most valuable gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick and the EXAMINER desires to extend the warmest congratulations.

ENTERTAINED BY BISHOP AND CLERGY.

The Choir, Collectors and Ushers Very Pleasantly Entertained.

Last night the choir, ushers and collectors of St. Peter's Cathedral were entertained by the Bishop and clergy. After a fine refection at the parsonage, the party adjourned to the palace, the guests of his Lordship. A very pleasant evening was past in music, recitations and social intercourse. Before separating the pleasant evening's enjoyment provoked a hearty and dutiful vote of thanks to his Lordship and the clergy for the very pleasant manner in which the company had been entertained.

THE LOCKWORKS COMPANY.

The Annual Meeting was Held Wednesday Afternoon.

The Peterborough Lock Works Company held its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon, when the reports were submitted by Mr. Frank Adams, secretary, and proved most satisfactory, considering the depression in the building trade during the past year.

The following were elected as directors: Hon. Geo. A. Cox, Jno. Carnegie, John Burnham, Q. C., Thos. Brooks and J. R. Stratton, M. P. P. Mr. Edy. Pearse was appointed auditor.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors Hon. Geo. A. Cox was elected president, and Mr. John Carnegie, vice-president.

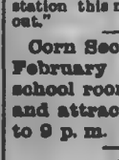
Counterfeit Half-Dollars.

Quite a large number of counterfeit half-dollars are in circulation. They are in so far as experience is concerned, excellent imitations, and bear the date "1870." Each of the counterfeit coins is considerably lighter than the genuine piece, and if the the edge be rubbed across the palm of the hand a heavy black line is left, showing that lead enters largely in the composition of the counterfeits. The alloy is very soft, but the coin has very nearly the true ring when dropped on the floor.

A Squeeze in Novels.



Cheap books are a paradox—like "second-class eggs." But a genuine "novel squeeze" is the latest marvel at the Peterborough Bookstore. A new lot of novels, with popular tales by standard authors, have just come in to be sold at almost the price of white paper. They are in assorted lots at 5 for 25c.—3 for 25c.—2 for 25c.—3 for 50c. We haven't enough to go round, and they are all to be gone before you get here if you are not alert.—A. H. STRATTON & Co.

PETERBORO' JUNIORS OUT OF THE RACE.

THE WELLINGTONS DEFEATED THEM LAST NIGHT.

A Fast Game of Hockey, but the Home Team Had Not Sufficient Practice Together to Play an Effective Combination.

The Wellingtons, of Toronto, came down yesterday and effectually dampened any aspirations which the III Peterboroughs had regarding the winning of the Junior championship, by defeating them by six goals to three.

A big crowd of Torontonians came down to witness the match, and their presence was very much in evidence, as the Wellingtons secured a good lead over the home team.

The game did not start until five minutes to 9 o'clock, owing to the late arrival of the referee, Percy Brown, of Toronto, who was renewing old acquaintances up town, and when he did appear, would not sanction the use of the puck which the boys were practising with, but sent up to the hotel for one of his own.

When the whistle blew the teams lined up as appended:

Peterboroughs.		Wellingtons.
F Dixon	goal	H Morison
R Glover	point	R Gray
R Thorne	cover point	F Morrison
W Crossley, C Graham, H Watt, H King	forwards	F Morison, H Donaldson, W Rowland, C Hill
Sam Ray	umpires	A H Beaton

The visitors played a beautifully sure combination game throughout and Charlie Hill's rushes and shots on goal were the feature of the evening. He has a close rival in Morison and in fact all the forward line play well together, having practised as a rush line for the past four years. The team was well balanced as the defense proved very sure and young Morison in goal made some beautiful stops. As a whole the team will compare most favourably with any which have been seen here this winter with the exception of Queen's.

Dixon in goal, for the Peterboroughs, seems to have lost all his old time confidence since being hurt the other night and if it had not been for the magnificent work of Glover at point the visitors could have easily run up a far bigger score, as Thorne was away off colour at cover point. This is Glover's first year on the ice, but he played the whole game for Peterborough's defense last night, his blocking and relieving being of a most brilliant order.

Thorne is a fine stick handler but cannot be induced to use his body, and consequently the combination work of the visitors carried the rush line past him time and again during the evening; whereas if he had but stopped one of the men Glover could have attended to the other quite easily. The forwards played up well and the Executive of the hockey club is to blame more than the rush line for the mistakes which were made in passing, as not until a day or two was the Junior team selected, and the forwards had no opportunity to practice together, as was the case when the Frontenacs tied the score here last week. When Peterborough was the proud possessor of the championship trophy, the members of the team knew each other's play to a nicety, but this year it seems as though a team is never selected till within a day or two of the match. Having so many players to choose from doubtless has its disadvantages in this respect, but the Executive should endeavour to remedy the evil mentioned, if Peterborough is to ever regain the lost laurels.

Last night the forwards, individually, played a fast game, and Will Crossley's magnificent rush up the rink was decidedly the finest play of the evening. Yet the necessary combination was not there and the visitors defence had no difficulty in blocking their goal against one man. Their forwards also "followed back" in a most commendable manner and interrupted many passes, which were inaccurately made on account of the Peterborough forwards not knowing one another's play.

Another point which ought to be mentioned in the large number of offsides made by the Peterborough's caused through not having capable referees officiate at the practices. The raising of the stick above the shoulder is also prohibited by the rules and both Crossley and King and one of the visitors were up on the fence for five minutes for violating this rule.

The game started up with a terrific scrimmage in centre ice, then the puck was carried on Peterborough's goal, where it did not remain long but was taken down on the visitors' flags. Up and down the battle raged, the features being the defence of Glover and a fine rush by Thorne. After 22 minutes of fast work Crossley made the play of the evening in a grand stand dash from one end of the rink to the other, when he tallied the first game for Peterborough.

Four minutes later the Wellingtons tied the score by tallying out of a scrimmage, and three minutes later they scored again, thus taking a lead of one goal. There was no change before half time was called.

After play was resumed the visitors scored again in 4 minutes. Score, 3—1.

Peterborough then pulled up a peg through King scoring a game as the result of a fine rush. Time, 2 minutes.

Needing a point to tie the score the the Peterboroughs pushed the game for all there was in it and the fastest hockey of the evening was witnessed, the checking being very close. As the result of some neat combination work Hill was able to score for the visitors in seven minutes. Score, 4—2 in favour of the Wellingtons.

Peterborough again drew up, when Watt and Crossley carried the puck through the visitors' defense and the former scored in two minutes. Score, 4—3 in favour of the Wellingtons.

This was the last tally which the Peterboroughs made, as the visitors scored the next two goals in four and one and a half minutes respectively, thus winning the match by six goals to three.

The visitors and their friends were given an oyster supper at the conclusion of the game.

YOUNG LADIES PLAY HOCKEY

For the Benefit of the Children's Aid Society.

Yesterday afternoon there was a large attendance at the rink when a team picked from the Biffs and Niffs crossed sticks with the Morning Glories.

There was almost as much enthusiasm as was shown when the Queen's team was up from Kingston and there was twice as much fun.

The two teams were composed as follows:

Biffs and Niffs.		Morning Glories.
Kate Davidson	goal	F Hamilton
M Bradburn	point	L Hamilton
A McBain	cover point	Minnie Cook
Madge McGill, G Kendry, P Lundy, P Hamilton	forwards	P Boucher, G Meade, A Hall, L Hall

Referee—Mr Montgomery.

Although the forwards of both teams made a number of good rushes, the defence was so strong on either side that no goals were scored in the first half. The teams did not change ends in the second half fearing that some confusion might arise. The first goal was scored by Pearl Hamilton off a clever pass by Pearl Lundy, and after that the play was fast and furious. Through some good rushes the Morning Glories tied the score, and a few minutes later tallied another goal. Their opponents worked hard and just before time was called succeeded in shooting a goal, making the score "two all."

It was decided to play off the tie, and amidst wild cheers the Biffs scored, and won a box of chocolates offered as a trophy by Mr. George Hopkins. The losers were consoled with a similar box, presented by Mr. H. R. H. Kenner.

About $7 or $8 will be added to the funds of the Children's Aid Society. Good, girls!

THE COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

IT IS BEING HELD IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Reports of the Session Held Yesterday Afternoon and Evening, also this Morning—The Treasurer's Statement—Secretary's Report—New Officers Elected.

The eleventh annual County Convention of the Peterborough Sunday School Association assembled yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Paul's church, with Mr. E. Hawthorne, Warsaw, presiding.

The opening devotional exercises were supposed to be followed by reports from the presidents and secretaries of local associations, but only one township, Otonabee, submitted a report, although Rev. Mr. Reeves of Lakefield, at the last minute arranged one for Smith.

In the absence of Mr. J. Gilchrist, the discussion on the reports was led by Dr. Harrison of Keene, and as he remarked, it was a light task as there were so few submitted. Asphodel submitted a verbal report through Mr. Thistlewaite, but Dummer was not heard from. Peterborough only reported verbally tarough Messrs. S. R. Armstrong and A. E. Stanley, and though their report showed that their was an organization and good feeling existed, yet the association desired to know more than this. It wanted to know all about how these ends had been accomplished. It certainly was very kind of Mr. Reeves to arrange a report for Smith, but still the fact remained that the secretary did not do his duty. North Smith should have sent in a written report.

REV. C. E. M'LEOD,

of Gilmour Memorial church, suggested that a repetition of the trouble might be obviated through furnishing each secretary with a form to be filled in.

Mr. S. Armstrong agreed with this, pointing out that it was simply the introduction of system, which was everything.

Mrs. Kendry thought the form should put the question straight to each school: "How many of the scholars are members of the church? How many are in reality Christians?" This was the only way to ascertain how spiritual progress was being made.

An animated discussion followed, relative to the difficulty in answering such a question, Mrs. Kendry expressing the opinion that a conclusion could only be reached through closely observing the life of each pupil.

Mr. Geo. Stewart, of Otonabee, thought that the superintendents of each township should visit all the schools at least once a year. The presidents of these township associations did not do enough visiting.

Dr. Harrison expressed the opinion that no one should accept an office of this kind unless he was prepared to fulfil the duties.

Mrs. Kendry drew the Convention's attention to the fact that Otonabee was the only township sending in a full report, and Otonabee was the only township having a lady for its secretary.

Dr. Harrison urged the passage of a resolution whereby the president of each township Association should be required to visit the schools in the section once a year at least.

did not know whether the school which furnished the president would be able to spare him for as many Sundays as would be required to visit all the schools.

Dr. Harrison then mentioned the fact that the Asphodel and Belmont Associations were defunct. They had been one—had separated and then died. He wanted this looked after.

Rev. Mr. McEwan, of Toronto, suggested and moved that the new executive be instructed to take into their consideration at once the question of how better reports could be insured—Carried.

Rev. J. J. Rae, being in attendance at the Harvey township Sunday school convention, could not be present to deliver his address on "The lessons of the past year." Mr. McEwan was asked to address the convention in his stead. As an appropriate subject for his remarks the doctor founded his address on "The charter of the child in the Bible. The child, he said, was the standard of character. Until we acquired its truthfulness, faith, aspirations, hopefulness, teachability and sympathy, we could not aspire to the kingdom of heaven. If there was one thing which the church needed to-day it was aspiration and apparently it was of which the Peterborough Sunday School Association was greatly in need. The speaker cited many instances from Scripture in which the care of the children was always provided for before everything else and pointed out the lesson which was to be taken from this fact. After the singing of a hymn Mrs. M. A. Laine, of Toronto, gave an address which was particularly interesting to those engaged in the primary work. In speaking of the illustrations, which were so necessary, Mrs. Laine urged that they be of a nature not to obscure the truth, but to impress it. Objects from nature or Bible lessons furnished, perhaps, the most desirable illustrations. The first object for illustration which the teacher should always have directly at hand was the Bible, so that the child will always connect the two.

A primary class meant a first class and this class was of the first of importance in the whole Sunday school, as whether progress was made or not depended on the grounding which the child received.

Many devices for the purpose of illustrating had been recently invented, and the speaker mentioned these as the efforts of consecrated ingenuity, aiming to give a typical illustration of the article, its use and connection. Every illustration should be made simply a servant of the truth.

Two essentials in the character of a teacher were (1) Love of Christ produced by reason of His great love of us; (2) The love of little children, as possible to a mother's love.

Mrs. Laine thought that the teaching could not begin too early and instanced cases in which children had evinced an interest in things spiritual at the age of eighteen months.

THE EVENING SESSION.

At the evening session there was a moderate attendance.

After a service of song and praise conducted by Rev. C. E. McLeod, of the Gilmour Memorial Church, the singing being led by Mr. G. W. Mulligan, and Miss Vina Gladman at the organ, Rev. H. Symonds, of St. Luke's, Ashburnham, gave a most interesting address on the subject, "How we Got our New Testament."

Rev. Mr. Symonds began his address by saying that it was singular that intelligent persons took so little interest in the subject of his address. Few would deny that the Revised version of the New Testament, as an accurate translation was superior to the Authorized version, though thousands from sentimental association preferred the latter. In treating of the language in which Christ spoke, the speaker said that there was hardly any doubt that Christ, who was a Jew, spoke the popularly designated Hebrew, or, more properly speaking, Aramaic, though many learned men insisted that he spoke Greek. The probability of the former being the case is shown by the untranslated words used by our Lord, which were Hebrew. The Gospels and epistles were written in Greek, instead of Hebrew, because they were written some time after the events recorded occurred and for those who used Greek, which was at that time an almost universal language.

The Apostles at first preached, and as they were martyred or died it became necessary to record their message in manuscript form. The Gospels were not written by the evangelists whose names they bore, except St. Matthew's and St. Luke's Gospel.

The chief theme of the Apostolic preaching was that Jesus was the Messiah promised, that he was the Son of God and that he rose from the dead. The date of the writing of the Gospels was pretty generally fixed at A. D. 70 or 80, for the synoptic Gospels—St. Matthew, St. Luke, St. Mark—and St. John, about 100 A.D. It was shown in St. Luke that there were other writings besides the Gospels now in use. It is held that St. Matthew first wrote in Hebrew, which was afterwards translated into Greek. The "phenomena" presented by the three synoptic Gospels were, first agreements and secondly differences. They agreed in general plan and identities of narrative, and in verbal coincidences. The differences consisted in the interpolation of peculiar matter, that is, parables were found in one Gospel that were not found in others, for instance, the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son were found only in St. Luke's Gospel. There were also verbal differences, of which numerous examples were given. We could account for these narratives being so much alike and yet so different in some little particular, by the assumption that the gospels were verbally arranged at first and committed to memory and the apostles relied upon their memory and upon each other when they came to commit them to writing.

The transmission of these gospels to our own times was next dealt with. The manuscripts, of various dates, extant were about 1400, coming down from the fourth century, though there must have been hundreds written before the fourth century. There were various differences in them, consisting of intentional and unintentional changes, historical corrections and harmonistic doctrinal and liturgical corrections. Of these several interesting examples were presented. The unintentional changes, were errors of the eye and errors of the judgment on the part of the scribe. The errors of judgment arose from one scribe using the marginal notes made by a preceding scribe, for incorporation into the text of the manuscript, and therefore these errors would be copied into all succeeding manuscripts. The speaker gave an interesting account of the principal manuscripts and showed how errors were corrected by a codification of the different manuscripts and using the most authentic to settle the difficulty. The speaker's conclusion was that there had been a large amount of labour bestowed upon the Bible, and if there had been any doubt of the main facts, the grounds of such doubt would have long ago been discovered. The manuscripts of the Bible had a better authority than any other historical documents. Our faith is not founded upon the letter of the Gospel but upon Jesus Christ, and if we exercise faith in Him the little mountains of doubt would resolve themselves into molehills, and we could realize the saying of our blessed Lord in reference to the faith that can remove mountains.

The address, though necessarily somewhat technical in character and a little difficult for the average person to follow, was listened to with great attention. It was of such a nature, illustrated by blackboard tabulations, etc., that anything more than a synoptical report of it is impracticable. It had to be heard to be heard to be appreciated. It contained an immense fund of information presented in as popular form as possible, and, to the thoughtful, especially, was a revelation and an inspiration to deeper study of the great charter of Christian privileges and Christian hopes.

Rev. W. R. Young was called upon for an address and stated that his name had been placed upon the programme by a misunderstanding and he had not thought of giving an address, but he would take advantage of the occasion to express his his entire sympathy with every department of Sunday school work. Referring to the immense

MR. SPEAKER EVANTUREL.

The Montreal Star has the following to say in reference to the election of Mr. Evanturel as Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario:

While it may be making too much of so simple an event to dub it a graceful act on the part of the leading English-speaking province of the Dominion, it is within bounds to say that this is the kind of thing that brings the two Canadian races together and tends to obliterate the mutual suspicions of each toward the other. Mr. Evanturel is a French-Canadian—a son of the Minister of Agriculture in the Macdonald-Sicotte Administration of 1863—and a convert to Liberalism during the anti-French crusade of the Ontario Opposition. He has been in the Legislature since 1890, and has entitled himself to the position by proof of ability and public services.

This calling of men of the minority to high positions within the parties is a capital way to preach Canadian unity. When the Liberals selected Mr. Laurier as their leader, there was felt to be a gain at once for good feeling. A glance over the list of Speakers for the Legislative Assembly of this Province does not discover an English name—and the more's the pity. We should like to be able to say to Ontario now—We of the older province did this before you. Lieutenant-Governorships might be similarly treated. There is no reason why an honoured son of Quebec should not go to Government House, Toronto, before that venerable pile passes out of the hands of the Government, and there is equally no reason why an Ontarian or a Nova Scotian should not come to Spencerwood for a term some time. The same principle would take Canadians to Australia and Australians to Canada, and either to the Cape or the Indies, thus demonstrating in a practical manner the oneness of the Empire.

A Big Electrical Engine.

The Lamier Engine Company, Montreal, have for some time past been engaged in constructing one of the largest engines ever built in the country, and perhaps the largest electrical engine on the continent. The immense fly-wheel, which is now almost complete, weighs over 100 tons and is twenty-four feet in diameter. This wheel was cast in ten segments and is put on a shaft weighing twenty-one tons. Next to the wheel, on the same shaft, is attached the dynamo, and thus the loss of power by friction entailed by the use of a belt is avoided. They fly-wheel is to make seventy-five revolutions per minute, making the velocity of the rim over a mile a minute and its centrifugal force 1,800 tons, or 300 tons on each joint at the normal speed. The heaviest castings are the two pillow blocks which support the ends of the great shaft. These are single castings of thirty tons each and were poured in a continuous stream from three ladles. The engine is a compound one, the high pressure cylinder being thirty-six inches in diameter and having a sixty inch stroke. The low pressure cylinder is sixty-four inches in diameter and has a sixty-inch stroke. Working at a 175 pounds pressure, the engine will develop 4,000 horse power. The several engines at present in use by the Montreal Street Railway company, for which the engine is being made, develop altogether 6,000 horse power and are sometimes taxed to their utmost to supply the power needed. The new engine is to be used in conjunction with this, thus making a total of 10,000 horse power available. Over two tons of Spooner's celebrated "anti-friction copperine" metal was used in the journals of the engine.

Putting the baby to bed is the good-night joy of a happy day to a healthy mother. Many mothers delegate this motherly duty to a nurse. Some mothers hardly see their baby the live-long day. This is not because they are without mother-love or the natural impulses of a womanly woman. It is because of their own ill-health and broken nerves, and because baby is also sickly and peevish.

This unfortunate state of affairs might have been avoided had the mother, during the period of expectant motherhood, taken the right care of the delicate organs that make maternity possible. A woman should always keep these important organs well and strong. Her own health and that of her child depend upon it.

The best medicine for prospective mothers is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes healthy and strong the organs that bear the burdens of maternity. It cures all disease and weakness. It makes comfortable the period preceding motherhood and renders the advent of baby easy and nearly painless. It insures a healthy child. The pains and suffering that women endure, as a result of weakness of the distinctly womanly organism, vanish under its use. All good druggists sell it. There is nothing else "just as good."

"I want to tell you," writes Mrs. N. A. Thomas, of 900 Pulaski Street, Little Rock, Ark., "that my daughter, Mrs. Lawrence, who lives in Texarkana, Ark., had been under the doctor's care for four years. I lately sent her word to try the medicine which cured me, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and I have just heard that it has done her more good than all the doctors."

"The People's Common Sense Adviser" explains symptoms of ailments common to every family, and suggests remedies. It has several chapters on woman's diseases and weaknesses. CURLING FOR THE TANKARD.

Toronto Caledonians and Queen City Beaten—To-Day Will Decide It.

Hamilton Victoria beat Seaforth by 3 shots.

Queen City beat Scarboro by 9 shots.

Oshawa beat Collingwood by 40 shots.

Barnia beat London by 28 shots.

Lindsay beat Caledonians by 23 shots.

Brantford and Chatham byes.

—Second Draw.—

Hamilton Victoria beat Queen City by 2 shots.

Lindsay beat Fergus by 9 shots.

Barnia beat Oshawa by 13 shots.

Brantford beat Chatham by 10 shots.

—Third Draw, 9 a.m., to-day.—

Barnia v. Lindsay, at the Victoria.

Hamilton Victoria v. Brantford, at the Victoria.

Final draw for the Ontario Tankard this afternoon at the Victoria.

Two rounds in the finals for the Ontario Silver Tankard were completed yesterday as above. Barnia, Lindsay, Brantford and the Hamilton Victorias are the four clubs left. Fourteen teams started out and seven of them fell by the wayside.

The Hamilton Victorias furnished the feature of the day, securing a possible eight on their sixth head in the morning. Seaforth had one on the tee when Murdock threw his first granite. He took it out and Wilson fell short. Then Murdock drew another and made a record for Tankard games.

Lindsay scored successive sixes on Prentice on the third and fourth ends. This put the Caledonians hopelessly in the rear and though the Rennies kept abreast of Flavelle until the 19th end McLennan had a lead that proved insurmountable, due to his own good work and miserable play on his opponents.

The other Toronto representatives knocked out the good players from Scarboro in the morning, but in the afternoon all hopes of the Tankard staying in Toronto vanished when the new Church-street club ran up against Hamilton Victorias. It was anyone's game until the last stone was thrown, and then Murdock and Dexter had two over, thanks to the exertions of the older skip. Skip Rogers was called away on important business when the game was half over or the result might have been different.

Capt. Robertson of Barnia furnished the price of admission alone, both morning and afternoon. He played third for John Chester, and in both games this rink was up, as was the other Barnia four, for that matter. They had no trouble in defeating London in the morning. Oshawa gave them a run for 10 ends in the afternoon. The captain threw up his hat when Chester knocked out a stone and counted five and afterwards Oshawa was out of it.

The byes went out to Parkdale in the afternoon, when Skip Woodyatt of Brantford won the game for his side by defeating Percy Schofield 14 shots. Dr. Bray was four ahead of Jolly at the close and thus Chatham was 10 behind. But the Westerners say this result is no indication of the location of the next C.W.A. meet, and Brantford say they will see about that. They had played 21 ends when darkness came along, and there were no electric lights. They wasted 10 minutes in the cosy club room and the last end gave Woodyatt 1 and Jolly 4.

The ice was keen and good in the three curling rinks, over four hours being required to curl the 21 ends. All the scores:

Umpires—Victoria, John Bain. Toronto Club; Granite, C. C. Dalton, Granites Parkdale, John E. Hall, Parkdare.

IT IS IN THE AIR.

Tweed People Talk About it.

It is in the air.
Can't stop it spreading.
Can't keep down a good thing.
People who don't know about it want to known.
People who do know, want to tell about it.
It is kidney education.
Tweed people are learning fast.
Here are some facts.

One of the best known residents of Tweed is Mr. W. H. Houston, who relates the following interesting facts: Mr. Houston says, "I have been very bad for several years with pains in my side and back.

"I had to urinate very frequently, in fact my rest was disturbed by frequent rising at night for that purpose. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, at Newton's drugstore, and have experienced great relief from the first.

"I am sure that I have been greatly benefited, and can recommend them highly to anyone troubled as I was."

Some Great Fires.

Jerusalem has been partly or wholly burned seventeen times, each great conflagration being kindled when the city was taken by a besieging force.

On the hill where stood ancient Troy, Scaliemann found, in successive layers, the ruins of four cities, each of which had evidently been destroyed by fire.

In 1842 Hamburg was burned; 4219 buildings were destroyed, their estimated value being $35,000,000; 100 lives were lost by falling walls and similar accidents.

The excavations made on the site of Nineveh prove that the city was burned and then deserted by the inhabitants, who were probably deported after the last great siege.

Babylon was burned by Cyrus when taken, B.C. 538, but the city was rebuilt with greater splendor than before. Its final destruction was by fire after a siege and capture.

The fire which destroyed the Troy of King Priam's time was of such intensity that the large foundation stones of the building are cracked and calcined in some places almost to powder.

In 1842 a fire broke out in Hamburg, which soon passed beyond the control of the firemen, consumed a large portion of the business quarter of the town, and occasioned a loss of $35,000,000.

In 1818 a great fire raged in Constantinople along the shores of the Golden Horn. It is said that on this occasion 2500 dwellings, shops and bazars were destroyed, their value being estimated at $15,000,000.

In 1865 Carlstadt, in Sweden, was destroyed by fire, and it was noted as a singular circumstance that all the buildings in the town were consumed except the bishop's palace, the city hospital and the jail.

In 1851, the year of the great fires in St. Louis, San Francisco suffered in the same way, one conflagration in May destroying $10,000,000 worth of buildings, the other in June, occasioning a property loss of $3,000,000.

Two Box Cure

Milverton, 29th July, 1896.

Gentlemen,—For the last ten years I had been troubled with kidney disease, being so bad at intervals that I could not lie in bed at night nor stoop to the ground.

I had tried all the remedies I could find without effect, but heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and procured a box.

I am most happy to say it for my own sake as well as for others that I am perfectly cured after using four boxes.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. We do not require to make any bombastic statements regarding the size or quality of our stock; both are only too well known in the town as well as in many other places at great distances. We wish to thank our customers for their patronage through the late season.

LOSS OF VOICE

After Acute Bronchitis

CURED BY USING

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

THE RENT COLLECTOR

THE WOES OF THIS MUCH MALIGNED INDIVIDUAL.

The Conditions of the Tenants a Subject of Speculation With Him—Idiosyncrasies of Some Occupiers of Houses—Funny and Serious Work.

"It takes all kinds of people to make a world," said the rent collector, "but I do think that fellows in our line of business are faced up to the very queerest of them! When a chap begins he is generally pretty softhearted and easily fooled and his feelings get all torn up a dozen times a day, but after a while he gets kind of deaf and callous, and then he pays no attention to anything but the hard cash and gets along first rate. You see folks in general are cranks the best way you can fix it, and a rent collector sees the crankiest side of 'em, and when you work for a firm that rents places for folks to live in all the way from $2 a month up to $200 you see all kinds. There are rich people in this city who have money to burn and yet they take a delight in staving off a 'rent man' from day to day with any excuse that comes handy. Houses that rent for over a hundred are not so easily filled once they get empty, and so we can't 'speak our minds' to such tenants any time we feel like it, and some of 'em just keep us waiting and dancing around until they get good and ready—just for the fun of the thing it seems.

"Then there are lots of folks who are chronically hard up and put us off—poor things!—because they have to, and when they do pay they generally pay in installments, and in 'chicken feed'—like they'd gone through the young ones' banks to make it up!

"Sometimes we come across folks who want to give us their whole personal history and a gaze at their genealogical tree, and impress upon us that although they may be slightly embarrassed as to money matters at the present moment, in times past they were simply rolling in wealth and luxury, as were their fathers and grandfathers before them. Sometimes we find women who are determined to 'make mashes' on us with a view, apparently, to a lowering of the rent. Poor things!—they don't realise that sentiment and business don't trot in double harness, and that a collector has nothing to do about the rents except collect 'em.

"Then we come up with other folks who pay their rents all right but are continually giving us a song and dance about repairs and changes. The fences, the gates, the doors, the windows, the locks, the roof, and the plumbing always needs attention, according to them, and if you would pay attention to their complaints and demands you would use up the rent money, and more, too, every month in fixing things to suit 'em and then they wouldn't.

"Then there's folks who are always complaining about their neighbors and have a continual grievance about something that has been done or said or thought, in the flat above, or the flat below, or in the house next door to them. They're tartars, they are, and they'll make your life a misery if you pay any attention to them. You soon learn, though, to sympathise with them just while you are making out their receipts, and then let them fight it out among themselves after you have gone about your business. Interfering in neighbors' quarrels doesn't pay, and strict neutrality is a collector's rule unless things get too steep—hair-pulling, hot water and such—and then he don't take sides or join in the fray, but simply reports the matter at the office and leaves the straightening of things to the manager.

One of the funniest persons that ever I met in the business was a pleasant-looking old lady who moved into one of our houses and paid her rent as regular as clockwork for the first three months. The fourth month it happened to come around that I had to call upon her, and when she opened the door and saw me standing there, receipt-book in hand, she looked at me with a very set and stony expression—a regular 'glassy eye,' you know—and she says: "What is it?"

"'Rent, ma'am,' says I, as polite as could be, and then she bucked right there.

"'I deny the existence of rent,' she says. 'There is no such thing as rent; there never was such a thing, and there never will be.'

"'I hope it isn't so bad as that, ma'am,' said I, for she seemed to be taking a kind of gloomy view of things; 'times are pretty hard all over, but I guess you'll manage to raise it some way. Supposing I call again tomorrow?'

"She fairly glared at me. 'I refuse to accept the idea of your existence,' she declared. 'You do not exist; you never did exist, and you never will exist! I refuse to entertain the idea of your presence here on my front steps; it is unpleasant and unprofitable, and I am going to close my door.' And she did.

"I thought she was locoed, and sent the head collector up to see about her, but by the time he got around—two or three days later—she had dug up some cash and paid the bill like a little man. Come to find out, she was only one of those scientific people who believe in 'affirming' and 'denying' things just as the notion takes 'em, and she was just practicing her principles on me.

"When we get hold of tenants who are in real distress it comes a little hard to slip those yellow billetdoux under their doors, but we can't help it, for we have our orders and must carry 'em out. A great many people are inclined always to blame the agents for the cases of hardship which now and then come to light, but in 99 case out of 100 the agent is not at all to blame. It is the owner who stands behind him and gives the orders—the agent's business is simply to carry them out.

"Ever read 'Little Dorrit'? Well, that saphead of a Flora Finching's father is a pretty good picture of some property-owners. They look very pious and benevolent, but if some Panks would cut their hair off, figuratively speaking, you'd be astonished at what you would see.

"Rent-collectors don't have time to stand round and let the grass grow under their feet, I can tell you. It's a rustling and hustling kind of a business, and the fellow who can't rustle and hustle has got to drop out. The first and fifteenth of the month are our specially busy times, and often I have collected and given receipts for over 300 rents during a single day. It makes a pretty big and heavy bag of specie before I get through, but so far I've managed to get it into the office safe every time.

"Risky? Well, yes; of course there's always a risk that some one may spot and trail you, but you can't be guaranteed absolute safety in any business. Every one of us collectors is well armed, and we know how to use our weapons, too, or we shouldn't be riding round in these nice little carts of ours."—San Francisco Call.

The Harp of Brian Boru.

The sightseer in Dublin who fails to visit Trinity College and spend a day among the treasures preserved in the great museum belonging to that institution makes the mistake of his life, says the St. Louis Republican. In that museum there are hundreds of thousands of relics, but the one in which most people take the greatest interest is the harp which once belonged to Brian Boroihme, or Brian Boru, as he is most commonly called. Brian Boru was the Irish monarch who was killed in the great battle at Clontarf in the year 1014 A.D. Brian left his harp and his crown to his son Donagh, who succeeded as king. Soon after Donagh, was deposed by a warlike nephew and was forced to retire to Rome. He took his father's crown and harp with him and they were kept in the Vatican collection for several centuries, the crown, which is of massive hammered gold, being still numbered among the Pope's treasures. The harp, however, was sent to Henry VIII., and he presented it to the first Earl of Clanricarde. It was deposited in the museum mentioned in the opening in the year 1872. The harp is thirty-two inches high and of good workmanship, the carving on the oak frame being equal to anything that could be done to-day. It is well preserved and does not look to be an instrument upward of 1000 years old.

RESPECTABLE RIDERS.

It Is Just as Well to Talk Civilly as Not to Farmers.

"Hello, old gentleman! Are we on the right road to Newburg, and what's the name of this place?" called out one of two wheelmen who, while spinning along a country road, had halted beside a corn field in which an old man was plowing. The old man thus addressed "whoa'd" his mule, wrapped the reins about the plow handle and began fairly tumbling down the hill between the rows of corn.

"Don't bother to come; we can hear," expostulated the cyclist, but the elderly plowman only increased his speed and finally struck the road.

"I wanted to take a look at you," he panted, leaning against the stone wall; "you're the most respectable soundin' fellers I've seen since sunrise; been tryin' to plow this here corn patch pretty nigh all day, and ain't done much more'n tell a lot o' chaps on them wheel machines how to git to places. Kind o' thought might as well make a sign post o' myself and stand round here som'ers pointin' up the road. Wouldn't mind so much," he continued, balancing his hat on his left ear while he mopped his countenance, "if some o' them city houseplants didn't think themselves so tarnation smart! You spoke civil like, and called me 'gentleman' just now, and I'm willin' to tell you all I kin, but when a posse of upstarts comes whizzin' long a-ringin' their bells at nothin' but rabbit tracks, with legs on 'em that looks as if they had been fired at by that new-fangled X-Y-Z sharpshooter, and calls me Deacon Hayseed, Poppy Grass and Daddy Corn Cob, it's not agreein' with me, and they finds out it ain't."

"I asks a feller this mornin' who he thought he was talkin' to, and he said 'a modern Cincinnatus,' and then he winked at another feller. Now, I likes to be winked at just as much as anybody, and I told that feller that perhaps he was a modern New Yorkus and owned the earth, and wus ridin' round to boss the job, but I'd be blamed if he didn't look like jist the greenest, durnedest grasshopper I'd ever seen a-straddle one o' them patent go-aroundas.

"'We're scorchin',' says one. 'Glad of it,' says I, 'fur maybe you'll be needin' the practice later on.' I talks respectable to them as talks respectable to me, and Newburg's straight ahead then to the right every time and the name o' this place is Claudius Smith's Turnpike. If you'll stop at the house, round the curve yonder, the folks'll give you some buttermilk, fresh churned—city levers like buttermilk."

And the old man climbed back to the plow, where a lot of horse flies were laughing at the way the mule was trying to kick them and couldn't. —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

toil, effort and money expended upon the Bible, he said it behooved Sunday school teachers to spend much, if not corresponding, time and labour upon preparing themselves to give a correct interpretation of the book. He submitted as the two best helps to this end the authorized and revised version of the Bible. Every teacher should give his best thought and study in the direction of discharging his or her moral responsibility to the pupil.

In the absence of the president, Mr. E. Hawthorne, of Warsaw, Dr. Harrison occupied the chair and spoke in very emphatic terms of commendation of the very valuable address of Rev. Mr. Symonds, who was worthy therefore of the gratitude of all that heard it.

Dr. Harrison is a very earnest and well-skilled Sunday school worker and his opinion is valuable. It is worthy of note that in the person of Dr. Harrison the importance of the Midland District Associations was recognized by appointing him vice-president for Ontario of the International Sunday School Association, at the session in Boston.

After devotional exercises the meeting adjourned.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

In presenting the report for 1896-7, I am sorry that I cannot report progress, gratifying progress, all along the line.

Since the date of my last report, the annual convention was held in Hastings, where good work was accomplished. The hospitality of Hastings was bountiful and given with unstinting hands.

The affiliated Associations have some of them held their annual conventions.

On Feb. 28th, 1896, Smith Association held an excellent convention at Selwyn.

Dummer held a partially successful convention, also last February, the reasons for the partial failure being the worst of roads and a stormy day. We are indebted to the Rev. Mr. McEwan, that veteran in Sunday school work, who, notwithstanding the inclement day and forbidding way, made his way to Warsaw and did effective work.

The township of Otonabee held its annual convention at Zion and a rally in September at Salem, both of which were well attended. Again Mr. McEwan assisted at the September rally.

The town association has not held a convention, but has re-organized with Mr. John Gilchrist as the standard bearer, from whom we hope much.

The townships of Asphodel and Belmont have lapsed and so far as organized work is concerned are dead, or perhaps in a condition of catalepsy, waiting for a master hand to free them from their bonds of somnolence.

Our back townships, which are divided from us by the granite ridge and strip of sterile rock formation, do not as a rule receive from us that attention that they have a right to expect. This autumn they were favoured by the presence of Rev. Mr. McEwan, who did visiting and held institutes. I will ask Mr. McEwan to give his report of the work done at the conclusion of this report.

Normal work is alive in our county, but by no means is it what it might or could be. A class in Dummer, who were under the leadership of Mr. Alex Watts, wrote at the Provincial September examinations. There was also a class in Otonabee under the leadership of Miss Brough, who is among one of the first Provincial Normal graduates, receiving her diploma in 1895. This class also wrote in September, 1896. In January, 1897 Mr. M. W. Matchett conducted a successful Normal Institute at Selwyn under the direction of the County Executive. At an early date an Institute will be held in Asphodel, and also in Otonabee. The Rev. D. A. Thompson has been for two years doing Normal work in his midweek meeting, but so far has not sent any students up for examination.

This year there are only two training classes that we know of. One is at Mather's Corners, presided over by Miss Brough, and is taking up the second year's course of work in the Legion of Honour Series; the other is in Keene Methodist Sunday school, who are taking up the first year's work, and are presided over by Mrs. Harrison, who is also a Provincial graduate.

While there is some life astir, we hope for and gardedly long to see many classes at work before mid-summer.

The need of the hour in Sunday school work is cultivated, educated and intensely pious workers for teachers in our schools. We must keep pace at least with the secular schools if we are to hold the young men and women. The advanced secular culture and diffusion of knowledge given to our young people in making thinkers of them, and hence, we must be prepared to give them also Biblical and Christian culture of a higher order than is at present generally done. The day is past when a teacher can come before his or her class with poor preparation, stipulated thoughts and a condition of general unpreparedness, hoping that they can hold the interest of thinking men and women by a kind of goody goody rambling talk about things in general and nothing very particular. The generation of to-day asks for thought—well considered, digested, connected thought.

Now we think that the general adoption of Normal classes will largely help in the preparing of a progressive class of teachers.

It was intended to hold rallies throughout the county, but owing to the weight of work other necessary has had, thus far the wishes of the Executive could not be carried out.

Mr. Hawthorn has been a model president, attending punctually and promptly to his duties as president, and this association is indebted to him for the service rendered.

We need another step forward, that is a County Primary Union. We are realizing more and more the importance of first impressions and habits, hence the importance of primary teachers and workers meeting in association and going on towards profession.

I am sorry that this year we are so far behind hand and weak in our finances. This department of our work needs thoughtful consideration. In a county where there are about forty clergymen, supported by salaries ranging all the way from $700 to $1,400 per annum, surely it would be no burden for the Christian community of this county to raise $800 to $1,000, and yet we have not had $125.00. We think the reason is not because there is no money to be had for this enterprise, but that the people have not realized the necessity for it. In politics there is no want of money for party purposes. Men freely give their $5 to their $10 for the sake of their party cause. Now, why is there not the same spirit in Sunday school work, which does so much towards making good and intelligent citizens? When the chairman of finance conducts his conference we hope there will be the freest discussion of this important matter and that something will be done to place the association in a better financial position. Just think what it would be to the interests of Sunday school work in this county if we had a Sunday school agent constantly in the field. What good could be accomplished!

The Dominion Alliance is preparing to move along the line of temperance legislation. Let our Sunday schools be alive and awake to the importance of proper legislation and support everything that is right that will tend to hasten a better state of affairs than exists at present. If we have advanced legislation so must we have advanced teaching, for to legislate in advance of a prepared people is to court failure.

To the delegates and attendants at this convention the Executive extend the right hand of fellowship, asking for the presence and direction of the Master of Assemblies.

VERY BRIEF SESSION

Local Legislators Had an Easy Time Yesterday.

THE ESTIMATES TO BE UP MONDAY

Petitions Presented Asking for Various Privileges — Northumberland and Durham Want Toll Roads Inspected Every Year - Enquiries of Various Kinds.

Toronto, Feb. 13.

A 20-minute session of the Legislature was held yesterday. After the usual notices of motion and enquiries had been given, the House went into committee and passed a resolution that the estimates be considered on Monday.

The following notice of motion was given:

Mr. Gibson—Respecting the inspection and regulation of joint stock companies.

PETITIONS PRESENTED.

The following petitions were presented:

From the Councils of Waterloo and Huron Counties for an amendment to the Municipal Act permitting County Councils to offer a reward to any person who shall pursue a horse thief; also from the Waterloo Council asking for legislation to make it compulsory for every county or group of counties to establish a House of Industry for the care of their own poor.

Mr. Carpenter—For legislation to relieve counties of the cost of maintaining boys at the Victoria Industrial School, and to place the institution on a similar footing to the Ontario Reformatory.

Mr. Field—From the united counties of Northumberland and Durham for amendments to the General Road Companies Act to make a specification, by which a toll road shall be constructed and maintained, thereafter making it compulsory for each county engineer to examine all toll roads owned by toll road companies in his county once a year at a time to be fixed by the Warden of the county, and whenever the roads or any portion of them are found not to be up to the standard specification that it be the duty of the engineer to order the toll off immediately, the tolls to remain off until the road is properly repaired; and that any appeal from this action be made to the Provincial Road Inspector, and that the Government grant 25 per cent. of the cost of all roads purchased by municipalities within the next three years, this being considered necessary to equalise the difficulty that might arise between municipalities jointly interested in the same road.

Mr. Matheson—For an amendment to the Registry Act, so as to provide that every registrar shall be able to retain each year all the fees up to $1000; of the further emoluments in excess of $1000 and under $2,500, 75 per cent.; in excess of $2500 and under $4000, 50 per cent.; in excess of $4,000, 25 per cent.; and that the expenses of the registry office in joint registry divisions be borne by the municipalities in proportion to the fees collected from each.

Mr. Middleton—For legislation to enable City Councils to appoint all the members of the Courts of Revision.

Mr. Matheson—To compel cities to provide proper accommodation at markets where fees are charged.

Mr. Richardson presented a petition which outlines the legislation that will be applied for by the Metropolitan Street Railway Company. The company will ask to have its first mortgage bonds and also a mortgage securing the same ratified and confirmed. It will ask that its name be changed to the Metropolitan Railway Company. It will ask for power to start, equip and operate its line of railway within the County of Simcoe and build, equip and operate branches in York and Simcoe; to make contracts with other companies for the use of rolling stock and for the purchase, leasing or hiring of electric power; to grant to the Toronto Railway Company power to run cars over the tracks of the Metropolitan Railway Company to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, and such other powers as may be agreed upon or terms to be arranged between the companies, or in case they differ, to be settled by arbitration; to run its cars over the track of the Toronto Railway Company to the Union Station and water front, the city markets, Toronto Postoffice and such other points as may be agreed upon on terms to be arranged between the companies, or in case they differ, to be settled by arbitration; to acquire the assets and franchise and to operate the railway of the Toronto Suburban Railway Company (Ltd.)

Enquiries to the Government:

Mr. Miscampbell asked if the furnishing of flour to Orillia Asylum for 1897 was let by tender. If so, he wished to know who tendered, the amount per pound of the tender and if the lowest tenderer received the contract.

Mr. Ryerson—Order of the House for a return showing the number and amounts of policies of insurance carried on the Parliament Buildings of Ontario; the companies in which they are carried; the percentage paid for insurance; the names of the agents through which the insurance was effected; the rate per $1000 paid; any special conditions attached to the policies and the general provisions of protection against fire in the buildings adopted by the Government.

Mr. Little—Is it the intention of the Government to assist Public schools that have organized continuation classes in connection with the same? If so, to what extent are they to be assisted?

HIGH HONOR FOR KEANE.

Five Dignities Conferred on Him in a Single Day by the Pope—The Recipient Happy

New York, Feb. 12.—A special from The Journal's correspondent in Rome, Italy, says: "I have just seen Archbishop Keane of Washington, and found him jubilant over the reception given him by the Pope and the dignities conferred upon him. Archbishop Keane made this statement:

"The Pope said to me: 'I am greatly shocked and grieved by these mischief-makers who are so busy in the American press. The idea that anyone would try to put me in the position of disapproving the splendid service of Cardinal Satolli or of publicly disgracing you never occurred to me. The change in the rectorship of the Washington University was submitted to me as a purely pedagogical routine matter. I was astonished and indignant when I learned that mischief-makers had misrepresented the meaning of my act. I desire to denounce their statements and to give evidence of my love and esteem for you. My answer to your enemies will be a substantial one. The policy of the Holy See in America is unchanged.'"

Soon after this conversation the Pope conferred five dignities on Archbishop Keane in one day, making him Archbishop of Damascus, Assistant Bishop to the Throne, Canon of the Cathedral of St. John of Lateran, Advisor to the Propaganda, and Advisor to the College of Sacred Studies.

PORT ARTHUR NOTES.

School Children's Contribution for India—Mystery Regarding the Men Burned to Death.

Port Arthur, Feb. 12.—(Special.)—The Port Arthur Public school children's contribution to the Indian Famine Relief Fund has been handed to the Mayor. It amounts to $21.11. The other subscriptions are not yet completed.

There are good reports on the streets from the Empress about the last vein cut, but it is impossible as yet to get them verified from those in charge.

The bodies of both Dubin and Corier were discovered in the ruins of the buildings burned Wednesday night. An inquest is being held by Coroner Beck this evening. The peculiar circumstances of the case are that each man's remains were found in a separate buildings, 75 feet apart, and that both buildings were totally consumed. It looks as if they must have been set on fire, as the burning of one should not have affected the other.

MET AN AWFUL DEATH.

Samuel Huntley Killed by a Red Hot Iron Bar at the McDonell Rolling Mills Yesterday.

Toronto, Feb. 13.

Samuel Huntley, an employe of the McDonell rolling mills, Indian-road, met with accidental death yesterday afternoon in a peculiar manner. He was working at the rolls, placing the red-hot bars in position as they were forced from the machine. While looking away from the machine for a moment, a bar coming from the rolls burned through his leg near the knee. He grasped the hot iron with both hands and burned the flesh to the bone. Dr. Aylesworth was called, but the suffering man was too far gone for human aid, and he died in less than half an hour.

Huntley was a married man, 47 years of age, and lived at 227 Lansdowne-avenue. He leaves a widow and three children. The body was taken to Undertaker Craig's, 1266 Queen-street west.

Little Hope for Bram.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 12.—The second motion for a new trial for Thomas M. Bram, the convicted murderer of Capt. Nash, of the barquentine Herbert Fuller, was denied by Judges Webb and Colt in the United States Circuit Court to-day. The decision says the alleged new evidence was only cumulative.

Saved 440 Sheep and a Horse.

London, Feb. 12.—Four hundred and forty-nine sheep and one horse were saved from the British steamer Anglo-man, which was wrecked on the Skerries on Feb. 9, while on a voyage from Boston for Liverpool.

Rockefeller Will Pay Half.

New York, Feb. 12.—At a meeting of prominent Baptists at the residence of John D. Rockefeller in this city last night Mr. Rockefeller promised to contribute the sum of $250,000 toward the paying off of the total indebtedness of $496,000 resting upon the Baptist foreign and home missionary societies, but stipulated, however, that his gift is contingent upon other friends of the societies mentioned subscribing the remaining $236,000 by July 1, next.

THE OTTAWA BLAZE.

Western Wing a Mass of Smoking Ruins.

FIREMEN HAD A HARD TIME OF IT

Fighting the Flames With Poor Facilities and the Mercury at Zero—The Building Was a Fire Trap—Montreal Engine Five Hours on the Road.

Ottawa, Feb. 12 — (Special.) — The stately western departmental building to-day, with the exception of the northwestern wing, built during the reign of Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, is practically a mass of smoking ruins. At considerable inconvenience your correspondent passed through the building this morning with one of the Government architects and a leading building contractor, and the opinion of these gentlemen, after viewing the wreck, was that while the walls are good the interior of the building will almost entirely have to be renewed. Beams will have to come out, floors be relaid and almost every room replastered. Moreover, the building will have to be made thoroughly fireproof.

HARD-WORKED FIREMEN.

The Ottawa fire brigade was in a pretty demoralised condition when, at 3 o'clock this morning, your correspondent left the scene of the conflagration. They had then had 10 hours of continuous work. There were few onlookers at the time, the poor firemen being left alone to throw water with the temperature at zero. At this hour they were concentrating their efforts on the east wing, where the fire was burning briskly over the offices of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries and his deputy. At this point there was the greatest danger of the fire descending to the main corridor of the Fisheries Department, and indeed at a later hour in the morning it did actually get into Mr. Davies' room, which, with others adjoining, was completely wrecked.

Shortly before 6 o'clock a detachment of the Montreal fire brigade, in charge of the veteran Col. Stevenson, chairman of the Montreal Fire and Light Committee, arrived. There were 15 men all told. As all that the Ottawa men were then endeavoring to do was to check the flames from reaching the lower storeys in the block, the Montreal detachment came as a great relief to the worn-out Ottawa brigade. The Montreal boys were on duty until this afternoon, when they left for home on the 3 o'clock train. The citizens of Ottawa greatly appreciated the generous assistance rendered to them by the sister city. It was a thoughtful act upon the part of Mayor Wilson Smith to tender the services of the Montreal men and Mayor Bingham promptly accepted the offer. The contingent came up by special train over the C. P. R., but made a very slow trip, the journey lasting nearly five hours.

Hon. Mr. Mulock, who happened to be in the building when the fire broke out, is of the opinion that it was very badly damaged. When it started on the west side it seemed, he says, that there should have been no trouble getting it under control, but the firemen, instead of directing the streams against the fire, threw them on the stone walls and the slate roof, where it did no good. As a matter of fact, however, the pressure was not great enough for water to reach the roof, and the extension ladder had not at this time arrived.

Of the manner in which the fire was handled opinions are many. But no estimate of the city service will be a fair one which fails to take into consideration the peculiar circumstances under which it was rendered. In the first place, the entire top storey of the west block was notoriously a fire trap. Constructed of wood, with partitions and passages innumerable, and framed with heavy timbers, the whole thing was a veritable rubbish heap, set on top of an otherwise fireproof building. The situation that tested the efficiency of the water pressure was at the highest point of the city, and the water pressure proved to be lamentably weak. The Wellington-street main, feeding the corridor hydrants of the building and the large hose of the central station, gave a series of very sickly streams, indeed.

When the fire was discovered a length of hose was run towards the scene of the conflagration, but as soon as the water was turned on it ran out of the hose as from a sieve, and could not be got within many feet of the fire. It is said a like condition of affairs prevails with regard to the Parliament Building and the East Block. In the Parliament Building the statement was made to-day on good authority that the hose there had been in actual use since Confederation, so that its quality may be well judged.

Finally, with regard to the conflagration, it was allowed to get tremendous headway before the brigade was called out. Flames were already breaking out of the west windows when the first of the firemen reached the scene at 4.35, and had doubtless by that time worked well into the woodwork of the building and between the floors. When all these circumstances are taken into consideration, criticism of the firemen's work will doubtless be considerably modified.

A meeting of the Cabinet was held this morning for the purpose of considering the situation. It was decided to lease the Sherwood and Slater blocks on Sparks-street, for the Departments of Public Works and Marine and Fisheries. The other departments will be housed in two buildings on Wellington-street belonging to the Nagle estate. It was also decided to at once put a temporary flat roof on the burnt building, so that the work of restoration may be proceeded with in the most expeditious manner possible. Mr. Tarte had received permission of his colleagues to call in the service a Auditor's Certificate.

I hereby certify that I have carefully audited the Books and Accounts of the Toronto Savings and Loan Company, for the year ending 31st December, 1896. All disbursements have been properly vouched for, and the postings and balances of the Company's ledgers have been checked and found correct.

The above statement of Assets and Liabilities shows the position of the Company on 31st December, 1896, and the Profit and Loss Account is a correct showing of the operations of the Company for the year ending on that day.

I have also examined the securities and find everything in order.

E. R. WOOD,
Auditor.

Peterborough, 12th January, 1897.

GENTLEMEN,—I have now much pleasure in presenting for your approval the twelfth annual statement of this company, printed copies of which have been in the hands of the shareholders for some days, and from which you will be glad to learn that the results of the years' operations have enabled your Directors to pay the usual half yearly dividend at the rate of six per cent. per annum, amounting to $30,000,000, and to make a further addition of $2,010.74 to the Contingent Fund, making it $3,457.21, and the Reserve Fund $105,000.00.

It will be known to most if not all the Shareholders present that during the year important changes have been effected in the policy and direction of the Company, which it is confidently anticipated will very materially promote its future prosperity.

By an arrangement with the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company the Toronto office of this Company has been closed, and in accordance with the provisions of the Charter in that behalf, the Head Office and entire business of the Company has been transferred to Peterborough where it already has important investments, and by the agreement with the "Central Canada," to which I have already referred, that Company is no longer to compete for business in the counties adjacent to Peterborough, which is to be the future home of this Company. The mortgages now held by the "Central Canada" where it is satisfactory to the borrower and to the Company, will, as they mature, be taken over and renewed by this Company. This agreement, which it is thought will be mutually profitable to both Companies by affecting economy in management and closer supervision of business, has been greatly facilitated and strengthened by the cordial co-operation of the Peterborough Directors of the "Central Canada," who have kindly consented to throw in their lot with what is now to be a home company.

The intimate knowledge and acquaintance that these gentlemen have of this and the adjacent counties to which the operations of the Company are to be restricted, and the long experience that many of these have had in business in this Midland District will give the Company unusual advantages in acquiring a safe and profitable business in one of the most fertile and prosperous sections of Canada.

I now move, seconded by Mr. Hall, Vice-President, the adoption of the report and the statement herewith submitted, and that they be printed for circulation amongst the Shareholders, Depositors and Debenture holders of the Company. Before asking your assent to this resolution I shall be glad to answer any question or furnish any information that may be desired by any Shareholder present. Mr. Richard Hall, the Vice-President, seconded the resolution for the adoption of the report which was carried unanimously.

The usual votes of thanks were passed. Mr. E. R. Wood was re-appointed Auditor for the ensuing year.

The election of Directors was then proceeded with, when the Scrutineers reported the following gentlemen as duly elected for the ensuing year: Hon. Geo. A. Cox, Richard Hall, Aaron A. Cox, William Cluxton, Peter Hamilton, A. L. Davis, H. J. LeFevre, D. W. Dumble and James Stevenson, Ex.-"M.P."

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Hon. Geo. A. Cox was elected President, and Richard Hall and Aaron A. Cox, Vice-Presidents.

A GOOD RECORD.

Since the 23rd of June, the bye-elections have gone with a sweep in favour of the new Liberal Administration.

In North Grey, which the late Mr. Clark at the general election captured from the Conservatives with a small majority, Hon. Mr. Paterson obtained a majority of 494.

Sudbury, N. B., gave Hon. Mr. Blair a majority of 634—a large increase over the general election figures.

The other Dominion Ministers were elected, or re-elected, without opposition.

Hon. Clifford Sifton was elected without opposition for Brandon, Man. Though opponents of the Government had been asserting that he had betrayed Manitoba's interests on the school question, to conciliate the new Government at Ottawa, no one dared to oppose him in a constituency which had hitherto been Conservative.

Cornwall and Stormont, Conservative almost from time immemorial, turn round, and elected the Liberal candidate by an over-whelming majority.

South Brant returned the Liberal candidate by 400 majority.

North Ontario also fell into line, giving Mr. Graham, Liberal Patron, 33 majority.

East Simcoe, a Conservative constituency, re-elected the unseated member by a reduced majority.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN.

But This Time it was a God Send to Mr. John Brown, a G.A.R. Veteran, of 2,446 Marshall St., Philadelphia—Dodged Shot and Shell in the Interest of His Country, Only to be Attacked by That Insidious Disease, Catarrh—But Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder Cured, and Permanently, too—This is What he Says:

"By a mere accident I came across Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. I was a great sufferer from that direst malady—catarrh. To-day I gives me unbounded pleasure to state for suffering humanity's sake that this wonderful remedy effected a speedy and permanent cure in my case, and I have been so thankful for it that I am willing to spend the remainder of my days in spreading the good news to my fellow-sufferers." "My wife was taken bad last August with nervous prostration, which later on developed paralysis of one side. We tried many remedies, but all in vain. I thought I would try South American Nervine, having seen it advertised in the New Westminster, B.C., papers, and I am glad to be able to say that the result after taking three bottles was astonishment to myself and family. It worked wonders for her, and we cannot speak too highly of this great remedy." No case too acute or of too long standing to defy its wonderful merits. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

We hear a great deal about purifying the blood. The way to purify it is to enrich it. Blood is not a simple fluid like water. It is made up of minute bodies and when these are deficient, the blood lacks the life-giving principle. Scott's Emulsion is not a mere blood purifier. It actually increases the number of the red corpuscles in the blood and changes unhealthy action into health.

If you want to learn more of it we have a book, which tells the story in simple words.

THE OTTAWA BLAZE.

of two or three leading architects to confer with him and his officers as to the best class of roof which should be placed on the building, and as to how to make the whole structure thoroughly fireproof.

Out of this national calamity the question will naturally arise as to the condition in which the Parliament building and the east block are. The roofs of both of these buildings are just as big fire traps as the one which was burnt yesterday. While a good many valuable records have been lost yet the damage is far less than would have been the case if the fire had occurred in the east block and got amongst the valuable records of the Interior Department, which are in as dangerous a position as regards fire as can be found in Ottawa.

At five minutes to 6 o'clock the city brigade was called out again, fire having started up in the office of Mr. Coste, chief engineer of the Public Works Department. Mr. Coste had locked the door of his room and it was difficult to gain access to it. There was a plentiful supply of water and the flames were soon drowned out. One of the steamers will be kept going steadily all night to guard against future outbreaks.

An important lesson which the fire emphasized is with regard to the care of public records. The archives' branch, which is in charge of Dr. Brymner, is located in the basement of the burnt building. Nearly all these valuable records relating to the early history of Canada are to-day saturated with water. The rooms were visited by Mr. Jarvis, secretary of the Department of Agricultural, who found half a foot of water on the floor.

In the east block are all the valuable records of the Privy Council, kept in that department, while there is a third batch under Col. Audet in the Department of Secretary of State. Besides this, most of the departments have records stowed away in lumber rooms.

At an early date the Government will consider the erection of a special records' building in which all departmental documents, marked N. F. A. (No further action), or which are more than three years old, will be properly filed away. One of the ministers mentioned to me to-night that such a building was imperatively needed. It will cost fully $150,000. The removal of the departmental records to such a building, where they would be readily available, would give considerable more room for offices in the different buildings. It is probable that Parliament will be asked to vote a sum of money for this purpose. Indeed, it would not be a matter of surprise if, as an outcome of yesterday's great conflagration, a million of dollars were spent in putting all the buildings into thoroughly fire-proof condition.

Hon. Mr. Tarte is satisfied that the fire is the result of smoking, and an order was issued to-day prohibiting the use of tobacco in all the Dominion buildings.

With the exception of a little water on the floors of the corridors in the Mackenzie wing, no damage has been done there. The clerks of the departments of Railways and Canals and Inland Revenue were at work as usual, and were decidely pleased that the quarters had escaped fire and water.

Mr. Davies is away from Ottawa and all his private papers have been destroyed.

Hon. R. W. Scott, who rendered good service yesterday, remarked this morning that he had never seen men become as excited as many did last night. They would carry hose that was practically useless upstairs and downstairs, and then leave it. He had no comment to make on the action of the fire brigade. When it was seen that there was danger of the top flat of the block being destroyed, Sir Henri Joly sent to the C. A. R. for tarpaulins to cover the papers and documents in the offices of the lower flats from water. Very few could be obtained in the city.

Several of the employes of the civil service in the Department of Public Works stated to-day that the offices and storerooms in the department had not been cleaned for years. They were full of dust and cobwebs. They further stated that if a blaze had caught in any of the rooms it would have spread as though in the midst of straw or paper.

There is much disapproval of the inaction of the police in failing at the beginning of the fire to prevent traffic along Wellington-street, where the lines of hose were laid. Sleighs, many of them heavily loaded, were for almost an hour allowed to drive over the hose, and in one case a hose is known to have been cut and made useless by a heavy load of stone being drawn over it. It was more than an hour after the fire started before ropes were strung across Wellington-street at the corner of O'Connor, to prevent sleighs from passing.

Chief Young said to-day the brigade was handicapped by lack of pressure, and the alarm was given too late. He had himself to ring the general alarm, which should have been rung by those who noticed the fire first. The water works pumps, he thought, did all they possibly could. It was impossible to reach the fire by taking hose up the stairs, on account of the cubby holes that were used for offices. The ladder was the only means they had of reaching the fire. The Conqueror worked well until 6 or 7 o'clock this morning, when, owing to bad coal, she became choked up.

Unprejudiced persons admit that, considering the appliances at their command, the Ottawa brigade did nobly. Unquestionably, however, the brigade equipment is not up to the proper standard. Two years ago when a by-law was submitted to the people to raise $45,000 for new appliances it was voted down. The Fire and Light Committee meets to-morrow for the purpose of taking steps to submit another by-law for properly equipping the brigade, and they will have the support of the citizens this time. Two new fire stations will be built, while two new steam engines, probably two chemical engines, a water tower and other modern appliances will be procured. One or two costly lessons of this character have rudely awakened the citizens to a sense of their insecurity.

City Fire Alarm Supt. MacDonald some years ago suggested to the Department of Public Works that it would be wise to put fire alarm boxes in convenient places throughout the buildings. He was practically told to mind his own business. Some of the officials said that with their indoor hydrants, their hose and fire extinguishers, they had no need of bothering the city fire brigade.

Col. Stevenson of Montreal is severe in his condemnation of the Langevin extension ladder. He said they had one in Montreal, but providence fortunately broke it and it had not been repaired since.

Paine's Celery Compound Gives Him New Blood, Activity and Strength.

The Great Medicine Removes His Troubles and Burdens.

His Cure Vouched for by a Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Thomas R. Baxter, of Karsdale, N. S., aged 74 years and fast nearing the grave from a terrible complication of diseases—erysipelas for 40 years, bleeding piles for 15 years, and sciatic rheumatism for over a year—was rescued from torture, agony and death by Paine's Celery Compound after all other means had failed.

After reading the following statement, vouched for by a Justice of the Peace, how can any sane man or woman entertain doubts as to the curing virtues of earth's only honest life giving medicine?

Mr. Baxter writes as follows:

"I desire to let you know about my wonderful cure by your precious medicine, Paine's Celery Compound.

"I was afflicted by three complaints that made my life a misery and a burden. I had erysipelas for 40 years, bleeding piles for 15 years, and sciatic rheumatism for over a year.

"I tried the doctors and all kinds of medicines, but no help or relief was afforded me, and I could not eat or sleep. I was the advised to use Paine's Celery Compound, and, oh, what a mighty change! The use of the first bottle enabled me to eat and sleep, and after using seven bottles I was quite another man; was perfectly cured, and felt young again. All that I have written can be proven by merchants, doctors, magistrates, and by three ministers of the Gospel, and by scores of other people. I shall always thank you and your wonderful medicine, Paine's Celery Compound."

"I hereby certify that Paine's Celery Compound has made a well man of Thomas R. Baxter."

in a surprisingly short time. It's a scientific certainty, tried and true, soothing and healing in its effects.

W. C. McCOUBREY & SON, Bowmanville, Ont., report in a letter that Pyny-Pectoral cured them of Whooping Cough of three months' standing in children, and also cured W. A. McCumber of a lung trouble, etc.

MR. J. H. HOYTT, Chemist, 328 Yonge [illegible], writes: "As a personal cure of a bad lung cough, Pyny-Pectoral is a most invaluable remedy. In the case given, the cough was of three months' standing, and had resisted the usual remedies for that time. It was in fact chronic bronchitis, and was cured by Pyny-Pectoral in a few days. Having tried it in my own case, I can recommend it as a safe and reliable cough remedy."

ANGUS M'LEOD'S MURDERER.

A Convict in Kingston Penitentiary Who Says He Shot the Napanee Man Years Ago.

Kingston, Feb. 12.—The old adage that "Murder will out!" received startling confirmation yesterday, when a convict in the penitentiary named Troy made a voluntary confession that he in September, 1893, shot and killed Angus McLeod of Napanee, Government Detective Rogers, who had charge of the investigation into the murder, and who, a few months ago, visited the penitentiary here in connection with the case, came down from Toronto yesterday and took down the convict's confession, which is said to be most circumstantial. Troy was sent down from the West two years ago to serve a 20 years' sentence for shooting a railway conductor. Angus McLeod, it will be remembered, was shot in his own house while he attempted to grapple with a burglar whose movements his wife had heard. Mr. McLeod rushed out into the hall, and, as he advanced, the man fired, and the shot took effect. The murderer fled, leaving a brown fedora hat behind. It is said that Troy was run down through the headgear. Mr. McLeod was a tinsmith and a former Kingstonian.

Troy is a tramp, who, while stealing a ride on a train from St. Catharines, was noticed by the conductor, who attempted to put him off. Troy pulled a revolver and fired three bullets into the conductor, none of which had fatal effect. The convict comes from the western portion of the Province. He made his confession voluntarily, and in the presence of Warden Metcalfe. Should the confession show sufficiently strong evidence of being genuine Troy, who is a comparatively young man, will be taken to Napanee and there tried for the crime.

A young man in Lowell, Mass., troubled for years with a constant succession of boils on his neck, was completly cured by taking only three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Another result of the treatment was greatly inproved digestion with increased avoirdupois.

Many cases of indigestion arise from people drinking too much at meals. The solids they take are greatly diluted in this way and the work of the stomach is hindered. This caution applies equally to water and to beer, etc.

SHUTTING DOWN —ON— LONG-WINDED CREDIT

PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 10th, 1897.

NOTICE—From and after this date, Messrs H. LeBRUN & CO. have decided to shorten the Term of Credit heretofore given, and, in future, no goods will be sold except for Cash, or on such limited time as may be mutually arranged.

We believe the safest way to do business in these days is to sell for Cash. The next best way is to sell on short dates. Many of our customers who have regularly paid their bills after a reasonable term of credit, would perhaps feel the "Spot Cash" system a hardship, especially while times are so hard and money so scarce. We regard these customers as among the best we have, and are quite satisfied to continue to extend to them the same terms of limited credit they have been accustomed to enjoy.

Our chief complaint is with the "long-winded" customer, who compels us to say that he makes business-life a down-right worry. It makes no difference to us whether a man is worth a million if he won't pay his account. When we need money for our business and are repeatedly put off with "promises to pay" by those who are well able to pay, we have no use for such trade. If every customer treated us in that way we could not carry on business at all. Besides, it is very disagreeable to us to have to "dun" a customer half a dozen times, or spend the profits in postage stamps, and wearing out shoe-leather to boot. We are compelled, therefore, to shut down at once on long credits. Those who can't pay within a reasonable time, we don't want their account in future.

There is a resolution all over the country in favour of Cash or shorter Credits. Cash is a more powerful friend now than ever, and if we must compete with the Cash Stores, who save their discounts, we can't afford to give long credit. Wholesale houses are now offering such big baits in the way of Cash Discounts that we must be prepared to take advantage of them or be handicapped.

All past due Accounts must be settled by the 1st of March; after that date they will be placed in Court for collection. All parties having contra accounts against us are requested to hand them in for settlement at once.

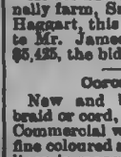
Correction.

Rev. H. Symonds requests THE EXAMINER to make the following correction in an otherwise good report of his address on the New Testament. He did not say, as reported, that "the Gospels were not written by the evangelists whose names they bear," but simply drew attention to the fact that only two of the Gospels were written by Apostles, viz: those of St. Matthew and St. Mark, whilst St. Mark and St. Luke were followers of Apostles.

Books as Cheap as White Paper.



A new lot of novels, with popular titles by standard authors, have just arrived at the Peterborough Bookstore to be sold at almost the price of white paper. They are in assorted lots at 5 for 25c.—3 for 25c.—3 for 50c. We haven't enough to go round, and they may be gone before you get here if you are not alert. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

Condition of the Roads.

The farmers are complaining about the roads, there being not much sleighing and much less wheeling. If the present mild weather continues the sleighing will be gone entirely and the roads will be in a very bad state for traffic. The farmers around Port Hope and Cobourg say they would not mind it so much only they must come to town, as no place else can they get such value in tea, flour or canned goods as R. BROWN & Co.'s, 294 George street, Wholesale and Retail Grocers.

CURLIANA.

The Lindsayites gave their Tankard rinks a great reception on their return from Toronto, and the Post says:—"Possibly the most pleasing part of the proceedings of the meeting last night was the break made by the secretary being called to the 'phone to receive the congratulations of the Peterborough club. He was instructed to write to Peterborough, stating to them the great pleasure it gave our club to receive from them this message of congratulation."

The Granites will meet this evening at seven o'clock to choose their skips for the Dryden competition which takes place in Lindsay on Tuesday.

Skip Ray and Skip Allen's closely contested game last night resulted in a draw.

The Thistles chaplain was on the ice last night and played with his namesake's rink.

A rink of Colts challenged the Veterans to play for the oysters last night, but the "Vet" couldn't be induced to back up their skill to that extent. A most interesting match, however, was played, with the result that the Colts beat the Veterans out by one point. At the fourth end from the last the Veterans had a lead of seven, and at this stage of the game "Jockey" Hopkins laid a bet of the cigars for the crowd with Skip Belleghem that his rink would yet be beaten, and to justify his faith in them the Colts pulled themselves together and won by one point. The rinks were composed as follows:

Colts.	Veterans.
Alf Terrill,	W E Lech,
J S Knapman,	A Slade,
Gus Hay,	Geo Fitzgerald,
E Rutherford, sk ..13	D Belleghem, sk.....13

The Veterans are having a good deal of fun poked at them to-day for refusing to play for the oysters, though their skip proved that courage was not lacking on his part when he took up Geo. Hopkins' bet. It is hinted that the colts were "playing-off" all the time just to try and get this bet on, for they had no difficulty in winning once the cigars were up.

HOCKEY.

The Toronto Globe says: Phelan will play with Peterborough against Queen's in Kingston on Monday. The boroites are confident of holding the lead of one that they secured in the first game.

To the Sporting Editor:

DEAR SIR,—The report supplied you of Wednesday's scratch match of hockey between a team selected from the Riverside rink players and the so-called Southender, was very much off colour. The latter claim to be boys—mere sucklings, such as "7x2" Crowley, "Croppy" Mitchell, "Dry-goods" Picard, "Farmer" Meagher and others. If these "boys" are not men they never will be. But they will need to be "men" to win the next match.

KIDNEY PAIN.

John Snell, of Wingham, Ont., was in a Maelstrom of Pain and Agony from Diseased Kidneys—South American Kidney Cure was the Welcome "Life Preserver"—It Relieves Instantly and Cures Surely.

"Five years ago I had a severe attack of La Grippe which affected my kidneys and caused intense pains in my back and urinary organs. I suffered untold misery, at times I could not walk, and any standing position gave me intense pain. I became worse so rapidly that my family became alarmed. Just at this time I noticed South American Kidney Cure advertised. Although I had little faith left in any remedy—having tried so many worthless ones—but 'a drowning man will grasp at a straw,' and I procured a bottle. In a few days it had worked wonders, and before half a bottle was taken I was totally relieved of pain and two bottles entirely cured me." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

A PROSPEROUS FINANCIAL CORPORATION.

On the second page of this issue will be found a report of the annual general meeting of the Toronto Savings and Loan Company, a report which reflects in its gratifying character the good management that has contributed to such a result. The earnings, which amounted to $69,297.49, have permitted the payment of the usual half yearly dividend at the rate of six per cent. per annum, the payment of interest on borrowed capital, the expense of management and other expenses, and the making of a further addition of $2,010.74 to the Contingent Fund, making a total of $2,457 21, and the Reserve Fund the comfortable figures of $105,000, equivalent to a total surplus of $108,475.21, or eighteen per cent. of the paid-up capital. The closing of the Toronto office of this company, the transferring of the head office and the entire business of the company to Peterborough, the concentration of its operations here and the advantages gained by the arrangement with the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company by which the latter is no longer to compete for business in the counties adjacent to Peterborough, will be additional elements, contributing to increased future prosperity. The success of the past year is a source of congratulation to the efficient manager, Mr. W. G. Morrow, and those co-operating with him. The Toronto Savings and Loan Company has well earned the confidence of the investing as well as borrowing public.

THE COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

THE LAST SESSION LAST EVENING IN ST. PAUL'S.

A List of the Delegates Present—Interesting and Instructive Addresses Delivered During the Afternoon and Evening.

On Friday morning Rev. J. McEwan, of Toronto, gave an interesting address concerning the progress which had been made in the methods of teaching in the Sunday Schools. At one time the teachers all received pay and would not think of undertaking the work unless they received their one and six a Sunday. One night a few men met under a lamp post and on proposal of one, the others gave their consent to teach merely for the good they could do. This was the inception of a great movement. Then in Sunday schools each teacher picked his own subject and and if he did not get along with it very well he changed for another and perhaps a third. Then came the memorising period, which had its good points, but as Dr. Harrison remarked it was memorising without assimilation and therefore the results were not what they they should have been. Finally came the introduction of the present system of International Sunday School lessons and now it is realised that the Bible is a bigger book than was ever thought and that the study of it became fraught with deepest interest. The "need" being now felt, spiritual advancement became more and more evident.

The Sabbath school is the Church of Christ at work teaching the Word of God, every part of it—teaching the revealing acts of God. There was as much of the promise and presence of the Holy Spirit there as in any church service.

In the absence of Rev. J. J. Rae, who was attending the Harvey Convention, Sheriff Hall was called upon to address the delegates on the "Importance of Normal Study and Classes." In the course of his brief remarks he explained that as the farmer was finding out that study was needful in the tillage of the soil, and was sending his sons to the Agricultural College and attending the Farmers' Institutes himself, so the Sunday school teachers were finding out that there was more and more to learn, and through this the necessity arose for the foundation of Normal classes.

In the afternoon Dr. Couch, of Warsaw, gave a most instructive address on "The School and its Work," after which Rev. Dr. Potter was called upon for a paper—"The Laws of Teaching." He urged that the teacher be studious, prayerful and conscientious. Their pupils were boys and girls, full of life—ninety per cent. of life and ten per cent. divided up amongst other things. But as that child is interested it becomes like the bulb or seedling—the life being developed, it has its nourishment in the seed. Were it not for that life you would have no Christian enthusiasm. Children have souls to save—children who must necessarily make up the community ten years hence—children who are to bear the responsibility of carrying on the church's work.

In speaking of "born to teach," Mr. Potter arranged his advice under the following heads:

1—Getting Ready.—Be prompt, occupy the ground first.

2—Teaching.—Making everything plain—not necessarily by question and answer, but by explanation and the arousing of the pupil's interest.

3—Reproduction.—Getting a pupil to retell the lesson in his own words.

4—Application.—Perseverance. Solicit the co-operation of parents. Use simple language in the class; be sympathetic; do not show favouritism. watch over your scholars.

5—Where and when to Teach.—In the school, the home, the street in houses, and constantly.

Dangers to be avoided were classed as follows:—

1. Speaking slightingly of pastor, superintendent or parent.
2. Speaking in a questionable way about the great institution of God's church.
3. An idea that your position as teachers is a special protection against temptation.
4. Engendering a sectarian spirit.

A MATTER OF MONEY.

The Financial Conference as conducted by Mr. S. R. Armstrong proved most interesting. He thought perhaps the question as to why the Association needed money might be asked, and as the larger proportion of the funds went into the Provincial Association Treasury he called up Mr. J. A. Patterson, Esq., chairman of the Provincial S. S. Executive, to explain to what purpose the funds were directed.

Mr. Patterson stated that the money was used in part to build up the Sabbath School effort throughout the Province; for the expenses of the Provincial Convention; to pay the way of General Secretary Day, and Miss Munro, corresponding secretary, and to contribute the annual moneys to the great International Association—the father of the International series of lessons, which latter was enough to justify all the expenditure which could be made.

Mr. Armstrong, then resumed, stating that the county also needed funds to pay the expenses of its own conventions, its postage account and the expense incurred through printing circulars and programmes. He called upon the convention to state if there was anything else money was needed for.

Dr. Harrison—We need funds to pay a superintendent's expenses to visit every school in the county, and also money for a field secretary where with to help the failing schools.

Mr. Armstrong then inquired how much money was needed this year. There was $85 needed as the annual contribution to the Provincial Association, and $25 more should be given to help pay off the debt.

Dr. Harrison suggested that another $100 was needed for a worker in the county.

Mr. Armstrong's next query was "How shall we raise this amount?"

Rev. Mr. McEwan suggested that the old method of allocation be followed.

On motion of Dr. Harrison and Rev. J. G. Potter, it was decided that the money should be raised through the medium of leaflets to be sent to the various schools, setting forth the needs of the County and Provincial Associations. The Executive was authorized to procure these leaflets.

This satisfactorily settled the financial question.

An address was then delivered by Mr. J. A. Patterson, Chairman of the Provincial Sunday School Executive, on "The Evolution of the Sabbath School; where it came from; where it is now and where it is going to." The report will be published on Monday.

Mr. Wm. Madill resigned the position of Treasurer and Mr. George Stewart was appointed to the office.

Amongst the delegates present were the following:—J. W. R. Roberts, Selwyn; E. Hawthorne and A. Watts, Warminster Union, Dummer; Rev. A. C. Reeves and Miss Mary White, Lakefield; W. T. Harrison, Keene; Mrs. W. C. Manning, Selwyn; Mrs. J. Kendry, Mrs. Geo. McBurney, Mrs. H. Jones, S. R. Armstrong, Rev. J. G. Potter, H. D. Kennedy, Mrs. Van-Every, E. A. Stanley, Miss M. L. Stratton, Peterborough; Miss Ethel Armstrong, Otonabee, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Matchett, Ashburnham; Mrs. John Davidson, Norwood; Mrs. J. Taylor, Smith; D. Kennedy, Cold Springs; Miss Bella M. Howson, Keene; Rev. C. E. McLeod, Smith; B. F. Doxsee, Miss Susie Tate, Miss Jessie Wilson, Hastings; Miss Laura Bennett, Miss Jane Ambrose, J. A. Gillespie, Otonabee; Mrs. Laine, Toronto: M. A. Nicholls, M. Nicholls, Ashburnham; Miss Leah Fife, Miss Louise Fife, Samuel Armstrong, Bethel; Alex. Huston, Cold Springs; Geo. Stewart, River Road Union, Otonabee; Margaret Brough, Keene; Rev. W. C. Bear, Miss Eva M. Weir, Ashburnham; Miss Emeline Porter, Keene; John A. Patterson, Toronto; Miss Rosa McGregor, Smith.

THE EVENING SESSION

was opened last night with Rev. Mr. Potter in the chair. After making a few introductory remarks, in which he expressed great pleasure at seeing so many present, the meeting began by the singing of Hymn 48. Then followed a brief service of song and praise, after which Mr. Potter introduced to the Convention Rev. Mr. McLeod, of Lakefield. After Hymn 140, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," was sung, in the absence of Mr. Reid, of Lakefield, Mr. McLeod was asked to take his place. Rev. A. T. Dykeman, pastor of Murray street Baptist church, was called upon to give his address—"The Sunday School a factor in National Life." In opening he remarked that when he was appointed President-elect he understood that there was not much work to be performed, but since then he had found out quite differently.

The subject which I have chosen for my address this evening, I think will prove interesting and beneficial to all present. In the first place I will consider the word "Life, what is it?" We may say it has no definition. There have been numerous definitions offered, but they are so worded and the meaning is so obscure that they are next to worthless. For instance, Herbert Spencer's may be cited, but still Mr. Spencer's definition is very scientific and ambiguous, not to say obscure. Life is a large word. It means more than the human intellect can grasp or understand. Some other scientists say life is correspondence with environment. This, Mr. Dykeman thought, was the best definition ever given. Then there are several kinds of life, such as animal, vegetable, social, political and national. They are all specimens of correspondence with the environments surrounding them. National life must be what individual life makes it, for if every individual was a model offense manhood and womanhood, the nation would necessarily be a higher illustration of that perfection which is exemplified in Christ Himself.

We should try and make the nation's life be surrounded by such circumstances as will tend to uplift and elevate not only the class as a whole, but each and every individual person thereof. Then presents itself the question: What is righteousness? It comes from the two words right and wise, so it in reality means right wiseness. Righteousness is hence the faculties endowed with wisdom and truth. But many have erroneous ideas as to what national life consists of. Politics is another environment of the building of a nation; but it must be remembered that politics is one thing and politicians are another. What idea has that person who comes before the public as a politician? Is his action prompted by a pure and patriotic love of his native land, or is it the result of ambitious desire after wealth and fame? Alas, we fear that in many instances it is the latter. They long with an intensity, to which nothing can be compared, after notoriety and fame, and they stop at nothing to attain their ends. If it were not so what means all this ballot box stuffing and dishonest manipulation and bribery at the polls. This thing paralizes and demoralizes a nation.

Next, what is necessary socially to build up a nation? Socialism, nihilism, anarchy, obstruction and destruction, atheism, rationalism, spiritualism and naturalism are erroneous ideas, one and all, of what should build up a notion socially, and should be classed under the head of devilism. No nation which harbors all these isms can prosper while doing so. They are undermining the country, and inevitably will cause its downfall. But what is the remedy for all this? In the first place the Christian home. What can compare with a home in which all is peace and purity? Such a home cannot help but be a powerful factor in the welfare of any nation. Parents realize too little of the responsibility that devolves upon their shoulders in the rearing of their children. If they would sometimes take into consideration the fact that they are influencing the future of their native land, better results would follow.

The public schools are other important factors in the history of a nation. The little red school house exerts a greater influence than we would be inclined to think, and our cousins across the line attribute no little share of their success to their early training received in the little red school house.

Again the Sunday school also plays a very important part in political and national life. In it are taught truth, sobriety, holiness and industry. What is the cause of all the rationalism which exists in Germany? When Joseph Cook was there he could not find our Sunday school in the whole empire. Again the Sunday schools' aim is to educate mentally, physically and spiritually. It develops the whole man. The two great objects are intelligence and righteousness. We want people who will not be bribed on election day by a drink of whiskey or a barrel of flour. People who will not bow the knee to the boss politician. We need more Daniels. Some scripture writers say the reason the lions refused to eat Daniel was because he was two-thirds back bone and the rest gristle. Sir Wm. Jones, a great scholar of 100 years back, and who spoke 27 different languages, says: "I consider that the Bible contains more exquisite and finer strains of poetry, more important history and eloquence than can be found in all the books in existence." The Bible educates the mind, character, and beauty. "Righteousness exalteth a nation." This is what the Sunday school is doing. You will find all the strongest nations, the Bible nations. Oh, but you will say Japan is not. Yes, but I answer Japan is in the transitional state and is accepting the Bible. To teach righteousness is the aim of the Sunday school, but some teachers give more attention to the geography of the lesson than to the spiritual teaching. Then the Sunday school takes us in hand in our infancy and so has the best opportunity to impress our minds with an impression that shall last forever. Let us then do all in our power to aid on this Sunday school and in so doing we will help forward the work of Him who died that we might live.

There is no music like the melody of health. When every life-string is in perfect tune, and the pure, rich, red blood dances through the arteries to the quick-step of health, life is truly worth living. But the human body is the most delicate and intricate of all instruments. Just one little string out of tune will make a general discord. The body may apparently be in the best of order in every way, save that there is a slight disorder of the digestion. The sufferer hardly notices it, and does not think it worth troubling about. It is just one little string out of order, but it soon puts every organ in the body into a jangling discord. The blood no longer receives the proper supply of life-giving elements with which to build up new and healthy tissue. Instead it receives the poisons thrown off by improperly digested food and the effete material with which the intestines are clogged. Diseases of the blood and skin or wasting diseases like consumption are the result.

The best of all known medicines is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It keeps every life-string in perfect tune. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. It invigorates the liver. It makes the appetite hearty and keen and assimilation perfect. It fills the blood with the vital-elements that build new and healthy tissues, firm muscles, and strong, vibrating nerve fibers. Acting through the blood it tears down inert, half-dead tissues and causes them to be carried off and excreted. It acts upon every organ of the body driving out impurities and disease-germs. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures every kind of humor from the common simple blotch or eruption to scrofula. It cures eczema, saltrheum, and all skin affections. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. Thousands have testified to its wonderful merits. All good druggists sell it.

LINDSAY WON THE TANKARD.

Mr. Flavelle and His Men Had a Mellow Victory in Toronto.

Toronto, Feb. 12.

The tankard trials and finals are over and Lindsay curlers take the prize. They fought it out with Hamilton Victorias and, after the third end the Easterners kept the lead. Hamilton drew up to within two of their rivals on the 10th end. Lindsay got four on the next and gradually increased that to 16 at the close.

The ice at Victoria Rink in the afternoon was keen, but tricky. The absence of Toronto rinks lessened the interest locally and the number of spectators was less than a year ago. There was a big crowd about 5 o'clock, but when they saw it was a foregone conclusion, most of them went home to supper, and there was room for everyone in the club room when President Woodyatt handed over the tankard.

Murdock put up a game fight and only lost to McLennan by five, three of these being on the last end. This Victoria Rink put up a good team game and Murdock was cheered for many a clever draw. Flavelle had a big lead when half the game was over and the shooting of his men was too much for the veterans in opposition.

The semi-finals saw Sarnia go down before Lindsay, notwithstanding the vivacity and merriment of Capt. Robertson. Although the Vics had only a majority of one, they had a safe lead near the close and three fat ends for Jolly at the finish, brought Brantford near the winning post.

President Woodyatt paid a high compliment to J. D. Flavelle and Lindsay as a curling centre in making the formal presentation. The victory would be well received everywhere in Ontario. Mr. Flavelle replied, and said the honor of winning was chiefly due to the work of the top ends of the rinks. He was glad to get even with Hamilton, as they lost to the Thistles by one shot two years ago in the final. It was a friendly and sportsmanlike contest—just what every curling game ought to be. Mr. Murdock replied for the runners up. He agreed with the former speaker generally. The Vics were a young club and in a few years they would set about systematically to win the Tankard. A vote of thanks was tendered the umpire and cheers to the two teams ended the Tankard show of the winter. Scores:

The Cretan Trouble Begins to Look Serious.

GREECE WANTS TO TAKE A HAND IN

And the Powers are Not Inclined to Allow Her to Seize the Island—All the Money Markets Affected by the News—More Butchery is Reported.

London, Feb. 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette, commenting upon the Cretan situation, says there is abundant foundation for the belief that the sending of the Greek flotilla to Crete is looked upon by the British Government as a matter so serious as to threaten consequences of the greatest import, in view of the fact that the action of Greece was entirely independent and taken without conveying the slightest notion of her intentions to the powers. The Gazette says Lord Salisbury may be relied upon to take prompt and decisive measures to neutralize its effect.

The stock market was weak and flat to-day on reports of threatened fighting between Greece and Turkey, and closed depressed.

The correspondent at Athens of The Daily News telegraphs that the Grecian circular to the powers declares that it is incumbent upon Greece to prevent at all costs the landing of Turkish reinforcements upon the island of Crete.

Athens, Feb. 11.—Assim Bey, the Turkish Minister, to-day visited the Foreign Office, and acting under instructions from his Government, made a protest against the despatch of the Greek torpedo flotilla to Crete. Assim Bey was treated with the utmost courtesy, and was informed, so far as diplomacy allowed, of the attitude of Greece on the Cretan question. His protest, however, was, so far as known, productive of no result. The Greek Goverment will not recall the flotilla, and furthermore a second flotilla will shortly start for Crete.

The troubles in the island have caused many of the residents to flee to Greece for safety. Since the outbreak began fully eight thousand Cretans have arrived at the Piraeus. As in the case of the previous exodus from Crete, many of the refugees are unable to care for themselves, and the Government will be compelled to extend aid to them.

The Porte Calls for Help.

Constantinople, Feb. 11.—The Porte has communicated by telegraph with the powers, asking their support in the efforts of Turkey to restore order in Crete, and the ambassadors are conferring upon the question of exerting concerted pressure upon Greece to compel the recall of the Greek fleet from Cretan waters.

All the Bourses Affected.

Paris, Feb. 11.—A very panicky feeling prevailed at the Bourse at the opening this morning, but later there was an improvemen on the report that the powers intended to prevent Greece from intervening in the Cretan trouble. The Berlin and Vienna Bourses were depressed and weak.

Greece Must be Suppressed.

London, Feb. 11.—The Times, commenting on the Cretan embroglio, will to-morrow say that Greece must not be permitted to force the hands of the powers, and that there should be immediate intervention to restore order.

More Butchery.

Canea, Crete, Feb. 11.—It is stated on good authority that the Governor of Crete, George Pasha Berovitch, is desirous of resigning his office, but that the Porte has expressed the wish that he should remain there.

The entire Moslem population about the City of Heraklion have entered that place, where they attacked the Christians and pillaged their shops. The Prefect of Sitia reports that 300 Moslems have been killed in that district by Christians.

It is reported that the Moslems of Retimo have blown up with dynamite a number of houses owned or occupied by Christians. No mention is made of the loss of life being caused by the explosion. It is reported that Christians are massacreing Moslems in the villages around Sitia, and that 13 of the villages are burning.

The Moslems continue to prevent the departure from the island not only of native Christians but also of foreigners. It is probable that the foreign warships here will intervene and demand that those who wish to leave the island shall be allowed to do so without hindrance.

Confirmation has been received of the reports of atrocities committed on women and children in Kisamo and Kastell.

"I had to urinate very frequently, in fact my rest was disturbed by frequent rising at night for that purpose. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, at Newton's drugstore, and have experienced great relief from the first.

"I am sure that I have been greatly benefited, and can recommend them highly to anyone troubled as I was."

BLOWING DEPEW'S WAY.

Mr. Morton is Out of the Race for the British Ambassadorship—He Could Not Accept It.

New York, Feb. 12.—"This leaves me the only candidate for Ambassador to England from this State."

The words were spoken this morning by Mr. Chauncey M. Depew to an Evening Journal reporter in answer to an inquiry concerning ex-Governor Morton's withdrawal from the candidacy for the place. "Governor Morton told me several days ago," said Mr. Depew, "that he had written a letter to Major McKinley stating that he must not be considered a candidate, and urging my appointment. He told me that he had despatched this letter to Canton by a friend. I suppose he meant Charles Saxton."

Mr. Depew was sitting up in bed at his home, eating his breakfast this morning when the reporter called. He said he had been threatened with an attack of pneumonia last Wednesday and that he would have to stay under cover for several days. He was all right now, and a few days more in the house would put him on his feet as well as ever.

Facts About Furs and Bankrupt Stocks.

Some dealers in Furs believe in selling Bankrupt Stocks but others there are who do not; yet, at the same time have offered several bankrupt stocks for sale within a short time, while claiming also to sell nothing in Furs but of their own manufacture. We certainly must stand away ahead of our competitors as we do not require the aid of such stocks but stand on the merits of our own manufactured goods, which we can always guarantee as such. Our reputation of 36 years standing without a failure is the best proof that customers believe in us and support us so well. AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry

Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. NICKNAMES FOR MONEY.

Small Pieces Bear Odd Designations—Some of Them Wrongfully So.

Few people realize that every piece of money has a nickname. It has, however, and some of the names are very odd. The $100 note has but one nickname, but it is exceedingly appropriate as well as dignified. It needs no more, for there are thousands of persons in this country who have never seen a note of this denomination, says The New York Journal.

Everybody has seen small change, though, and the commonness of this species of money has suggested scores of sobriquets, appropriate and the reverse, grave and gay, effusively funny and humorously pathetic. The "nickel" as a name, was suggested by the common idea that this metal entered largely into the composition of the coin. It is a misnomer, as the piece contains 75 per cent. of copper and only 25 per cent. of the metal which gave it a name.

"Car-fares," a slang name for the same piece, illustrates the universality of this method of transportation, while "chicken feed," as a name not only for 5-cent pieces, but also for other small change, undoubtedly came from the rural districts. "Flipper-up" suggests a frequent use to which the nickel is placed in certain circles. "Pennies" and "picayunes" indicate the contempt more pretended than real, into which our smallest coins have fallen. The latter name, like "bit," preserves a morsel of history not familiar to general readers. "Picayune," now used as a synonym for the smallest value expressed in money terms, was once the name of a special coin. It was worth about one-half cent, and at one time, during our colonial days, when all sorts of coins passed current at all sorts of valuations, circulated along the Atlantic coast.

The "bit," now only a money of account and most familiar in the well known form, "two bits," a synonym for the 25-cent piece, was also at one time a coin, equal in value to one-half the Spanish pistareen, and worth a little more than 1 cent. When the English shilling and the Spanish pistareen were supplanted by our familiar "quarter," the names remained long after the coins had disappeared. "Shilling" has now finally disappeared from us, save along the Canadian border, where prices are frequently made in both kinds of money, but the "bit" we have still with us.

THREE WEEKS IN AGONY.

Inflammatory Rheumatism so Acute He Could Not Attend to His Daily Duties—Lived Three Weeks in Agonizing Pain When That "Good Samaritan" of all Cures, South American Rheumatic Cure, Passed His Way—It Helped in a Few Hours, and Speedily Cured—Cost 75 Cents.

Mr. E. A. Norton, a well-known citizen of Grimsby, Ont., was severely attacked with inflammatory rheumatism some 20 years ago—after a time he recovered, but five or six weeks ago the dread disease returned so violently that he had to give up work. For nearly three weeks he lay in bed suffering terrible agony. Another resident of the town who had been cured by South American Rheumatic Cure persuaded him to try it, and, to his great surprise after using the medicine but one week he was so far recovered as to go about town. From the first dose taken he felt marked improvement, and to-day he is most enthusiastic in singing its praises. No one too severe for South American Rheumatic Cure to check in six hours and cure permanently. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

ALPS BY RAILWAY.

NO MORE BROKEN NECKS WHILE ALPINE CLIMBING.

The Trolley Car Is to Revolutionize a Dangerous Pastime Formerly Indulged in by the Jeunesse Doree of All Countries.

Alpine climbing is soon to be revolutionized by the unpicturesque but eminently practical trolley car. The enthusiastic mountain climbers of England may not like the innovation, but it will appeal to the prosaic.

The enterprise is one of the most stupendous of the age. The cap of Jungfrau is 14,000 feet above sea level. Fancy riding to such a height in a trolley car! To be able to do so on the surface of the mountain would be marvellous enough, but most of the route will be through a tunnel cut through the centre of the mountain. It will be the most expensive trolley ride in the world. Nine dollars will be the fare for the round trip.

The aesthetic side of the enterprise has been well considered by the company which will build the road and by the Swiss Government, which has approved the scheme. The old mountain climber might be tempted to declaim against a project which would rob Alpine climbing of its perils and terrors, but he will be silenced when told that the Alpine Club has approved of the road.

Something of the vastness of the enterprise will be realised when it is pointed out that the difference in level between the lower and upper terminal will be 7000 feet, and that this altitude or rise will be accomplished within a distance of seven and a half miles. No such grade has ever been attained before, and so steep does it finally become that the passengers will be compelled at the last moment to alight from the cars and accomplish the remaining 300 feet in an elevator.

The mountain torrents and the waterfalls, fed by the glaciers, will operate immense turbines. These will be coupled to the great electric generators from which the current will be distributed over the mountain. The current will run from the generators through transformers in which the volts will be "stepped up," as they say in electrical circles, into the thousands and sent by wire in all directions. Then, when it has reached its destination or "point of use," it will be "stepped-down" again to a usable intensity. It is expected that 1400 horsepower will be manufactured in this unique and exceedingly economical manner.

The cars will be operated, lighted and heated by electricity. It is estimated that the temperature of the tunnel will average between two and ten degrees below zero, growing colder, of course, as the summit is approached. The tunnel will be lighted by electricity. On such steep grades special cars must be used, with facilities for clutching the road bed and holding on to it in case of a break. There are forty mountain roads in Switzerland, and the jack-rail is used on all. It will be used on the Jungfrau road. Its construction is such that the car cannot slip backward should the propelling power give out.

The heaviest down grade, 10 per cent., will be between the Moenhjoch and the Jungfrujoch. The cars will run at a speed of five mils an hour on grades above 15 per cent. On lesser grades it will be slightly increased. The cars will be built on the plan of trolley parlor cars, such as are used for the accommodation of shoppers between Brooklyn and Flushing. They will contain every possible convenience, and special cars for invalids are contemplated by the management. The power will not be taken into the car through an ordinary trolley pole, but will come via a trolley shoe, which will slide along a third rail by the side of the ordinary tracks.

The tunnel as it extends through the mountains will have openings at intervals, for sanitary and other purposes, but especially to relieve the monotony of this almost underground journey by giving the tourist a transient view of the wonderful scenery roundabout. The road begins at the Scheidegg station.

The Cooking-Tree of San Pablo.

The historic old laurel tree, known to the earliest Spanish settlers about San Pablo as the cooking-tree, marks the spot where many of the Indian and early Spanish festivities were celebrated. Under its great branches Spaniards danced the fandango after a tasty meal, of which many have been cooked in the hollow trunk of this famous tree.

The trunk at the base is about six feet through and about twenty feet high, tapering toward the top, at which there is a naturally formed hole as an outlet for the smoke arising from the fire built inside. The cavity inside is four feet across, giving plenty of room for a person to move about with the grace and skill of a French cook.

In the '50s this remarkable tree was in all its splendor, and was the admiration of the old Spaniards and others, who loved it for its beauty, grace and utility. Previous to this the Indians gathered under its spreading branches of thick foliage, which afforded them shelter on rainy days and an admirable natural kitchen.

The tree marks the place where many councils of the Bay tribe of Indians held conventions. Around its base are many heaps of clam shells, evidence of the big appetites of bygone days, when clam roasts were the pet dish of the Indians. Many skulls and other relics have also been unearthed here.—San Francisco Call.

No. LXXXIX.

The Anglo-American Treaty.

One of the greatest treaties, in its far-reaching influence, the world has ever seen now sways in the balance. Uneasy, volatile, truculent statesmen—politicians of the carrion species—seek to hamstring the treaty with amendments and thus compass its destruction.

The treaty is not really a sudden idea, but rather the development of a policy which has been growing for nearly one hundred years. It culminates in good will between the United States and Great Britain. It should be regarded as a policy of evolution, reason supplanting passion, confidence throwing over distrust. By this convention the standards of civilization are advanced. The gospel of devastation will be given over to the infamy which befell other gospels of hatred and rapine. Industry, thrift, capital, will no longer wither under the blight of incumbent, imminent war.

The world, even the serious financial world, is largely governed by the imagination. Universal distress is but the outcome of universal distrust. The acceptance of this convention will tread largely to the restoration of confidence, greatly to the benefit of international trade.

Are the jingoes of the U. S. Senate willing to shock civilization by amending or mutilating the proposed covenant of peace? What will they lose by the possible failure of the convention? They forfeit their self-respect, not to speak of the respect of the nations of the world. And if they wish to reject the treaty let it be in the open—the judges showing the courage of their convictions. The world is entitled to the jingo reasons for the destruction of this noble endeavour. To hamstring the treaty by such amendments as those proposed in the Senate; to give it the courtesy of Sicilian banditti, and not the grave deliberation of an impartial, conservative Senate, would be a despicable business, wanting alike in candor and courage. It is not more than two years since a treaty with China was killed in a like manner by the same, so-called, deliberative body, the U. S. Senate.

That the German Emperor is the unwitting author of the Anglo-American treaty is a somewhat startling statement, but it is only an exaggeration of an undeniable truth. The real beginning of these treaties lies more than a year back, when the South African troubles found England "splendidly isolated." We must remember that England's troubles were many at that time. Russia was making very advantageous treaties with both Japan and China. England had her hands tied in Constantinople. France was snarling about her designs on the Upper Nile. England's only ally in Europe, Italy, had more than she could attend to in Abyssinia. This was the situation when, to complicate matters, Cleveland delivered his jingo message about Venezuela, and the United States was in arms against England.

At this point, when England seemed not to have a friend in the world, the Emperor of the Germans, hot-headed as usual, jumped in and sent a message of fulsome congratulation to President Kruger, and the nations held their breath to see how England would defend her historic claim.

This was the situation when Secretary of State Olney penned a communication which strikingly illustrated that comity was the rule of the relations of the United States with Great Britain. Among Jameson's followers in that South African raid were three Americans. They were in peril of their lives when President Cleveland requested the good offices of England for their deliverance.

Technically this may not have been a recognition of England's suzerainty, but it had the same effect, for in truth all diplomatic question of England's relation to the Transvaal was at that instant settled. Before many weeks Jameson and his followers were sent to England for trial, and the fireworks of the German Emperor were forgotten.

For the United States questions of far greater importance were settled. England tacitly conceded her right to intervention in the Venezuelan dispute, and this was only the beginning of a general extinction of all casus belli between the two great Anglo-Saxon peoples. (A few months before, in Secretary Gresham's time, a permanent plan for arbitration between England and the United States was found to be a futile undertaking.)

But now Salisbury's point of view seems changed, (the splendid isolation" and the Venezuelan treaty had something to do with it) and from the outset the success of a new arbitration project was all but certain. All that was required was time to agree on the particulars of this scheme, with its many concessions on the part of England.

Now, on no diplomatic or historical ground could England's suzerainty of the Transvaal have been questioned; so the overture of the Secretary of State in behalf of three American citizens in the Boer prison was a simple act of international courtesy. But the diplomatic world was not in a temper to grant comity or historical justice to England at that time; and it is quite believable that through this intuitive of the United States she escaped serious complications; and in the better understanding thus established between the two countries lies the secret of the success of these negotiations. Lord Salisbury himself had sincerely desired the success of the treaty and this success might have been reached some time ago, but for opposition he encountered from certain coteries of leaders, not only of the Liberals, but of his own party as well—indeed, from members of his own cabinet.

Is there any wonder that thoughtful Americans applaud the great diplomatic victory of Salisbury and Olney? The public mind, even in Christian lands, is not trained to measure the fruits of a great diplomatic triumph. The dramatic sense of the nations demands war. If the two countries were now emerging from a long, costly and bloody war, could either or them have won more than this treaty gives to both? Strictly speaking, the Monroe doctrine heretofore was only a sonorous shibboleth of United States domestic politics, but these treaties raise it to the mark of an international postulate; and if the Senate ratifies the arbitration treaty, the United States have gained a powerful ally, who at their need must help them to maintain that doctrine against all comers.

The treaty will also conserve Anglo-Saxon resources, and organize them to a point of which English and American statesmen of the past have never dreamed. Having the resources and stimulating the enterprises of both, the two countries may well carry Anglo Saxon ideas into every corner of the earth. And in the share of influence which would come with that irresistible progress of the Anglo-Saxon, these treaties offer more to the United States than they could win by half a century of cheese paring diplomatic arrangements of the old sort with the other crowned heads of Europe. Russia and Germany are growling already, the latter calling it a new sample of Anglo Saxon greed.

But with all the advantages that are on the side of the United States, there are carrion politicians—some jealous of England, some jealous of Cleveland and some jealous of nothing but their own pet schemes—who are fighting under cover of secret meetings and long amendments to emasculate the treaty which is destined to do so much for Christianity and the world.

Whether the treaty be ratified or rejected the mere existence of it shows a splendid state of international good feeling and marks a new epoch in the aspirations and progress of the two great Anglo-Saxon nations. The result is already doing much to exterminate the strong anglophobia with which United States politics have been infected.

HOPE ENTHRONED.

LIFE PROLONGED AND ITS USEFULNESS GREATLY EXTENDED.

The Ruthless Hand of Nature Permits Only the Survival of the Strongest, but Medical Science Secures the Survival of the Weakest.

From the Cornwall Standard.

The science and art of medication holds a unique place in the esteem of the entire civilized world, because of a judicious application of progressive science relative to the art of healing innumerable triumphs are won in the struggle for health. The profession of medicine, we may safely say, is no sinecure, its triumphs and successes are rehearsed daily by the million. Those who are in the vanguard of this movement are our greatest benefactors. Their discoveries are a boon to humanity; they have given relief to thousands who have dragged out a miserable and more or less brief existence. Dr. Williams, by means of his Pink Pills, has earned and enjoys the gratitude of untold numbers who were on the verge of isolation or death, because their case defied the skill of the ordinary medical practitioner. The ruthless hand of nature permits only the survival of the strongest, but the tender ministrations of medical science, as exemplified in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, secure the survival of the weakest, which is in harmony with the divine injunction. "We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak and not please ourselves."

These famous pills have given strength to the apparently hopelessly weak and vitalized and invigorated fragile and debilitated constitutions, enthroned health and strength, thus increasing every value and enhancing every joy. In substantiation of the reputed merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills read the following testimonial of one of Glengarry's responsible citizens. Samuel Neil of the village of Lancaster is one of the best known men of the county. "For three successive winters," says Mr. Neil, "I suffered from severe attacks of la grippe. Owing to the exhausting effects of these attacks I was unable to attend to my duties half of the time. The last attack I had was in December, 1895. It was the most prolonged and the subsequent effect the most trying. All the winter of 1896 I was under medical care, and being somewhat advanced in life I presented a very frail appearance. My weakness was so pronounced that I became a victim of weak turns, and even with the assistance of a cane I was liable to fall. Attempts to walk were risky and often to be regretted. I was troubled with a dizziness in the head that rendered locomotion difficult and unpleasant. Besides this general weakness I had pains in my shoulders, something like articular rheumatism in its fluctations and severity. After a five months' treatment I was not any better, in fact the doctor gave me very little encouragement. He said I had palpitation of the heart and it must run its course. The truth is I felt so weak that my hope of recovery was about nil. About the first of May I determined to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The result was the dissiness left me, day by day my pains vanished into imperceptibility, and I began to feel myself again. The improvement continued until I was able to follow my business with unexpected vigour. I am increasing in flesh and in the general signs of good health, and I unhesitatingly attribute my recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundreds of cases they have cured after all other medicines had failed, thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumphs of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People." Protect yourself from imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark around the box.

CAUGHT THE THIEVES.

The Men Who Stole Disher Bros.' Goods Nabbed at the Border.

Ridgeway, Ont., Feb. 12.—The Disher Bros.' store of this village was, on Wednesday night, broken into and robbed of a quantity of overcoats, skates, rubber boots, underclothing, and between $3 and $4 in change, which had been left in the cash drawer. The authorities went direct to Fort Erie. Here, awaiting the departure of the boat for the Buffalo shore, they found the thieves.

Officer Griffin, with Detective Cornish of Buffalo, located the "swag" they had taken, concealed under the English Church at Fort Erie. The prisoners, who gave their names as James Reece and Robert Duncan, both of Buffalo, were brought before Police Magistrate Logan at Fort Erie to-day, separately. Reece pleaded not guilty, but his "pal," Duncan, who seemed less hardened in crime, wilted before the evidence produced by the officers, and confessed to the robbery, and when Reece was placed again before the Magistrate and confronted with Duncan's confession, he also confessed. The goods have been returned to their owners. The Magistrate sentenced Reece to four years and Duncan for three years to Kingston Penitentiary.

HEART PAIN.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Defies the Most Insense Pains—No Matter How Long Standing the Trouble, it Masters Disease in Half an Hour, and in the Case of John Crow, Five Bottles Cured Heart Disease of Ten Years Standing—Here's His Testimony Unsolicited.

John Crow, son of Mr. George Crow, farmer, near the village of Tara, Ont., writes: "I was alarmingly afflicted with palpitation and enlargement of the heart for nearly ten years. I doctored with the best physicians and tried numerous remedies with very little benefit. In our local papers I noticed Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart advertised, and I determined to give it a trial. Inside of half an hour I had relief. I have taken about five bottles and feel to-day that I am as well as ever I was. I am completely cured." Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

After a Terrible Life.

Millsborough, Feb. 12.—News comes here to-day from the interior of Unicoi County, Tenn., of Rev. John Hutchings' narrow escape from lynching, while in the pulpit. He is now hiding in the mountains.

According to the story, the preacher said in his sermon: "The Lord directed the bullet that killed Abraham Lincoln."

The congregation became infuriated, and made an attempt to hang the minister, but he escaped. The mob then visited the preacher's house, and battered it down. Unicoi County is in a rough mountain country, and is not on the line of any railroad.

The Acme Heating Drum

Is the best appliance to economize fuel. We are selling them rapidly. They pay for themselves in a short time. Read what our Citizens say:

Messrs. Micks and Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving your Acme Heating Drum a fair trial in China Hall, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a perfect success. Our store is 30x100 feet with glass front and all of one side of glass facing the north; and the Drum with a small wood stove heats the store more perfectly than it has ever been heated before, even when we had two coal stoves which we formerly used.

Yours truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 15th, '97. McFARLANE WILSON.

Messrs. Micks & Cox:—

GENTLEMEN,—After giving the Acme Heating Drum purchased from you a full trial in severe weather we have no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete success.

Your Drum is an application of the correct principle in proper heating devices in drawing the cold air from the floor, heating it and circulating it through the building. We heat three rooms by means of a moderate sized wood stove with your Drum attached, and find our offices very much more comfortable than formerly, at the same time using a third less fuel than without the Drum.

Yours very truly,
Peterborough, Jan. 14, '97. HATTON & WOOD.

Talk It Over With Your Wife.

Every woman knows how to economize to pay for clothing the family. Few men succeed in saving money without a wife's help.

You need'nt wait to order your Suit for yourself or boy till you can save money enough to pay the whole amount down. The man who can only save small amounts can pay weekly, and get good honest clothes to wear when our prices are so very low.

If every man waited until he could save large amounts, there would be very little saving done and very little business done either. Comfort, prosperity and savings come in little bits.

THE OTTAWA BUDGET

Earl and Countess of Aberdeen Gone South

TO A WEDDING AT NASHVILLE.

The Brother of the Countess to Marry a Southern Beauty—Government Clerks Busy Getting Order Out of the Chaos Caused by the Fire —General News.

Ottawa, Feb. 14.—(Special.)—General Montgomery Moore was yesterday sworn in administrator of the Dominion during the absence of the Governor-General in the States. Lord and Lady Abrdeen left at noon for Nashville, Tennessee, to attend the wedding of Lady Aberdeen's brother, Hon. A. Majoribanks, to Miss Mysaie Browne of Nashville. Miss Browne was here on a visit to Government House two years ago. Readers of Munsey's Magazine will recollect her as one of the prettiest in a group of Southern beauties which appeared in that magazine last autumn. The presence of Lord and Lady Aberdeen at the wedding will naturally encircle it with an extra halo of brilliancy. Their Excellencies are accompanied on this southern trip by Capt. Wilberforce, A. D. C.; Lady Marjorie Gordon and Hon. Archie Gordon.

Yesterday was a busy day for the officials of the departments hitherto quartered in the Western Block, but which for the present are drowned out. Stacks of documents, records, books, etc., had been removed to the House of Commons buildings and there chaos (The Globe's old friend) reigned supreme. In the main entrance, below the steps, is a mass of books, papers and other sundries, while Mr. Harrett's stand, which in the session displays an assortment of fruits, candies and cigars, is now supporting a mass of musty documents and much-watered literature. Round and about these were officials from the various departments, each rescuing the property of his particular branch of the service. Occasionally some article, the ownership of which is unknown, was fished out of the pile, and then the cry resounded through the vestibule, "Here's such and such a thing; who wants this?" The same condition exists along the Commons corridors to the press room and the Conservative caucus room. In the press room, where the Marine Department salvage is placed, confusion is supreme. Here clocks, instruments, books, and papers are everywhere. Small mountains of them rise unexpected from the floor, to the detriment of the unwary visitor. Each and all are mingled on the tables and under the tables. Among these are all the papers which were brought from Victoria, being in use there at the sealing commission. In the Conservative room the state of things is equally bad, for here the floor and tables are strewn with the wreckage of the Public Works Department. The employes are down on all-fours sorting things out.

The vaults in the Customs Department were opened yesterday and the contents found to be as dry as a match. Some of the smaller safes, however, were deluged with water, especially in the Militia Department. Workmen are engaged in making a clearance among the debris on the top flat, and in some places in getting out the water.

Some of the civil servants visited their offices to see how they fared. The tarpaulins were certainly a great saving to the office furniture. The floors on the lower and second flats were flooded with water, and in places the plaster of the ceiling had fallen down. But there was little real damage. All books and file cases had been moved out from the walls. In the Militia Department one room in the stores branch was untouched.

The final disposition of the offices which have been leased temporarily to accommodate the different departments will be made to-morrow. The Departent of Public Works and Marine and Fisheries will, it is certain, be located in the Slater block on Sparks-street; Customs and Militia on Wellington-street, and Mounted Police in the Langevin block. Quarters for the Trade and Commerce Department have not yet been found.

The Free Press (Liberal organ) is strong in its condemnation of the condition of the Government hydrants. Last night it published a communication demanding an explanation of the condition of the Government hydrants, hose and the discipline of the Government staff.

The Fire and Light Committee met yesterday afternoon to grapple with the question of increased fire appliances for the city. While the matter was under consideration two members of the committee left the meeting and broke the quorum, so that no decision was reached. A straight motion on the subject will be made at the council meeting to-morrow night to ask the Legislature for power to borrow $50,000 to secure two new steamers and two chemical engines, and to erect two new stations.

Mr. Sifton is paying some attention to the Indian Department these days. The services of Robert G. Hilton, a first-class clerk, have been dispensed with for misconduct. James Martin, Indian agent at Manitwaki, P.Q., has also been dismissed for not properly conducting the affairs of his office. John Crowe, Indian Agent at Chippewa Hill, who was found guilty of acting irregularly in the conduct of the business of the Chippewa Indians of Saugeen, Bruce county, has also been dismissed, and John Schofield of Allenford appointed in his stead. J. W. Jermyn, who was Indian Agent at Cape Croker, Bruce county, has also been dismissed; John McIver of McIver P.O. has been appointed in his place. Mr. Bateman, Ontario county, has been removed from the agency of the Indian band there on account of political partisanship; Albert Williams has been appointed in his place.

Hon. A. G. Blair left yesterday by special train for Parry Sound on invitation of the officials of the Ottawa, Arnprior & Parry Sound Railway. There were two coaches, the Government car, "Ottawa," and the official car, "Opeongo." The intention is to give the Minister of Railways an opportunity of seeing something of the new road through to Georgian Bay. Mr. Blair is accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. Currier, and on board were also Mr. C. J. Chamberlain, Mr. G. Mountain and Mr. A. W. Fleck.

Dr. Guay, M.P. for Levis, has been in the city since Thursday, and was confined to his hotel through illness. The Premier, hearing of Dr. Guay's indisposition for the first time yesterday, immediately sent for him, and he is now a guest at the residence of the First Minister.

The Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway Company will apply to Parliament for an Act to enable the company to enter into an agreement with the Michigan Central Railway Company or the Canada Southern Railway Company in reference to the operation of a portion of railway of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway Company; and to confirm the mortgage bonds of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway Company, and to declare them a first lien on the said company's property.

Mayor Bingham considers that the citizens of Ottawa could commemorate the Diamond Jubilee year in no better way than in erecting a building for incurables within the city. He contends that there is a great need for such an institution. The hospitals are filled with such cases, while they have enough to do to look after the sick.

The Railway Committee of the Privy Council meets next Thursday.

Ald. Masson has entered an appeal against the election of Ald. Butler on grounds that he is an insolvent and an hotelkeeper, and treated electors. Both are sitting for the same ward.

Mr. H. A. Botterell, Clerk on the House of Commons staff, died last evening of pneumonia. Deceased was a son of Mr. Edward Botterell, Chief of the Distribution Office of the House of Commons. The latter is well known to members of Parliament and newspaper men, as well as to Independent Foresters all over the country, he being their Past Supreme Chief Ranger.

A new Methodist Church on McLeod-street was dedicated by Rev. Dr. Carman to-day. The General Superintendent made a local reference in to-night's sermon to emphasize one of his points. It was this, What is the good of firemen, he said, when the hydrants are frozen?

SCIENCE AND SOCIABILITY.

American Association Will Visit Their British Brethren in Toronto.

New York, Feb. 14.—A Tribune editorial notice to-day is as follows: One of the most interesting events in the history of the pretty city of Toronto, Canada, will occur next summer. On Aug. 18 the meeting of the British Association for Advancement of Science will begin in that city and preparations for the event are already under way. The sum of £5700 for expenses has been guaranteed by the city, and the Dominion and Provincial Governments. A number of receptions and excursions are being arranged for the members. In fact, if they should accept all the hospitalities that will be offered to them they would have little time to devote to the meetings, which are to be held in the lecture room of the University of Toronto and the School of Practical Science. The meeting of this famous body of scientists on the American Continent will be appropriately noted by kindred American societies. Many of the members of the American Association, which will meet in Detroit on Aug. 9, will attend it, as will also delegations from other bodies. In this way the meeting will do much to promote that catholicity of impulse and public sentiment which is coming so largely to prevail among men of science.

Pittsburg Post Burned Out.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 14.—Fire this morning burned the building occupied by The Pittsburg Post, causing a loss of $80,000. The printing presses, one valued at $25,000 and the other at $10,000 were badly damaged. Ten typesetting machines, valued at $30,000, were ruined.

TURKISH TRANSPORT FIRED ON.

Greek Warship Would Not Allow Reinforcements and Supplies to Proceed —Hellenic Troops Practically Occupy Crete British Warships Have Sailed From Malta.

Athens, Feb. 14.—Advices have been received here giving details of the detention at Candia of a Turkish vessel by a Greek war ship. The vessel, which was stopped and compelled to return to her anchorage, was the Turkish transport Fuad, bound for Canea with munitions for the besieged garrison at that place.

As the Fuad moved from her anchorage and started to leave the harbor the Greek war ship headed in such a direction as to intercept her and ordered her to stop. No attention being paid to this order the Greek vessel fired two shots across the Fuad's bows, and the transport being unarmed, put about and returned to her moorings. It is reported that the commander of the British fleet protested against the action of the Greeks, and ordered the vessels of that nation to make no further attacks upon the Turks.

A regiment of artillery has been ordered to start at once for the Thessalon frontier. This regiment will be accompanied by Prince Nicholas, King George's third son.

It is understood that the orders of the troops are to protect the Christian families in Crete and to restore order. This is looked upon as tantamount to the occupation of the island. Greece has notified the powers that she will willingly hold herself answerable for the steps she has taken.

RESERVES CALLED OUT.

The army reserves of 1893 and 1894 have been called out and ordered to hold themselves in readiness to join their colors at 48 hours' notice.

A number of detachments of infantry, artillery and engineers have embarked at the Piraeus for Crete. Their departure was attended with great enthusiasm.

Col. Vassos, chief aide-de-camp to King George, commanded the troops, who numbered 1500. As the men marched aboard the vessel which was to convey them to Crete, large crowds of people who had gathered to witness their departure, cheered them again and again. The troops, who are already styled the "Corps of Occupation," reached Milo to-day.

Prince George's Movements.

Canea, Crete, Feb. 14.—Prince George of Greece, who arrived here on Feb. 12, in command of the Greek flotilla, after receiving visit from the commanders of the foreign war ships, returned to Milo. It is reported that the Beys of Canea have requested the commander of the foreign war ships here to land men from their vessels to occupy the city. The intense excitement which has prevailed here recently has not at all abated.

Greek Throne in Danger.

London, Feb. 14.—The Standard to-morrow will publish a Constantinople despatch saying that the impression prevails in diplomatic circles there that the opposition to the Greek national sentiment will endanger the Greek throne.

Mr. Gladstone is for Greece.

London, Feb. 14.—Mr. Gladstone to-day telegraphed to The Daily Chronicle the following message: "I do not care to stimulate Greece when I cannot help her, but I shall profoundly rejoice at her success. I hope the powers will recollect that they have their own character to redeem."

The Daily Telegraph to-morrow will publish a despatch from St. Petersburg saying that the military division of Odessa will concentrate 30,000 Cossacks with a view to being in readiness to meet any emergency that may arise.

British Gunboats Sailed.

Malta, Feb. 14.—Three British gunboats sailed hence for Crete to-day.

War is Imminent

London, Feb. 14.—The London papers this morning concur in the opinion that a Greco-Turkish war is imminent. The Liberal organs implore the Government not to impede the action of Greece in any way, while the more sedate journals urge the powers to occupy Crete and to decide the ultimate destiny of the island who matters shall have become more quiet.

The Standard declares that the powers must pacify Crete, since they have decided to restrain Greece and Turkey.

Greek Consulates Closed.

London, Feb. 14.—The Times to-morrow will publish a despatch from Canea saying that George Berovitsch Pasha, the Christian Governor of Crete, took refuge on the flagship of the Russian Admiral and that the entire force of Montenegrin Gendarmerie, who have hitherto been employed in guarding the Governor's residence, have been transferred to the Russian warships.

The Russian and French admirals, the despatch says, have received identical instructions, but the nature of their orders is not known.

The diplomats at Constantinople have accepted Great Britain's proposals for a joint naval occupation of Canea, Retimo and Heraklion, the removal from Cretan waters of the Greek fleet, and the forbiddance of the despatch to Crete of Turkish re-inforcements, and it is thought probable that the orders of the French and Russian admirals are in accordance with the program. The refugees who sought shelter at the Greek Consulate have been placed under the protection of the British Consul. The Greek Consul at Heraklion embarked upon one of the war ships after requesting the British Consul to protect the Greek subjects there. The closing of the Greek consulates indicates that a definite rupture has taken place between Greece and Turkey.

The Times prints a despatch dated Canea, Feb. 14, midnight, saying that a Turkish troopship has just put to sea and that a Greek transport has started in pursuit of her.

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR FOR A THRIVING ASSURANCE CORPORATION.

The Annual Meeting—Gratifying Reports Presented — Indications of Pleasing Prosperity.

The annual meeting of this Company was held at its head office in Toronto, Tuesday (Jan. 26). Mr. John L. Blaikie, President, was appointed chairman, and Mr. William McCabe Secretary.

The Directors' report presented at the meeting showed marked proofs of continued progress and solid prosperity in every leading branch of the Company's business. Details of the substantial gains made by the Company during the past year are more particularly referred to in the remarks of the President and the report of the Consulting Actuary.

Summary of the Financial Statement and Balance Sheet for the year ended December 31st, 1896:

Cash income	$ 641,788 08
Expenditure (including death claims, endowments, matured investment policies, profits, and all other payments to policy-holders	436,545 14
Assets	2,515,833 41
Reserve Fund	1,991,536 00
Net surplus for policyholders	421,546 20

WM. McCABE, Managing Director.
Audited and found correct.
JAS. CARLYLE, M.D., Auditor.

Mr. W. T. Standen of New York, the Company's consulting actuary, in his full and detailed report of the year's operations, said:

"During the past year you paid dividends on the regular five-year participating policies, and also on maturing ten and fifteen year accumulation investment policies. These settlements were for satisfactory amounts, which compare very favorably indeed with the results attained by the best managed companies. Nevertheless, after making these relatively large payments for matured investment policies you have been able to close the year again with an increased surplus to your credit. I have examined the Investment policies whose dividend periods mature or expire in 1897, and beg leave to recommend that the sum apportioned be set aside to meet the dividend obligations accruing thereon; which amount I have properly allocated to the individual policies entitled thereto.

"The amount of your new business for 1896—2603 policies, insuring the sum of $3,554,960—would have been extremely gratifying under the most favorable business conditions. It is over a half a million dollars in excess of the business of any previous year. To have accomplished such a result under the unfavorable business conditions that prevailed shows that the plans and operations of the company are becoming better known and appreciated and that your success is attracting to you many of the brightest and most successful agents.

"Your results show a good surplus earning power. This means, of course, that your business is of a paying character, in fact, it is the crucial test to which a Life Insurance Company has to submit, and it is most gratifying to see that, year after year you meet that test successfully.

"My attention has been drawn to the modified form of Commercial Policy. I heartily approve of the change, and feel sure it will be helpful to your business. It is the specialty with which you meet the requirements of persons of moderate means (who generally have to content themselves with membership in unsound Assessment Associations), and it is most admirably adapted to the wants of this large class of people, who cannot otherwise hope to make provision for these dependent upon them."

The President, Mr. John L. Blaikie, in moving the adoption of the report, said:

"I am fully warranted in congratulating every policy-holder, and every person interested in the Company, upon the splendid position to which it has attained and upon the results of the past year's business.

"An examination of the figures before you reveals many most interesting and important particulars.

"If we compare the business of the year just closed with that of the previous year, viz., 1895, we have the following results:

Assets increased, $215,315,26, or over 9 per cent.

Cash Income increased, $60,309,84, or over 10 per cent.

New insurance issued increased $542,110,00, or over 18 per cent.

Total insurance in force increased $1,714,785,00, or over 10 per cent.

Reserve fund increased $195,704,00, or over 10 per cent.

Payments to Policy-holders increased $150,459,94, or over 142 per cent.

"In no former year haxe such magnificent results been attained.

"All will admit that the primary and main object of life insurance is to secure from want, and in some cases provide a competency to wives and families when the husband and father is cut off by death. Hence it is of the very first importance for any person investing his money in life insurance to do so in a sound, strong company, so that when he is removed his loved ones shall receive promptly and in full the amount for which he has been paying.

"It is much to be regetted that an American assessment concern, which was professing to give life insurance while collecting inadequate premiums, has been forced to raise the assessments to two or three times what they were formerly, and as a result, its three or four thousand members in Canada will, in all probability have either to pay these large assessments or drop out. In many cases doubtless this great injustice has fallen at a time when insurance was most required. Those members who are now old and who have been trusting implicitly in their certificates will not be able to pay the proper premium for protection in a sound life insurance company, and thus will be denied entirely its benefits: while others will be so enfeebled in health that even if they had the means to pay the premiums no company would accept them.

"A report by J. Howard Hunter, Inspector of Insurance for the Ontario Government, and Inspector of Friendly Societies, has been recently issued. In the volume, pages 208 to 211 C. is a special report upon one society. The remarks made by him in that report are equally applicable to many of the large assessment companies, and are eminently worthy the study of the multitudes who are taking out policies in such companies as they have only to seriously consider the facts and figures there given to be convinced that the concerns in question must ultimately utterly fail to meet the obligations they have already incurred.

"In very marked contrast to this stands the North American Life Assurance Company. The financial strength of a company may be seen by the relation of its assets to its liabilities. In this respect the North American exceeds that of its chief competitors in Canada, having $120 for each $100 of liability.

"All life insurance companies experience a large number of terminations each year. But it is characteristic of the business of the North American Life that it is of a relatively stable character and the main feature of the past year's work is increased stability.

"Taking the percentage of termination to insurances issued in ten leading companies, and the North American Life is the lowest of them all. This indicates that when a person insures in the North American Life he is satisfied that he is in one of the best life insurance companies in Canada, and that his wisest course is to continue his policy in that company.

"Another inference to be drawn from such examination is that the Company's agency staff has been careful to solicit insurance amongst those who are likely to continue their policies, and have not resorted to the too common practice of 'rolling in' applications simply for the purpose of making a big show.

It is extremely gratifying that the Natural Investment Policies issued by the Company have returned such handsome profits from year to year as to have given great satisfaction to their holders. It may, perhaps, be remembered that when the Company began this plan of insurance, some rival companies spoke disparagingly or contemptuously of it. For years past, however, these same companies have, under one name or another, been practically doing the same kind of business, which is a tribute to the good judgment and foresight of the North American Life.

Hon. G. W. Allan, Vice-President, in seconding the resolution, said:

"The President has spoken fully on the satisfactory position of the Company, yet there are one or two points to which I will briefly refer.

"You will notice that the amount of real estate held by the Company shows but a slight increase over last year, and is small when compared with our leading competitors.

"When we examine the rentals earned by these companies and the North American, it will be found that our earnings are largely in excess of any of them. I think that is the best possible proof which could be given that our real estate is one of our best assets and that the investments of this Company were carefully made. I feel satisfied when we dispose of our real estate it will result in realizing the Company a handsome profit.

"There is another point of comparison which will show favorably for our Company, that is, as to the relative profit earnings. I am satisfied that those interested in the Company have every reason to feel exceedingly gratified at the very prosperous condition which it holds at the present moment."

Mr. J. N. Lake, in moving a vote of thanks to the Company's Provincial Managers, Inspectors and Agency Staff, said:

"The Company has been well served by its outside staff during 1896, as witnessed by the largely increased business, and I congratulate these gentlemen not only for the splendid work they have done, but what they are doing, for I find that so far this month, the new business is largely in excess of the whole amount received in January last year. That our agents have been doing a careful business, as stated by the President, is proved by making a comparison of the outstanding and deferred premiums to the total premium income."

It will be found that in the North American the percentage is the lowest, namely, 18, while the highest is 32.15. This company closes its books promptly at December the 31st, discourages its agents from forcing business at the close of the year, and is entirely opposed to the improper practice of keeping open its books for business after the close of the year, as it is reported some companies are in the habit of doing.

Mr. Galley's report on the Company's loans and real estate was submitted.

The report showed that from an examination of the Loan Ledger he found the interest well paid, and that it was the exception to find a loan with interest in arrear, indicating that great care had been exercised in making loans and in subsequently looking after them.

The real estate he considered one of the Company's best assets, and when disposed of would certainly realize a handsome profit, it having been taken into account at very low cost. As the properties were dringing a good return it was recommended to retain them, as no better investment could be secured at the present time.

As one of the Company's oldest policyholders, he congratulated his fellow members on its great success and the satisfaction it had afforded to the holders of its investment policies by the handsome dividends paid them.

James Thorburn, M.D., Medical Director, presented a full and interesting report of the mortality experience of the Company from its organization, which illustrated fully the care which had been exercised in the selection of the Company's business.

After the usual votes of thanks had been passed the election of directors took place, after which the newly-elected Board met, and Mr. John L. Blaikie was unanimously elected President, and the Hon. G. W. Allan and Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q. C., Vice-Presidents.

JACK THE RIPPER OUTDONE.

Woman Killed and the Body Jammed Under the Seat of a Railway Car in London.

London, Feb. 14.—Nothing since the "Jack the Ripper" murders has so aroused London and all England as the tragedy in a suburban train on the Southwestern Railway on Thursday evening. The train from Hounslow reached the London terminus at 8.36 o'clock. After the passengers left, a car cleaner, inspecting the carriages, found the mutilated body of a young woman partially concealed beneath a seat in a second-class compartment. The body, which was still warm, was dragged out with difficulty, for the upper part of the body had been forced under the seat with great violence. It was found that the skull had been crushed in by a couple of heavy blows. There was evidence of a severe struggle before the victim succumbed. There was no trace whatever of the murderer.

The most astonishing feature of the crime was the fact that the train's longest run between stations was only five minutes, and nobody had seen or heard anything to excite suspicion. The young woman was immediately identified by her fiance, who was waiting at the station to meet her. She was Miss Elizabeth Kemp, who was manager of a small hotel at Walworth. She had been spending the afternoon with relatives in the Hounslow suburban district, six or seven miles from the centre of the city. The fact which chiefly arouses public interest is that such a crime could be committed in a railway compartment within London itself and the perpetrator escape without exciting suspicion.

England still clings to the compartment system of railway travel for the very reason which cost this young woman her life. It is the object of every Englishman and woman to secure an unoccupied compartment, if possible, for a railway journey, long or short. The danger from thieves, ruffians and maniacs is supposed to exist only on long runs. It is impossible thus far to assign even a motive for this tragedy.

Nothing has been found connected with the murderer except his weapon, which was a chemist's heavy pestle. This was discovered yesterday near the line at Putney, about three miles out. It was covered with blood and one or two hairs from the girl's head. The victim's clothing was badly torn and smeared with blood, but it is hardly possible that the murderer attempted an outrage, for, with the time at his disposal, it must have been necessary actually to kill the woman on leaving one station in order to crowd the body under the seat in time to leave the train at the next. It is not considered possible that the murderer remained in the car while the train stopped at any way station, for passengers were likely to enter at any moment.

It is not known positively whether robbery was committed, for, although the woman's purse was empty near the body, and no valuables were found in her pocket, her diamond brooch remained fastened at her throat. It is supposed she had quite a sum of money, but this is only conjecture. The police thus far are quite nonplussed, although they are actively following a variety of clues connecting passengers who left the train at way stations with the crime. One theory is that an escaped female lunatic from Putney killed the girl.

"Bacteria do not accur in the blood or in the tissues of a healthy living body, either of man or the lower animals." So says the celebrated Dr. Koch. Other doctors say that the best medicine to render the blood perfectly pure and healthy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Arbitration Treaty Not Likely to be Ratified

BY THE PRESENT U. S. CONGRESS

Senator Sherman Finds Very Strong Obstruction From His Colleagues—Apparent Desire to Se Amend the Treaty That Britain Cannot Accept It.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The meeting of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations this morning made it apparent that no agreement could be reached on the general treaty or arbitration with Great Britain that would bring the contending factions either in committees or in the Senate together. While Mr. Sherman was not told so in exact words, the inference to be drawn from what Mr. Morgan, Mr. Daniel and Mr. Cameron said, was that under no circumstances could this treaty be ratified at the present session of the Senate. It is believed that with the executive session of the afternoon, Mr. Sherman will cease to press the consideration of the convention objections aimed at the treaty by Mr. Morgan and others to the effect that the submission of all subjects to arbitration under the treaty as now worded would be left entirely to the President. If it is amended as submitted by the committee's action of this morning, only such matters as have been agreed to by the full treaty making power of the United States, the President and the Senate acting jointly can be submitted to arbitration.

The power to negotiate and conclude treaties in Great Britain is lodged entirely in the Crown and is exercised for the Crown by the Premier. There has been no suggestion that the British treaty making power has been changed by the terms of this treaty and Mr. Turpie's contention was that in like manner the full treaty making power of the United States was to sit in judgment upon all subjects that were sought to be taken before this high tribunal of arbitration.

The Senate did not agreed with Mr. Turpie in his interpretation, but found the easiest way to a possible solution of the problem confronting it in giving expression to that interpretation in the text of the convention. With such an amendment the treaty is safeguarded absolutely and the friends of the instrument say there should not be a dissenting vote in ratifying it, for the reason that every question would then come up before the existing Senate as an original proposition.

The action of the committee in adopting the amendment did not bring about harmony. On the contrary the more the whole subject was discussed the more evident it became that the differences were irreconcilable. Messrs. Morgan, Daniel, Mills and Cameron refused to consider the treaty in a favorable light even after they had voted for the amendment.

They opposed the convention on general grounds and said it was impossible for them to believe that the country would be benefited by its ratification at the present time at least. They refused to listen to the pleading of Mr. Sherman and his associates and declined to even admit that the amendment had accomplished what had been sought.

The committee adjourned with the majority feeling anything but comfortable over the outlook. Mr. Sherman notified his colleagues that he should move an executive session early in the day for the purpose of testing the sense of the Senate, and intimated, as he did on the floor last evening, that if there was no possibility of a speedy vote he would not further press the consideration of the treaty.

Mr. Sherman made his demand for an executive session a few minutes after the Senate convened, refusing to yield to anything but the mere routine of morning business. Early in the session Senator Chandler offered an amendment to the convention in the shape of an additional article which is, in fact, a declaration. It states that both the contracting parties in making this treaty do it for the purpose of enunciating their belief in the principle of international arbitration and to bring about if possible, the policy of a general disarmament among the nations. It is further declared that each of the contracting parties express their willingness and intention of making similar treaties with other nations including not only those that are strong and able to defend themselves and who have large military establishments, but also with the smaller families of nations, with whom differences similar to those covered by this treaty might arise.

Mr. Perkins (Rep., Cal.), introduced a joint resolution, which was passed, authorising the secretary of the navy to place at the disposal of the Chamber of Commerce at San Francisco any suitable United States ship or vessel for the purpose of transporting to the famishing poor of India contributions of wheat or corn or to charter a suitable American steamship with a cargo capacity of from 1500 to 2000 tons and making the necessary appropriation therefor.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Satisfactory assurances have been received from Caracas that the Venezuelan boundary treaty will be promptly ratified.

He Failed in Health and Strength—His Kidneys Ached and he Took Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Deseronto, Feb. 8. — (Special). — Among business people here, and especially by his fellow-workmen, great interest has been taken in the case of Mr. James Stokes, who for the past fifteen years has been shipper for the Rathbun Company.

Lately he has run down in health and strength to the point of being compelled to quit work, and his recovery now as the result of using Dodd's Kidney Pills is the talk of the town. On seeing Mr. Stokes he said:

"From overwhelding and strain I suffered greatly from Kidney trouble, being advised often all else had failed to use Dodd's Kidney Pills; from the first dose I got relief, and hundreds of people here can vouch for my cure."

ST. PAUL IN PORT.

The Fog-Bound American Liner Reaches Her Dock at Southampton.

Southampton, Feb. 12.—The American liner St. Paul from New York, Feb. 2, concerning the non-arrival of which at this port there was a great deal of anxiety, passed Hurst Castle at 8.35 o'clock this evening, and reached her dock about two hours' later. Capt. Jamieson told a representative of the United Associated Presses that for the first five days out from New York the weather was the severest he had ever known. Throughout the five days there was a succession of terrific northeast gales, accompanied by a very heavy sea. During the last 36 hours there was an extremely dense fog. From longitude 31 west the weather conditions were such that it was impossible to take an observation and the steamer was therefore navigated by dead reckoning.

The St. Paul arrived in the channel at 6 o'clock last night and was fog-bound until late this afternoon. She was compelled to run at half speed for almost the entire passage. Her best daily run was 453 miles and her worst 270.

The St. Paul spoke the North German Lloyd steamer Trave on Feb. 8. 1500 miles from New York. It is expected that the Trave will arrive here tomorrow.

It is no wonder that rubbers, which are not the same shape as the boot, should be uncomfortable. It costs money to employ skilled pattern makers but the result is a satisfactory fit. Each year new patterns are added, to fit all the latest shoe-shapes, and Granby Rubbers are always "up-to-date." They are honestly made of pure rubber, thin, light, elastic, durable, extra thick at ball and heel.

Was Not Arrested.

A report has got about that Mr. James Telford, of Ashburnham, was arrested along with York for horse stealing. Mr. Telford has been working at Mr. Stewart's in Otonabee, and feels rather indignant in having his name associated in such transactions. Parties starting such reports should be very careful.

An Industrious Piano Man.

The Heintzman Piano Co. must be highly gratified with the excellent work accomplished by their energetic local representative, Mr. W. H. Green. Within the past week or ten days he states that he has sold and placed five of these high class instruments in the homes of citizens of the town of Peterborough and vicinity.

Crusade Against Wire Fences.

A crusade is being inaugurated in the County of York against wire fences on the grounds that they are injurious to the roads when snow flies. Their opponents say that they offer no obstacle to the snow, which drifts and forms mounds opposite every length of fence. Where a wire fence is next to a board or snake fence this drift becomes dangerous, because one fence holds back the snow and the other does not.

A Musical Kindergarten.

Besides receiving pupils in Voice Culture, Piano and Theory, Mrs. Klingenfeld, of Toronto, will start a MUSICAL KINDERGARTEN, in which children from 3 years upwards can be taught by the most approved methods, a thorough knowledge of the Rudiments of Music, and be prepared at an early age for a musical education. These classes will be formed at once, and will cost $3 per term. For further particulars apply to Mrs. Seward, 340 Water street. 2md24

THE PETERBOROUGH'S FIRST DEFAULT.

The Hockey Team Decides Not to go to Kingston.

Although a big crowd of hockey enthusiasts had made arrangements to accompany the hockey team to Kingston to witness the "play off" with Queens, the excursion, for some reason, was suddenly cancelled and the team defaulted to Queens, although the local seven had an advantage of one point in the series up to date.

This is the first time that the Peterboroughs have ever defaulted a game since being organized as a club, and it is the first time that ground has been given for the taunt to be flung in the faces of the members of being "quitters."

All the players seemed anxious enough to go when seen during the day and, therefore, although they will naturally have to bear the onus of the default, they are not in reality responsible for it and the management owes an explanation to the public regarding the matter.

It is said that Ashe, of Norwood, found it impossible to get away, but when the Peterboroughs held the championship, they did not have to depend on outside material to win their matches for them.

President Kanner, of the club, is in the proud position of being able to say, "I told you so," as at the annual meeting he was the only member, who advised against the Peterboroughs putting three teams in the field. If his advice had been followed there is not a doubt but that two championships would have come to town this year, but as it is Peterborough is left completely out in the cold, having lost the last chance through their unaccountable default to Queen's to-day.

A number of the best players have become disheartened through the turn which affairs have taken and this will be their last season on the ice.

A GREAT BLOWER.

The Edison Works Whistle Takes the Cake, Apparently.

The friends of the Gilmour whistle, at Trenton, remarks the Toronto Saturday Night must search for the best evidence available, or the Peterborough whistle will carry off the bun. A reliable Peterborough correspondent writes as follows:

Queer Columns.

Your last two issues have contained references to the loudest steam whistle in Ontario. When Peterborough turns on her diapason the penny whistles instanced are figuratively nowhere. The steam whistle of the Canadian General Electric Company regulates the clocks in half a dozen surrounding villages at a distance of ten or fifteen miles. Residents of Cobourg, at least twenty-five miles distant as the crow flies, assert that when the wind sets fair, they can hear the roar of the Electric Works whistle in that town. These statements are no blow—the Electric Works whistle monopolizes that department.

Yours, etc.,
FOG HORN.

Peterborough, Feb. 12, '97.

The whistle of the Mount Forest furniture factory is also credited with a record of eleven miles, and the bells of St. Paul's church, Cedarville, were heard ten miles away last Sunday.

FORESTERS' MEETING.

Important Meeting of the Members of the Canadian Order of Foresters.

A joint meeting in the interests of the different local Courts of the Canadian Order of Foresters is to be held in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, on Monday evening, February 15th, for the purpose of taking into consideration the notices of motion to be submitted at the annual meeting of the High Court, which commences February 23rd inst. The members of all the Courts in the town and country districts are requested to attend and take part in the proceedings. Meeting commences at 8 o'clock sharp.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Harry McKeown has again returned to town.

Venerable Archdeacon Casey is suffering from a severe attack of la grippe.

Miss Brown, of Roseneath, is visiting her brother, Dr. Brown, for a week or so.

Miss Boyd has been visiting for the last week at the residence of Mr. Wm. McKeown, Fenelon Falls.

Mr. Lionel King returns to-morrow to Ann Arbor University, Michigan, to resume his studies.

Miss Kempt, daughter of Dr. Kemp, George and Murray streets, is visiting Mrs. Magachan, of the Bank of Montreal, Lindsay.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor was in Ennismore yesterday, attending the services in St. Martin's church, where he blessed some new statuary which has been purchased.

A Roseneath correspondent writes:—"Dr. and Mrs. Brown of Peterborough, made a short visit to their home here recently. The doctor's many friends note with appreciation that he is one of the leading physicians of that enterprising city of medical men, and all wish him still greater success.

Condition of the Roads.

The farmers are complaining about the roads, there being not much sleighing and much less wheeling. If the present mild weather continues the sleighing will be gone entirely and the roads will be in a very bad state for traffic. The farmers around Port Hope and Cobourg say they would not mind it so much only they must come to town, as no place else can they get such value in tea, flour or canned goods as E. BROWN & Co.'s, 304 George street, Wholesale and Retail Grocers.

MARRIED IN HAVELOCK.

Celebration of the Crossin-Wright Nuptials on Wednesday.

A pleasing event took place on Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. C. H. Brewster, Havelock, being the marriage of Miss Julia, daughter of Mr. S. Crossin, of Havelock, to Mr. John Wright of Haldimand.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends of each of the contracting parties, by the Rev. H. McQuade, after which all sat down to a bountiful spread, and the newly-wedded couple afterwards left for their future home in Haldimand.

The bride was the recipient of a number of beautiful presents, among which was a costly gold watch and chain, being the gift of the groom, as well as a beautiful new piano, which awaits her at her new home. Mr. James Brewster, of Haldimand, assisted the groom, and Miss Florence, sister of the bride, did the honours on the other side.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Rink Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

The hockey seven from Mr. McKenzie's school, Lakefield, came to town Saturday and in a game with the local colts team succeed in winning by the score of four goals to three. The teams were composed as follows:

Peterborough.		Lakefield.
Routley	goal	Dunn
Graham	point	M Strickland
Hallahan	cover point	S Strickland
McBain, Bradburn, Armstrong, McDonald	forwards	Kane, Hutchings, Bloomfield, Strickland
H King	umpire	Mr McKenzie

H Armstrong—Referee.

Graham, McBain and Bradburn put up a fine game for the home team, whilst for the visitors J. Strickland, Blomfield and Hutchings were the stars. Hallahan did not put up his usual good game, leaving the defense too open through endeavouring to rush goals out from his position at coverpoint.

The boys from St. Luke's church Brigade won at hockey on Saturday afternoon, from the Boys' Brigade of St. John's, by the score of 2 goals to 1. The teams were composed as follows:

St. Luke's.		St. John's.
B Hamilton	goal	C Sawers
F Burnham	point	F Roy
F Glover	cover point	H VanEvery
A Benton, E Dormer, Gordon Logan, S Tivey	forwards	A Brundreth, B Cranfield, B Sawyers, W Hutchinson

M Boswell—Referee.

CURLIANA.

In a Kendry Cup match, held last Saturday evening, Skip R. S. Davidson's rink won from that of Skip D. W. Dumble by the score of 16—10.

At a meeting of the Granites on Saturday evening last Messrs. R. B. Edwards and T. P. Attrill were selected to skip the two Granite rinks which go to Lindsay to-morrow to play in the Dryden Cup competition. Skips R. H. Kells and J. B. Pentland look after the interests of the Thistles with their respective rinks.

Peterborough has been invited to participate in a bonspell at Cobourg on the 23rd, 24th and 25th of this month.

THE WHEEL.

The railway men say:—"A train pulls up to a depot and finds fifty bicycle riders there with their wheels. If we are to take these riders and their wheels on it will crowd our baggage cars. We must charge for the wheels to pay for increased baggage cars." We wonder what the railways would do if business in every line boomed and there was probability of a train finding fifty commercial travellers at a depot, to take on board? Would they start to collect 25 cents per trunk or quietly send out a few more baggage cars and smile over the fact that biz was booming?

THE TURF.

It is said that a Peterborough sport cleared $1000 in betting on the local pacer "Henderson," at the Ottawa ice races, where he was a 20 to 1 shot. Having no mark he could enter a three minute class race and could reel off a mile, without turning a hair, in 2.16.

Little Hector, of Lindsay, won the 2.30 trot at Ottawa, Saturday, taking the last three heats after two had been trotted.

BILLIARDS.

George Sutton, the Canadian billiardist, formerly of town, has broken the short-stop record. In a 14-inch balk-line game last week at Chicago, after missing the first two shots, he ran 200 the game. He made 345 points before missing.

DEATH OF MRS. M. LOWES

At the Residence of her Mother, Mrs. Wm. McBain.

The death of Mrs. Wm. Lowes, of Springville, took place yesterday morning at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Wm. McBain, corner of King and Stewart streets.

Mrs. Lowes has been ill with an affection of the brain since last September, when she came to town and took up her residence with her mother in order to be directly under her physician's care. She, however, continued to gradually grow worse and a week ago the malady assumed so serious a complexion as to convince her relations that there was no hope for her recovery.

The deceased was the eldest daughter of the late Wm. McBain and was born in the township of Cavan, near Springville, in 1848. She was married in 1875 to Mr. William Lowes and removed to Ida, where they resided until two years ago, when the family took up their residence in Springville. Besides her husband, the deceased leaves six children to mourn her death, viz: Joseph and George, of the Canadian General Electric Works, and Ernest, Percy, Bertha and Clara, who reside at the homestead. The brothers and sisters of Mrs. Lowes are Mr. J. J. McBain and Miss Jennie McBain, of Peterborough, and Messrs. W. H. and George McBain, of California.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Wm. McBain, King and Stewart streets, on Tuesday, at 2.30 o'clock, to the Little Lake Cemetery. The funeral ceremony will be performed by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., of the George street Methodist church.
